2 Boys Shot, Traffic Officer Jailed

FOR CLASSIFIED ADS PHONE
GRANT 5400

Weather—Fair and continued cool tonight; Tuesday fair and warmer.

Only Pittsburgh Newspaper Printing International News Service Dispatches

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

VOL. 9—NO. 37 22 PAGES MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1931 THREE CENTS

FINAL COMPLETE

Fake Registrations Bared in Squirrel Hill

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

SHOOT UP ARMSTRONG OFFICE

Complete Box Score

MORNING GAME.

		R.	H.	E.
Cinn.	100000000—	1	10	4
Pitts.	11002200•—	6	11	1

CINCINNATI	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Douthit, m	4	0	1	2	0	0
Crabtree, r	4	0	1	2	0	0
Stripp, 3	4	1	1	1	2	0
Hendrick, 1	4	0	1	10	1	0
Cuccinello, 2	4	0	0	2	4	1
Cullop, lf	3	0	1	2	0	0
Durocher, s	4	0	2	2	5	1
Styles, c	4	0	2	2	0	2
Carroll, p	2	0	1	1	1	0
Beck	1	0	0	0	0	0
Kolp, p	0	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	1	10	24	13	4

PITTSBURGH	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
L. Waner, m	4	0	2	1	0	0
Jensen, lf	5	2	2	4	0	0
Grantham, 1	3	1	0	9	0	0
Traynor, 3	4	0	2	0	3	1
P. Waner, r	3	0	0	2	0	0
Piet, 2	4	1	1	6	4	0
Thevenow, s	2	2	2	1	3	0
Sankey, s	0	0	0	2	1	0
Phillips, c	4	0	2	2	2	0
French, p	4	0	0	0	3	0
Totals	33	6	11	27	16	1

Beck batted for Styles in seventh.

TWO-BASE HITS

L. Waner

HOME RUNS

Jensen

STOLEN BASES

Jensen

DOUBLE PLAYS

Traynor-Piet-Grantham.
Hendrick-Durocher-Hendrick.
Durocher-Cuccinello-Hendrick.
Piet-Thevenow-Grantham.
Cuccinello-Durocher-Hendrick.

BASE ON BALLS

OFF CARROLL—
P. Waner, Thevenow
Grantham, L. Waner
OFF FRENCH—
Cullop
OFF KOLP—
Sankey

STRUCK OUT

BY FRENCH—
Hendrick, Cullop
BY CARROLL—
P. Waner
BY KOLP—
Piet

HIT BY PITCHER

BY CARROLL—
Grantham

WILD PITCHES

Carroll

UMPIRES

Reardon, Moran and McGrew.

ATTENDANCE

5,000

(Game in detail in sports section.)

Today

Russia and Our Hysteria.
158,000 to 26,000,000.
Stalin's Sound Advice.
He Does Not Divide.

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE—

RUSSIA'S GOVERNMENT is alleged to have sent out documents in six languages appealing to backward people to "throw off their chains," adopt communist theories, and be happy evermore.

It would be wise to make sure, first, that Russia, herself, is really happy, and fully prosperous, before "going communist." Let the doctor try his own medicine, thoroughly.

A BUSINESSMAN returning from Chile, where revolutionists demand a soviet government, says Chileans appreciate private ownership and do not want any dividing plan.

Other nations, especially this with its flickering element of communism, should remember that with full success for her five-year plan Russia would be prosperous only as compared with old Russia, miserably poor compared with this, or any one of a dozen countries.

THE LIFE of Stalin, Russia's absolute ruler, written by Isaac Don Levine, published by Cosmopolitan Book Corporation, should be read by those that, having too little, think they would be happier in Russia, and those with too much, that talk nonsense about "Russia competing industrially with the United States, dumping goods here, etc."

If Stalin's five-year plan were successful, Russian industry, in 25 years, could not produce what Russia's 150,000,000 need.

IN RUSSIA, potentially perhaps as rich as our own country, wealth amounts to about one cent for every dollar of American wealth.

And, for example, with the five-year plan successful, Russia would have 150,000 automobiles.

WE HAVE 26,000,000 AUTOMOBILES RUNNING IN THE UNITED STATES NOW.

There is something to be said for our system of private initiative and industrial competition.

One hundred and fifty-eight thousand automobiles for 150,000,000 Russians, as against 26,000,000 automobiles for 123,000,000 Americans, leaves a balance on our side. It is not likely that Russia will dump AUTOMOBILES here for some time to come.

And what is true of automobiles is true of other products.

OUR STAND-PAT "capitalism," to use a Soviet word for our government, is as ignorant of Russian affairs as Russia is of ours.

Russians are told and actually believe that we now admit the failure of our industrial system, and want to go back from machines to hand labor.

KAGANOVITCH, SPOKESMAN for his chief, Stalin, told the "Young Communist League of the Soviet Union," in the presence of Stalin himself:

"In America things have come to such a pass they are prepared to lay aside hoisting cranes and other machines in order to employ more hands. We Russians, on the other hand, want to erect new works for constructing cranes and other means of transport.

"In America, they no longer wish to have shorthand typ-

(Continued on Page Eight, Col. Two.)

TRAFFIC POLICEMAN HELD IN SHOOTING OF TWO BOYS

Two boys returning from a picnic of the Lithuanian Society of Woods Run in Mt. Nebo road, Kilbuck Township, were shot by a city traffic officer when they raided his orchard near the picnic grounds Sunday night, according to county detectives.

Tony Stapinskey, 13, of 1439 Juniata street, was shot in the back, and Leo Petroulius, 14, of 822 Beaver avenue, was shot in the left arm. Both were taken by companions to Suburban General Hospital where their condition is reported good.

John D. McPherson, city policeman, was arrested by County Detective Philip Goldberg and taken before Chief of County Detectives George W. Murren, who set bail at $5,000. It was stated at Murren's office a charge of felonious shooting would be authorized before an alderman but McPherson was held temporarily on a district attorney's detainer to await the outcome of the boys' injuries.

McPherson told detectives he fired in the air to frighten the boys and had no intention of hitting them.

McPherson, who owns the picnic grounds adjoining his home, said he frequently had been annoyed by picnickers. He said he chased the boys out of the orchard and they threw stones at him. The boys ran down the road and climbed into a truck with companions, shouting that they had been shot.

McPherson declared he did not fire directly at them.

BUCCOS SEEK SIXTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

By CHARLES J. DOYLE

FORBES FIELD, Sept. 7.—The Pittsburgh Pirates went after their sixth straight victory this afternoon as they met the Cincinnati Reds in the second contest of their Labor Day program.

Heinie Meine was due to hurl for the Pirates, while Eppa Rixey is slated to pitch for the Reds.

Tommy Thevenow, Pirate shortstop, injured in sliding into home plate in the six inning of the morning game, was taken to St. John's Hospital to have X-ray photos taken of the injury. He may be lost for the rest of the season. The Pirates won the morning contest, 6 to 1.

FRAME FAVORITE IN ALTOONA RACE

By JESS CARVER
Staff Correspondent

ALTOONA SPEEDWAY, ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 7.—A warm sun beat down on this automobile racing oval this afternoon as a large crowd gathered for the final speed program of the year.

Lou Moore, bidding for the winner's points that would give him the national championship, was one of the favorites in the 100-mile feature, although Freddie Frame, second to Louie Schneider at Indianapolis, was the general choice to cop.

Two 25-mile races preceded the big race.

Other drivers included Jimmy Gleason, Wilbur Shaw, Shorty Cantlon, Paul Bost, Zeke Meyer, Deacon Litz, Chester Miller, Bill Cummings, Sam Ross, Bill Denver, Milton Jones and Al Asten.

HONOR TAX BARTER DENIED BY WALKER

CANNES, France, Sept. 7.—(INS.)—Mayor James J. Walker, arriving here for a week's rest before returning to New York, indignantly denied today that there was any taint of barter attached to the decoration which the French government conferred upon him last week.

Advised that the Hofstadter legislative committee of New York is considering an investigation of the New York Board of Estimate's cancellation of $415,490 unpaid taxes owed by a French government subsidiary corporation, and that this cancellation had been linked by a New York newspaper with the decoration conferred on Mayor Walker, the Mayor reported that any such insinuation was "absolutely calumnious." He said:

"In the first place, I don't consider that the order of Commander of the Legion of Honor was awarded to me personally, but as a representative of the city of New York."

LINDY FINDS QUAKE 'QUEER SENSATION'

TOKIO, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh finds an earthquake a "rather odd, queer sensation."

The flier and Mrs. Lindbergh, in Japan on an aerial vacation tour, were awakened at 5:35 a. m. today by the jolt of a quake, which manifested itself in the rattling of window pane and the creaking of timbers. Later Lindbergh asked:

"It wasn't a bad one, was it? Anyway I calculated no damage had been done so I went back to sleep."

The quake caused only slight damage. It was of the horizontal type.

Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh returned to Tokio yesterday after having spent several days at Karuizawa and later going to Nikko. They expect to visit cities in Southern Japan this week and fly later to China.

American Association

MORNING GAME.

At St. Paul—		R.	H.	E.
Minne	001110010—	4	9	0
St. Pl	03000030X—	6	9	0

Batteries—Hensick, Walsh and Hargrave; Harris, Brillheart and Fenner.

New York-Penn League

MORNING GAME.

At Williamsport—		R.	H.	E.
Haz'n	—	9	14	0
Wil'pt	—	1	6	5

Batteries—Wilson and Finney; Brown, Dacus, Carter and Johnson.

SISTER OF VICTIM ACCUSES POWERS

Bluebeard Suspect Calm Despite Withering "That's the Man!"

DEPUTY ANDREW MOORE SHERIFF W. GRIMM

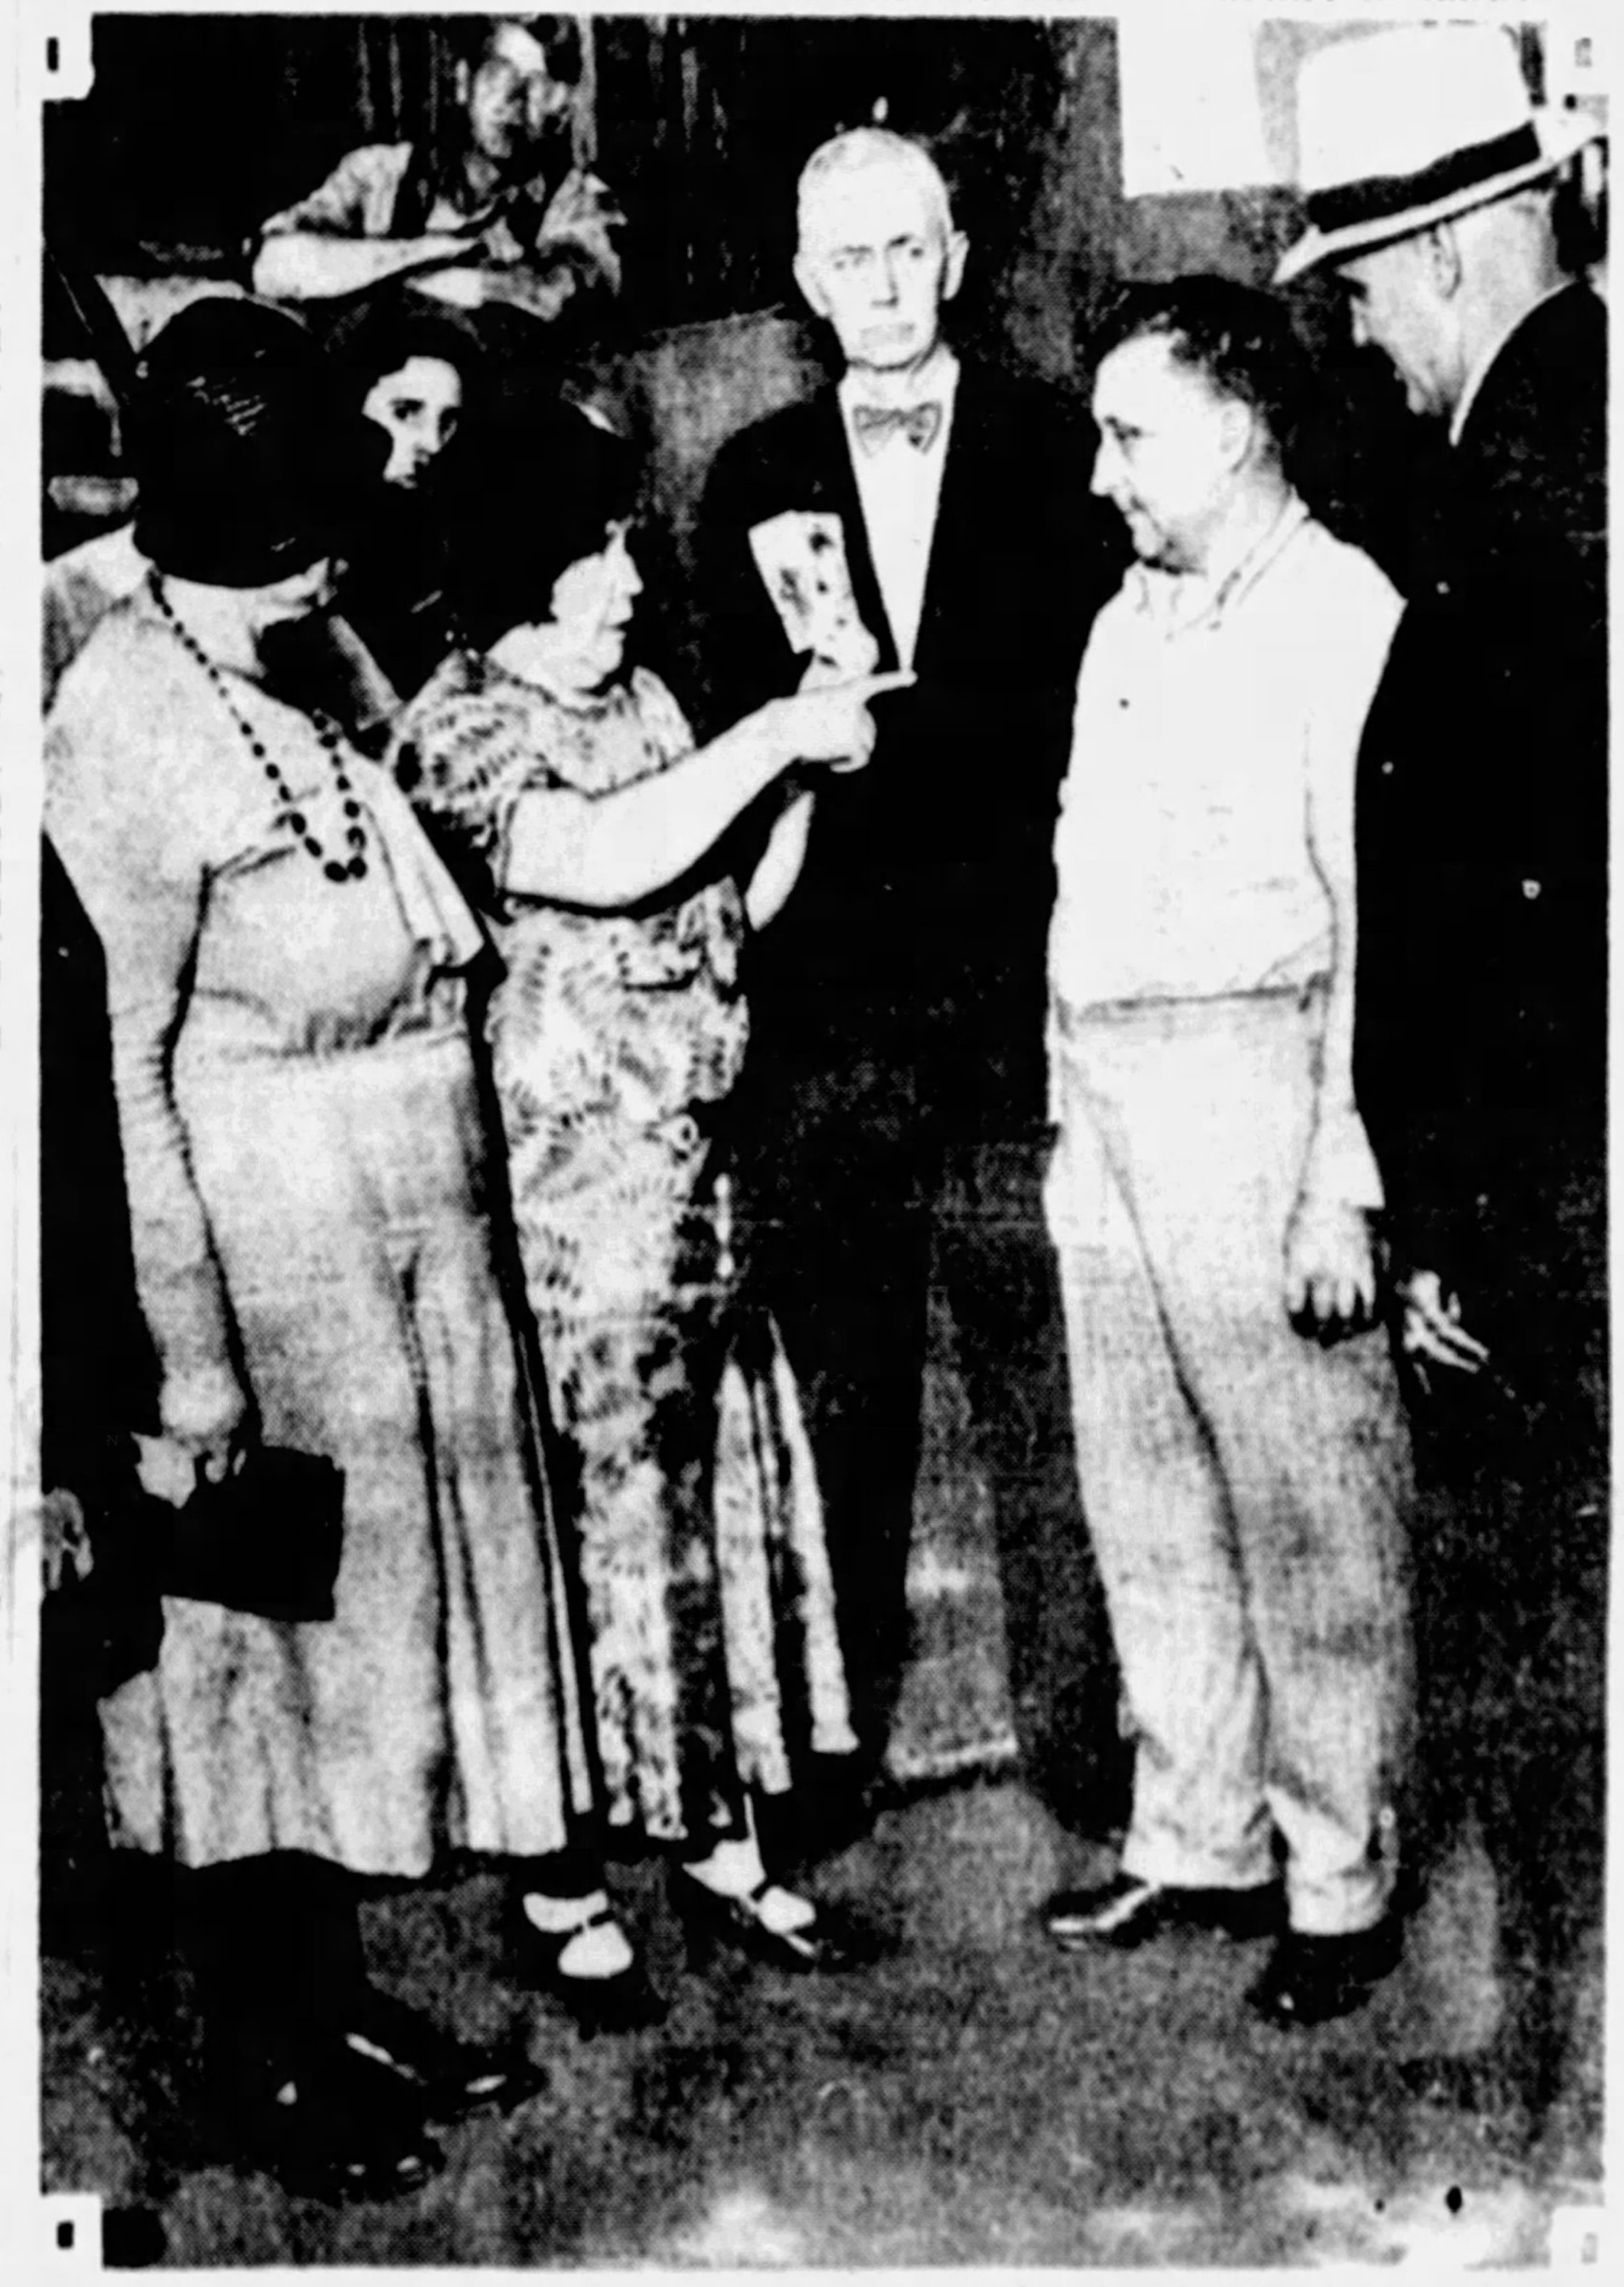

Photo Copyright 1931 by International Newsreel

MRS. ANNA ROSE MRS. CHARLES FLEMING HARRY F. POWERS

MRS. FLEMING POINTS TO 'LOVE FARM' OWNER AS SLAYER OF SISTER, MRS. D. P. LEMKE

Baseball Scores

National League

MORNING GAME.

At Chicago—		R.	H.	E.
St. L.	000000100—	1	8	0
Chic.	000000000—	0	8	1

Batteries—Derringer and Mancuso; Smith and Hartnett.

FIRST GAME.

At New York—		R.	H.	E.
Phila.	000	—
N. Y.	001	—

Batteries—Watt and Davis; Hubbell and Hogan.

FIRST GAME.

At Brooklyn—		R.	H.	E.
Bost.	00	—
Bklyn.	00	—

Batteries—Brandt and Spohrer; Clark and Lopez.

American League

MORNING GAME.

At Philadelphia—		R.	H.	E.
N. Y.	812210001—	15	16	0
Phila.	000002001—	3	9	3

Batteries—Andrews and Dickey; Mahaffey, McDonald, Peterson, Rommel and Heving.

FIRST GAME.

At Boston—		R.	H.	E.
Wash.	321	—
Bost.	001	—

Batteries—Burke and Spencer; Durham, Lisenbee and Berry.

FIRST GAME.

At Detroit—		R.	H.	E.
St. L.	00	—
Det.	01	—

Batteries—Coffman and Bengough; Uhle and Ruel.

LINK PITTSBURGHER IN BLUEBEARD CASE

By AL GOUGH
Staff Correspondent

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 7.—As digging around the home of Harry F. Powers, confessed killer of two women and three children trapped in his matrimonial bureau racketeering activities, today failed to reveal further victims police turned their attention to the possibility of the existence of a "Rogers" as the name re-entered the case.

A missing Pittsburgher Charles Rogers has been named as a possible accomplice of the West Virginia 'Bluebeard,' according to the police. A tip from a Pittsburgher visiting here has caused the first credence to be given Powers' statements.

Digging around the Powers home and garage at Broad Oaks was prompted through an odor pervading the lower floors. This was found to be caused by the sewering. Police were satisfied if Powers had other victims, they were not buried there.

Police were told that a Charles Rogers, former educator in the Pittsburgh who later became involved in a questionable Oklahoma oil stock sales, disappeared from that city several months ago. Police point out Powers and

(Continued on Page Two, Col. Eight.)

SHORT HOURS URGED IN LABOR DAY TALK

A six-hour day and a five-day week were advocated by Patrick T. Fagan, president of District No. 5, United Mine Workers, in his Labor Day address at the Central Labor Union picnic, West View Park, today.

He said:

"I believe the shorter work week will give more men a share in the emoluments of a mechanized industrial nation, enhance their general well being and promote a return of American prosperity."

Fagan also urged that voters exercise their right of franchise.

Other speakers included John P. Phillips, president of the State Federation of Labor; Philip Murray, international vice president, United Mine Workers, and E. C. Davison, general secretary, International Association of Machinists.

As industry ceased and business houses were closed, Labor Day was celebrated throughout the country with community gatherings, athletic sports and varied entertainment.

Brentwood celebrated its fiftieth anniversary as a borough with a program sponsored by the women's clubs. Baby and pajama parade contests were features.

Winners in the baby contest were: Twins, Vincent and Richard Tyman, 6-month-old sons of Vincent P. Tyman, 3025 Pyramid street; Jean and Walter Cowan, 5 years, children of A. W. Cowan, 3908 Brownsville road, best babies other than twins; Rose Marie Muehlbauer, 2 years 8 months, daughter of John Muehlbauer, 82 Bethesda street; Billy Hayes, 1, son of Thomas Hayes, 134 East Francis street; winners of pajama contest, Bernice Joubert, 12, of 137 Owendale street; Emily Jane Morgan, 13, of 169 Wiegate street, and Martha Bakos, 3, of 4 Cowan road.

Celebrations also were held in Crafton Heights, Beechview and Bridgeville.

ONE DYING IN GANG RAID ON OAKLAND HEADQUARTERS

Roaring guns and flying fists and clubs inaugurated the final week of the political campaigns as eight armed men raided the Oakland headquarters of County Commissioner Joseph G. Armstrong early today.

As a result one man is in West Penn Hospital, believed to be dying, one other was slugged with a revolver butt and three others are under arrest.

The man in the hospital is Walter Goliat, 30, of 2530 Smallman street, a follower of State Senator James J. Coyne's Second Ward supporters, who was released under $26,000 bond Saturday night on charges growing out of registration disorders in the "Strip" Thursday.

IDENTIFIED BY FOE

Goliat was identified at the hospital, police say, by William McGraw, 22, of 237 Romeo street, one of the headquarters' defenders, as one of the four men who entered the place with drawn revolvers, slugged one man with a gun butt, terrorized five others by firing their guns into the walls and windows and then escaped with four companions in a waiting car as, according to McGraw, a "rookie" policeman stood in the street a few feet away.

McGraw fled from the headquarters during the attack and, armed with a pile of bricks, took a position at a second floor window overlooking the doorway.

When the raiders came out, he let go with his missiles. Afterwards he said:

"I hit one of them square on the head."

Goliat's condition was described as "extremely serious."

ARRESTS MADE

McGraw was placed under arrest at the hospital as was Goliat and the two men who took him there—Ben Manuel, 28, of 2525 Mulberry street, and Matt Cataino, 26, of 2515 Smallman street.

Police said they believed Manuel and Cataino, like Goliat, had been members of the raiding party.

All four were held on suspicious person charges.

The raid occurred shortly after midnight.

McGraw and Jerome Schultz, 21, of 3538 Frazier street, Armstrong

(Continued on Page Four, Col. Five.)

BARE SQUIRREL HILL FAKE REGISTRATIONS

Fraudulent registrations in the wealthy and independent First District of the Fourteenth Ward were revealed today. In all 18 false registrations have been checked in the ward, the Registration Board announced. Fake registrations in other wards and bogus tax receipts are being checked.

Two of the fake registrants used the address of Mrs. Kathryn McNally, member of the board.

When the fake registrations were discovered by Mrs. Rose Lecrone, 5341 Beeler street, chairman of the registration board of the district, the books were turned over to Investigator Peter Connors of the Registration Commission. One hundred and fifty-seven were registered on the first day in the district.

While Mrs. Kathryn McNally, of 1146 Wightman street, a member of the district board, was at lunch, men giving the names of Harold Jones and Isaac DeRoy registered from the McNally address. Mrs. McNally discovered the registration when checking later with Mrs. Lecrone.

MORE FRAUDS BARED

Later Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Layton, of 5394 Wilkins avenue, reported that Tony Lombardo and John Sullivan, who registered from that address, are unknown to them.

Mrs. McNally said:

"It's absurd. I have no lodgers. Of course, I would have caught them had I been present when the men entered."

Concerning the Lombardo registration, Mrs. Lecrone said:

"The trick would not have been discovered had it not been for the fact that both names begin with 'L.' When the Laytons came to register, Mrs. Layton noticed that Lombardo had

(Continued on Page Five, Col. One)

GIRL FINDS BOMB, PULLS OUT FUSE

Inquisitiveness of 11-year-old Lorma Horean, of 1317 Bluff street resulted today in her finding a "roll of candy" that became a stick of dynamite following an apparent attempt to bomb the home of Popio Chiocchetti, 700 Magee street.

The dynamite with a foot-long extinguished fuse was found on the Vickroy street windowledge of the Chiocchetti home. While Lorma was discovering the dynamite her mother, Mrs. Marie Horean, awakened from a dream in which the girl was playing with a lighted bomb.

Lorma was waiting for the return of her playmate, Della Chiocchetti, 9, when she saw what appeared to be a roll of candy. Standing on tiptoes, Lorma reached the dynamite while playmates urged they share in the candy. Nearby workmen told the children of the real contents. Chiocchetti, who gave the missive to police, said he had received no threats. Many burned matches were found on the ground under the window.

PICTURE ON PAGE 2

ZEPPELIN ENDS 9TH TRIP OVER ATLANTIC

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Sept. 7.—(INS.)—Completing her ninth successful transatlantic crossing the Graf Zeppelin returned to Friedrichshafen today, landing at 3:45 P. M. after an uneventful flight from Pernambuco, Brazil.

The dirigible left Pernambuco Friday at 1:40 a. m. (Pittsburgh time) and made the home voyage in a little more than 81 hours. On board were 13 passengers, freight and a large amount of mail.

Upon the arrival of his ship at Pernambuco from Friedrichshafen last Wednesday Dr. Eckener said that he would turn back towards Germany the following day, but minor motor trouble held him up until Friday.

The Graf, according to Dr. Eckener's plans, will make another round trip to Pernambuco late this month and still another in October. The flight just completed was the dirigible's two hundred and seventeenth.

U. S. MOBILIZING GREATEST RELIEF DRIVE IN HISTORY

NATION UNITED IN EFFORTS TO AID JOBLESS

Groups Organizing to Raise Millions; Federal Building To Supply 100,000 Jobs

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Labor day finds the nation mobilizing the greatest relief funds in history to prevent unemployment distress during the coming winter.

States, counties and cities are organizing relief committees and [illegible] to raise millions [illegible] taxation and [illegible]

On[illegible] plans [illegible] relief [illegible] cate [illegible] into the [illegible] dollars.

New [illegible] leading [illegible] among the states. San [illegible] New York, Detroit, Seattle and Salt Lake City among [illegible]

A $20,000,000 [illegible] has been proposed to the New York Legislature [illegible] Roosevelt [illegible] be raised [illegible] in income [illegible]

California [illegible] a $[illegible],000,000 [illegible] issues and [illegible] increased [illegible] tax.

Bankers [illegible] New York City are raising a [illegible] fund [illegible] the city [illegible] expected to provide from $[illegible] to $20,000,000.

San Francisco plans a fund of $4,500,000 [illegible] relief purposes. Seattle [illegible] $[illegible],000,000 [illegible] the [illegible] Detroit is raising $10,000,000 [illegible] $1,000,000 has been given by Senator Couzens (Rep., Mich.).

President Hoover's relief organization will be unable to provide a complete picture of the situation until [illegible] reports of [illegible] now being [illegible] by national welfare groups.

The nation-wide appeal for funds through [illegible] organizations will be [illegible] from October 19 to November [illegible]

President Hoover estimated that 100,000 men will be employed directly and indirectly in the construction of federal buildings on January 1.

Summarizing the progress of the public buildings program, the President said more work was done in August than during any previous year up to 1927.

On September 1, the President said, 118 buildings had been completed at a total cost of $39,869,869, 229 were under construction at an estimated total cost of $181,393,100 and 486 projects estimated to cost $247,6[illegible] were in various stages approaching construction.

Mr. Hoover said:

"It is estimated that the number of men now directly and indirectly employed on this program is 39,000. It is estimated that the number that will be directly and indirectly employed on January 1 is 100,000."

Bus on Test Drive Crashes Into Pole

An unoccupied Greyhound bus driven by Alex Mitchell, 24, of 806 Woods Run avenue, a testing driver, skidded on wet roadway in California avenue near Island avenue today and crashed into a light pole, police reported. The rear end of the bus was smashed and the pole damaged. Mitchell was arrested.

Budapest Police Rout Reds, 20 Hurt

BUDAPEST, Sept. 7.—(INS)—Twenty persons were injured when police dispersed a crowd of rioting Communists staging an unemployment demonstration.

The demonstrators went through the streets smashing windows of tramcars and invading restaurants. Fifteen alleged ringleaders were arrested.

Seven Get Fines As Rail Scalpers

Seven men arrested yesterday for scalping railroad excursion tickets in the vicinity of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad station yesterday were fined amounts from $10 [illegible] by Magistrate Thomas D. [illegible] in Central Police Court today. Three failed to appear and forfeited $25 each.

Sports, Parades, Picnic Feature Holiday

ALL DAY

Pittsburgh [illegible] Labor Union [illegible] Park. Brentwood Borough Fifteenth Anniversary.

AFTERNOON

Crafton Heights—Field meet, baseball, [illegible] Field. Bridgeville—[illegible] program of sports, [illegible] battles and other features.

EVENING

Crafton Heights—7 p.m. Band concert, [illegible] Playground.

Beechview—[illegible]

Beechview—[illegible] Street dance. Brentwood—[illegible] field [illegible]

Brentwood—Dancing.

Crafton Heights—9:30 p.m. [illegible] Pageant [illegible]

Bridgeville—Fireworks.

MAJOR SPORTS

Pittsburgh Pirates vs. Cincinnati Reds, two games, 10:30 a.m. and 3.

(See Sports section for other events.)

THE RISING TIDE -:- By Quin Hall

PRIMARIES
CLEAN GOVERNMENT
BUT WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT?
HE'S ONE OF OUR BEST WORKERS'
MACHINE POLITICS CORRUPTION

DOAK PREDICTS REVIVAL

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Sept. 7.—(AP)—A belief the United States will [illegible] the substantial place of prosperity once more "before long" was expressed here by Secretary of Labor William N. Doak in a Labor Day address at the Appalachian Interstate fair.

Emergence from "our present" difficulties, he predicted, will be brought about "as a result of the [illegible] of men of thought and action." He said he was "an extreme optimist" so far as holding the view that Americans will solve any problem with which they have to deal.

The Secretary of Labor added that the federal government was doing what it [illegible] to restore conditions of prosperity and included as actions:

Increase in the number of employees engaged in public construction work from 180,000 to 560,000; drastic reduction in the number of immigrants admitted; appointment by President Hoover of the national unemployment relief committee and inauguration of the federal free employment service.

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph
Vol. IX, No. [illegible]
Monday, Sept. 7, 1931
Published evenings and Sunday at the office of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Price: Daily, 3 cents; Sunday, 10 cents.
Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Pittsburgh, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WOLL DEMANDS DRIVE FOR BEER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(INS)—The Volstead act can be modified before another Labor Day rolls around if a vigorous national effort is made to weld popular sentiment, Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor's modification committee, declared today.

The fight will be carried directly to Congress in December, he said, urging labor all over the country to rally to the fight. He exhorted:

"Let us not forget that Volsteadism was inaugurated as a measure for the alleged conservation of food. We go idle and hungry in the presence of too much."

SEEK POWERS' TRUE IDENTITY

By DAVID P. SENTNER

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 7.—The true identity of the West Virginia bluebeard, the enigmatic character of four aliases, was being sought today by authorities.

The late "tip" as to the real name of Harry Powers came from an old resident of the county. It is believed that if the real name of the mail-order slayer can be discovered the key to many hidden crimes may eventually be uncovered.

Here is the story of which corroboration is sought: Harry Powers is Dayton Lowther, whose father and mother also engaged in the pursuit of romance through matrimonial correspondence through the mail.

The father signed his love-letters "Joe Gildaw," the name adopted by Powers in much of his correspondence when he lived in Miller, S. D., to a girl in Vandergrift, Pa.

Powers, according to this unconfirmed story, left his home at the age of 14. Nothing was heard of him since. His father also used the name of Powers in his correspondence with women, it was learned.

Both the father and the mother were said to be dead. Only a sister was reported to have survived.

WEALTHY MUST FEED POOR, BORAH SAYS

Urges Raise in Income Tax Unless Winter Relief Funds Are Given Voluntarily

COTTONWOOD, Ida., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Senator William E. Borah declared in an address here today that the rich of the country must feed the unemployed during the coming winter and warned that "if they do not do it voluntarily they will nevertheless do it."

Assessing the government's responsibility for the World War, the result of which was to wreck the economic system of two continents, the Idaho Senator contended it was the duty to care for the impoverished and suggested an increase in the income tax in the United States.

SCORES ARMAMENTS

He asserted the burden of the people was increased by the government's continued building of armaments and "reckless extravagance" which has reached the point where "taxes discourage thrift and menace legitimate business, where the exactions of government have made home building a luxury."

The address was delivered at the dedication of a monument to 17 volunteers in the Nez Perce Indian War who, July 5, 1877, fought a desperate battle against 150 redmen that nonplussed the savages and turned the war in favor of the whites. The Senator said:

"As we approach winter the task of taking care of these men and women and their dependents is uppermost in our minds.

"How is it to be done? Food is going to waste. There is plenty of money in the country, hoarded and idle. When the Secretary of the Treasury offered certificates for sale to the amount of some 800 millions they were oversubscribed many times.

LAUDS COUZENS

"If the wealth of the country does not voluntarily contribute to the end that we may take care of them, there is only one thing to do, and that is to feed those people from the Treasury of the United States and increase the income tax, particularly in the higher brackets, to enable us to do it.

"If the public dole system is established in this country, it will be forced by those who, having the means, refuse to do their part in feeding the hungry."

He cited a donation of $1,000,000 by Senator Couzens as an example of what may be done to alleviate the suffering.

Body of Bluebeard's 5th Victim Cremated

The body of Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, fifth victim of West Virginia's mail-order Romeo, Harry F. Powers, today was cremated at the Homewood Cemetery. The ashes will be shipped tomorrow to Northboro, Mass., where a sister, Mrs. Charles L. Flemming, is completing burial arrangements. The body arrived early this morning from Clarksburg, being brought here by motor by the Homme Funeral Company.

Attorney Evans Will Speak On Narcotics

"Narcotics" will be the subject of a talk by Raymond D. Evans, assistant United States District Attorney, at a luncheon of the Business Men's Association of the East North Side in St. Paul's Evangelical Church, 712 East street, at noon Wednesday.

SHE FOILED BOMBING

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

LORMA HORLAN . . . EXAMINGING EXPLOSIVE SHE PICKED UP

Eleven-year-old Lorma, who pulled a "string" on a window ledge and found it was a fuse attached to a bomb, is credited by police with frustrating today an attempt to blow up the home of Popio Chiocealt, at 700 Vickeroy street.

Murder Farm Again Draws Ticket-Buying Crowds; Burned Fence Rebuilt

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Quiet Dell's chamber of horrors, exhibiting a building with subterranean death cells; the drainage ditch where the bodies of two women and three children, victims of West Virginia's Bluebeard, were found, is proving itself a profitable enterprise despite the indignation of nightriders and an outraged community.

With a newly constructed galvanized iron fence taking the place of the high wooden barrier burned down by the night riders, the murder farm yesterday took on the appearance of a Coney Island side show. More than 600 paid admissions at the rate of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children were checked off according to the ticket seller.

A guide, resplendent in blue uniform and brass-buttons, braided hat and cane, points out the places of interest to visitors, young and old.

Thomas J. Skidmore, a retired chief of police of Nutter Fort, a suburb of Clarksburg, has dignified the job of guide with his semi-official status. His recital of the crime is given in drawling mountaineer tones:

"Here is where we found the first body—Mrs. Eicher; and here the eldest girl. Over there we dug the two other children out, one atop the other, and up there nigh the garage, we found Mrs. Lemke."

He tells the story over and over, adding a touch or two at each telling so that the curiosity-seeker looking for a thrill gets it.

Mrs. Luella Powers, wife of the alleged Bluebeard, told authorities yesterday she didn't want to make money out of her husband's career of crime but as long as she was not breaking any law by leasing the place she would continue to do so. She said she was not concerned with the use to which the lessors put the place and was only interested in getting a reasonable rent for it.

The property was not leased prior to the discovery of the crime. Powers built the garage with money furnished by his wife.

POLICE GUARD WIFE, SISTER OF POWERS

Prisoners Dig for Bodies Of More Victims Near Home of W. Va. Bluebeard

(Continued from Page One.)

Powers had two motives in common, to get rich quick and the sale of "shady" stock.

Powers had told police when arrested Rogers lived in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Powers had related that the Bluebeard often mentioned Rogers but she never had seen him. Police are seeking a connection between the two men.

Meanwhile Powers' red-haired wife, Mrs. Luella Strother Powers, and her sister, Eva Bell Strother, were heavily guarded by police, following discovery of silverware dropped when Wade failed to ap- and clothing, valued at almost $1,500 and identified as belonging to Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, one of the mail order Romeo's victims, in their home.

Police renewed their questioning of Powers in hope of uncovering his true identity, which they believe is still concealed.

The authorities also wished to question Powers about a man named Wade, said to have been employed by Powers as a vacuum cleaner salesman in 1928. He disappeared after Powers was charged with the theft of a cleaner. The charges were pear to testify against his employer.

Police Chief Clarence A. Duckworth talked with Prosecutor Morris following the recovery of additional alleged loot and evidence of Powers' love racketeering in the sisters' home yesterday. To all questions about the comings and goings of Powers, either on business or pleasure, the sisters' answer was the same:

"We don't know."

Powers, through correspondence unearthed in his slaughter house garage, his home and a garage near the Broad Oaks residence of the sisters, used many aliases. Before coming East from Miller, S. D., he was known as Gildaw or Gildow; later he was known as Bourgo and then Powers. His most recent mail order matrimonial conquests were carried on under the name Pierson.

FEAR OTHER MURDERS

That the five victims dug out of the drainage ditch grave were not the first to fall afoul the Bluebeard's lust for killing was indicated by another angle being investigated by Carksburg's lone detective, Carl Southern, and Police Chief Duckworth.

Powers' wife told the officers her husband brought with him a trunk full of women's clothes when he came to Clarksburg for their marriage in 1927. She said Powers told her the clothing belonged to his dead mother.

The clothes have since disappeared, being supplanted in the past four months by the effects of Mrs. Asta Buick Eicher and her three children, and Mrs. Dorothy Presler Lemke, most of which police say have been found in the house itself.

MORE LETTERS FOUND

Yesterday's visit to the home brought to light more letters, silverware believed to belong to the Eichers and a floor plan of the slaughter house garage. The plan was found in a basement workroom where Powers spent many hours, according to his wife and her sister.

Shown the slaughter house floor plan, Mrs. Powers said:

"Isn't that too bad. No I knew nothing about it."

Asked how it was possible for her husband to carry on his mail order love racketeering without her knowledge, Mrs. Powers shook her head and said:

"I know nothing about him—he told me my aunt married his uncle and we was almost related.

"He came here from Cedar Rapids, Ia., and I married him. Here is my marriage license to prove it."

The sisters both have been devotees of the mail order love racket. Powers met and wed Luella through the mails and Eva Bell until lately was seeking a mate in the Wedding Bells Club of Boston, which she explains was "just a Sunday school club."

MARRIAGE AD FOUND

A matrimonial ad in the spinster sister's handwriting was found in the house. It read:

"Here is my ad. Please publish:

"I am an American, refined, intelligent lady. And of the highest class. Protestant, loving disposition, 5 feet 4 inches tall. Brown hair, blue eyes, weight 110 pounds, aged 40. Never married. Have means and will correspond for matrimony only with American gentleman with means from 40 to 51."

DENIES WRITING IT

The letter is signed Eva Strother, 111 Quincy street, Clarksburg. Miss Strother denied she had written it. Police asked her to sign her name as a sample of her handwriting. The writing, police said, resembled that in a letter found last week in Boston, where it had been sent to the Wedding Bells Club.

This letter is quite similar in text. The letter found yesterday was written first and never mailed. It was a "practice" letter, police say, Miss Strother mailing the results of her second attempt.

Mercury Dips to 51, Lowest Since Spring

The mercury fell to 51 early today, the lowest point since last spring, but six degrees above the minimum for this date, according to Forecaster W. S. Brotzman. Continued cool weather tonight with fair and warmer tomorrow is predicted.

Scene of Bluebeard Murders Becomes a 'Love Farm Coney Island Sideshow!'

PHOTOS by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

GALVANIZED FENCE ENCLOSING GARAGE DEATH-HOUSE AND BURIAL DITCH . . . . NIGHT RIDERS BURNED WOODEN ONE GUIDE THOMAS J. SKIDMORE . . . . TOURS AT 25 CENTS A HEAD

NAUTILUS RETURNS, LISTING 30 DEGREES IN HIGH SEA

TRIP DECLARED SUCCESS BY SCIENTISTS

Wilkins Forced to End Exploration in Submarine Beneath Arctic Ice Floes

By CAPT. SIR HUBERT WILKINS
Commander of the Wilkins-Ellsworth Trans-Arctic Submarine Expedition.
By Radio via American Radio News Corporation and Radiomarine Corporation.

ABOARD SUBMARINE NAUTILUS, IN THE ARCTIC OCEAN, Sept. 7.—(Via Nordeich Radio.)—With a list of 30 degrees, in a northerly sea and a high wind, we are making our way across the Greenland Sea towards the northern end of Spitzbergen.

Our intention is to call at Virgo Harbor, Dane's Island, from where Andre started with his balloon, and where Walter Wellman made his attempt to cross the Arctic with an airship. Our visit there is not with the idea of satisfying any curiosity, but is being made for the purpose of going ashore to take gravity and magnetic observations.

This work will take us most of today. By tomorrow we should be at Advent Bay.

Our Arctic trip is over.

SCIENTISTS SATISFIED

We left the ice behind at noon yesterday. We moved away from it after vainly attempting to use a small iceberg near the ice pack for shelter while we were taking scientific measurements. We were forced to move out from the pack ice.

There is no further chance of doing more than take soundings. Our time has been limited, but our scientists are satisfied with the results obtained in the ice packs. We collected many samples.

While in the pack ice we were cleared for action. The radio mast was lowered and the life lines were down. The dampness in our radio set several times prohibited communication. On deck and on the ice we tried the emergency set without avail.

Only twice during our week of silence were we favored with conditions reasonably good for pictures.

Much anxiety was felt when we sprung a leak in the walls of the diving compartment, but this has been partly remedied. There is another, however, in the laboratory wall, and these two keep the forward part of the ship damp and cold.

The conditions we have met are not insurmountable. We believe that a specially built submarine would have little difficulty in crossing the Arctic Sea.

(Copyright, 1931, throughout the world by New York American, Inc., Hearst Enterprises, Inc., and King Features Service, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction prohibited in whole or in part.)

REPLY TO HEARST

LONDON, Sept. 7.—(Universal)—The following reply was received by William Randolph Hearst to a message he sent to Sir Hubert Wilkins urging him to abandon further exploration in the Arctic this season:

"William Randolph Hearst:

"I much appreciate your concern for our safety. We are being driven south by the ice and the weather.

"The season for high latitude work is now rapidly closing. If all goes well we should reach Spitzbergen tomorrow.

"WILKINS."

Pushmobile Speeder Killed During Trial

BISBEE, Ariz., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Joe Parrott, 17, was killed and Jim Kelly, 13, was injured seriously here yesterday in a collision during a trial for a Labor Day pushmobile race. Their coaster, traveling at a speed estimated at 50 miles an hour down Tombstone Canyon, course of the holiday event, struck a motor car.

The accident marked the first fatality in the long history of the pushmobile race in Bisbee. This year's race was called off as a result.

'Jock' Whitney's Kin To Wed Nobleman

LONDON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Mrs. A. T. Wilson-Filmer, elder daughter of Lord Queensborough, granddaughter of the late W. C. Whitney, and cousin of John Hay "Jock" Whitney, is to be married soon to Sir Adrian Baillie, it was announced today. Her first husband was the Hon. C. J. F. Winn, and her second Arthur Thomas Wilson-Filmer, a ship owner of Hull.

THE WEATHER

The Forecast

Fair and continued cool tonight; Tuesday fair and warmer.

Hourly Temperatures.
(DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME)

12 midnight	62	9 a. m.	56
1 a. m.	60	10 a. m.	61
2 a. m.	58	11 a. m.	66
3 a. m.	57
4 a. m.	[illegible]
5 a. m.	[illegible]
6 a. m.	[illegible]
7 a. m.	[illegible]
8 a. m.	[illegible]

FILM BEAUTY BACK IN U. S.

LILY DAMITA . . . "I'M NOT GOING TO MARRY ANYONE!"

The charming continental film and musical comedy star, arriving on the S. S. Bremen after a lengthy vacation abroad, is on her way to Hollywood, to resume her motion picture work. She denied emphatically rumors that she was contemplating matrimony.

LILY DAMITA SPURNS CUPID

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(INS)—Lily Damita, the famous French stage and screen star, arrived on the Bremen from Europe in a brand new Bordeaux outfit and announced that she had not yet become a convert of Hymen. The Willy Vanderbilt affair, she said, was off long ago and the newly reported match with Sydney Smith just so much "sauce de pommes."

The actress said:

"You can put in print that I am not going to marry anyone. Mr. Smith is just one of the boys. I met him on a yacht through Willy Vanderbilt.

"A lot of us were on a trip to Corsica, where we visited Lady Mountbatten."

Miss Damita then revealed that Noel Coward, the English playwright, was on the yacht and that she might act in one of his new plays. She said:

"Perhaps this play will be written about me. I would love that."

Industrial Spur Seen In British Invention

LONDON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The Daily Mail this morning devoted a great deal of space to an announcement of a new stamping and pressure machine which, it said, would "revolutionize British industry."

The Mail said that the machine could be used in stampings of every sort from watch mechanisms to motor car bodies, and for making nails, bricks, composition materials and the manufacture of furniture from pulverized wood.

Glenshaw Boy, 11, Missing Three Days

James Biernesser, 11, of KDKA boulevard, Grenshaw, has been missing from his home since late Friday afternoon, according to his father, Sylvester Biernesser.

He is four feet tall, weighs 80 pounds, has blue eyes and dark hair cut very short.

BAYLES FAILS IN AIR SPEED RECORD DASH

Averages Over 257 Miles an Hour; Doolittle, 11 Others Set for Trophy Classic

CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Lowell Bayles, of Springfield, Mass., today failed in an attempt to set a new American land plane speed record at the National Air Races.

He piloted his Gee Bee low-winged monoplane four times over an official three kilometer course, attaining as his fastest speed with the wind, 271.142 miles an hour. His fourth dash was not timed and his average for the first two was 257.408, approximately 10 miles an hour slower than the plane attained last Tuesday on four unofficial dashes over a mile course.

He indicated he might try again tomorrow. His motor was about 200 revolutions a minute slower than last Tuesday, he said.

DOOLITTLE OUT

Maj. James H. Doolittle, holder of the transcontinental flight record, also had planned an assault on the world's land plane mark, but gave it up this morning.

Doolittle tried out a larger motor in his Laird biplane which he used in his record transcontinental flight, hoping to increase his speed for the planned speed record flight, but he was not satisfied with its performance.

Mechanics started to re-install the old and smaller engine, so it would be ready for Doolittle to fly the plane this afternoon in the $15,000 Thompson trophy race.

RACERS IN CLASSIC

Bayles, Doolittle and 10 other fliers were entered in the Thompson event, the speed clasic of the year. The Thompson trophy race, 100 miles, will conclude the 1931 national air races.

The larger of the two "mystery" planes from San Francisco was definitely out of the Thompson race, Keith Rider, of San Francisco, their designer, said today. Ray Moore, of San Francisco, who was to pilot it, will pilot the smaller of the two in place of Robert Clampett, of San Francisco.

Tomorrow Second Day for Registration

Tomorrow is the second of three registration days in Pittsburgh. Following the record breaking registration last Thursday, the commission was expecting a big second day registration. The polls will be open from 8 to 11 a. m. and from 5 to 11 p. m. daylight saving time. To register a voter must present a state or county tax receipt on property or real estate, an occupation tax issued since November 3, 1929, or one of the new 50-cent poll tax receipts.

In Today's Paper

All in a Day	Page 12
Clubs	Page 16
Comics	Pages 20, 21
Daily True Story	Page 20
Finance	Pages 18, 19
Magazine, Fiction	Page 17
Masquerade	Page 20
Movies, Theaters	Page 8
Paris Fashions	Page 16
Radio	Pages 10, 11
Society	Page 16
Sports	Pages 13, 14, 15
Walter Winchell	Page 8

CHINESE FLOOD SWEEPS ON

SHANGHAI, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Fresh tidings of disaster reached Shanghai from widely separated areas emphasizing the nation-wide character of China's flood calamity, but confirmation was still lacking of the reported holocaust at Kunghsien, Honan Province.

The Kunghsien alarm was found to be based on a message received at Peking from the Honan Relief Association, appealing for immediate aid because "about 1,000,000 persons were drowned around Kunghsien."

Reports of further distress were received from the provinces of Shensi, Honan, Kiangsu, while a new dark spot in China's flood map appeared in Northwestern Anhwei Province, where seven counties were said to be inundated.

PLANES BOMB, SEIZE CHILEAN REBEL FLEET

Air Attack Crushes Revolt; Ships Surrender, Chiefs Face Court-Martial Trial

International News Service.

COQUIMBO, Chile, Sept. 7.—This "war front" town was gradually getting back its nerves today after having witnessed and participated in one of the most unique battles in the history of naval warfare.

Thousands of residents saw a fleet of loyal government airplanes batter and bomb the rebellious crews of Chile's navy, once considered the most efficient in South American waters, into abject supplication for mercy and an opportunity to surrender.

The battle lasted only a scant half hour but seemed to the civilian watchers on shore to consume half the night. Although the government had scores of planes in the air, the assault on the mutinous fleet was carried out principally by six planes—two Junkers bombers, two Wibault and two Curtiss Falcon bombers.

WITNESS BATTLE

The Navy ships lay off-shore within plain sight of the spectators on the beach when the fleet of planes took off. The machines climbed steadily until they were mere specks in the sky, far out over the ocean. Then they swept down upon the motionless ships, coming down in steep dives at tremendous speed and flattening out almost directly over the decks of the ships.

The mutinous sailors let loose a drum-fire with their anti-aircraft guns and rifles but scored no hits.

The planes released their bombs. The submarine H-4 was hit squarely on the bow by a bomb and several of her crew were killed and wounded. The crippled vessel made for shore, where the crew surrendered. Three bombs fell on the flagship of the rebel fleet, the De La Torre, but apparently no great damage was done.

With the surrender of the mutineers, the government announced that the leaders would be tried by court martial.

TRAGIC MISTAKE

In the moment of victory for the government a tragic mistake declared to have been engineered by vengeful Communistic elements resulted in two sectors of the Maipo infantry regiment opening fire one on another. Many were killed and wounded before the mistake was discovered. Each sector of the regiment was led by Communist agitators to believe that the other sector had revolted against the government and both sides promptly opened fire.

(Copyright, 1931, International Feature Service, Inc.)

Air Route Survey Failing, Two Return

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Edward Preston and Robert Collig, fliers who turned back after an uncompleted survey of a nothern route to Europe, landed here yesterday. They flew here from Sudbury, Ontario, where they were held several days by weather conditions.

West Virginia Fair Opens in Wheeling

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 7.—(AP)—The fifty-first annual West Virginia State Fair will open here today, with large exhibits of livestock, produce and manufactured goods. The exposition will be open for one week.

AUTO'S FATAL PLUNGE

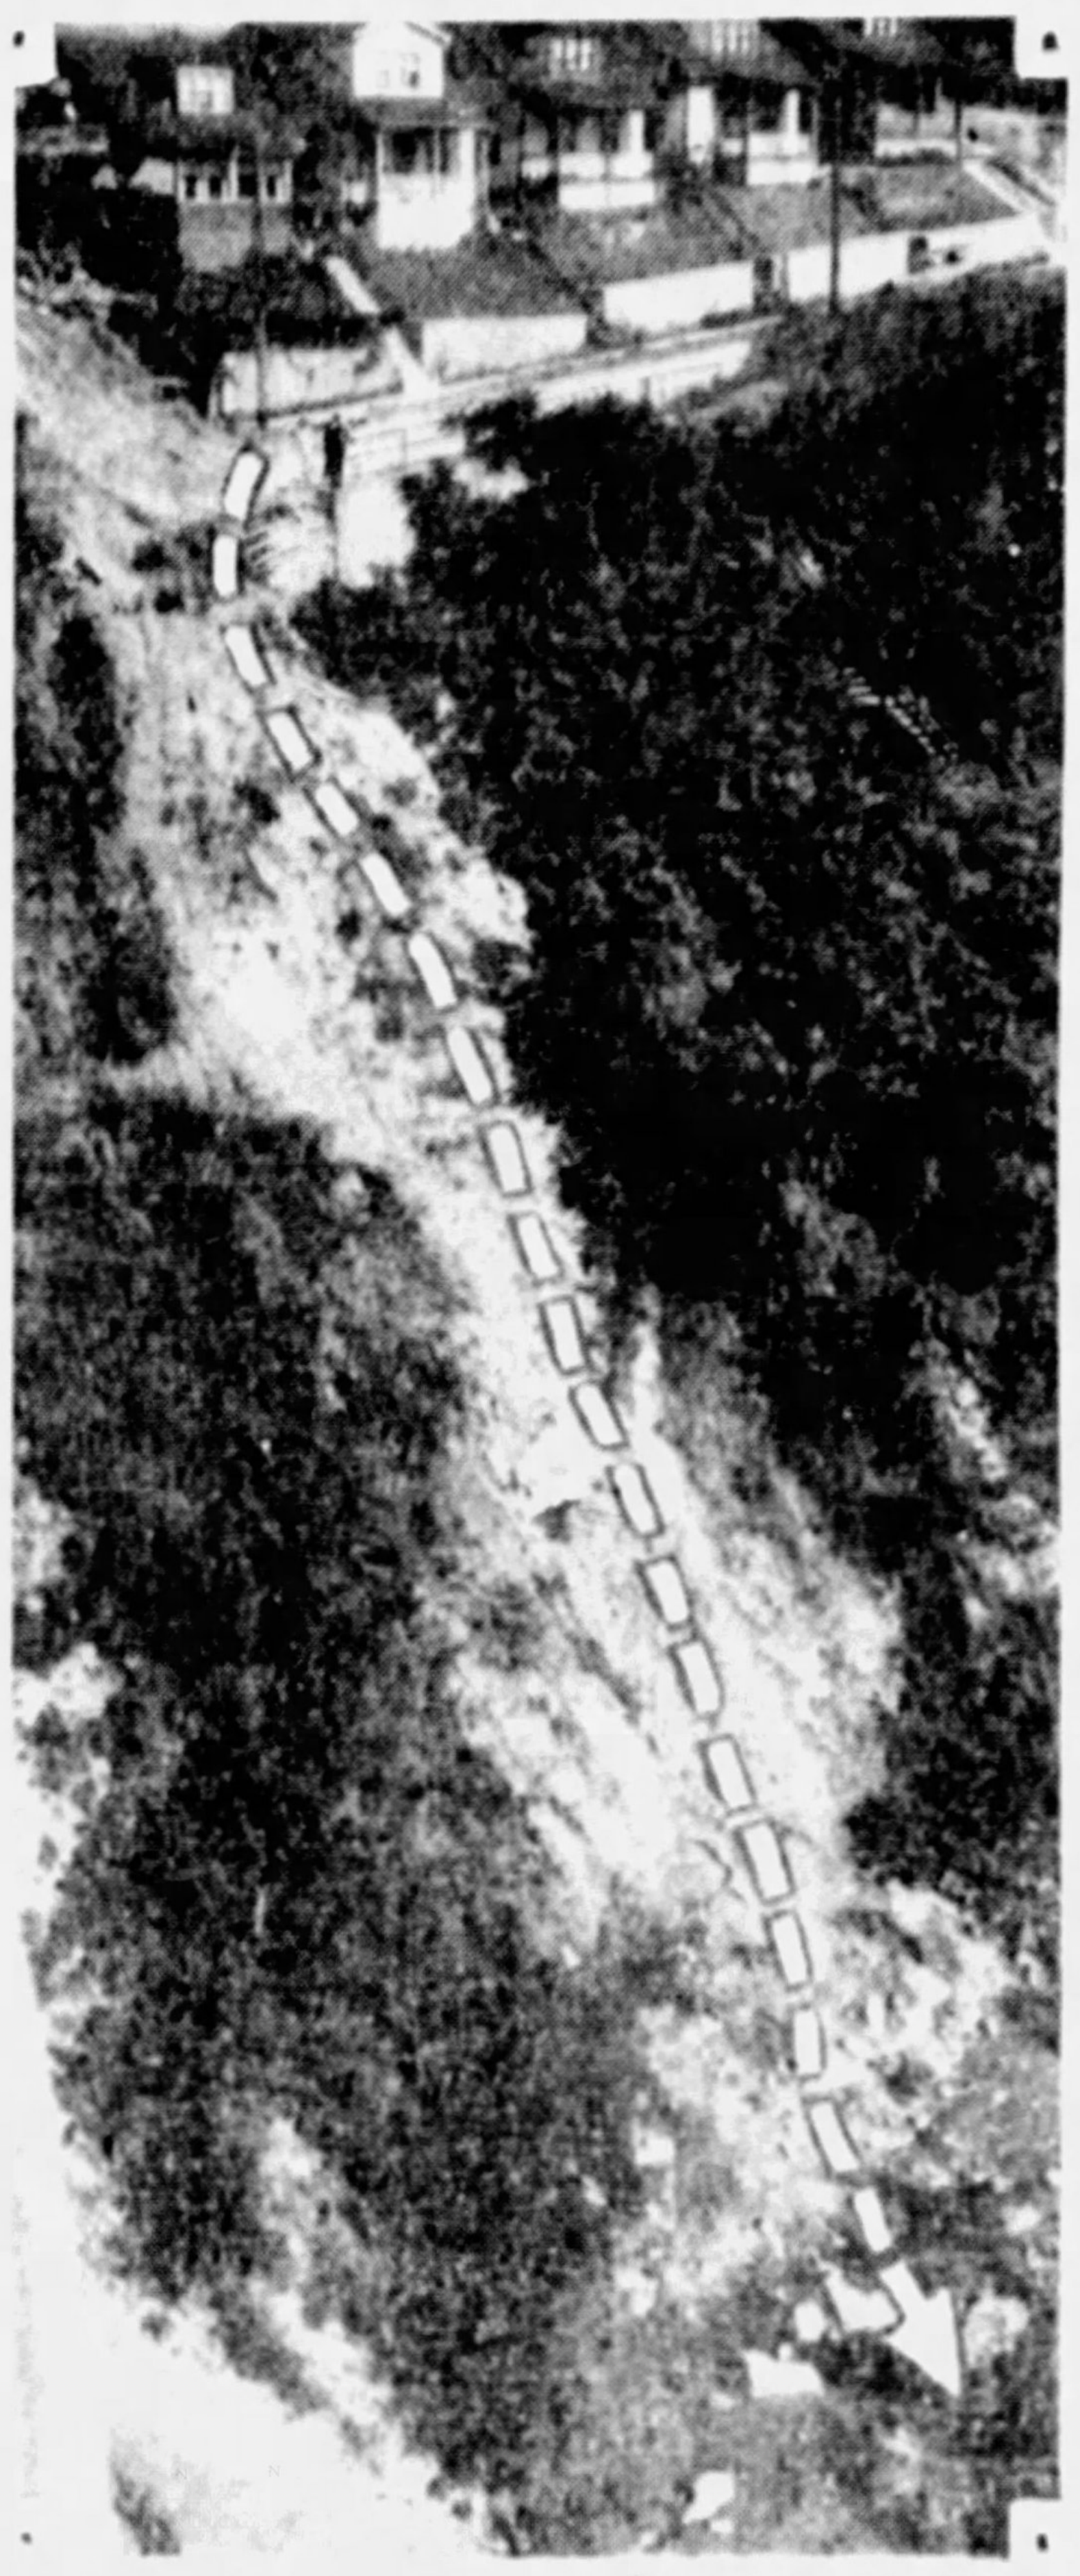

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

DOTTED LINE SHOWS CAR'S PATH OF DEATH INTO RAVINE

Joseph Hyde, step-brother of County Commissioner C. C. McGovern, was killed when his machine careened down this embankment after plunging more than 300 feet from Elmhurst street.

STRIKE RIOTING ENDS IN SPAIN

BARCELONA, Spain, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Barcelona was free of sporadic attacks on constituted authority for the first time in four days.

Sunday passed normally after collapse of the Syndicalist strike had brought to an end violence and bloodshed in Spain's greatest seaport and industrial center.

Extra forces of police and civil guards which occupied strategic points until after the collapse of the strike late Saturday, began to retire while reassured citizens flocked to their customary haunts.

For the first time in several days Barcelona had telephone connections with the rest of Spain. Public utility services were resumed and transportation lines helped the city resume its customary activity.

JAIL 2 IN THEFT OF $5,000,000

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Two men alleged to be involved in a $5,000,000 theft of bonds and securities from a Washington company were taken into custody at a beach front hotel today and held in the city jail awaiting further action by the Washington authorities.

The men arrested are Henry O. Hart, of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Patrick J. Clancy, of Washington.

Clancy gave his occupation as chauffeur. Police said Hart was the principal in the alleged theft.

The two men, accompanied by two women, registered Saturday. The hotel management, suspicious of their actions, notified Detective Inspector John Malseed, who immediately communicated with the Washington authorities and an Internal Revenue Department officer arrived today accompanied by city detectives. He went to the hotel and placed the two men under arrest.

Man Killed, 4 Hurt In Auto Collision

INDIANA, Pa., Sept. 7.—One person was killed and four others injured, two of them seriously, when an automobile driven by George Mishler, 32, of North Lima, O., collided with a moving van and veered into another automobile at Armagh yesterday. Mishler died at the Lee Homeopathic Hospital, Johnstown, of a fractured skull. The injured are George Mishler, Jr., 8, thought to be fatally injured; Mrs. George Mishler, 34; Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell, 36, of 1310 Scott street, McKeesport, and Mrs. Howard J. Hunkle, 35, of 1323 Scott street, McKeesport.

Flier Sprains Ankle In 'Chute Landing

Dragged along rocks for a short distance in landing after a parachute leap from an airplane, Capt. Ralph Garrison, 29, of 2441 Glenmawr avenue, suffered a sprained ankle at Bettis Field last night. He was treated at the McKeesport Hospital.

AUTOS KILL 9, INJURE 11 IN DISTRICT

McGovern's Half Brother Killed as Car Plunges Down 300-Foot Bank

Nine persons dead and 11 severely injured was the week-end auto traffic in the Pittsburgh district, reports revealed today.

Joseph Hyde, 42, Kleinman street, Neville Island, a half-brother of County Commissioner Charles C. McGovern, was killed when his auto plunged down a 300-foot embankment from Elmhurst street, North Side. The accident led to the report Commissioner McGovern had been injured. Hyde's companion, Neil Bork, 38, of 3722 McClure street, is in St. John's Hospital.

McNAUGHER CAR UPSETS

Judge William H. McNaugher, of the Court of Common Pleas, escaped unhurt when a car in which he was riding collided with another and upset at Madison and Tripoli street last night.

Latrobe police were unable to determine the cause of the wreck which claimed the life of Mrs. Anna Weaver, 60, of 7007 Hamilton avenue, in Lincoln highway, near there, last night. The car in which she and her daughters, Mildred, 30, and Geraldine, 23, and her son, Regis, 24, were riding suddenly swerved and overturned. Regis and Geraldine were taken to Latrobe Hospital, and Mildred to Westmoreland Hospital, the extent of their injuries undetermined.

At Fourteenth street and Duss avenue, Ambridge, Saturday night, an auto, driven by J. J. Bernhart, of Edgeworth, an employe of J. Barlow Cullom, of Centennial avenue and East drive, Sewickley, and a street car crashed, hurling Bernhart clear of the wreckage. He was dead when witnesses reached him.

DIE IN BURNING CAR

Mrs. Albert Gangle, of Baden, Pa., and Mrs. E. A. DeWald, of Massillon, O., riding with Bernhart, were trapped in the wreckage. The gasoline tank exploded immediately after the crash and both were fatally burned.

Raymond Lesutis, 5, of 111 East Fourth street, Homestead, died in Homestead Hospital yesterday from injuries incurred when he was struck by an automobile Saturday night near his home.

Rose Fanty, 9, of Herbert way, Glenfield, died 10 minutes after she was admitted to the Magee Hospital, as a result of being struck by a machine.

INJURED WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Emma Merritt, 31, a Negro, of 2428 Wylie avenue, died en route to Mercy Hospital after an auto in which she was a passenger collided with another in McMurray road, near Donaldson's Corners, Washington County.

Jackie Murray, 22, of 652 Benman road, a boxer; Cleveland Bates, 21, of 25 Carmel street, and William Proctor, 25, of 903 Cherokee street, all Negroes, were injured.

Thomas Curran, 10, of 3444 Penn avenue, died in West Penn Hospital from a fractured skull received when struck by a machine while playing near Thirty-fifth street.

William J. Iener, 76, of 150 Electric avenue, North Braddock, died in Braddock General Hospital.

Robert Patterson, 48, of Glenshaw, died in Allegheny General Hospital from injuries received when struck by a machine near his home.

Four women are in St. Francis Hospital hurt while en route to St. Nicholas Cemetery when their taxi overturned in Babcock boulevard.

They are Mrs. Maggie Charlovich, 66, of 1511 Blevin way; Emma Chalovich, 2316 Roller street; Mary Movak, 44, of 2027 Vironde street, and Rosie Carr, 53, of 1629 Sycamore avenue.

Robert Small, 4, of 329 Dixon avenue, Oak Hill, East Pittsburgh, was in the Braddock Hospital suffering a fractured right leg received when hit by an automobile.

Auto Crash Kills Greensburg Girl

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 7.—(AP)—A girl was killed and four other young people, all members of well-known Greensburg families, were injured in an automobile accident near here.

Abigail Doran, 16, died almost instantly of a fractured skull. The injured are Joseph D. Wentling, Jr., 17; a sister, Mary, 15; a brother, Thomas, 16, and Nancy Joyce, 13.

Dancing Teachers Learn the Latest 'Tap Rumba'

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

WALTER KEENAN, JR. FRANCES ROBB ADELAIDE HUNTER DOROTHY ARBOGAST BETTY JOHNSON

Mr. Keenan, of Philadelphia, stopped off in Pittsburgh on his trip from San Francisco to show some new tap and ballet steps to the convention of the Pittsburgh Society for the Improvement of Dancing held in Webster Hall yesterday afternoon.

Thrice Blood Donor to His Own Child, Aids Another

A father who had undergone three blood transfusions to save the life of his own child in the Children's Hospital did not hesitate to aid in saving the life of another child.

Carl Martin, of 747 Hershel street, thrice the donor of blood which meant life for his 4-month-old son, Carl, Jr., gave for the fourth time a quantity of his blood yesterday, this time to save Sophia Tomczyk, 14, of Katheryn street, Bellevue, suffering from loss of blood due to a nasal ailment. He was the first volunteer.

When a second transfusion was necessary for the girl, an appeal was broadcast over police radio station WPDU, bringing 25 policemen to the hospital. Among the volunteers was Policewoman Ida Rickenbrode. Because her blood was not of the same type as that of the child, she was not accepted.

Patrolman Michael Marze, 307 Oregon street, driver of the Oakland district police radio car, qualified and underwent the operation, bringing life again within the girl's grasp. Sophia was reported improved at the hospital today. Patrolman Marze was back on duty less than 45 minutes after the transfusion.

Gandhi Lisps Hymn, Romps With Children on Ship

ABOARD S. S. RAJPUTANA, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi dropped his ceaseless spinning to attend a Christian religious service aboard this liner, which is taking India's Nationalist leader to the London round-table conference.

As a compliment to India's "holy one," Capt. H. Morton Jack had the famous Hindu's favorite Christian hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," sung.

In the solemn stillness of the Red Sea, Gandhi's own tiny, lisping voice was easily distinguishable above the others.

At Suez he received a tremendous ovation from a delegation of the Egyptian millions who also seek independence for their homeland.

The Egyptians brought Gandhi gifts and hung garlands of homespun cotton about his neck and that of Miss Slade, his English disciple.

The genial Gandhi continues to enjoy his sea voyage. He romps with children, caresses babies and jokes with parents.

In preparation for the conference, he has been reading volumes of the first round-table proceedings, but these invariably cause him to fall fast asleep.

Oblivious to the stares of fellow-passengers, Gandhi began his weekly period of silence and meditation.

FREE ON $26,000 BAIL, STRIP POLITICIAN HURT IN RIOT

COYNE WORKER RELEASED BY JUDGE GRAY

Policeman Ousted for Aiding Arrest; Judge Boosts High Bail Set by Sullivan

Walter G[illegible], Second Ward follower of the O'Malley-Kline-Coyne organization, was in West Penn Hospital today with a fracture of the skull as a result of pre-election political rioting.

He got out [illegible] on $26,000 bail Saturday night through an appeal made to Judge James H. Gray at the judge's home.

He had been arrested for disorder [illegible]. His skull was fractured [illegible] a raid on an Armstrong [illegible] in Oakland.

The [illegible] between the police and followers of Congressman P. J. Sullivan and Kline [illegible] resulted in the suspension of Patrolman W[illegible] Kessler who aided a constable from the office of Alderman [illegible] Sullivan in arresting Goliat Saturday afternoon.

RESULT OF FIGHTS

The arrest of Goliat was a result, Alderman Sullivan declared, of sluggings and threats made registration day. He was taken into custody by Constable Luke Hannan and Kessler at Twenty-fourth street and Penn avenue Saturday afternoon and given a preliminary hearing before Sullivan, who held him for court under $24,000 bail.

Goliat, according to Sullivan, faced four charges of aggravated assault and battery, four charges of surety of the peace, three charges of carrying concealed weapons and three charges of pointing firearms. When he was unable to furnish the high bail he was taken to jail. When friends appealed to Judge Gray the latter reviewed the charges and raised the bond to $26,000 but later signed a release for the prisoner.

POLICE DENOUNCED

In discussing the case yesterday, Alderman Sullivan was bitter in his denunciation of the police. He said:

"Acting Inspector Schnurr, who was brought into the 'Strip' to cause trouble, was very angry when he heard that one of his men had helped my constable to arrest Goliat.

"He went to the North Side Saturday night and demanded that Capt. Anthony Block arrest Kessler on a suspicious person charge. Block refused to arrest the officer without some justification and then Inspector Schnurr demanded Kessler's suspension. This followed immediately."

Patrolman Kessler is a supporter of Congressman Sullivan. When Inspector Schnurr was put in charge of the police district last week Kessler was removed as a member of one of the scout cruisers in the district and was sent to walk a beat in Woods Run. However he was in the Strip Saturday afternoon off duty, when he aided Constable Hannan in making the arrest.

Constable Hannan, who is a candidate for re-election, reported today that his home at 2703 Liberty avenue had been stoned early yesterday. He said he and his wife were awakened by stones crashing against the front of their home. He said that he has several signs in the front of the house boosting the candidacy of County Commissioner Joseph G. Armstrong.

BEATEN DEFENDING HEADQUARTERS

WILLIAM M'GRAW — JEROME SCHULTZ — SILAS JAMES

JAMES SHOWING COMPANIONS KNUCKLERS USED IN RAID AT ARMSTRONG HEADQUARTERS

WHERE INVADERS' BULLET WENT THROUGH THE WINDOW

GUNMEN RAID ARMSTRONG OFFICE

Shoot Up Headquarters in Oakland; One Dying, 4 Arrested After Attack

(Continued from Page One.)

supporters were standing in front of the headquarters which are in the offices of the Pennsylvania Towing Company, 3604 Fifth avenue.

Inside were Herbert Norfolk and Silas James, occupants of apartments above the towing company offices, with M. F. Butler, owner of the towing service, and Charles Wills of 291 Main street.

BORE O'MALLEY SIGNS

The eight men drove up in a Chrysler sedan which, McGraw said, was decorated with campaign signs of Dan Geary for Alderman and Mark O'Malley, brother of P. J. O'Malley, for Constable, both Second Ward candidates backed by Senator Coyne, an Armstrong opponent.

Sub-Patrolman Edward Kileen, six months on the force and with only a month of it in actual service, was passing.

Kileen crossed the street. Four men leaped from the car, revolvers in hands. They rushed toward McGraw and Schultz. One of them said:

"Stick them up, you—'"

McGraw threw up his hands. Schultz made a break for the office door and rushed toward a rear room.

There, he said, he found a club and started to return when he heard shooting. He left.

The shooting started inside the headquarters, where the four raiders fired their guns into walls and windows as the five men inside, McGraw having been herded in, ducked for safety.

CLUBBED WITH GUN

James made a lunge for one of the gunmen and received a blow from the butt of the revolver over one eye, a wound which required three stitches in Mercy Hospital.

The raiders retreated to the car, still firing, as Sub-Patrolman Kileen came across the street, revolver in his hand.

They drove away.

At Atwood street and Fifth avenue they sighted Schultz on his circuitous way to the Oakland Police Station to summon aid, and opened fire again, apparently to terrorize rather than wound or kill.

Their bullets, Schultz said, sprayed perilously close to a woman waiting there for a street car.

McGraw, describing the raid, told police:

"Schultz and I were standing in front of the place when the car pulled up. When I saw one man getting out with a gun I knew what was going to happen.

"Before we had a chance to run, they had us covered. Schultz ran into the rear room, anyway.

"It looked to me as if the policeman was in on it.

"When the machine pulled in front of the place he looked at it and said 'It's okay boys.' Then he walked across the street and the shooting began."

'GREEN OFFICER'

Kileen denied saying "Okay boys," and said the whole thing happened so rapidly he didn't have an opportunity to act.

Later McGraw said:

"Maybe I was too hasty. He was just a green cop."

At a hearing in Oakland Police Court today, Magistrate William McNamara held the three men for further investigation. Manuel and Catanio testified they had found Goliat injured at Thirteenth street and Penn avenue and took him to the hospital.

Patrolman Kileen testified he had questioned the party in the machine and they had told him they were waiting for another man. He said he had just crossed the street when the shooting began.

The Armstrong headquarters was attacked by brick throwers about two weeks ago, who shattered a large plate glass window bearing a campaign sign as they drove by in an automobile.

ZIONIST LEADER FETED

Photo by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

SAMUEL L. FUSS — LOUIS LIPSKY — M. B. LICHTENSTEIN

LIPSKY LAUDS ZIONIST GAINS

Louis Lipsky, noted Zionist and former president of the Zionist Organization of America, addressed a mass meeting of the Young Men's and Women's Hebrew Association, Bellefield avenue, last night on "Zionism and Its Problems." Mr. Lipsky flew from Cleveland, arriving in Pittsburgh just before the meeting. Samuel L. Fuss, local Zionist leader, presided at the session.

Lipsky declared he was optimistic about the future of the Jew in Palestine. He said: "With the change of the British government that has just been completed, a new set of men, more favorable to our plans and ambitions, have been installed in office. Especially, the new government of Palestine is expected to treat us better than the old did. I am not making any predictions and while there remain many problems to be cleared up, I think that the future will hold more than the past did."

RULE ON POOR BOARD AWAITED TOMORROW

Validity of Act Creating Visiting Body Named By Court at Stake

Judge James H. Gray tomorrow will hand down a decision on the request of K. William Schuchman, of Dormont, for the appointment of a board of visitors, for the County Poor Board, in accordance with the act of 1852.

Should the court grant the petition and decide the 1852 act is legal, which is being disputed by the poor directors, this board of visitors would have power to inspect the books and accounts of the poor directors.

The 1852 act, among other things provides:

For "the inspection and free examination by such visitors as shall from time to time be applied for by the Court of Quarter Sessions of the county, all their books and accounts together with the rents, interest and moneys payable and receivable by the said corporation (Allegheny County Home) and also an account of all sales, purchases, donations, devises and bequests as shall have been made by or to them."

In the event Judge Gray holds the 1852 act valid, the powers of such a board of visitors to make an investigation, it is claimed, would be sweeping.

Attorney H. W. McIntosh, who represents the Poor Board, claims an audit of the board's transactions is made every year and as evidence of the claim exhibited a printed report for 1930 showing itemized expenditures for the year totaling $1,066,881.

GRUDGE CHARGED

Mr. McIntosh also claims the charges which are being made are the direct result of accusations of a discharged employe, formerly on the personal payroll of one of the directors of the poor.

Information gleaned from the office of the Recorder of Deeds shows, according to Schuchman, that the Poor Board has figured in real estate transactions for the Woodville County Home, which showed increases as large as 60 per cent in selling prices from the time properties were purchased from original owners until a few days later they were sold to the board. These, he said, involved purchase of land in Collier Township in 1924.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.
BUREAU OF ELECTIONS,
DEPARTMENT OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.

September 1, 1931.

Notice is hereby given that the Return Board for the computation and canvassing of the returns of votes cast at the Primary to be held in Allegheny County, Penna., on Tuesday, September 15, 1931, will meet for that purpose at 12 o'clock noon Eastern Standard Time, one o'clock Daylight Saving Time, Friday, September 18, 1931, at the Return Board Room, 4th floor County Office Building, Ross and Diamond streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Jos. G. Armstrong, Chairman.
E. V. Babcock.
Chas. C. McGovern.
County Commissioners of Allegheny County, Pa.

SCORE FINED IN STRIP RAIDS

Following raids in the police drive on the "Strip" before the election, [illegible] 22 [illegible] before Magistrate James J. O'Connor in the Penn Avenue Police Court today. One alleged club, one alleged gambling house, an alleged speakeasy and a numbers joint were raided by police, said to be the method to strengthen the [illegible] of Senator James J. Coyne, who is fighting Congressman P. J. Sullivan in the "Strip."

Joe Bush, alleged proprietor of a club at 4748 Liberty avenue, was fined $100. Five visitors were discharged. Edward Taylor, Negro, charged with being the proprietor of a gambling house on the second floor at 2901 Spring way, was fined $50. Eleven visitors were each fined $10. Charles Davis, who police said was a numbers man, was fined $10. Pete Rodovich of 2927 Mulberry way was fined $25 and one visitor was fined $25, police alleging moonshine was sold in the place.

Robert Adams and Edward Clemens, Negroes, accused of shooting craps on a vacant lot at Twenty-sixth street and Mulberry way, were each fined $10.

DEMOCRAT OUT FOR LEGAL POST

In announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for District Attorney, Donald C. Anderson said today:

"The people of this county as a whole, and not one public official under indictment together with another organization candidate for public office, have the right to choose their District Attorney.

"To those citizens I offer myself as a candidate on a platform that has as its keynote, an impartial integrity and full performance of duty.

"I appeal to the decent citizens of this county to make their ballots effective in securing a clean and uninfluenced administration of the office of District Attorney."

Alter Gives Backing To Present Judges

George E. Alter, former attorney general of Pennsylvania and senior member of the law firm of Alter, Wright & Barron, came out today in support of the seven present judges of Common Pleas Court who are seeking to succeed themselves.

They are Judges Ambrose B. Reid, Samuel H. Gardner, Joseph Stadtfeld, Sylvester J. Snee, W. Heber Dithrich, William H. McNaugher and John P. Egan.

Candidate Urges Poor Board Open Soup Kitchens

Paul M. Bardes, of Oakmont, candidate for director of the poor, today declared that to minimize distress this winter, poor directors should not confine their aid solely to the paupers who seek refuge in the Woodville County Home, but should also take steps to care for the thousands of poverty-stricken persons who are in temporary need.

Bardes suggested soup kitchens be established in boroughs and townships where suffering is acute, assuring three full meals to children every day and at least one hot meal to needy adults.

He believes the directors of the poor could work more efficiently and economically than various relief agencies throughout the county.

CHILD EXPERT LAUDS FOSTER

Judge D. Paulson Foster today was indorsed as a candidate for another term as Judge of County Court by Dr. Miriam Van Waters, for 10 years a Juvenile Court referee of Los Angeles and a recognized authority on Juvenile Court work in the nation. She said:

"I have known Judge D. Paulson Foster since the beginning of his Juvenile Court work and have had several conferences with him.

"I am in full accord with what he has done and especially approve of his conception of the work which is that of a non-penal attitude toward children. He shows an enlightened approach toward his work, as evidenced in seeking the latest developments in the course offered in sociology at the University of Pittsburgh."

Dr. Waters was the consultant on the Juvenile Court division of President Hoover's Wickersham Commission.

J. M. Magee Backs Nixon Candidacy

Former Congressman James M. Magee has added his indorsement to that of many other lawyers who are supporting Attorney Clarence B. Nixon for Judge of County Court. Recent indorsements were received from Attorneys Frederic W. Miller, Elmer L. Kidney, J. Merrill Wright and Francis Taptich and from John M. Edwards, of the Potter Title and Trust Company.

KEEP WAGES UP, DAVIS PLEADS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(Universal)—A ringing plea for maintenance of high wages and a solemn warning of what may follow a lowering of the American standard of living were sounded here by Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania.

Speaking in the presence of a notable gathering at the National Labor Day Service at Washington Cathedral, the former Secretary of Labor declared:

"We must keep in mind the fact that when too many wrinkles appear in the stomachs of men, their ears become deaf to law observance pleas, and their brains become numb to every other thought but that concerning the preservation of the lives of themselves, their children and their wives.

"Under such circumstances the germs of Communism and anarchy flourish.

"Cut-throat prices and 'dog-eat-dog' business policies mean cheap labor, cheap labor means cheap families, cheap families mean cheap country, and a cheap country engenders physical, as well as mental poverty and illiteracy, resulting in national decay and halting the progress of civilization."

3 Killed as Racer Crashes Into Crowd

MONZA, Italy, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Three persons were killed and 10 seriously injured during automobile races here when a French driver lost control of his machine and it crashed into the crowd. The driver himself was not injured.

Shaffer Urges Rule By Business Men

Martin F. Shaffer, candidate for Council, today issued a statement in which he recommended that the affairs of the city government be taken over by practical, uncontrolled business men rather than professional politicians. Shaffer said:

"I am the only full-fledged independent who is making a vigorous campaign for Council."

Former President Of Chile Nominated

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Former President Arturo Alessandri [illegible] the candidate of several left groups. [illegible] votes [illegible] other candidates.

Registration Error May Bar Voters

In the first county registration day last Thursday many citizens registered as Independent Republicans or Independent Democrats.

There are no such parties on the primary ballot and voters so registered will be unable to vote unless they change their enrollment, which can be done by appearing at the registration booths either on Tuesday or Saturday of this week during the regular hours of registration.

Registered as Republicans, voters can vote for any of the "independent" Republican candidates, all of whom are entered in the Republican primary. It is not necessary that voters registering as Republicans or Democrats should vote those tickets at the general election.

Now! Spear's Presents

The Record-Smashing Value of All Time

PHILCO

Superheterodyne

Lowboy Cabinet Model

With the Powerful Pentode Tube

49.95 Complete

Ready for Immediate Delivery

PHILCO is the big name in Radio . . . and SUPERHETERODYNE is the circuit! The PENTODE TUBE is a powerful new invention! In this great Radio offering tomorrow, Spear's combine PHILCO SUPERHETERODYNE PENTODE TUBE in a beautiful LOWBOY CABINET that women will love, at the record-smashing price of all time . . . $49.95 COMPLETE, ready for immediate use, with 7 matched PHILCO tubes!

Remember, these are the latest Model 50, 1932, Philcos on sale at both Spear Stores tomorrow! Order yours now.

Features:
- Pentode Tube
- Triple Screen Grid
- Electro-Dynamic Speaker
- Full Size Lowboy
- Selective, Powerful and Sensitive

$4.95 Down Payment Delivers Now!

SPEAR'S

Downtown: 911-921 Penn Ave — Close 5:30 P. M. Daily

East Liberty: Broad and Collins — Open Monday and Saturday Nights

SQUIRREL HILL REGISTRATION FRAUD BARED

Woman Board Member Finds Own Address Used for Spurious Enrollment.

(Continued from Page One.)

given her address. She said he does not reside there."

FOUR FAKE REGISTRATIONS

In other districts in the Fourteenth Ward false registrations were reported. Steve Andolina, 6445 Nicholson street, said the four men registered from his home are unknown. P. F. Casey, 6445 Waldron street, said neither of the two persons who registered from his residence are known and Alex Cooper, of the Mercantile Tax office, residing at 6325 Waldron street, said four who registered from his home are phantoms.

In the Second Ward 36 fictitious names have been discovered on the registration lists. From a sausage factory at 26 Penn avenue the commission said Helen Kopp and Anthony Kopp were registered.

In the Third Ward several persons registered from 1001 Webster avenue on tax receipts issued by a politician. The names on the receipts are not the same as the names of the occupants.

The board also announced that Joe Korpa, of 6 Moultrie street, registered in both the First and Second District of the Fourth Ward.

Thousands Facing Loss Of Vote in War on Fraud

By MARK SHIELDS

In an effort to keep the registry books clear of fraudulent registration for the primary September 15, the Registration Commission may attempt to strike from the books the names of all persons held improperly assessed under the mandamus decision issued last week by Judge James H. Gray.

Thousands of persons were assessed and paid for tax receipts without a certification of the assessment being made to the County Treasurer. This was improper under the act of 1931, Judge Gray held. All persons so assessed may be considered ineligible to vote, in the opinion of some attorneys.

Among the thousands of names which would be affected by such drastic action not more than one in six, according to investigators for the Registration Commission, are legitimate voters. The others belong to phantoms placed on the books through the practice of one person being assessed a number of times under various names, or from addresses which have no existence.

JURISDICTION CLEAR

It is not necessary for the Registration Commission to seek any new authority from the courts, it is held by attorneys who have studied the case. The Bar Association Elections Committee has considered the assessment and registration in the light of Judge Gray's decision, and the Registration Commission, it is understood, has been told that its jurisdiction is clear.

If a decision is reached to strike off the names it may make little difference how many of the phantoms register, though an effort will be made to challenge them through information furnished registrars. The commission through a study of the tax books may be able to ascertain the name of every person who improperly secured a tax receipt. The registry books could then be combed and the name of every improperly assessed person would be erased. This work would be performed late Saturday night and Sunday.

Admittedly a minority of honest voters would be penalized, an apparent injustice which would be small beside the total result in preventing fraudulent voting.

STEALING PLOTS BARED

Investigators for the commission have been checking assessments for weeks and have uncovered widespread plans to steal the election. The fraud is confined to no one faction of the regular Republican machine, and illegal practices on behalf of the machine are as prevalent in some of the so-called uncontrolled wards as in the downtown and Strip section where election thievery is an orthodox business.

Machine leaders appear to have felt that they could get away with trickery through connivance of some of their friends in the uncontrolled wards while the investigators were busy watching the usual haunts of fraud.

SUSPECT BLANKS STOLEN

Fraudulent tax receipts have appeared all over the city. One picked up by a registration board in the Seventeenth Ward appears to have come from the Treasurer's office, but, unlike a valid receipt, it bears no name of an issuing clerk. Investigation is being made to determine whether a batch of receipts were abstracted from the Treasurer's office.

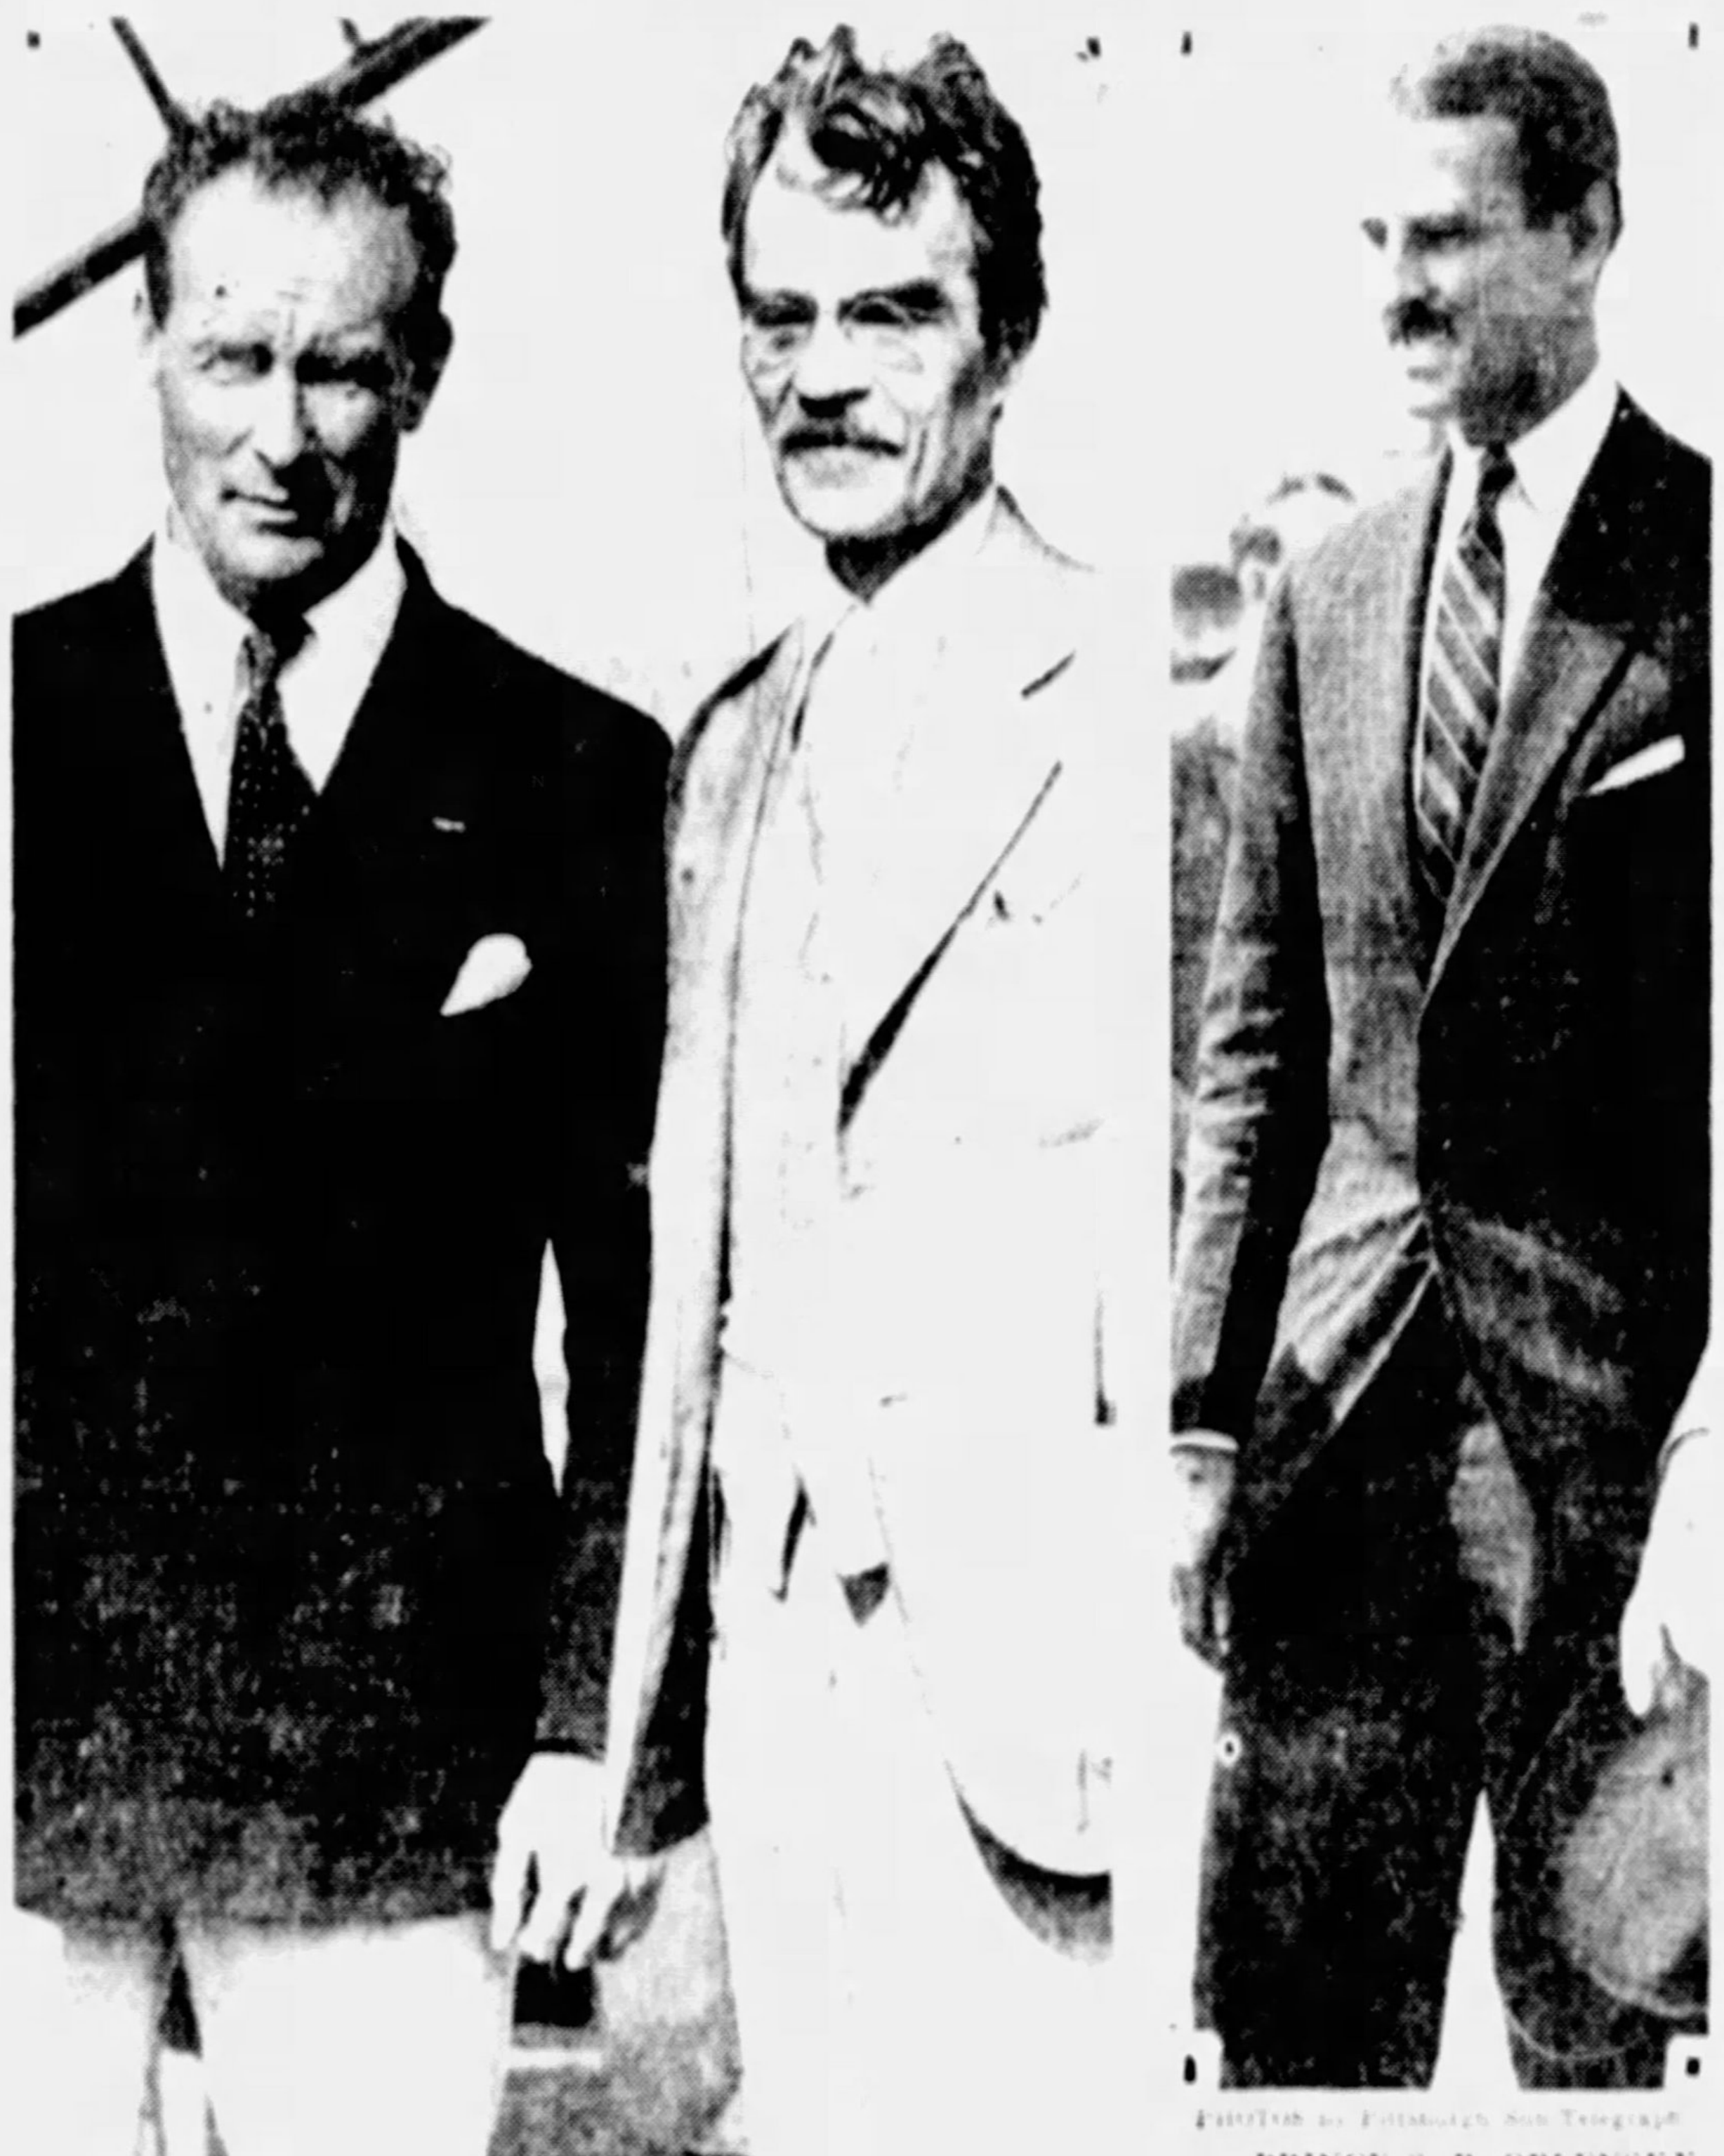
Investigators questioned registrants who frankly said they were not making their first trip to the assessment offices, having used a different name on a previous appearance. The Registration Commission has asked for an augmented force of state police for tomorrow and next Saturday.

Dr. Frederick Gives Support to Canuti

Dr. F. H. Frederick, frequently termed "chairman of North Side Chairmen," has been added to the list of indorsers of Attorney Frank F. Canuti as candidate for Judge of Common Pleas Court. Canuti recently was indorsed by County Commissioner C. C. McGovern, also by scores of sectional political and civic organizations.

Canuti was to speak today at 8:45 over WJAS on "The Duty of Capital and the Sanctity of Labor," in which he will pay tribute to Allegheny County workingmen to the exclusion of politics.

RUSSIAN PRINCES FLY TO PITTSBURGH



PILOT BORIS SERGIEVSKY — PRINCE SERGE A. GAGARIN — PRINCE S. P. OBLENSKY

Photos by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

RUSSIAN CLUBS HEAR PRINCES

Business sessions of the Federated Russian Orthodox clubs today at the William Penn Hotel conclude the three-day convention of the organization that reached a climax last night by a banquet attended by more than a thousand people.

Plans for the foundation of a Russian center where American-born Russians could learn the traditions and customs of the mother country were discussed at a session held yesterday afternoon. As the organization was founded in the North Side four years ago it is probable that the center will be in Pittsburgh.

Although Igor Sikorsky, noted Russian plane designer, was unable to attend last night's banquet, Princes S. P. Oblensky and Serge A. Gagarin, also Capt. Boris Sergievsky, wartime pilot, addressed the banquet after flying here.

The organization, formed by Russian youths, seeks to perpetuate Russian ideals, customs and folk-lore in this country.

The officers of the Federated Clubs are: Rev. Vladimar Prislopski, president; Andrew Goidich, vice president; Marie Ratica, secretary; N. Kappanadze, treasurer, and Peter Susko, second vice president.

Pittsburghers Talk At Extension Session

Five Pittsburghers will be speakers at the sixteenth annual engineering extension convention and the retailers conference at Pennsylvania State College this week. They are J. Rogers Flannery, W. B. Spellmire, John D. Beatty, C. S. Coler, and Bishop Brown, of the University of Pittsburgh.

COYNE PLEDGES JOBLESS AID

State Senator James J. Coyne, candidate for County Commissioner, delivered a pre-Labor Day speech in the State Theater, Clairton, last night and pledged, if elected, to aid in providing work so there will be a regular pay envelope in the home of every willing worker, at least until winter has passed.

He said:

"The time has come to stop pressing down upon the brow of labor the thorny crown of unemployment and crucifying the self-respect of those who vainly seek work upon a cross of charity.

"'Pay lines, not bread lines,' are what this nation needs and I again pledge myself, if elected, to use the tremendous resources of Allegheny County, in co-operation with other agencies, to the end that there will be a pay envelope in every home regularly until the crisis of the approaching winter is past."

Injured by Cycle, Boy May Lose Foot

Albert Banich, 14, of 427 Atlantic avenue, McKeesport, is in the McKeesport Hospital with a fractured right foot that may have to be amputated, hospital authorities reported. His foot was caught in the wheel of a motorcycle on which he was riding, driven in Clairton Saturday night by Angelo Bernette, of River street, McKeesport.

West Newton Boy Injured at Football

Maurice Switney, 15, freshman in West Newton High School, is in the McKeesport Hospital with a fractured right ankle suffered when he was tackled in football practice Saturday.

SMITH SCORES DETECTIVES

Ralph H. Smith, Independent candidate for district attorney, in a speech before the West End Hilltop Club last night assailed the county detectives, charging while they had been unable to solve any of 15 bombings in the county since January 1 they had repeatedly refused proferred aid of state police. He said:

"They have placed selfish pride above public service, and have ignored the public demands that something be done. The man who places the 'pineapple,' or bomb, is the worst type of criminal. He makes war upon men, women and children and works havoc in an entire neighborhood.

"The district attorney at one time appointed a special bomb squad, but since the day of its appointment, nothing has been heard from it, and certainly no results have been obtained."

Smith listed the unsolved bombings.

M'GOVERN MAN FOR MUSMANNO

Representative M. A. Musmanno, candidate for Judge of County Court, has been indorsed by Attorney Joseph Howley, chairman of the East End headquarters of the independent Republican ticket headed by County Commissioner C. C. McGovern, who is running for another term.

Addressing 1,500 people in East End headquarters, Musmanno declared a judicial candidate should prove he has the educational qualifications and a spotless character and must have demonstrated he is entirely sincere in his intention of being of service to his fellow citizens.

have a Clear Skin—

rich, red blood cells will help you . . . .

"I WAS determined to have a clear skin."

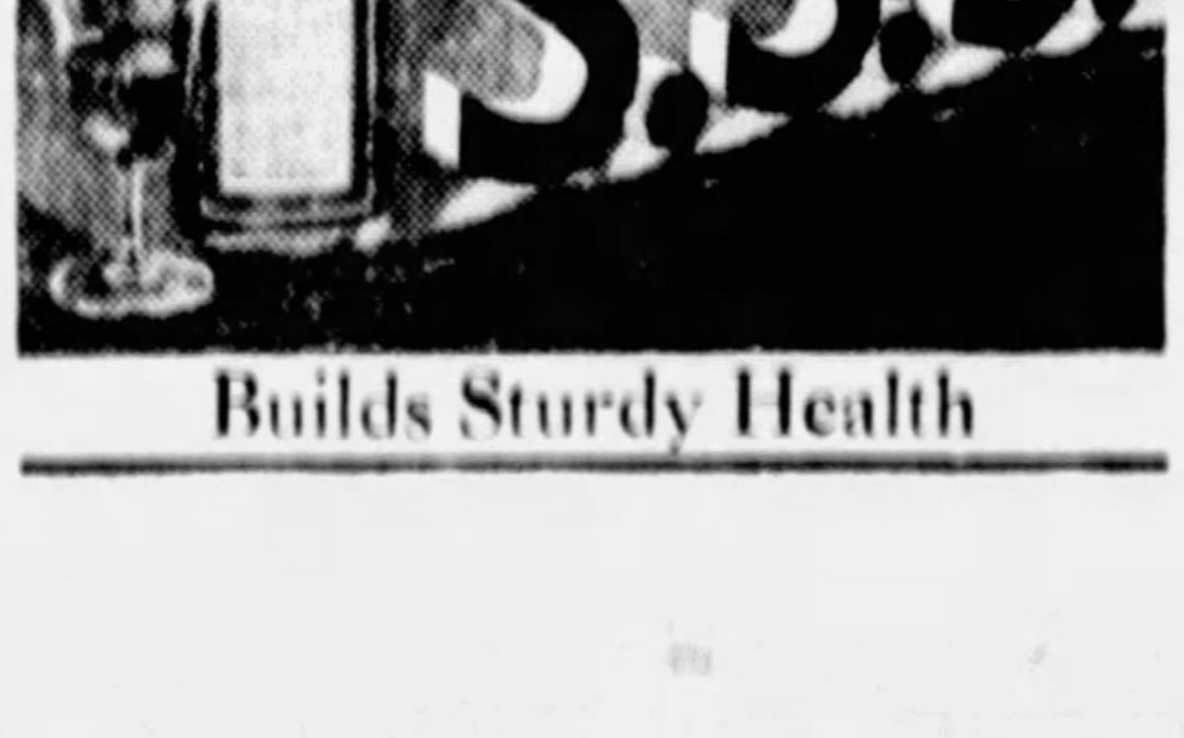
"Some one told me of S.S.S. . . . now I am so glad the last pimple is gone."

Whenever bad complexion or blemishes on the skin are due to a low blood count, or to a lagging appetite, the condition can be relieved or benefited by a course of S.S.S.

If you are pale, or languid, give S.S.S. a trial. It may help you as it has helped thousands of others.

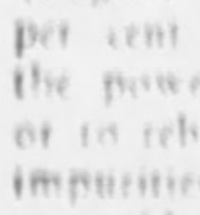
Its successful record of over 100 years in restoring strength and vitality to the blood surely warrants your giving it a good trial.

Why not start taking S.S.S. today? the larger size represents a price saving.

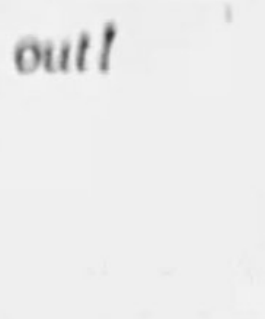


Builds Sturdy Health

Why you should be interested in your Blood Count



(Left) Microscopic view of healthy red blood cells. The blood stream should contain about 5,000,000 of these cells to the cubic millimeter. They carry nourishment and oxygen to every part of the body—they also remove impurities from the tissues.



(Right) Weak red blood cells—only 60 per cent of normal strength—they lack the power to resist infection and disease or to rebuild flesh and to carry away the impurities. Such a condition is often responsible for body weakness, paleness, sallow complexion, pimples and boils.

Don't let them count you out!

GIMBELS

SIXTH AVE. at SMITHFIELD ST. PHONE AT. 4400 TEL. SHOPPING GR. 8400

STORE HOURS: 9 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M.

Custom-Made Slip Covers

A Special Offer—Limited Time Only—for 3-Piece Living Room Suites Including Five Cushions

27.95

Regularly 39.75

Your suite is measured in your home and the slip covers made individually to fit. Your choice of cover is made from new 36 and 50-inch warp print cretonnes, 50-inch imitation linen weave cretonne, plain jaspe, and fancy denim. Slight additional charge for out-of-town orders.

85c New 50-in. Drapery Cretonne, 59c

7.50 Ready-to-Hang 50-in. Pleated Cretonne Drapes, 4.95 a pair

The same in 25-in. width ... 2.50 pair

GIMBELS ... DRAPERIES ... EIGHTH FLOOR

Hudson Seal*

Achieves New Favor

In the 1931-32 Silhouette

$195

Hudson Seal* has long been a favorite with women who appreciate quality in furs. But now the details of the new silhouette have made it the leader in smartness as well. The slenderizing effect of the fitted lines, the skirt with ample fullness but no flare, and the versatility with which it combines with other furs make it the season's favorite.

*Dyed Muskrat

FURS ... THIRD FLOOR

Utility Coats

with Fur Trimming

Are Necessary in Every Fall Wardrobe

$25

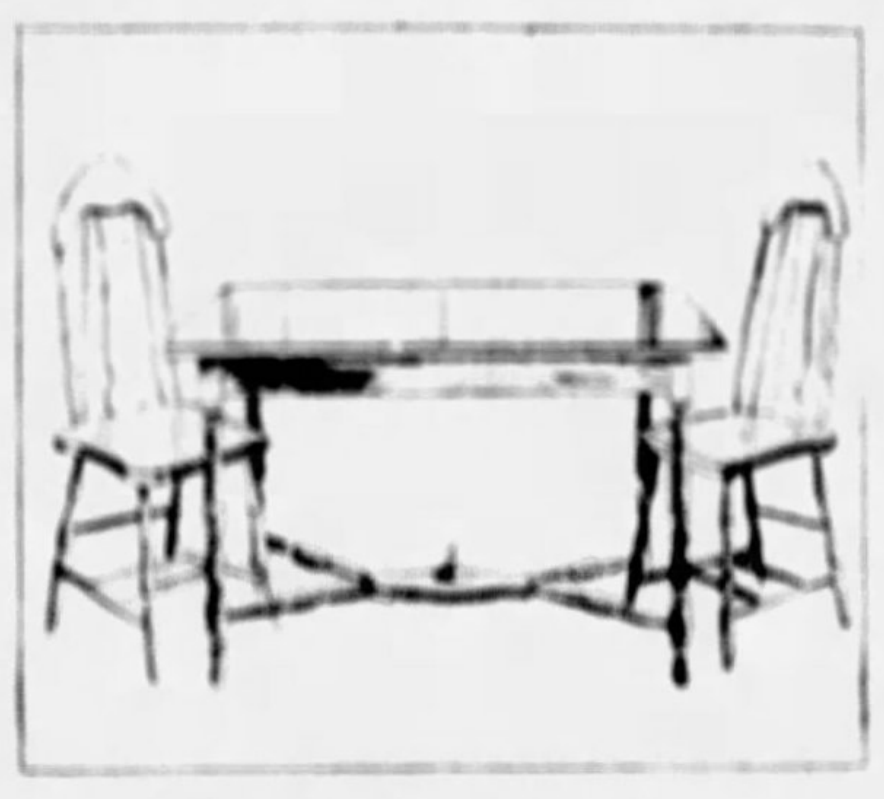
The tailored coat of tweed or rough woolen offers variety in this season of elaborate "leisure hour" fashions. For the traveler, the business woman and the college girl. The utility coat fills a definite need. Gimbels presents a splendid selection as outstanding for its smart styles and quality furs as for this exceptionally low price.

Misses' Sizes 14 to 20

Women's Sizes 36 to 44

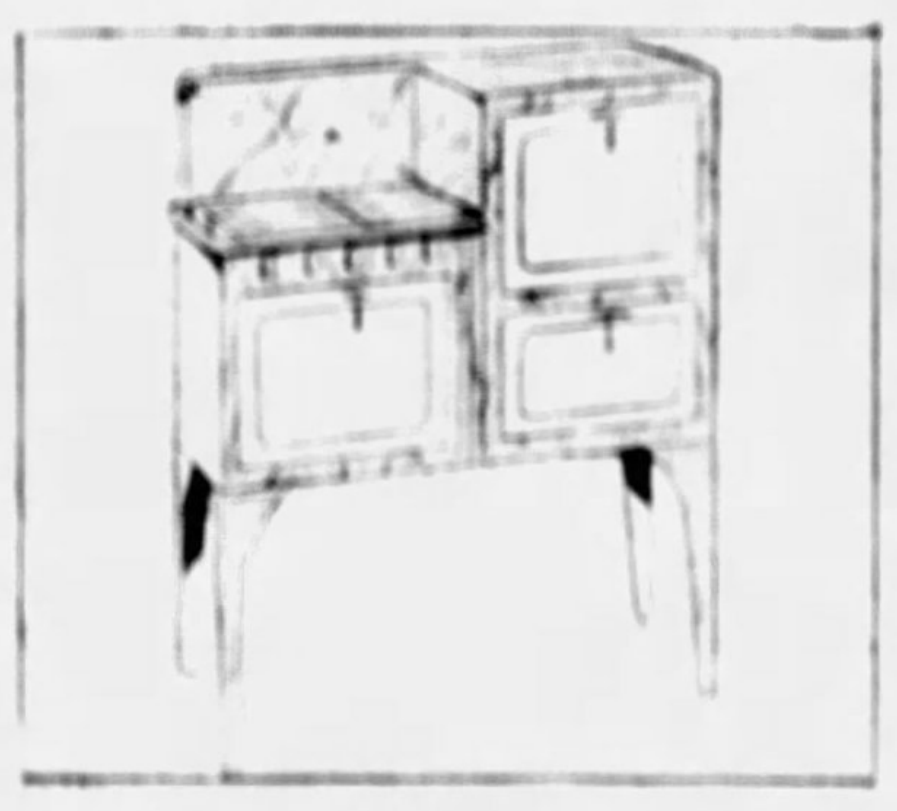
COATS ... THIRD FLOOR

September Sale HOUSEWARES



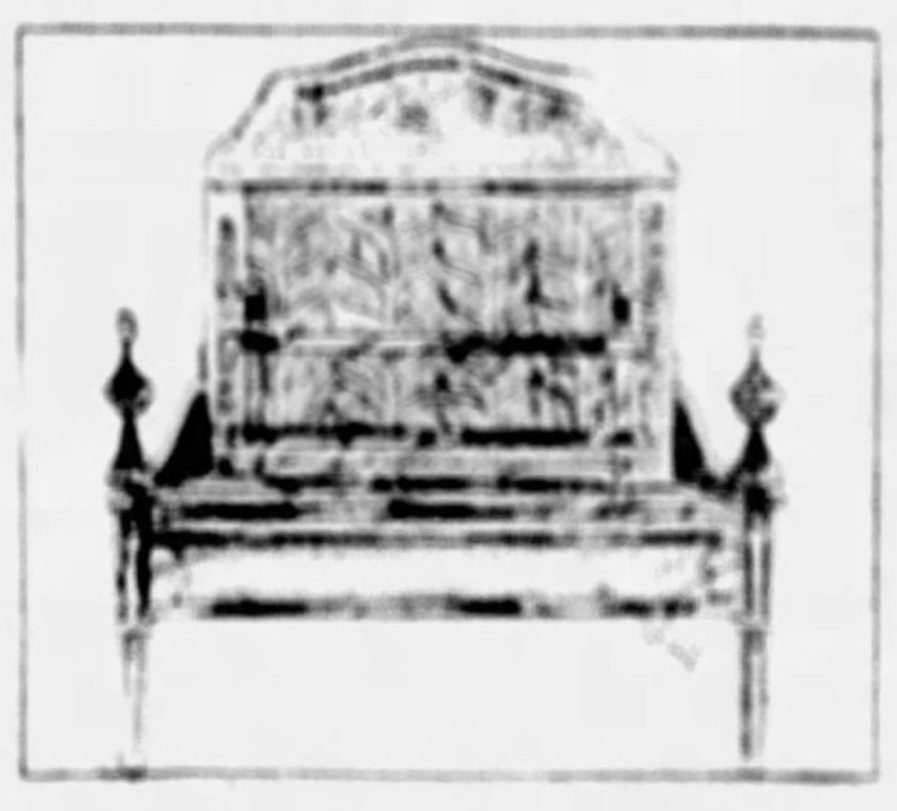
5-Pc. Breakfast Sets

Solid oak. Table with sliding top. Flanders oak with green, brown stained oak finish. 27.50



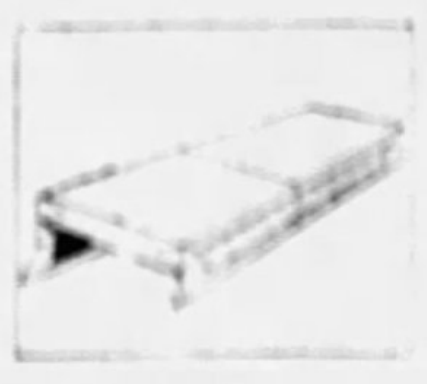
Console Gas Ranges

Porcelain enamel oven and broiler. Large compartment for pots and pans. 37.95



12.95 Radiant Gas Heaters

Four double burner radiants, solid clay backwall. Cast iron burners. Steel frame. 9.95



Radiator Covers

$1

Reg. 1.75. Extend from 27 to 42 inches. 9 in. wide.

Clothes Baskets

89c

Regularly 1.45. Closely woven. Smoothly finished willow.

Metal Baskets

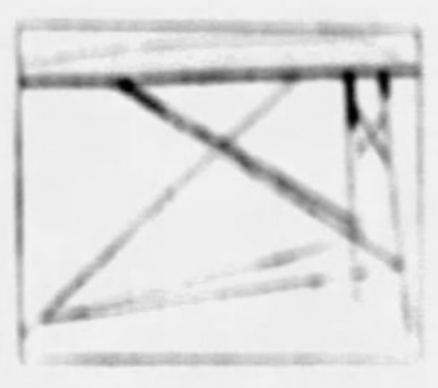
39c

Regularly 1.00. Made of metal. Assorted designs and colors.

Saucepan Sets

$1

White Vollrath pans, 1, 1½ and 1¾-quart sizes. Reg. 2.00.



Ironing Boards

1.98

Ridjid Ironing Board, strong and sturdy. Regularly 3.50.

Coffee Makers

89c

Regularly 1.50. Aluminum coffee maker. Six-cup size.

13-pc. Grill Set

3.39

Regularly 3.95. Imported porcelain. Floral decoration.

22-pc. Lunch Set

$1

Regularly 2.25. Green glass with etching. Very attractive.

103-pc. Dinner Set

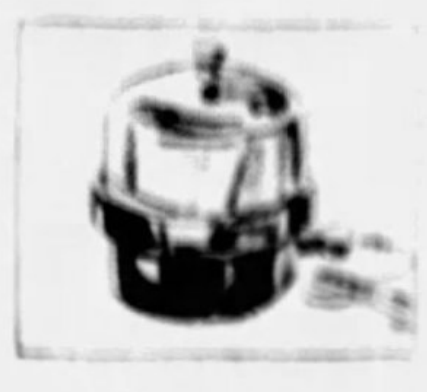
$25

Regularly 46.50. American porcelain. Service for 12.

Cookers

$1

Regularly 1.75. Aluminum, 4-qt. size. Clamp lid style.



Eggsters

1.95

Regularly 2.95. Automatic electric. Cooks four eggs at one time.

Luncheon Set

89c

Rose or green. 4 plates, 4 cups, 4 saucers, sherbets and tumblers.

GIMBELS ... HOUSEWARES ... SEVENTH FLOOR

CANNERS SPEED PLANS TO OPEN BIG PLANT

Surplus for Needy Relief Group to Begin Work On Huge Scale Tomorrow

Last minute preparations were being made today by the Surplus for the Needy Committee for the inauguration tomorrow of wholesale canning operations in the plant of Lee Chattaway [illegible] Company on Spring Garden avenue. Work will be started on a large scale to alleviate the suffering of the needy in the Pittsburgh district, members of the committee said today.

It is the plan of the committee under the leadership of Attorney Harry I. M[illegible], one of the founders of the [illegible] Hand Society, and the [illegible] Alexander Gibson, one of the directors of that organization, to provide 5,000 needy families of the district with five cans of vegetables each week over a period of [illegible] weeks.

WOMEN AID WORK

With [illegible] of vegetables, cans and [illegible] equipment being received daily at the committee's depot at 247 Water street, members of the committee expressed their confidence in the opening of the plant [illegible].

The women's committee under the leadership of Mrs. William Thaw Jr., was today canvassing the farmers of the Pittsburgh district, especially those of the Sewickley [illegible] in an attempt to collect more vegetables for the project.

The committee has issued an appeal to the wealthy farmers to donate a [illegible] product to the cause. It was pointed out that this will serve a two-fold purpose. It will clarify the market for the products of the less wealthy farmers and will aid the work of the Surplus for the Needy Movement.

WORK UNDER WAY

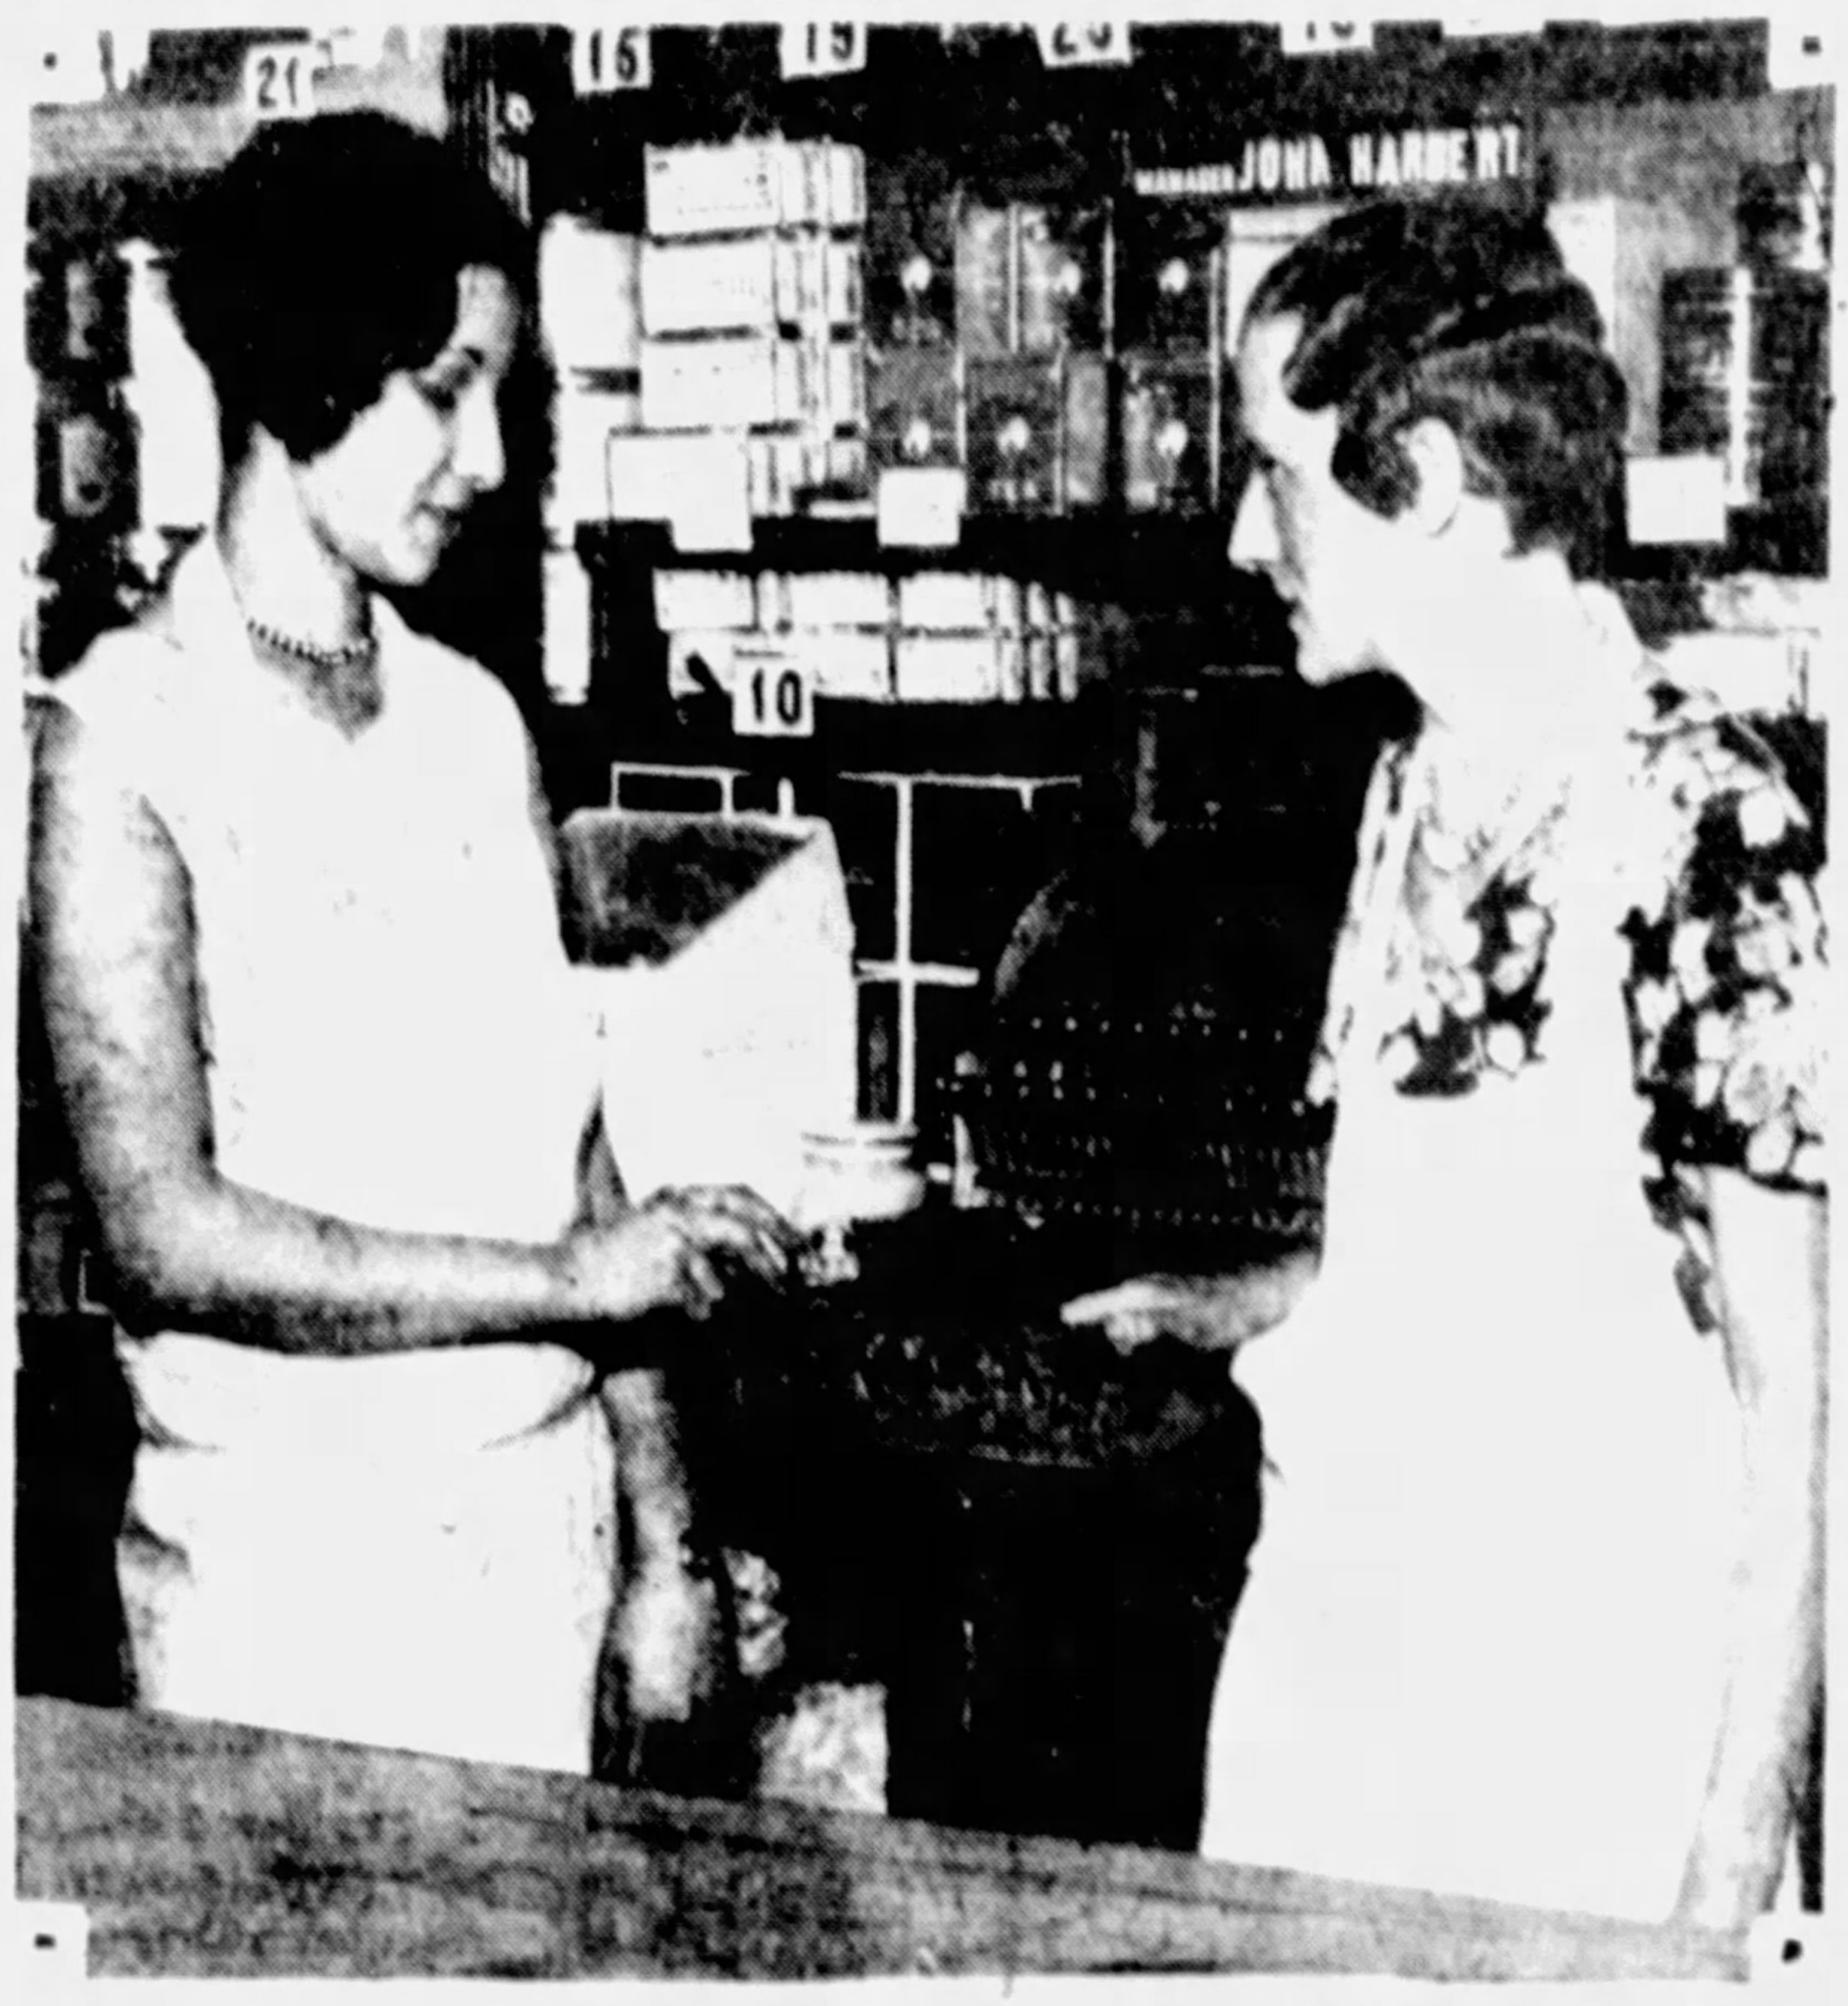
It is the plan of the committee, they said, to follow the opening of the Spring Garden avenue plant with the opening of a similar plant at 247 Water street, now being used as a depot for collection of the produce.

The Pittsburgh Chapter, American Red Cross, under the leadership of A. K[illegible], has been taking charge of the canning operations in the kitchens of the public schools of the district and has also supervised the canning projects being carried on by church societies.

East End Banker Lauds Cain's Record

J. R. Jones, assistant cashier of the East End Savings and Trust Company, today issued a statement that Sheriff Robert S. Cain, candidate for County Treasurer, "has demonstrated his ability and character in public life" and recommended Cain for continuance in public service.

THEY DIDN'T HAVE TO PUT UP HANDS



GENEVIEVE GALLO — MRS. J. B. HARBERT

Miss Gallo, clerk, and Mrs. Harbert of Homestead, wife of the manager, with 11 others were held up by a nonchalant bandit in the Atlantic and Pacific store at 1103 Wylie avenue. He left with $100 and a carton of cigarets after informing victims "not to bother raising their hands."

6 Police Officers Indicted in Florida

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Four Dade County constables, Chief of Police H. C. Peters of Homestead, Fla., and Policeman W. H. Sykes Jr., of Homestead have been arrested on indictments charging malfeasance in office, extortion and acceptance of bribes.

The constables are S. D. Calloway and George Mehan of Miami, A. C. Daniels of Coconut Grove and H. M. Cook of Homestead. All were released on bond.

Pastor Faces Trial On Girl's Charge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(Universal)—The Rev. Dr. William A. Shelton, pastor of the fashionable Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church South, will be tried on undisclosed charges brought by Miss Carrie A. Williams, his former secretary.

Efforts to learn the nature of the charges were without avail. An investigating committee of [illegible] pastors is to inform them [illegible] call for a trial.

COUPON
TO FEED HUNGRY
SURPLUS FOR NEEDY COMMITTEE
Court 0233
616 BERGER BUILDING, PITTSBURGH

I, (name) ....

of (address) ....

have surplus vegetables, fruits, or cans which I wish to donate for needy persons. Call Tel. No. .... or I will deliver at 247 Water Street.

(SEE STORY ON THIS PAGE)

GUNMEN STAGE 3 HOLDUPS

Two chain stores, a cab driver and a housewife were victims of week-end robberies and holdups, police records revealed today.

A. P. H. Butler store at Hamilton and Idlewild streets was held up by two bandits yesterday and escaped with an undetermined amount of cash.

John Harbert, manager of an A. & P. store at 1101 Wylie avenue, was held up and $15 was taken from the cash register by a Negro as the store was closing Saturday night.

A Negro fare who engaged the taxicab driven by August Pisano, 1603 Bedford avenue, showed a gun in the driver's ribs and took $5.50 from him after being driven from Fullerton street and Wylie avenue to Belinda street.

Mrs. B. Fisher of 363 Collart [illegible] reported to police that a $100 diamond ring was missing after she had fed a tramp in her home Saturday.

MEXICO SEEKS MEMBERSHIP IN LEAGUE

Britain, France, Japan and Spain Act as Sponsors; Titulescue Named President

GENEVA, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Delegates representing Great Britain, France, Japan and Spain today asked the League of Nations Assembly which opened its twelfth session today, to invite Mexico to become a member of the League. The assembly will act on the request tomorrow.

This formality indicates that Mexico has made known her wish to become a member but the preliminary negotiations were conducted so quietly that today's development came as something of a surprise.

There must be a special invitation if Mexico is to join, for that country was not included in the original list of states nominated for membership in 1919. The omission was generally attributed to the fact that at that time President Wilson was not on good terms with the Mexican government.

Nicholas Titulescu, former premier of Rumania, was elected president of the assembly and the meeting adjourned until tomorrow.

Titulescu received 25 votes out of 49 cast. Count Apponyi, of Hungary, got 20 votes, Costa du Rels, of Bolivia, 2, and Ven Nerstedt of Sweden, 2. Titulescu was president of the last assembly and the first man to be chosen to preside twice.

Return of prosperity and reduction of armaments held the center of the stage as the League convened for its annual session. An elaborate agenda has been prepared to permit the assembly to begin immediate inquiries into the causes of the present world-wide economic depression and seek some means of restoring normal prosperity.

While the assembly's economic deliberations will be watched with keen interest throughout the world, the subject of disarmament is also catalogued for detailed discussion. The body is confronted with the task of laying definite plans for the general disarmament conference scheduled to meet under its auspices in February, 1932.

105,000 Catholics Worship in Stadium

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The greatest religious celebration in America since the Eucharistic convention in Chicago five years ago was held in Olympic Stadium under the eyes of from 105,000 to 110,000 persons.

Pontifical high mass of the Catholic Church was celebrated under the leadership of a Papal emissary to the United States, the most Rev. Pietro Fumasoni-Biondi, and five other high priests.

The event was the main religious phase of Las Fiesta de Los Angeles, the city's one hundred and fiftieth birthday celebration.

Sing Sing to Play Football, But Not With Colleges

OSSINING, N. Y., Sept. 7.—(INS)—The hidden ball trick and other football "larcenies" may be seen here this fall. Officials of Sing Sing prison announced football teams would be organized among the prisoners.

Because some of the prisoners might get "too rough" it was announced no games with outside teams would be scheduled.

Boy Gravely Hurt By Thrown Brick

Russell Cazzuppi, 4, of 1098 Ivy street, Ambridge, was in a serious condition in the Rochester General Hospital in Rochester today with a fractured skull received, police said, when he was accidentally struck on the head by a brick thrown by one of a group of boys last night.

The boys were playing on a hill above Eighth avenue and Pine street, Ambridge, police said, when a brick thrown by one of them struck the boys who was passing. Seven of the group were arrested and questioned by police. They were later released.

POWER PROBE TO RESUME

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Federal Trade Commission is preparing to resume its inquiry into the operations of the so-called "power trust," which was launched in February, 1928.

The date of the first hearings of the fall session has not been announced, but officials anticipated they would start during September.

It was expected that one of the power organizations in the Middle West would be studied in initial hearings. The commission is now investigating the financial set-up and the relationship of the power corporations, having started this phase of the inquiry a year ago.

Another 12 months will be required to complete the power inquiry, after which the commission is expected to make elaborate recommendations to the Senate which directed the investigation on a resolution introduced by Senator Walsh (Dem.), of Montana.

WEST ALIQUIPPA FETES SAINT

More than 3,000 people joined in the festivities yesterday in West Aliquippa's celebration of St. Magno Martire Day. The celebration embraced a two-day program of concerts, parades, sports and fireworks. A bomb salute started festivities Saturday.

The committee in charge included David D'Eramo, Orlando Nolfi, Victor Trombet, Cross Thomas, Nick DiSantis, Lorenzo Sylvester, Francesco D'Eramo, Joseph Nolfi, Antonio Casasanto and Casido Tomasso.

Man, 74, Pushed Off Porch; Suspect Held

Thomas Gorman, 74, of 513 Mills avenue, Braddock, was recovering at his home today from lacerations of the head suffered when he was pushed over a porch banister at his home yesterday. Police arrested Patrick Burke, 39, of Dayton, O.

You Never Heard of Majestic Lowboys At Such a Price . . .

$59.50 COMPLETE

IMAGINE IT!
A Majestic . . .
A 1932 Majestic
. . . and a Lowboy
yes — at $59.50
at May-Stern's

Such an astounding announcement will cause a new downward revision on radio prices throughout this city. It establishes a new era of GREATER value-giving.

This Superheterodyne Has Pentode and Multi-Mu, of course . . . and now SPRAY SHIELD tubes

What a Radio! Nothing as good as this Majestic has ever been offered at $59.50 in radios. With a superheterodyne chassis—with monitor construction—with SPRAY SHIELD, Pentode and Multi-Mu tubes—with modulated circuit—with twin-power detection—with tone control and Grand Opera Speaker . . . WHAT MORE COULD YOU ASK FOR in a radio at $59.50? Furthermore—it's a FULL SIZE lowboy in an Early English design and of genuine butt walnut . . . a masterpiece.

$4 DELIVERS ONE ALL COMPLETE

MAY-STERN'S
Consolidated with Pickering's—NUF CED
914-20 PENN AVE.

VICKS VAPORUB NOW IN Stainless FORM . . .

Your same Vicks
. . only Color removed Same Formula . .
Same Price

REAL news in 26 million homes! The Vicks VapoRub you have always used . . . now comes to you in white, stainless form! A new process simply removes all color—and with it any chance of stain. It's the same matchless formula . . . at the same price.

There is nothing like Vicks, as most mothers know. It acts externally and directly—right where the trouble is . . . by stimulation and inhalation—2 ways at once. That's why it's the standby for colds in 3 out of 4 American homes—for all the family.

Your druggist now has Vicks in either the familiar original amber or new white, stainless form. Whichever you prefer, you get exactly the same time-tested medication—the same dependable Vicks—and at the same price.

In Original Amber, Too
Your Druggist has Both

For a generation an especially selected amber petrolatum has been used as the base of Vicks because we found no white or "stainless" base of satisfactory melting point and viscosity that would permit the gradual, long-continued vaporizing action that is distinctive of Vicks.

Through the perfection of a process which removes the natural color, without otherwise affecting its properties, Vick Chemists have at last made Vicks VapoRub possible in white colorless form, for those who prefer it.

Don't "dose" colds except on your Doctor's Advice

Health and Frosperity

Live in the country, in fresh air and sunshine. Modern farming now offers you an opportunity for independence and a good livelihood. Modern machinery, motor cars and trucks, electricity, radios and telephones have brought the city with its markets and amusements close to the rural districts. The old feeling of desolation and loneliness which keeps so many off the farms is gone. There are health and prosperity for the man who chooses to live in the country.

Look for the values in country property and farms listed for sale in the Sun-Telegraph Classified Ads

BOARD INVITES SHIPPERS AND RAIL MEN

Executives and Contact Committee to Confer Here on September 17

Representatives of industry and railroads, along with all producers, receivers and shippers of freight, were invited to attend the eighteenth regular meeting of the Allegheny Regional Advisory Board September 17 in the William Penn Hotel.

A joint session of the executive and railroad contact committees will be held the same morning in the board of directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce Building.

C. M. McCracken will give the report of the freight station section. A report on general transportation conditions throughout the country will be presented by W. J. McGarry.

REALTY BOARD MEETS TUESDAY

Weekly luncheon meetings of the Pittsburgh Real Estate Board will be resumed tomorrow in the William Penn Hotel. Col. George A. Burrell, consulting gas chemist who was located here prior to the World War, will address the group.

Col. Burrell recently returned from Russia where he has been employed by the Soviet government in the construction of gas and gasoline plants. He will outline progress being made by the Soviet in development of natural resources of Russia. The chemist is known as the inventor of the Burrell gas detector, for use in mine work.

Food Store Employes Hold Picnic at Park

Employes of the two McCann's stores are holding their annual picnic today at Dravo Park, Neville Island, the outing being under the auspices of the McCann Employes' Association. On the program are athletic contests, including a ball game between employes of the downtown and East Liberty stores and a horse shoe pitching contest. Harry Reese, president of the association, is in charge.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Ellen Havey Pierce

A requiem mass will be read in St. Canice's Church, Knoxville, at 10 a. m. Wednesday for Mrs. Ellen Havey Pierce, 84, who died last night and who will be buried from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Phillip A. Erny, 119 Margaret street, Mt. Oliver. Mrs. Pierce was the first president of the Holy Cross Branch of the L. C. B. A. Besides her daughter, she leaves seven grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Jane Havey Boyle, Miss Anie Havey and Sister Mary Joseph, of the Charity Nun's convent at the Church of the Resurrection, Brookline.

Woods Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen Crane Woods, of Elmhurst Inn, Sewickley, who died Saturday, will be held tomorrow in the home of her son, Charles A. Woods, 224 Thorn street. Mrs. Woods was the last surviving incorporator of the Pittsburgh Society for the Improvement of the Poor, and was a member of Sewickley Presbyterian Church. She leaves her son, vice president of the board for Edward A. Woods Company, Pittsburgh, and Sewick-Borough Solicitor, and seven grandchildren.

Dawes Funeral

Funeral services for James A. Dawes, 61, who died at his home, 133 Maple Terrace, Mt. Washington, on Friday, will be held tomorrow afternoon in the William Slater & Son funeral home, Virginia and Kearsarge streets. Mr. Dawes was an employe of the Pittsburgh Steel Company for 32 years; a member of Washington Lodge 242, F. & A. M.; the Royal Arcanum and the William Penn Council of I. O. A. Beside his widow, Bertha William Dawes, he leaves two sons, James Curtis and Lawrence E.; a brother, Edward E., and two grandchildren.

Staub Funeral

Funeral services for Peter A. Staub, 61, of Mt. Royal, who died in Allegheny General Hospital, Saturday, will be held in St. Ursula Church, Allison Park, Wednesday. For 10 years he was in the hardware business on the North Side. He was a member of St. Ursula Church, Allegheny Lodge No. 339, B. P. O. E., and the East North Side Business Men's Association. Besides his widow he leaves two sons, Anthony and Theodore Staub, and a daughter, Anna Staub.

Jacobs Funeral

Funeral services for George Jacobs, who died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. S. Gilmore, of Detroit, will be held Wednesday afternoon in St. John's Lutheran Church. He was born in Hagerstown, Md., August 10, 1850, and had been a resident of Homestead the last 51 years.

Seibert Funeral

Funeral services for Joseph Seibert, 72, who died Saturday at his home, 1617 Fanik avenue, North Side, will be held tomorrow morning in St. Frances Church, California avenue, North Side. Besides his widow he leaves a son, Charles Seibert, and a daughter, Mrs. Flora E. Mitchell.

Store Hours Tomorrow:
9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.

JOSEPH HORNE CO

THE BEST PLACE TO SHOP, AFTER ALL

September Sale of HOUSEWARES

Take this month to replenish your housekeeping needs at low prices . . . more pertinent this year than before because of the lower 1931 price levels, and Horne's special inducements for September.

Bird Cage and Stand $2.95

Horne Special Broom, 75c.

12-qt. Heavy Galvanized Water Pail, 35c.

5-ft. Step Ladders, with bucket shelf, 95c.

Rubber Kneeling Pads, 35c.

Cecil Paint Cleaner, 3 cans 50c.

Canary Birds, Chopper $3.95; Rollers, $2.95.

O'Cedar Mop and 12-oz. bottle O'Cedar Polish, $1.

Heavy Woven Dish Cloths, 3 for 50c.

[illegible] Non-Explosive Cleaning Fluid, gal. $1.00.

Metal Card Table Set $12.95

Galvanized Garbage Cans, with safe-on lids, $1.35.

Slip-on Mothproof Garment Bags, 65c.

Sanette Step-on Garbage Cans, 85c.

Iron Broiler and Cover, $1.00.

8-piece Green Glass Refreshment Sets, 45c.

5-lb. Sack Horne's Special Lawn Seed, $1.55.

Aluminum Drip-O-lator — 6-cup size, with 1 lb. Tea Room Coffee, $1.25.

Aluminum Utility Cooker . . . $1.00

6-qt. Heavy Aluminum Saucepan with Thermoplex handle, $2.45.

Aluminum Ware — Pails, Dishpans, Roasters and Tea Kettles, 65c each.

8-qt. Aluminum Preserving Kettle, 85c.

Wear-Ever French Fryer, $1.00.

Wear-Ever 4-piece Saucepan Set, $1.45.

Wear-Ever Large Colanders, $1.00.

Wear-Ever Percolators, $1.95.

Kitchen Cabinet Base $19.95

Utility Cabinet—Dish or Broom style, $6.95.

Breakfast Set—Table and four chairs, $29.50.

Painted Kitchen Chair, $1.95.

Under-Sink Metal Cabinet, $1.95.

Metal Utility Cabinet, 56 inches, $5.50.

Kitchen Table, with Stainless Porce-Namel Top, $5.95.

Glasbake Casseroles, 85c.

Enameled Cake Tray and Cover, 85c.

Radiant Gas Heater $11.95

Fireplace Sets — Including Fire Screen, 5-piece Fire Sets and Andirons, $10.95 set.

Homestead Coal-Fire Heaters—with 19-inch Andirons, $29.50.

Radiator Covers—Wood grain finish, 9½ inches wide and extending from 22 to 40 inches, $1.00.

Chrome finish Electric Coffee Percolators—7-cup size, $8.95.

Unfinished Dressing Table . . . $2.95

Unfinished Benches, $1.45.

Unfinished Book Racks, $1.00.

Unfinished Chest of Drawers, $8.95.

Unfinished End Table, $1.00.

Unfinished Step Ladder Stool, $1.00.

Unfinished Book Case, $4.95.

Unfinished Ladder-back Chair, $1.25.

Rocker to match, $1.50.

Celanese Shower Curtain $4.95

Metal Hamper, $2.95.

Bathroom Scales, in colors, $5.95.

Bath Stool—with rubber seat, 75c.

Toilet Seat—Hardwood with chrome finish, $5.95.

Metal Waste Baskets, 75c.

Medicine Cabinets — with Venetian mirrors, $4.95.

Tinted Toilet Tissue — 15 rolls, $1.00.

Rayon Shower Curtains, $1.95.

19-Pc. Etched Glass Set $9.75

Water Tumblers, 40c doz.

106-piece French China Dinner Set—two patterns, $99.75.

Service Plates, $1.50 each. [illegible], 75c each.

Etched or Crystal Stemware, 35c each.

32-piece Breakfast Sets — two floral patterns, $3.75.

English Porcelain Luncheon Sets, $10.00.

Fern or Ivy Plant Stands, $1.75.

Tile-top Smokers' Tables, $1.75.

. . . Horne's, Fifth Floor . . .

Beginning Tomorrow . . .

STYLTHRIFT Birthday Sale

Furniture for This Room

$238.25

Sofa and Chair, $97.50. (Chair not illustrated)
Wing Chair, $35.
Pull-up Chair, $17.50.
Coffee Table, $12.50.
Drum Table, $17.50.
Desk, $22.50.
Chair, $9.50.
Pier Cabinet, $19.50.
End Table, $6.75.
(Not Shown)

Other Furnishings

Broadloom Carpet, [illegible] ft., $84.
Damask Over-Draperies, two windows, $15.
2 Pairs Curtains, $3.10.
Bridge Lamp, $9.
Floor Lamp, $12.50.
Desk Lamp, $10.
Table Lamps, $10.

ONE year ago we established the Stylthrift Furniture Section—to offer furniture of Horne quality and style at moderate prices. So successful was this effort, we are celebrating its first birthday by extending this principle to related home furnishings—and offering furniture, draperies, floor coverings, curtains and lamps—all of particularly good design—at special prices.

Eight rooms have been completely furnished on the Stylthrift principle—and demonstrate the actual possibilities of furnishing a modern home in a charming manner at little cost.

Some of the Specially Priced Stylthrift Items:

Sofa and Chair, $97.50.
Colonial Wing Chair, $35.
Flat-top Desk, $22.50.
Early American Bedroom, complete, $97.50.
Broadloom Carpet, $3.50 Sq. Yd.
Damask Over-Draperies, $6.50 Pair
Boudoir Chair, $7.75.
10-pc. Dining Room Suite, $135.

Convenient Payments Arranged on Furniture and Floor Coverings

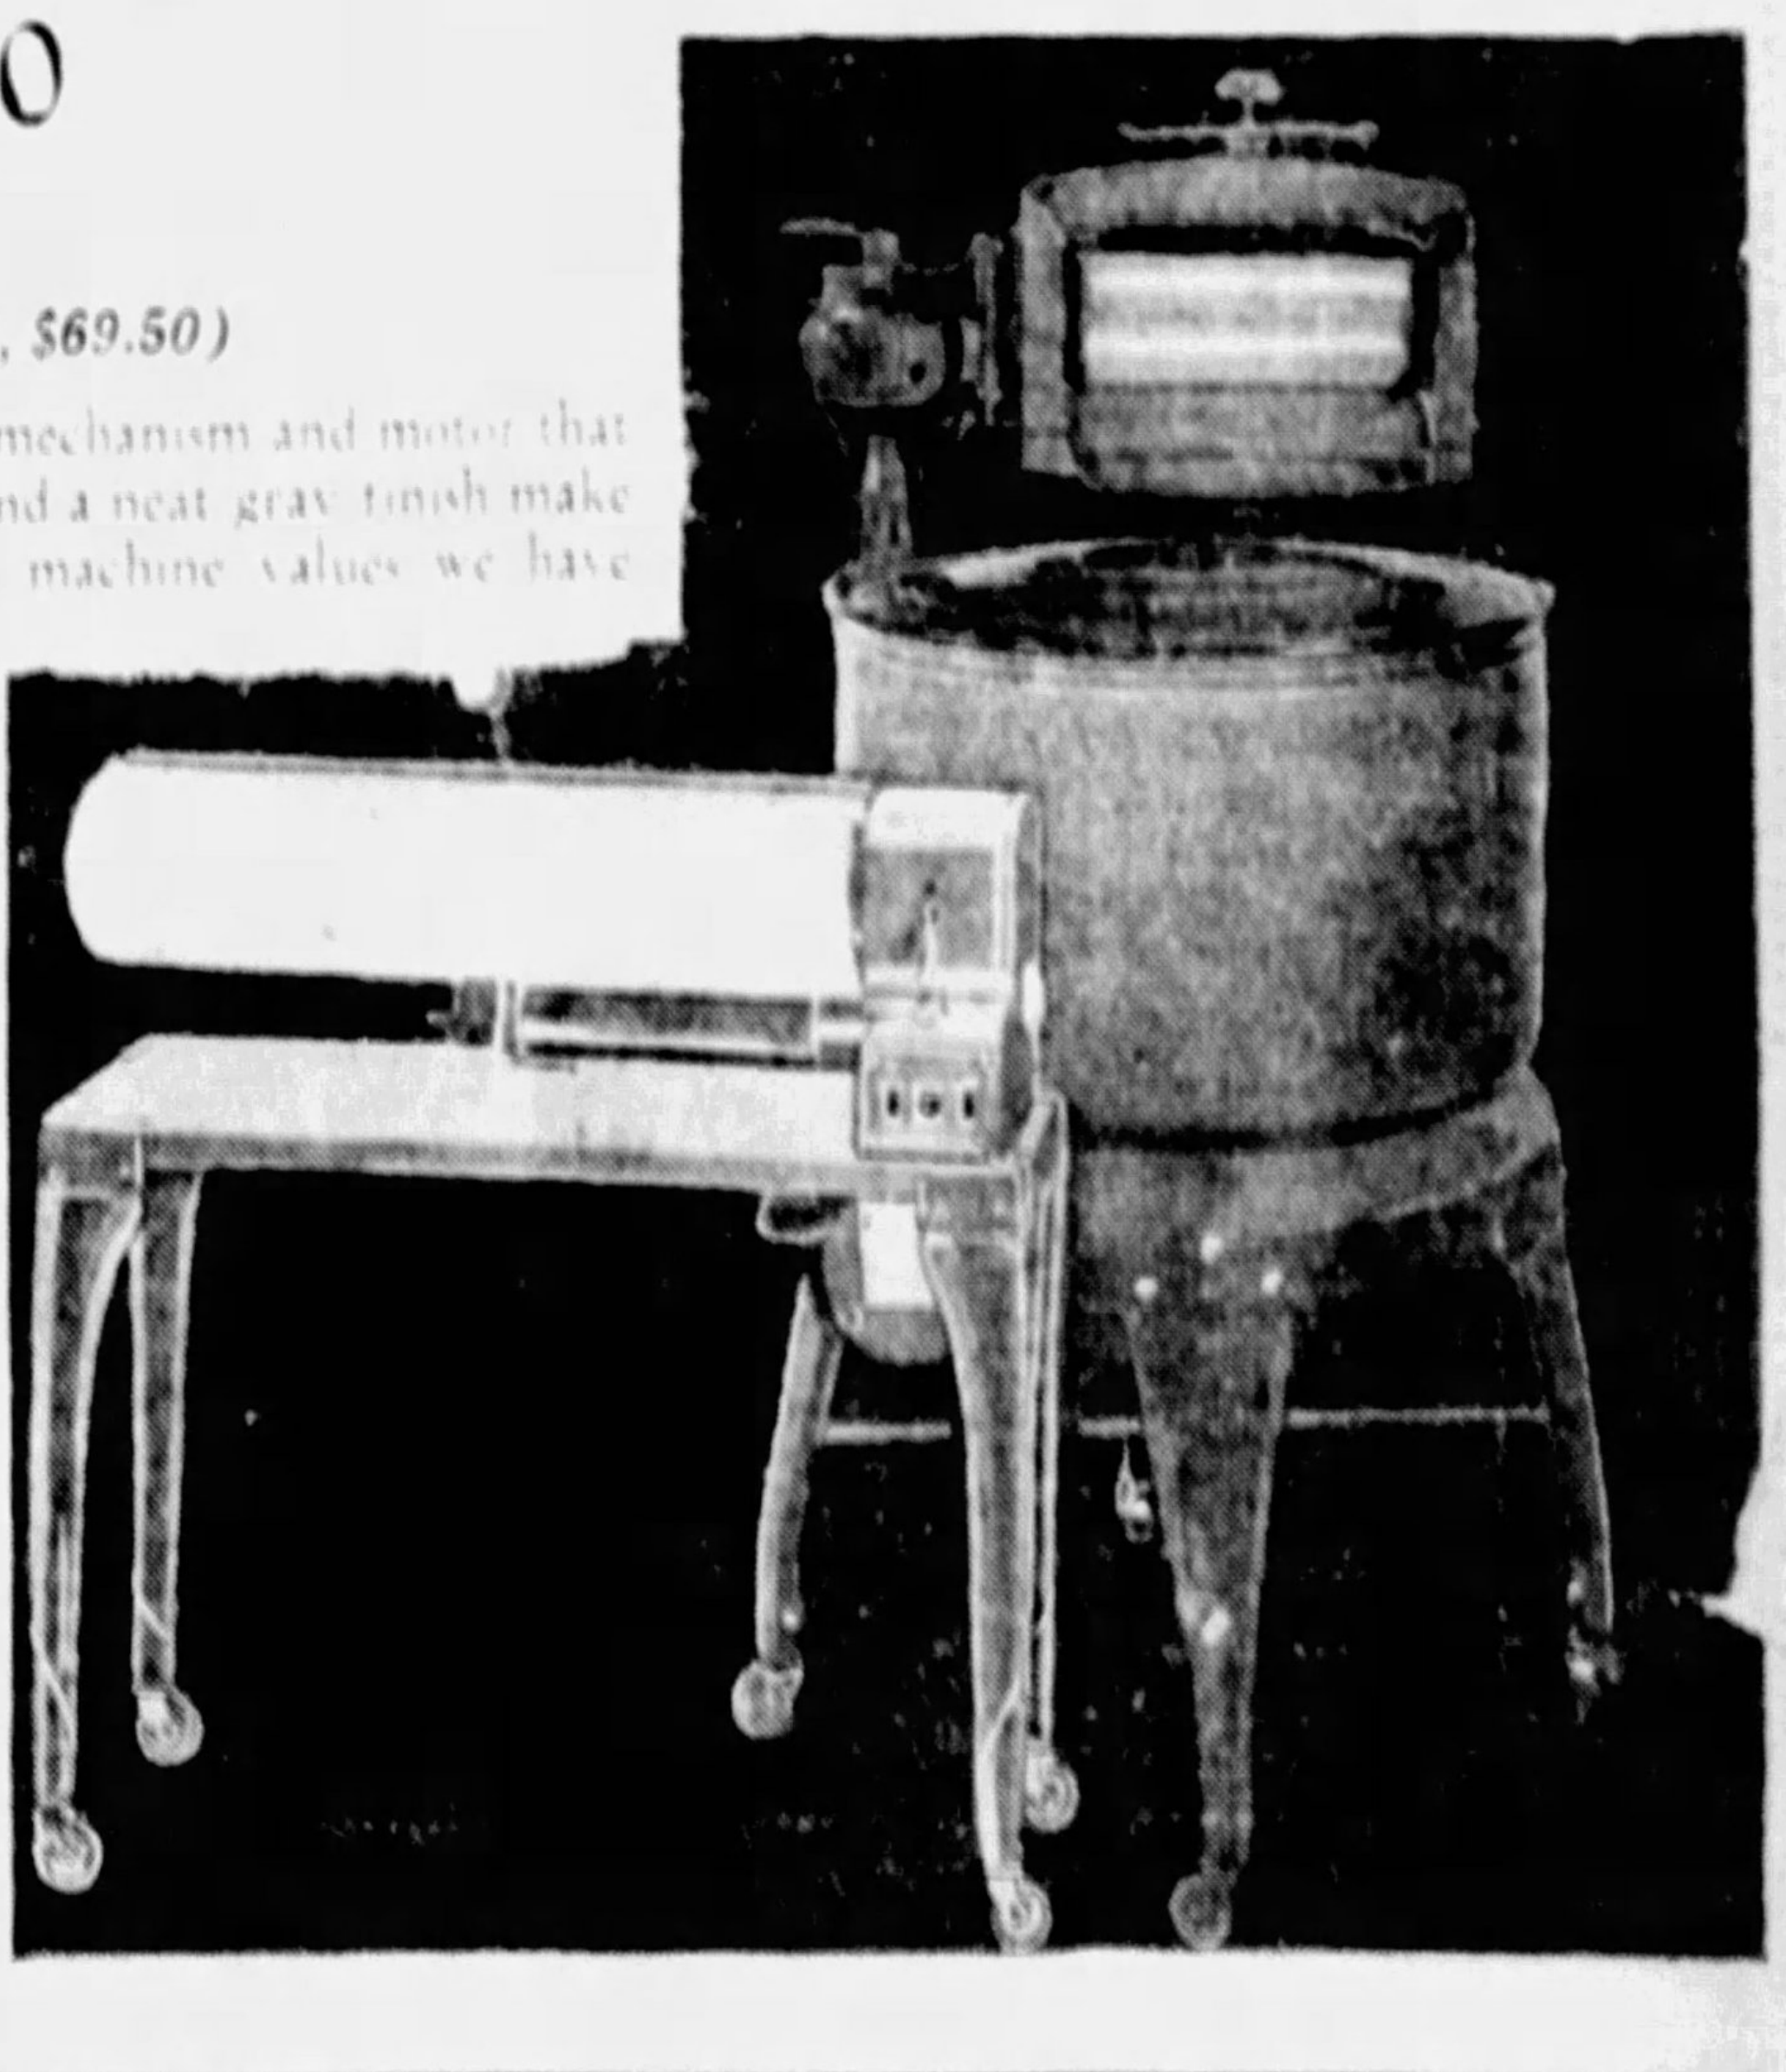
. . . Horne's, Sixth Floor . . .

Sale of Electric Washers

$54.50

(Last Year's Price Level, $69.50)

A full-size, 6-sheet tub . . . the same tested mechanism and motor that made our A. M. C. washer so popular . . . and a neat gray finish make this one of the most remarkable washing machine values we have offered.



Electric Ironers

$69.75

(Last Year's Price Level, $92.50)

A companion piece in efficiency and value is this fully automatic ironer—operated entirely by electricity. You can be seated comfortably and do your entire ironing in a few hours with this easily operated model. It has an open-end, soft padded roll, making it easy to iron shirts, children's dresses, etc.

Convenient Payments Arranged

. . . Housewares, Fifth Floor . . .

1931 FALL PRICES ARE LOWER AT HORNE'S

HANDS UP! -:- Actor Tells Talkie Titans Where to Head In -:- IN THE THEATERS -:- News and Gossip About Stage, Film Events

Charles Bickford, in Spite Of Ruthless Tongue, Gets Film Job

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 7.—

[illegible]

Producers [illegible] above their heads at the mention [illegible] Charles Bickford's name, but he continues to get jobs.

Latest [illegible] to sign him [illegible] head [illegible]

Charles Bickford

never [illegible] fiery [illegible] tongue [illegible] town [illegible] is more [illegible] famous [illegible] Technology [illegible] his trip [illegible] coal-passer [illegible]

Now he [illegible] service [illegible] titans where [illegible]

INTERNATIONAL REBUKE

Believe [illegible] newspaper [illegible] to Hollywood the other day [illegible] that Ronald [illegible]

Publicity [illegible] talked [illegible] tently [illegible] minutes [illegible] asked.

"Say, do you read the newspapers over there?"

The [illegible] he did.

"Well," asked Brand, "did you see the other day where we loaned you $200,000,000?"

Again an affirmative.

"And you're spending all that," inquired Harry, "to find out from me whether Ronald Colman is engaged?"

LATEST GOSSIP

Ken Harlan, former husband of Marie Prevost, [illegible] opening a cafe in Reno [illegible] plans to sail for Paris on [illegible] 20th. She [illegible] the Dolly Sisters have offered to show her the town [illegible] take two people ... Hedda Hopper's son [illegible] playing football at a local [illegible] school. She [illegible] worried at first [illegible] but finally [illegible] him if he was going to get his neck broken [illegible] it quick [illegible] could make other plans ... Ann Harding and Harry Bannister have to tear up the floor of their projection room. It was made of wood instead of cement ... English Actor Paul Cavanaugh [illegible] home for the [illegible] Cup [illegible] He lives on the Isle of Wight and can sit on [illegible] sloop and watch the boats [illegible]

Hedda Hopper

TOGETHER AGAIN

The pretty [illegible] who played Junior Durkin [illegible] Huckleberry Finn has been engaged to support him again in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Her name [illegible] and she was [illegible] with Junior in [illegible] "Courage"

Sam Mintz [illegible] Hegan Rice [illegible] Paramount [illegible]

Movie Street

Sylvia Sidney moves further up on Hollywood's street of fame in the screen version of the stage play, "Street Scene," coming to the Penn Friday.

Griffith May Make Film in London

[illegible] in New York [illegible] scenes taken on the East [illegible] New York during which [illegible] were carefully hidden [illegible] among [illegible] British company to transfer [illegible] Galsworthy's play [illegible] to the screen [illegible] London [illegible] the Limehouse [illegible] "Broken Blossoms" with [illegible]

'Arrowsmith' Before Movie Cameras

"Arrowsmith" is now before the cameras in Hollywood with Ronald Colman as the crusading scientist of Sinclair Lewis' Pulitzer and Nobel prize-winning novel. Helen Hayes is the Leora of the screen [illegible]

DRY MEN RAID FOUR PLACES

Dry agents today reported four [illegible] raids as their weekend activities. They were:

64 South Nineteenth street: 27 cases of beer, a pint of gin, a pint of wine and three pints of moonshine liquor reported confiscated. Sam Gentry arrested.

Garage in rear of 500 block Chartiers avenue, McKees Rocks: 150 gallons of moonshine liquor and an auto confiscated; no arrest.

A building in Fleming Park, Stowe Township: seven gallons of moonshine liquor, mash and a still reported confiscated. John Kordick arrested.

A house and barn in Hookstown road, Moon Township: 105 gallons of moonshine liquor, mash and a large still reported confiscated. Joe Dezzutti, James Cuffia and Charles Turino arrested.

HAYS FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services were to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon for John R. Hays, 56, vice president of the Potter Title and Trust Company, in his home, 5700 Elgin street, East End. The Rev. Stuart Nye Hutchison is to conduct the service.

Mr. Hays

Mr. Hays, who died Saturday, had spent much of the past year in Florida.

Born in Allegheny, the son of John Hays and Miriam Wilkins Hays, he married Tenie Graves in 1902. He leaves his widow and one daughter, Janne Hays.

MISS COLT BACK IN 'SCANDALS'

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Ethel Barrymore Colt, 18, daughter of Ethel Barrymore, returned to the cast of George White's "Scandals" after a conference with the producer.

Miss Colt had withdrawn after her role had been reduced to a single number by an addition to the cast. Saturday she was seen twice in a comedy sketch and the finale.

The producer's spokesman said: "As long as Miss Colt is satisfied to return, Mr. White is happy to have her continue."

The company is playing the [illegible] before coming to Broadway.

BUILDERS SHIP AKRON ENGINE

The Pittsburgh-built slow-motion locomotive which will be used to transport the Navy's new dirigible Akron in and out of its hangar in Lakehurst, N. J., was on its way to the eastern port today. It runs 20 miles an hour and will require about four days to reach its destination.

The slow speed of the locomotive is to prevent any possible jerk which would place a strain on the giant ship, which is 785 feet long. It was built in the shop of the H. K. Porter Company and will take the place of 1,000 men that would be required to pull the ship from its hangar.

Metallurgy Will Be Topic of Lectures

A series of [illegible] lectures on Basic Principles of Metallurgy by leaders of the metal industry here will be sponsored by the Pittsburgh chapter of the American Society for Steel Treating, September [illegible] The series is designed especially for young men employed in metallurgical plants here.

The first lecture will be given in the H. C. Frick Teachers Training School, the [illegible] Schenley High School.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Sept. 7.

To the Editor Sun-Telegraph:

This trip of Wilkins will sure discourage a man from ever buying a second-hand submarine. I don't see why he don't try the thing under water. It sure won't float on top unless he has made arrangements to have a whale tow him. He ain't got much chance ever getting far.

Will Rogers

I don't know anything about golf, but I do know We-met that won the championship. He is a great friend of Fred Stone and about the only time I ever followed a man was him and Fred. It's just about like following a man plowing all day. I had to follow him 36 holes to find out how to pronounce his name, We-met.

Yours, WILL.

-:- TODAY -:-

Continued from Page One

ists, but to have everything written by hand. We Russians are building typewriter factories, etc."

Russian talk about dreadful conditions in America are about as true as the talks we told our soldiers about German cruelty.

SUCCESS WOULD mean for Russia greater prosperity, wealth and conservatism. Money is the sovereign remedy for [illegible] radicalism, and the Communists' desire to divide everything quickly fades when there is really something to divide. That is sad, but such is poor human nature.

Stalin, a man great in physical and mental energy, possesses all power. You do not find him dividing that power. Trotzky, who wanted some of it, was kicked out.

THERE WOULD be no danger for America in Russia's industrial success. That would mean another great buying power among the nations. The world needs buying power, prosperity and peace that comes of well-being.

There might be danger in Russia's complete collapse. She has material for airplanes, explosives and poison gas, knows how to make them, has some of the world's best aviators and might make herself disagreeable in her last Soviet gasps to what she calls "capitalist cities."

WHEN THE FRENCH revolution started with its horrors as great as any in Bolshevism's birth pains, nearly all of Europe's able men predicted complete failure and chaos in France.

As great a man as Burke had only hatred for the revolution-[illegible] and shed all his tears for Marie Antoinette, seeing, as Fox, a greater man, said, only the feathers and forgetting the dying bird, which was France.

The revolution lived its time. Napoleon came and had his day. Then the great French republic arose, had its trials and wrote its record in 1914 and later.

EVERY MAN SHOULD wish success for any attempt to free millions of human beings from such rule as that of the Russian czars. We resent Russia's criticism of us and her propaganda. The criticism does not hurt, and if we are not strong enough to resist the propaganda we ought to be converted to 158,000 automobiles instead of 26,000,000 of them.

We deplore properly Russia's attitude toward religion. But that is not our business, and if our religious views are based on truth there exists a Power that can defend itself without our help.

WE MIGHT, some of us perhaps, the representatives we send abroad, take to heart a message that Stalin sent to a representative chosen to stave off an anticipated attack on Japan:

"I want to give you one piece of advice. Talk with the Japanese as little as possible and telegraph us as often as possible. And don't think you are more clever than anybody else."

We should study Russia, learn what we can from her experiments, substituting careful analysis for Main street hysteria.

Nothing changes suddenly in this world, and the masses of mankind, unlike exceptional individuals, are governed by selfishness.

Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.

WALTER WINCHELL On Broadway

Things I Never Knew Till Now

Read 'em and Sleep!

That, as reported here recently, births are not permitted on Miyanoshita Island, Japan, but on Miyajima they prohibit deaths.

That we are all crazy many times in our lives.

That the Saratoga Ass'n runs those races, according to their programs, "For the Improvement of the Breed of Horses." Yeh, yeh.

That sulphur mixed with three parts of bay rum is a great preventive of gray hair. (But it makes you look SO distinguished!)

That in Mecca they'll mob you if you kill a mosquito (or a wasp or a flea), no bloodshed of any sort being permissible.

That the full title of Stephen C. Foster's classic and world-famous ditty is "My Old Kentucky Home, Good Night."

That the Volume Library 1927 edition describes Broadway as "A principal business street of New York City extending from Bowling Green northward to Central Park."

That a man at 50 has spent four years eating.

That New York's lone hurdy-gurdy man and a monkey team now gather coins in the Ridgewood sector of Brooklyn.

That heat applied to a burn, you dope, is very beneficial.

That though all of Europe's scientists, in keen competition, failed in producing the first chronometer—a carpenter succeeded!

That in the 1840s New York State adopted prohibition, and considering our similar problem today, it was found un-Constitutional!

That New York's annual tax bill amounts to $1,500,000.

That the United States Pharmacopoeia dropped heroin from its list of drugs, though heroin is a drug, but lists alcohol, which isn't!

That Iceland had three murders in 60 years—and we're civilized!

That people who read this stuff and groan, "Such ignorance!" cannot tell you how many steps there are on their own staircase!

That the wisecrack you've heard so often about taking a wife but not another man's wife was pulled by Lincoln.

That in many states you may break into a house to obtain temporary shelter or without permission take another's possessions for your own temporary use and yet you cannot be arrested.

That in Russia an auto is assigned to each apartment house and occupants of the house divide its use. (The snobs must be miserable!)

That the 30,000 islands of Georgian Bay are actually 48,000.

That several murderers in Chile sentenced to 20 years in prison laughed at the judge and appealed to the higher court. The higher court had the last chuckle and condemned them to death.

That horned toads never drink water. (Such dopes!)

That in Canada, if you ask a man for money (that he owes you) on a Sunday, the debt is canceled! (Heavens! What day is today?)

That there is an old blue law in Connecticut which prohibits a man from kissing his wife on the Sabbath. (And they punch bowls!)

That Rudy Vallee's home town, Westbrook, Me., was formerly christened, of all things—"Saccarappa."

That Ashland, Ore., and Ashland, Pa., have more in common than their name. The census reveals each town has 7,164 natives.

That the talks between Mr. Hoover and Sec'y Mellon via transatlantalk telephone cost $10 a minute, postponing Germany's war payments. The phone bill totaled $7,000 to and from the White House.

That on his way to the North Pole Sir Hubert Wilkins is carrying an electric refrigerator in his submarine!

That perhaps the world's largest salary is paid to George Washington Hill, president of the American Tobacco Company. Mr. Hill last year received $2,283,000 in wages and got his ciggies for nothing!

That the piano only has 88 notes, but scientists have found 11,000 different tones that may be told apart. (I wonder if that dunce of a teacher who gave me such bad marks knows all I know now.)

That a cabaret's license may be revoked if a woman sits in the place stockingless. (Most legs ought to wear 'em!)

That vinegar or rubbing an onion or potato or ciggie tobacco on your windshield will keep it clear when it rains.

That the only difference between the United States and Turkey is that in Turkey you do not see your wife until you marry her, and in the United States you do not see her after you marry her. (Who's complaining???)

That it is being called Earl Carroll's "Insanities."

That the old-fashioned cynic who used to say, "I don't doubt your veracity, sir," now has a son who says, "O, yeah."

That most women would rather have a face full of wrinkles than let their hosiery get that way.

That Kessinger's says it's a funny world. People ask you how you feel—and then act bored when you tell 'em.

And that it's a good thing all the people in the world who know how to cure a cold are not doctors.

DANCERS SHOW NEW STEPS

Mother and son yesterday demonstrated latest steps in tap and ballet dancing at the convention of the Pittsburgh Society for the Improvement of Dancing, in Webster Hall.

Mrs. Anna Keenan and her son, Walter Keenan, Jr., of Philadelphia, demonstrated the latest steps, most of which were originated by them.

Bert Layton, president of the society, and Miss Camille Carey, secretary, were in charge of the arrangements. Between the afternoon and the evening sessions a banquet was held in Webster Hall.

Taylor Miner Killed Beneath Slate Fall

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 7.—Crushed under a slate fall in the Melrose mine, near here, Andrew Post, 37, of Taylor, was fatally injured.

Hot Rhythm

Duke Ellington is coming to the Stanley in person Friday. And he's bringing with him his band of red hot syncopators, which means melody that is fast and furious.

HOLD MEMORIAL FOR FIREMEN

The first memorial service of the Dormont Volunteer Firemen to be held in 21 years was observed last night in the Dormont Methodist Episcopal Church.

Nearly 30 fire companies of Allegheny County joined in the memorial to Franklin D. Enscoe, who was killed last year, and Harry L. Stuart, who died several weeks ago. These two men were the first members of the company to die. The committee in charge of the service included Fred J. Borneman, Charles Albright and Thomas Shanbrough.

Church High School To Open Tomorrow

Classes will reopen tomorrow in Sacred Heart High School, Center avenue. New subjects have been added to the curriculum, which covers four years' academic course with two years of commercial work, officials said.

Plays, Players and By-Play

By WILLIAM J. LEWIS

"Mourning Becomes Electra," the Eugene O'Neill trilogy, today begins rehearsals in that municipal expanse that is symbolized as Broadway. There will be not less than seven weeks of practicing under the direction of Philip Moeller in the Guild Theater.

* * *

Small Timer, making a mock curtsy, opines that alcohol is a great preservative that keeps everything except silence.

* * *

The Chicago Civic Shakespeare Society, the principal of which is Fritz Leiber, will have an extensive tour the coming season. After visits to Cleveland and Detroit it will open in its home town, Chicago, October 19. After that it will hit the road going as far south as New Orleans. The itinerary includes four weeks in New York and a visit to the New England states.

* * *

Small Timer says the trap drummer calls his sweetie a dove because she is pigeon toed.

* * *

Before departing from Hollywood for a trip to New York Eddie Cantor swapped his old film contract for a new one whereby his services as a clown will be extended for five years. He sold himself down the river to Samuel Goldwyn.

* * *

Small Timer says that he has been investigating and learns that when his son says he has been out on a lark he really has been out with a chicken.

* * *

Laura Hope Crews, a real actress, who left the stage with the advent of the talkies to teach some of our popular film stars how to speak, says she expects to return to her first love some time next winter. Just now she is in San Francisco as producer, star and director of "As Husbands Go," but plans to return to Hollywood for another go at the movies.

* * *

Small Timer, just as a reminder of the "wit" of another day, asks what it is that no matter how many you take there are just as many left, and answers—a swim in the lake.

THEATER CLOCK

STANLEY: Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in film, "Merely Mary Ann." Daily at 11:10 a. m., 1:36, 3:59, 5:45, 8:09 and 10:32 p. m. Harry Langdon on stage.

PENN: Joan Crawford in film, "This Modern Age." Daily at 10:23, 11:37 a. m., 1:54, 4:22, 5:50, 8:07 and 10:35 p. m. Ted Claire on stage.

WARNER: Clive Brooks in film, "Silence." Daily at 10:30 a. m., 12:21, 2:20, 4:19, 6:18, 8:17 and 10:16 p. m.

FULTON: Junior Durkin and Jackie Coogan in film, "Huckleberry Finn." Daily at 10:30 a. m., 12:07, 2:05, 4:03, 6:01, 7:59 and 9:57 p. m.

DAVIS: Richard Barthelmess in film, "The Last Flight." Daily at 12:05, 2:09, 4:13, 6:17, 8:21 and 10:20 p. m.

HARRIS: Jack Mulhall in film, "Lover Come Back." Daily at 12:46, 2:44, 6:40, 8:36 and 10:08 p. m.

ENRIGHT: Lew Ayres in film, "Many a Slip." Daily at 1:34, 3:46, 5:49, 6:01, 8:05 and 10:13 p. m.

SHERIDAN SQUARE: Evelyn Brent in film, "Traveling Husbands." Daily at 12:27, 2:25, 4:23, 6:21, 8:09 and 10:12 p. m.

GOLDEN ROD SHOWBOAT: Vic Faust in dramatic play, "Ten Nights In a Barroom." Nightly at 8:45 p. m.

ACADEMY: "Satan's Daughters." Burlesque. Twice daily, 2:15 and 8:30 p. m.

FILMLAND.

FULTON TODAY THRU WED.

Mark Twain's Breath-Taking Romance!

Huckleberry Finn

Jackie Coogan
Junior Durkin
Mitzi Green
Jackie Searl
Eugene Pallette

FILMLAND.

WARNER BROS.' THEATRES

DAVIS NOW

They're Here! NIKKI And Her Irresistible BOY FRIENDS!

Richard BARTHELMESS

Greater Than His Role in "Dawn Patrol" in

The Last Flight

Another First National Masterpiece

—With—

DAVID MANNERS
HELEN CHANDLER
John Mack Brown
Elliot Nugent

Admissions LABOR DAY

Adults 50c All Day

Children Matinee 10c Evening 25c

So—She Was a Love Child!

And Three People Held the Awful Secret!

SILENCE

—With—

CLIVE BROOK
PEGGY SHANNON

EXTRA "CHIC" SALE in Comedy Hit "County Seat"

Come Early Today—35c Before 12:30 P. M.

WARNER

A DIRECT CONNECTION TO RESULTS

SUN-TELEGRAPH Class[illegible] Ad Service is like a [illegible]munity switchboard. You t[illegible]mit your desires to a Sun-Te[illegible]graph Ad-Taker . . . that ad forms the connection between you and a special group of interested parties . . . the quickest and most direct contact with results.

PHONE the Classified

GRANT 5400—For an Ad-Taker

FILMLAND.

WARNER BROS. THEATRES

STANLEY

NOW—

Janet Gaynor, Chas. Farrell in "Merely Mary Ann"

Fox Romance of Youth

On Stage DICK POWELL Presents HARRY LANGDON

The Famous Screen Comic IN PERSON with PEGGY BERNIER in "Melody Lane"

Holiday Prices Today—35c Before 12:30 P. M.

ENRIGHT

Starts Today—3 Days Only

MARIE DRESSLER
POLLY MORAN
in "POLITICS"

M-G-M [illegible]

Holiday Prices Today—Regular [illegible]

HARRIS

Now Playing! GIGANTIC DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM

'Lover, Come Back'

[illegible] Jack Mulhall Betty Bronson

BUCK JONES

[illegible] "BRANDED"

Holiday Prices Prevail Today

WARNER THEATRES

REGENT
ROWLAND
So. HILLS
KENYON
ETNA
SCHENLEY
MANOR
ARSENAL
BELMAR
PLAZA
Wm. PENN
RITZ
CAMERAPHONE
PALACE
AMBRIDGE
PRINCE

Virginia Valli in "Night Life in Reno"

MARIE DRESSLER AND POLLY MORAN IN 'POLITICS'

JACK HOLT in "DIRIGIBLE"

Richard Dix in 'Public Defender'

Robert Montgomery in "Man in Possession"

Richard Dix in 'Public Defender'

JACK HOLT in "DIRIGIBLE"

Mae Clark in "Good Bad Girl"

Norma Shearer in "FREE SOUL"

"HELL BENT FOR FRISCO"

Mary Astor in 'Behind Office Doors'

JACK HOLT in "DIRIGIBLE"

John Wayne in "ARIZONA"

MT. OLIVER HARRIS TODAY

Polly Moran & Marie Dressler in "POLITICS"

FILMLAND.

Loew's United Artists PENN

It's Here Now!

JOAN CRAWFORD in The Smash Hit "THIS MODERN AGE"

With Pauline Frederick, Neil Hamilton

EXTRA! WM. T. TILDEN Tennis Technique

The Prince of Pep TED CLAIRE in a Capitol Theatre Revue with WILTON & WEBER

DOWNTOWN THEATRE OF E. LIBERTY

SHERIDAN SQ.

WANDERING MEN AND WONDERING WIVES!

Holiday Prices Today

SURPRISE NOVELTY SMASH OF SEASON!

TRAVELING HUSBANDS

EVELYN BRENT
HUGH HERBERT
CONSTANCE CUMMINGS
FRANK ALBERTSON
DOROTHY PETERSON

FIRST RUN SHOWING IN PITTSBURGH

BRUSHTON THEATRE — Double Bill — JOAN BENNETT in "HUSH MONEY" — Richard Barthelmess in "FINGER POINTS" ALL TALKING

GARDEN — LEW AYRES in "MANY A SLIP"

TRIANGLE EAST LIBERTY — "THE VICE SQUAD"—also 10th "Adventures In Africa"

AMUSEMENTS.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"
Every Nite at 8:45
GOLDEN ROD SHOWBOAT
Monongahela Wharf Above Aspinwall
Tickets at Gimbels, at Oakmont Line
Prices 50c and $1.00

BASEBALL — FORBES FIELD 10:30 A. M.—3 P. M.
TWO GAMES TODAY
PITTSBURGH vs. CINCINNATI
[illegible]

ACADEMY — Matinee 2:15 — Evening 8:15
Columbia Burlesque
"SATAN'S DAUGHTERS"
with BILLIE DIAMOND
Midnight Show Sunday Night 12:05 A. M.

VISIT HEINZ PLANT
AND THE EMPLOYEES NEW AUDITORIUM AND SERVICE BUILDING
OPEN WEEK DAYS, EXCEPT SATURDAY
SEE THE 57 VARIETIES PREPARED

ROSENBAUM'S 63rd. ANNIVERSARY SALE

For Our Great Anniversary Sale, we made every dollar we put into the wholesale cost of merchandise mean something more than ever before in quality, service and style. We not only took full advantage of the highly competitive condition of the market, but we found our regular sources of supply willing to make generous price concessions to us as an expression of their friendship and good-will. Consequently, your dollar buys more, brings home more value --- every dollar you spend means a handsome saving. Come tomorrow and see for yourself.

Typical Anniversary Savings for Tuesday

79c-$1 Bandeaux
49c

Cup and uplift styles of crepe silks, laces, meshes, moires, swami, with brocade. (Third Floor).

54x70 Crash Cloths
85c

Pure linen crash cloths in this large size; a regular $1.25 value. Pretty borders of rose, green, gold and blue. (Fourth Floor).

Hat Feathers
45c

A marvelous assortment . . . pheasant quills, wings, coque, ostrich, breasts, some cire finishes . . . all exceptional values. (Street Floor).

Girls' Sport Hose
4 Prs. 93c

Three-quarter lengths in plain and fancy grounds, with turned cuff top of bright colors. Always much higher priced. 7 to 10. (Seventh Floor).

Tots' Panty Dresses
$1.00

Gay prints, with matching panties and detail in trimming and making usually found in much better dresses. Sizes 2 to 6. (Seventh Floor).

$5.00 Bassinette
$3.45

Beautiful little "beds" in ivory or green. Swivel casters and steel springs. 20x38. Mattress to fit, $1.95 (Seventh Floor).

$1 to $3.95 Jewelry
39c

Biskra brown . . . chocolate brown . . . brown with metal . . . all types and tones of brown, to wear with the high-fashion brown suit and coat.

Also two groups at 89c and $1.89
(Street Floor)

53c 2 for $1.00

New 'Reis' Shirts and Shorts for Men

At Anniversary Savings

The manufacturer of Manhattan underwear has contributed these shirts and shorts to our Anniversary. Shorts of woven broadcloth, cut full, balloon seats, elastic sides; stripes and figures; sizes 30 to 46. Shirts of fine combed cotton, Swiss or flat knit; sizes 34 to 46.

—STREET FLOOR

$4.95

Jersey & Travel Print Rayon Day Frocks

Regular $5.95 Values

Fine French jerseys in many unusually smart modes . . . rayons, travel prints, silks . . . dresses for the business woman, school teacher, and others who want chic, simply tailored styles. All with detachable collars and cuffs. An outstanding Anniversary special.

—THIRD FLOOR

59c

Women's New Fall Fabric Slipon Gloves

An Anniversary Special

Single and double-woven styles in the popular Slipon Gloves, at a very low and very special Anniversary price. New Fall shades of cocoa, Mexican, mode, grey. Sizes 6 to 8. Finished with pinked top.

—STREET FLOOR

$2.95

Regular $5.00 Models Foundation Garments

Marvelette and De Bevoise

Combination Garments fashioned of fine brocade, with soft top. The Marvelettes have inner belt giving extra support over abdomen. Sizes 34 to 48. Also 12 and 14-inch Side-fastening Girdles. Sizes 26 to 34.

—THIRD FLOOR

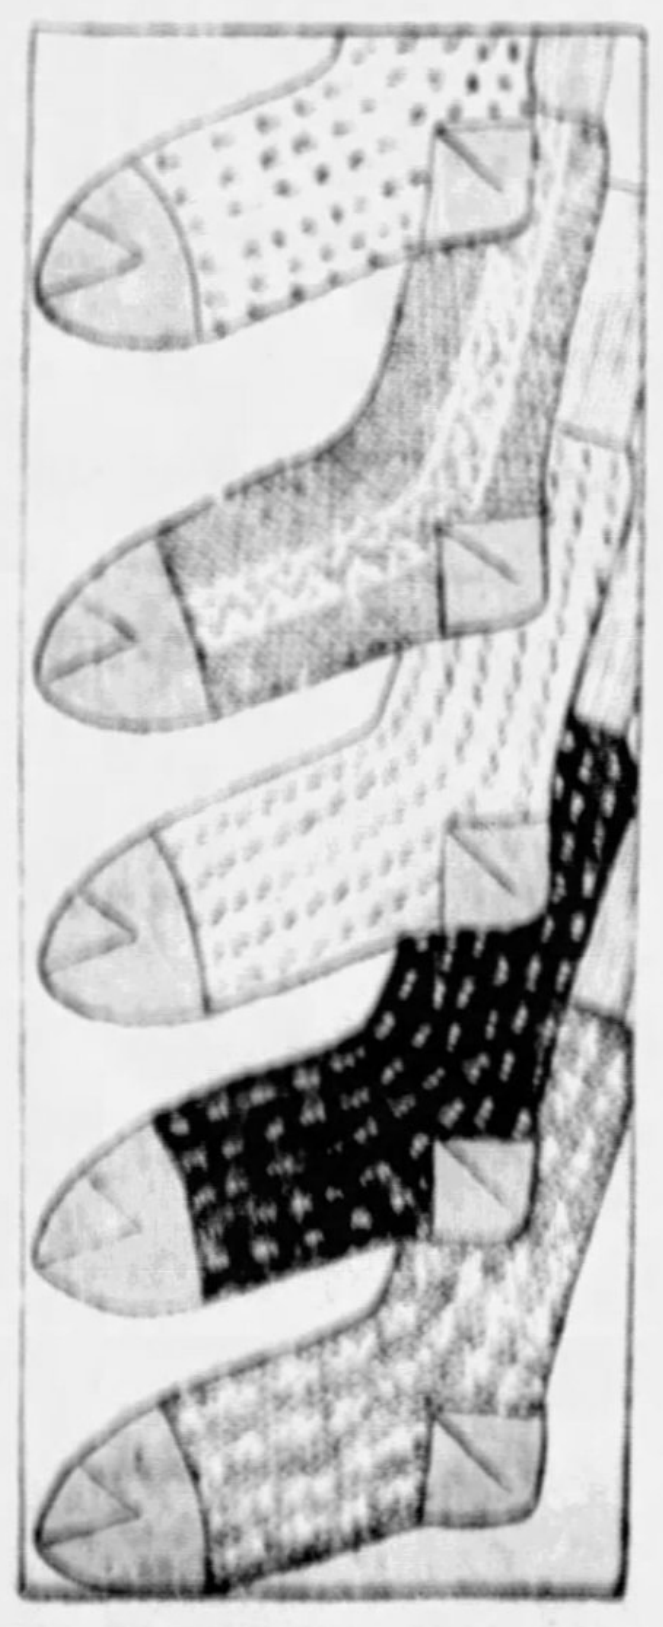
29c

Men's New Silk-Mixed Hose, Fine Quality

Anniversary Special—Regularly 50c

Made by a prominent manufacturer, his "good-will contribution" to our Anniversary. Silk-mixed hose with high-spliced heel. Good-looking striped and figured patterns, in a wide range of colors. Sizes 9½ to 11½. They'll go by the half dozens.

—STREET FLOOR



$1.85

Boys' All-Wool Jersey & Combination Suits

Regularly $2.95 and $3.95

A treat for boys of 2½ to 10 years. Fine new jersey suits in flapper and middy styles. 24 models, 36 colors. Smart little combination suits—English shorts of grey, tan, blue all-wool fabrics; with tops of quality fabrics in plain white, blue, tan, green, etc.

Boys' New $2.95 Sweaters, $1.59

—SECOND FLOOR

$48

is almost an unbelievable price for

COATS

like these in our Anniversary Sale!

Huge Fitch collar and cuffs, Canadian Beaver collar and cuffs, Russian Fox collar and cuffs, selected Caracul collar and cuffs, fine Badger collars, black or brown Fox collar and cuffs, large Skunk collar and cuffs. Thirty-eight new styles cut on "pencil" lines . . . black, brown, green, red, blue, Spanish tile shades in gorgeous spongy woolens . . also Velours du Nord! All these coats are beautifully tailored and have deep facings. A nominal deposit will hold your coat for you. . . . Sizes for all women, misses and juniors. Made to sell at $20 to $35 more, but this is our Anniversary and you pay just $48!

—ROSENBAUM COAT SHOPS
FIFTH FLOOR

POLICE RADIO POPULAR

Monday, Sept. 7

4:00 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible] American [illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
WJAS—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

4:15 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

4:30 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—[illegible] William [illegible] American [illegible] at [illegible] and [illegible] introduced [illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

4:45 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

5:00 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
WJAS—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

5:15 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
WJAS—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible]

5:30 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible] Wakeman [illegible]
WCAE—[illegible]
WJAS—[illegible]
KQV—[illegible]
WWSW—[illegible] Talk

5:45 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible] Dispatch [illegible] Sport Review
WCAE—[illegible]
WJAS—[illegible] Labor Day
KQV—[illegible] Baseball Scores
WWSW—[illegible] Interest

6:00 P. M.

KDKA—Woodwind Ensemble; Russell [illegible] baritone
"Temple Bells"
[illegible]
WCAE—Rose Room Orchestra
WJAS—Baseball Scores; Recordings
KQV—The Boy Friends—Jack, Tony and Pete
WWSW—Items (cont'd).

6:15 P. M.

KDKA—Woodwind Ensemble (cont'd).
WCAE—Rose Room (cont'd).
WJAS—Recordings (cont'd).
KQV—Boy Friends (cont'd).
WWSW—Political Talk

6:20 P. M.

WCAE—Baseball Scores

6:30 P. M.

KDKA—Edna Wallace Hopper
WCAE—Sports Review
WJAS—Reis and Dunn
KQV—The Adventures of Archie
WWSW—Political Talk

6:45 P. M.

KDKA—Lowell Thomas
WCAE—Stebbins Boys
WJAS—Bird and Vash
KQV—Cavaliers Quartet
WWSW—Jack Baird and His Orchestra

7:00 P. M.

KDKA—Amos 'n' Andy
WCAE—Louise's Hungry Five
WJAS—Current Events
KQV—Chamber Music
WWSW—Jack Baird (cont'd).

7:15 P. M.

KDKA—Jesters
WCAE—Uncle Gimbee; Dr. O. E. Jennings
WJAS—Dennis King and Symphony Orchestra
"Armorer's Song"
[illegible]
KQV—Louise [illegible], soprano
WWSW—Political Talk

7:30 P. M.

KDKA—[illegible]
WCAE—Popular Piano
WJAS—High [illegible]
KQV—Silent [illegible]
WWSW—Behind the Kitchen Door

7:45 P. M.

KDKA—Newsreel of Hollywood; Winnie Lightner
WCAE—The Goldbergs
WJAS—Quarter Hour with Morton Downey and Anthony Wons
"Waiting for the Moon"
[illegible]
WWSW—Political Talk

8:00 P. M.

KDKA—Little German Band
WCAE—Golden [illegible]
WJAS—Arthur [illegible] Band
WWSW—Frank Kocera and His Seven Aces

8:15 P. M.

KDKA—German Band (cont'd).
WJAS—Singing [illegible]
WWSW—Seven Aces (cont'd).

8:30 P. M.

KDKA—Death Valley Days
"The [illegible]," dramatic [illegible] Gardiner, [illegible] Joseph Bell, [illegible] Josef Bonime's Orchestra
WCAE—William Merrigan Daly's Orchestra; Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., guest speaker; James Melton, tenor; Gladys Rice, soprano; male quartet; Jack Parker and Frank Luther, tenors; Darrell Woodyard, baritone; Sigurd Nilssen, basso; Will Donaldson, accompanist
"Will You Remember?"
[illegible]

We Now Present

By Darrell V. Martin, Radio Editor

Darrell V. Martin

[illegible]

1500 kc—WMP, Framingham, Mass.

1712 kc—WPDI, Pittsburgh; WKDU, Cincinnati; KVP, Dallas; WPDC, Chicago; WMDZ, Indianapolis; KGPC, St. Louis; KGJX, Pasadena, Cal.

2410 kc—WRDR, Grosse Pt., Mich.; WCK and WMO, Detroit.

2416 kc—KGPB, Minneapolis; WPEA, Tulare, Cal.; WPDJ, Passaic, N. J.; WPDI, Columbus, O.; WPDH, Richmond, Ind.; WPDS, St. Paul.

2442 kc—WNDA, Miami, Fla.; WPDF, Flint, Mich.; WPDI, Louisville.

2458 kc—WRBH, Cleveland.

2470 kc—KGOZ, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

* * *

[illegible] the Patrol uses 257 meters for its 100 watt transmitters in Harrisburg, Butler, Wyoming, Greensburg, West Reading. The City of New York station, WPY, operates on two frequencies, 438 and 500 kilocycles.

* * *

Outstanding tonight: Dennis King singing the Armorer's Song from "Robin Hood," WJAS at 7:15. James Melton and Gladys Rice in duet "Will You Remember" from Romberg's "Maytime" and Melton singing "I Hear You Calling Me," WCAE at 8:30. Veronica Wiggins in Rubinstein's "Romance," WCAE at 9 with the Gypsies; the Real Folks Band Concert on KDKA at 9:30, and Martha Attwood in a solo, "Chinese Lullaby," for WCAE listeners at 9:30.

* * *

Solution

Here's the solution to the mystery yarn in yesterday's column: Scotland Yard detectives, upon finding dead flies in the window, deduced that the murder must have been committed around dawn, the time that flies and other insects seek light. They therefore arrested the murdered man's nephew. Had the murder been committed before dawn, the flies would have dropped dead from the ceiling to the floor.

TEN BEST BETS

4:30—WCAE—"Labor Day," William Green
7:15—WJAS—Dennis King
8:30—WCAE—James Melton, Gladys Rice
9:00—WCAE—Gypsies
9:30—KDKA—Real Folks
10:00—KDKA—Medal Express
WCAE—Mary, Bob
WJAS—Guy Lombardo
10:45—WCAE—Al and Pete.
11:15—KDKA—Radio Party.

[illegible]

WJAS—Editing the News
KQV—Three Silver Aces; Eddie [illegible], tenor
WWSW—The Aunkel Brothers

8:45 P. M.

KDKA—Death Valley (cont'd).
WCAE—Gladys Rice (cont'd).
WJAS—Gorgon Chasers
KQV—Silver Aces (cont'd).
WWSW—Political Talk

9:00 P. M.

KDKA—Roy Bargy's Orchestra
"My Future Just Passed"
[illegible]
WCAE—Gypsies
Rubinstein "Romance"
[illegible]

Question a Day:

[illegible] KDKA [illegible]

Answer—Hard to believe, perhaps, but it's true. Steel in the pole has an affinity to the KDKA frequency of 980 kilocycles. Our funniest experience in this respect was the Homestead woman who while cooking breakfast one morning heard the "Cheerio" program emanating from her stove. She had arranged utensils on the stove in such a way that they formed an arc with an affinity to WCAE signals. The same thing happened in the steel construction of a building in Chicago. At a certain height workmen were amazed one day to hear programs from KYW sizzling all around them.

Studio Lights

Kate Smith, who started at [illegible] Honeymoon Lane for $75 a week, has added [illegible] to that figure as her salary every month of the [illegible]. Kate was discovered by Eddie Dowling.

Elsie Lichtenstul, her interview with Lil Dagover, the German movie queen, was masterful; returns to KDKA air waves Wednesday morning at 9:15 . . . she has been in Europe.

Lines are growing taut in the radio musicians' fight . . . local stations are said to be opposed to the union increase from $6 to $10 a man for an hour's radio performance.

Out in California they've named a flower "The Seth Parker Dahlia" . . . Phillips H. Lord's talkie, now in preparation at Hollywood, is to have the title "Other People's Business." . . .

Cancellation of "Moonshine and Honeysuckle" for that overseas broadcast yesterday didn't make NBC many friends in Pittsburgh.

G. W. (Johnny) Johnstone, assistant to the president at NBC, was pianist in Vincent Lopez's Orchestra a few years ago.

Sophie Braslau is terribly fond of Rudy Vallee's singing.

* * *

Today's Tid Bit:

C. L. Menser, recently promoted to production chief at Chicago NBC, has lost some of his enthusiasm for the Windy City. Leaving the building the other night he was tapped on the shoulder and told he was "under arrest." It took lots of arguing and credentials to prove to police that he wasn't "McNamara," a dangerous gangster.

After releasing Menser, the officer shot back:

"You're a dead ringer for this other guy, and I'm gonna get him. So don't move sudden if you see me comin'."

[illegible]

WJAS—Crime Club
"Mystery De Luxe"
KQV—News Flashes; Baseball Scores
WWSW—Tavillo Hawaiians

9:15 P. M.

KDKA—Roy Bargy (cont'd).
WCAE—Gypsies (cont'd).
WJAS—Crime Club (cont'd).
KQV—The Monday Night Players
WWSW—Fenton Snyder's Orchestra

(Continued on Page Eleven.)

Pittsburgh Stations

Kilocycles		Meters
980	KDKA	305.9
1220	WCAE	245.8
1290	WJAS	232.4
1380	KQV	217.3
1500	WWSW	199.9

OUR DAILY FOOD . . .

CORN CANNING
by Colonel Goodbody on A&P's program tomorrow.
News about Food.

KDKA 8:45 a. m.
WCAE 9:45 a. m.
Eastern Daylight Saving Time

THE NEW TIME IS
9:00 p.m.
A&P GYPSIES

Tonight and hereafter the Monday night concerts of The A&P Gypsies on station WCAE and the Red Network of N B C begin at 9 P. M. instead of 8:30. Music of the kind that has made the A&P Gypsies famous for eight radio years.

★THURSDAY NIGHTS AT 10 P. M.
A&P Dance Gypsies
A new A&P feature on station KDKA and the Blue Network of N. B. C. Dance tunes played in a new brilliant style that has come to replace "tom-tom jazz."

Have You Seen Our Newly Redecorated Drapery Dept.?

It's Now the Smartest in the City!

And not only have we provided a lovely atmosphere in which to shop, but here, too, are the very newest and smartest fall stocks:

New Curtains
New Cretonnes
New Boudoir Ensembles
New Curtain Stuffs
New Ready-to-Hang Draperies
New Drapery and Upholstery Fabrics

Inspiring things to see in such a lovely atmosphere, with the added attraction of prices that have not been equalled since pre-war days—and even before that.

Do come and see it! Those who have will bear witness that it is the most up-to-date curtain and drapery department in the city.

—Third Floor—

BOGGS & BUHL

Actual $5.95 Silk
Transparent
VELVETS
$3.50 Yd.

Last year the same quality velvets sold at $5.95. They are selling elsewhere today at $3.95. Tomorrow they open the September Sale with one of the greatest values we have yet offered at $3.50 yard.

The quality is extraordinary — 39 inches wide, all silk back, extra fine, close nap, and lustrous sheen. In Black, Brown, Wine and Green, the very colors shown in the velvet street, afternoon and evening ensembles Paris features!

Save at least 45c a yard on these velvets. We don't think you can match them at $3.50 yd.

Imported Black Transparent Velvet, $2.95

Black only. Imported from Germany—all-silk back, 39 inches wide, of exquisite texture. With last year's low market it was $3.95 yard. Tomorrow, yard $2.95.

36 Shades Washable Flat Crepe, 85c

Not only super-quality, but in a range of 36 good pastel, street and evening shades. A record low price for the quality, 85c yard.

—First Floor—

"I Finally Matched It at Boggs & Buhl"

To save time and trouble, when you have a difficult piece of cloth or color to match, or want to select from new and representative showings in silks, cottons and woolen fabrics—come straight to Boggs & Buhl. Our piece goods departments carry complete stocks at all times. For price, quality, selection and service in piece goods the honors go to Boggs & Buhl.

Our Dressmaking Salon

—comprises the largest, most complete dressmaking services in the city. Year-round services, in four divisions. Located on the Fifth Floor, lower building.

I. FRENCH DRESSMAKING
—creates gowns, or copies or adapts them from French originals. Commended for wedding ensembles, trousseaus, and seasonal wardrobes.

II. POPULAR PRICED DRESSMAKING
—makes dresses of all types for the woman who is hard to fit in ready-made clothes. At popular prices for the making, $18 to $25.

III. CUSTOM TAILORING
—tailors coats, frocks, ensembles and suits to your individual measure. Workmanship of the highest calibre at low prices for example, $28 for tailoring a winter coat.

IV. CUTTING AND FITTING SERVICE —measures and adjust patterns, cuts and completely pin-fits dresses, basting in sleeves—a complete service at $3.

RADIO SCHEDULES, NOTES

(Continued from Page Ten.)

9:30 P. M.

KDKA—Real Folks

Gala Band Concert

[illegible]

WCAE—Family Party

"I Love a Little Cottage"

[illegible]

WJAS—An Evening in Paris

"Have You Forgotten?"

[illegible]

KQV—Weather; Orchestra

WWSW—Orchestra (cont'd).

9:45 P. M.

KDKA—Real Folks (cont'd).

WCAE—Family Party (cont'd).

WJAS—The Bon Bons

KQV—Orchestra (cont'd).

WWSW—Orchestra (cont'd).

10:00 P. M.

KDKA—Medal Express

"Serenade"

The King's Horses ... Orchestra
Serenade ... Singing ...
Falling in Love ... Orchestra
At Sundown
This Is My Music ... Orchestra
How's Your Love ... Orchestra
Dancing in the Dark ... Orchestra
It's Great to Be ... Orchestra
Do the New York ... Orchestra

WCAE—Mary and Bob

"Forgotten Dreams"

WJAS—Guy Lombardo and His Orchestra

"Giannina Mia"

[illegible]

KQV—Bert Schoff, organist.

WWSW—Good Night.

10:30 P. M.

KDKA—Old Gray Mare

WCAE—Mary-Bob (cont'd).

WJAS—Arabesque Desert Play

KQV—Bill Hollins' Orchestra

10:45 P. M.

KDKA—Gray Mare (cont'd).

WCAE—Al and Pete; Harry Kogen's Orchestra

"What a Night of Love"

[illegible]

Love Duo

JAMES MELTON GLADYS RICE

"Will You Remember?" from Romberg's "Maytime" will be sung in duet by James Melton and Gladys Rice on WCAE at 8:30 tonight.

[illegible]

WJAS—Arabesque (cont'd).

KQV—Bill Hollins (cont'd).

11:00 P. M.

KDKA—Sport Review; Weather

WCAE—Riggs and Moke, the Crazy Pair.

WJAS—Bing Crosby, baritone

"Shine On, Harvest Moon"

[illegible]

KQV—Good Night.

11:15 P. M.

KDKA—Radio Party

Harry Langdon, Dick Powell

WCAE—Baseball Scores; Weather; Good Night.

WJAS—The Boswell Sisters

11:30 P. M.

WJAS—Good Night.

11:45 P. M.

KDKA—Jimmy Joy's Orchestra

12:15 A. M.

KDKA—Good Night.

Early Tuesday

KDKA

[illegible]

The Loud Speaker By Louis Reid

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—To entertainers of the first rank radio continues to be the promised land. For them of denial depression does not exist. While stars of the stage and even the screen have periods when they are not intimate with prosperity, there is apparently no bottom to the gold mine for those who through radio have become the nation's household gods.

Not so long ago the broadcasters threw out their chests, pointed to their stacks of gold accumulated over the dear old fiscal year. Was there any lessening of the stacks? Indeed not. They were larger than ever, larger by far than those garnered in nearly two years of the good Calvin's reign.

Broadcasters did not attempt to explain the reason for their unusual rewards. They were merely satisfied, my dear Morgan, with the reward. Yet the rewards were admittedly due in large part to the depression, to the fact that people were no longer going in numbers outside the home in quest of amusement!

Commercial sponsors gazing at their charts were quick to recognize that the theme song of the land has actually become "Home, Sweet Home." They poured their money into the broadcasting hopper, and John W. Public and the missus dusted off their armchairs and waited for the radio tide to roll in.

* * *

Now comes the entertainers, those of the first rank, supplementing the prosperity returns of the broadcasters, reporting, can you imagine, my dear Gifford? a 54 per cent increase over two years ago, reporting through one booking agency alone the staggering sum of ten million smackers during the past 12 months. This speaks radio spelling its success with a capital $.

* * *

Radio builds up a personality—builds up, say, a Vallee, a Downey, a Gibbons, a "Seth Parker," a Lombardo, a Kate Smith, even a Post and Gatty. The public through the loud speaker embraces them, gives them nationwide acclaim. Thereupon, radio adding new duties, sends them on tour to strike while the iron is hot. The public, curious to see their new gods in person, brings a new and vast revenue to heretofore deserted box offices.

And the snowball grows bigger and bigger. The microphone stars, in demand on stage and screen, collect huge stipends in other fields, meanwhile continuing wisely their radio activities. They'd be chumps, Dupont, if they didn't. But of course they have to be stars of the first rank. Their names have to be identified with the best in whatever talent they possess. While the Vallees and Lombardos and Lords and John Charles Thomases and Gibbonses rake in the heavy sugar, their fellows of lesser skill and prestige have been, still are, having a hard time.

[illegible]

WCAE

[illegible]

WJAS

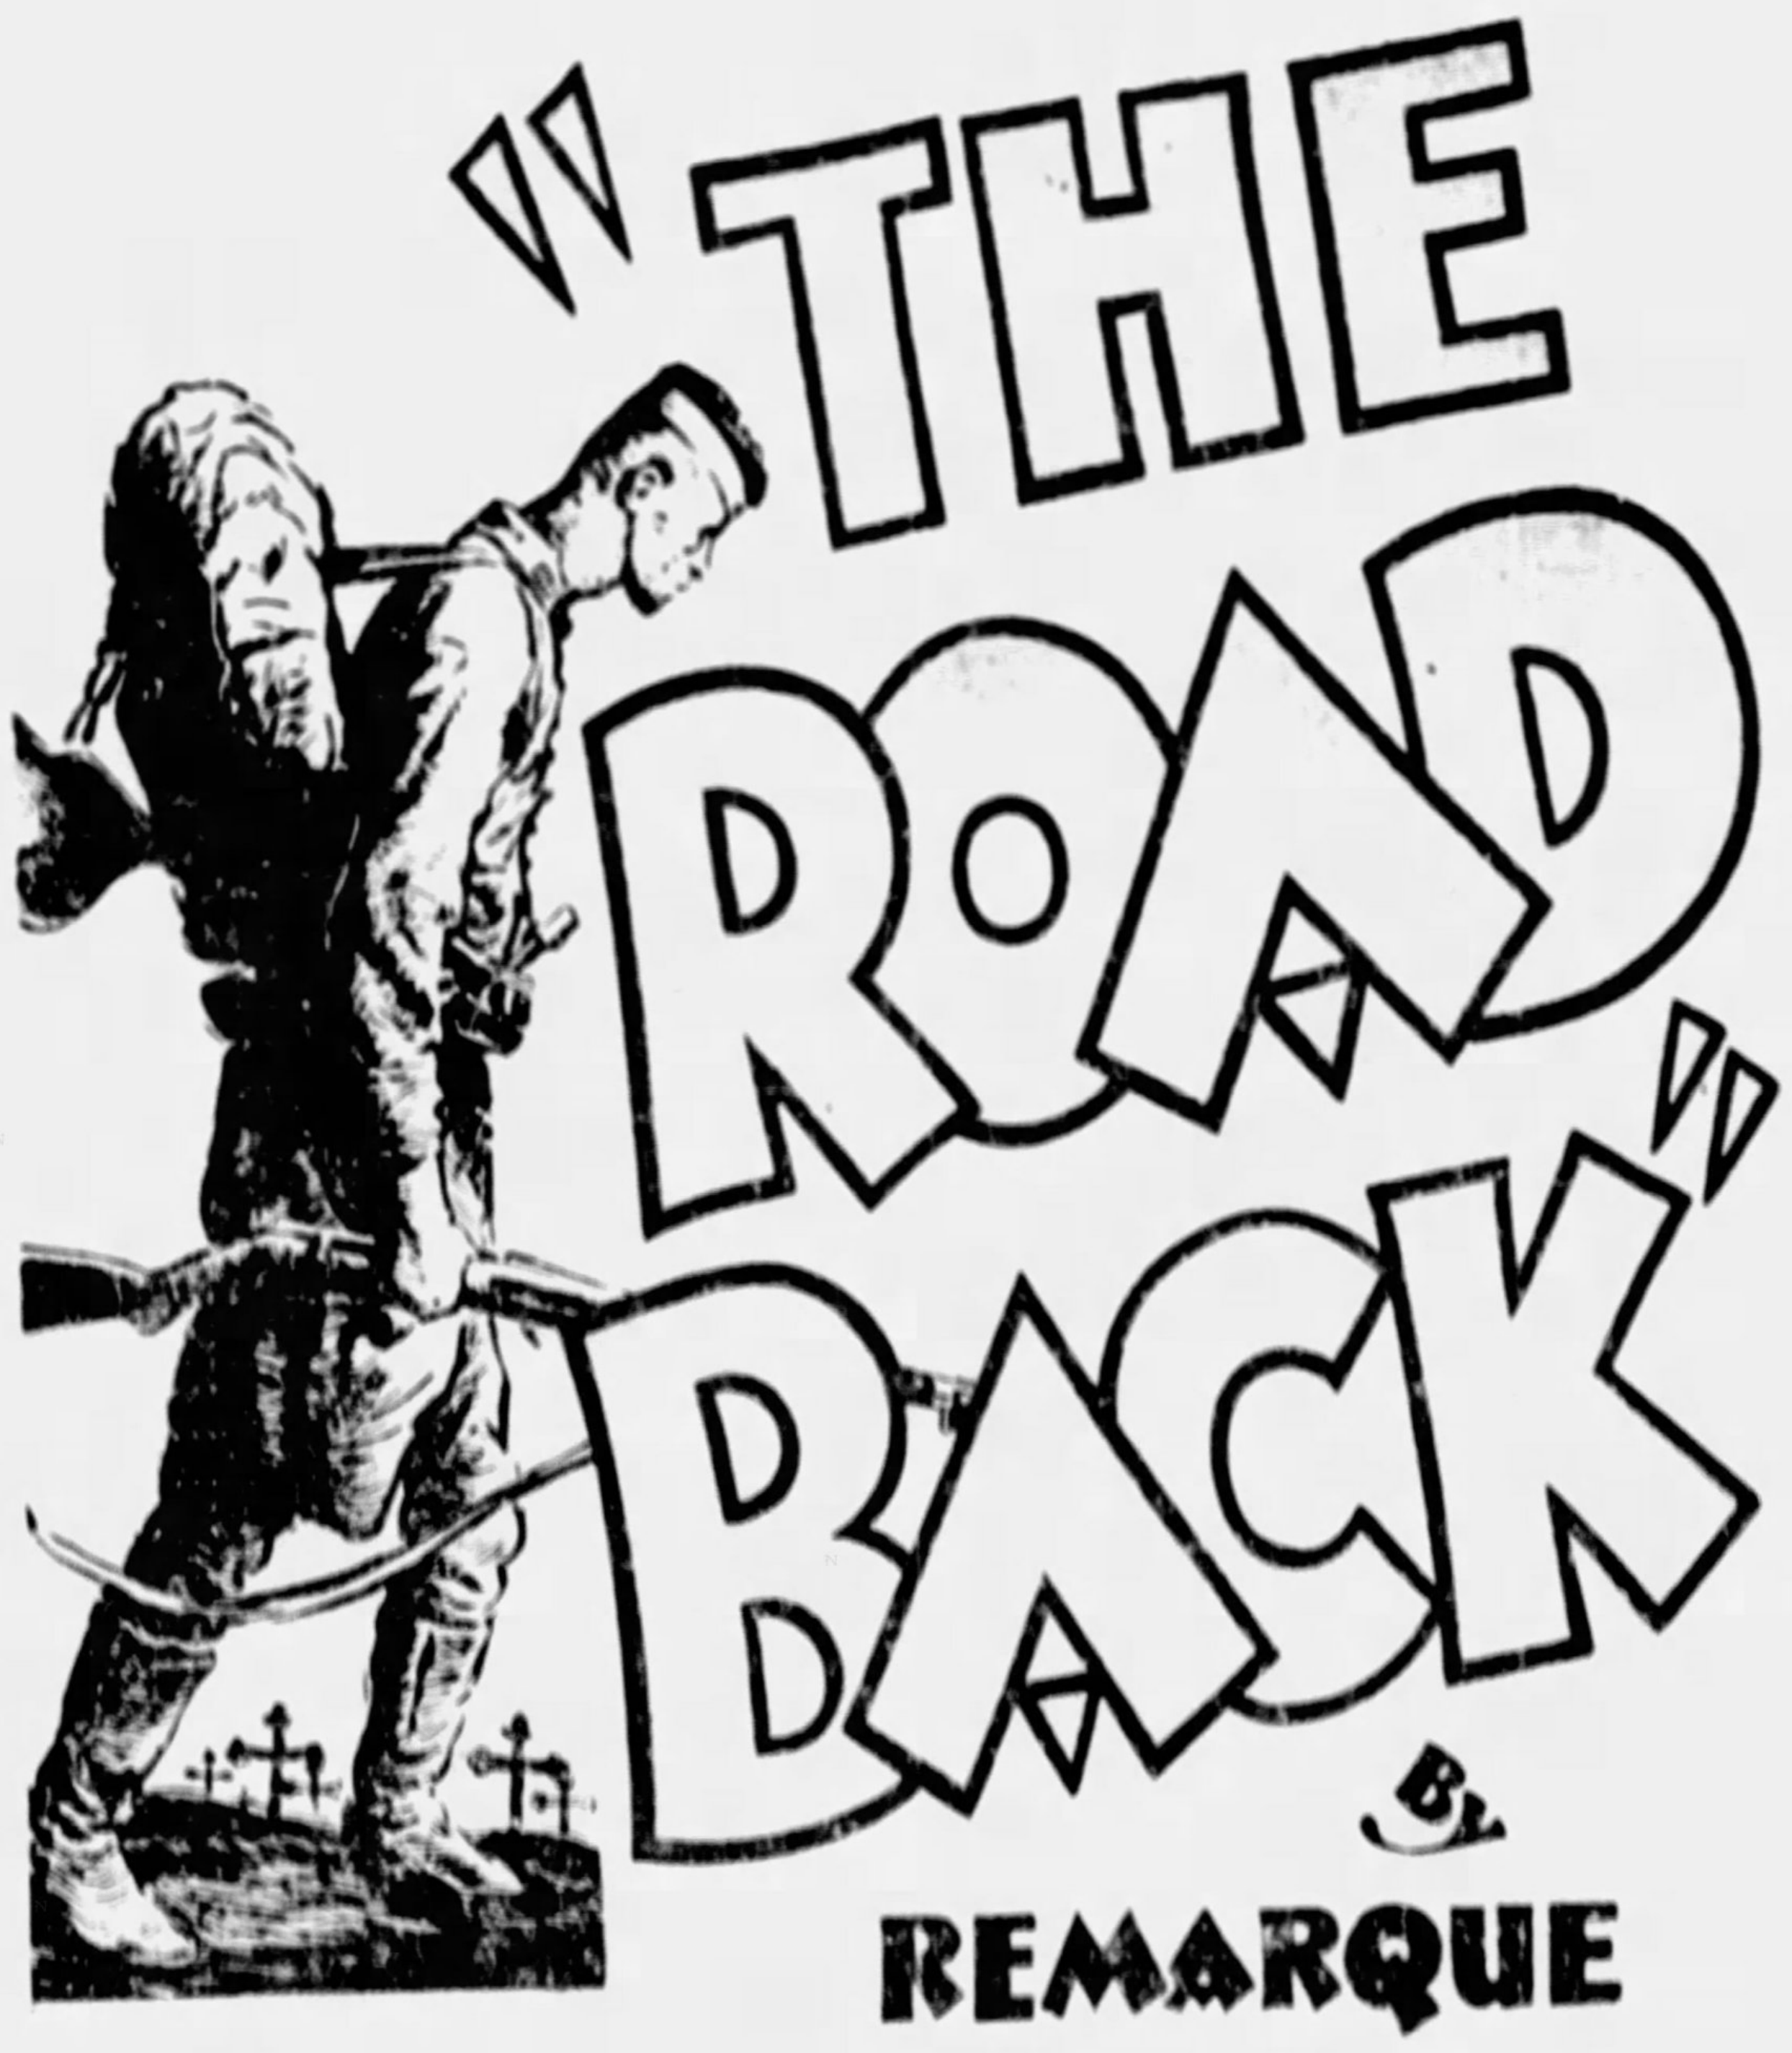
[illegible]

KQV

[illegible]

WWSW

[illegible]



THE STORY OF EVERY SOLDIER
..........OF EVERY NATION!

Author of "All Quiet On the Western Front"

Begins Next Thursday

Exclusively In the

SUN-TELEGRAPH

FRANK & SEDER BASEMENT

Clearance...
1/4 ~ 1/3 ~ 1/2 off
Odd Lots and Broken Assortments

Extraordinary Values for Tuesday!

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Women's Rayon Undies 19c — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Child's and Wom. Sweaters 59c — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Tots' 79c Panty Dresses 39c — Fine prints and broadcloths. All Fall colors and styles. Sizes 2 to 6. F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL "Empress Eugenie" Hats $1.00 — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Men's Wool Flannel Shirts $1.44 — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Boys' Wool Sweaters, at $1.00 — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Children's Pajama Sandals 50c — F. & S.—Basement

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Women's Novelty Shoes $1.00 — Basement Annex

CLEARANCE SPECIAL Wool-Mixed Blankets, Pair $1.97 — Basement Annex

Item	Price
69c Tots' Wash Suits	29c
Child's Bloomers, 2 for	25c
Tots' Flannelette Sleepers	39c
79c Girls' Combinations	39c
$1.98 Baby Diapers, doz.	$1.00
Girls' Rayon Bloomers, 4	$1.00
Baby Eiderdown Bunting	69c
Women's Linene Suits at	50c
59c Women's Union Suits	25c
Brassieres and Bandeaux	15c
Women's Pajamas, for	50c
Women's Wash Dresses at	39c
Wom. Flat Crepe Dresses	69c
Women's Bloomers, 2 for	25c
Rayon Flat Crepe Slips at	39c
$1.25 Hoovers & Smocks	59c
Extra! 69 Fur Coats at	$39.50
Men's Shirts and Shorts	14c
Men's Union Suits, Each	25c
Men's 35c Neckties, for	10c
Men's $1.25 Dress Shirts	49c
Men's Shirts and Drawers	25c
Men's 19c Fancy Sox, Pr.	10c
$1.49 Men's Work Pants	89c
50 Men's Fall Suits at	$10
$2.98 Girls' Raincoats for	$1.98
Girls' School Dresses for	59c
$2.98 Misses' Skirts at	$1.98
Women's Silk Dresses for	$2.00
Women's Dresses now at	$3.00
$1.50 Tots' Sweaters at	69c
69c Boys' Novelty Suits	49c
Feather Pillows, each at	49c
Pull-Up Chairs, Special	$4.88
89c Boys' School Pants	65c
59c Boys' Play Suits at	29c
9x12 ft. Velvet Rugs at	$5.55
Odd Lots Panels, Each	22c
25c Children's Hosiery	10c
39c Women's Rayon Hose	14c
Misses' Shaped Hose, at	16c
Women's Summer Hats at	19c
15c Stair Treads, Each	9c
Women's Sport Sandals	39c
Children's School Shoes	79c
Men's Sport Oxfords at	$1.99
$2.98 Rayon Bedspreads	$1.97
All-Silk Crepe, Yard at	69c
$1 Colored Border Sheets	79c
$1.95 Roof Paint, Gallon	$1.19
$1.95 Room Wall Paper	$1.00

Hour Sale 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. Only

Women's and Misses' COATS Must Go

Suitable for General Wear!

$6 — Drastically Reduced! Worth Three and Four Times This Price!

$8 — All Sizes for Women and Misses, While They Last! Come Early!

$10 — Values without Equal! Sacrificed Regardless of Former Prices!

Frank & Seder—Sub-Basement

Extraordinary Values! New Fall

Silk and Print Dresses

Actually Worth $8

3.97

Featuring All the Newest Fall Models!

Beautiful new styles in Travel Prints, Silk Crepes and All-Wool Jerseys. Showing all the finer details found only in higher-priced dresses. Best values anywhere in town! Come and see for yourself!

Sizes 14 to 52

Frank & Seder—Sub-Basement

All In A Day

By Mark Hellinger

IT HAS BEEN WRITTEN that New York is the greatest boob [illegible] the universe. Not only has it been written but it has [illegible] proved, which is generally something else again. A[illegible] may [illegible] reason why a museum of freaks and curios [illegible] prospers [illegible] just a few steps west of 42nd street [illegible].

[illegible] this museum one may find the world's largest woman and [illegible] world's smallest man, perhaps. Then, too, there are the [illegible] tellers who always pick the wrong horses in the first race at New Orleans. And the pretty woman who charms the [illegible] snakes that would emerge loser in a wrestling match with a newborn hare.

You [illegible] cents [illegible] ask for questions. prize [illegible] Are they come. How long where [illegible] a nickel [illegible] see [illegible] Girl's [illegible] Moore's [illegible] see the [illegible] ladies and gentlemen standing [illegible] says the trainer [illegible] as the [illegible] If Theodore was Havadi[illegible] another The [illegible] But he is not here so I little [illegible] Thank you. Good night. members [illegible] even [illegible] wonder of it all. actual [illegible] make the museum in a sever[illegible] Imagine sophisticated New Yorkers watching a the [illegible] fat [illegible] and believing it all. doorman [illegible] hundreds of people paying drop [illegible] good money like so many the [illegible] runs [illegible] ing [illegible] What did short [illegible] When I walked across the street and paid $10 for a speakeasy [illegible] a seat at Vanities.

Nothing sappy about me.

It's an [illegible] while [illegible] prises [illegible] other [illegible] like Tenn[illegible] ies do [illegible] Neither [illegible] weather [illegible] can the [illegible] shows [illegible] until the [illegible]

Thus [illegible] I wandered [illegible] second [illegible] I was just a [illegible] I struck a corner [illegible] There sat a mild-ma[illegible] bespectacled gentleman [illegible] and very proud [illegible] to his awestruck [illegible] a number of trained fleas.

The trainer [illegible] fascinat[illegible] And I lingered long [illegible] emphatic[illegible] time again that his fleas were the largest and most [illegible] in the world.

For the last [illegible] the trainer has been [illegible] his fleas [illegible] all [illegible] But as he [illegible] you if he [illegible] nowhere [illegible] as lucrative [illegible] on Broadway.

During the performance that I attended the trainer was sad. Very sad. It seemed that Theodore had disappeared during the afternoon. And Theodore was no ordinary flea. Starting from scratch he could out-jump any other flea you ever heard of. Now he was gone and the trainer was melancholy.

"Yes, sir," he told the crowd, "Theodore is gone. And it is my fault. I trained him to jump and he finally jumped too far."

Working in the little curtained room, the trainer attracts a remarkable audience. In addition to myself there were some 30 people present. Three couples in evening dress. Four or five men obviously laborers. Several [illegible] escorted [illegible] And so on. But everyone gazing at the trainer with [illegible] admiration.

"I feed them [illegible]," he says [illegible] "and I feed them on myself. If I ever get married I'll feed them on my wife [illegible]."

That's a [illegible] for general merriment [illegible] gentlemen [illegible] ers.

What's [illegible] fleas [illegible] miniature [illegible] There are exclamations [illegible] from every one [illegible]

"Mike and [illegible] the real trainer [illegible] 1500 times [illegible] The flea [illegible] can [illegible] [illegible] ball [illegible]

And so the minutes fly. The dancing fleas, dressed in ballet costume, hop [illegible] about as the patrons [illegible] Another flea [illegible] a ball. And another one [illegible] a miniature carousel.

This performance [illegible] now [illegible]

LANG, BROWN RECOVERING

Edward G. Lang, director of the City Department of Public Works, and Norman F. Brown, director of the County Department of Public Works, both of whom have been patients in the Allegheny General Hospital for the last few days, are well on the way to recovery, according to hospital attaches.

Director Lang, in the hospital for rest and treatment, was reported resting well and will remain several days.

Director Brown is also a patient for minor treatment. His condition, hospital officials said today, was excellent, though no date was set for his dismissal.

Mellon Puts New Hill Between Us And Poorhouse

By ARTHUR 'BUGS' BAER

We told you that Andy Mellon would have no trouble selling his $800,000,000 bonds in the market places and the highways.

It's a lot of money. But we've reached that stage where ciphers don't scare us any more.

They are 20-24 year bonds. We've got some Wall street bonds in the wall safe that are going to get older than that.

It puts another hill between us and the poorhouse. But how about the [illegible] relentless old Democrats?

The Democratic National Committee owes Johnnie Raskob $335,250 in cash money. All the committee has on hand is about $10,000 and the frankfurter concession to old Madison Square Garden.

The debt piled up while those 24 delegates from Alabama were holding a rodeo over the rodeo.

And if it isn't paid it gives Mr. Raskob the privilege of naming the next presidential candidate wearing his famous Empress Eugenie brown derby with the cigar in front.

The committee should pay the money. Even a gambling loss with marked cards is a debt of honor.

[illegible]

DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

School of Pharmacy

Offers professional and commercial training in pharmacy and its allied sciences. Undergraduate work leads to the degrees, Graduate in Pharmacy, Pharmaceutical Chemist and Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy. Classes meet daily, five days a week, from 9:00 A. M. until 4:00 P. M.

REGISTRATION DAYS

DAY STUDENTS

Monday, Sept. 14, to Saturday, Sept. 19

EVENING STUDENTS

Law School . . . Freshmen Register Sept. 14 and 15, Grant Bldg., 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Upper Classmen Register at Campus Theater, Sept. 16, 17, 18.

Theatre Arts and Dramatic Literature . . . Register at 78 Vandergrift Bldg., Sept. 14 to 19, 10 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Economics and Business Administration . . . Registration Days, Sept. 21 to 26, 2nd Vandergrift Bldg., 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

WRITE OR PHONE THE REGISTRAR FOR CATALOG

DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

PITTSBURGH, PA. Phone GRant 4636

SEPTEMBER SALES

Lamps, Housewares and China

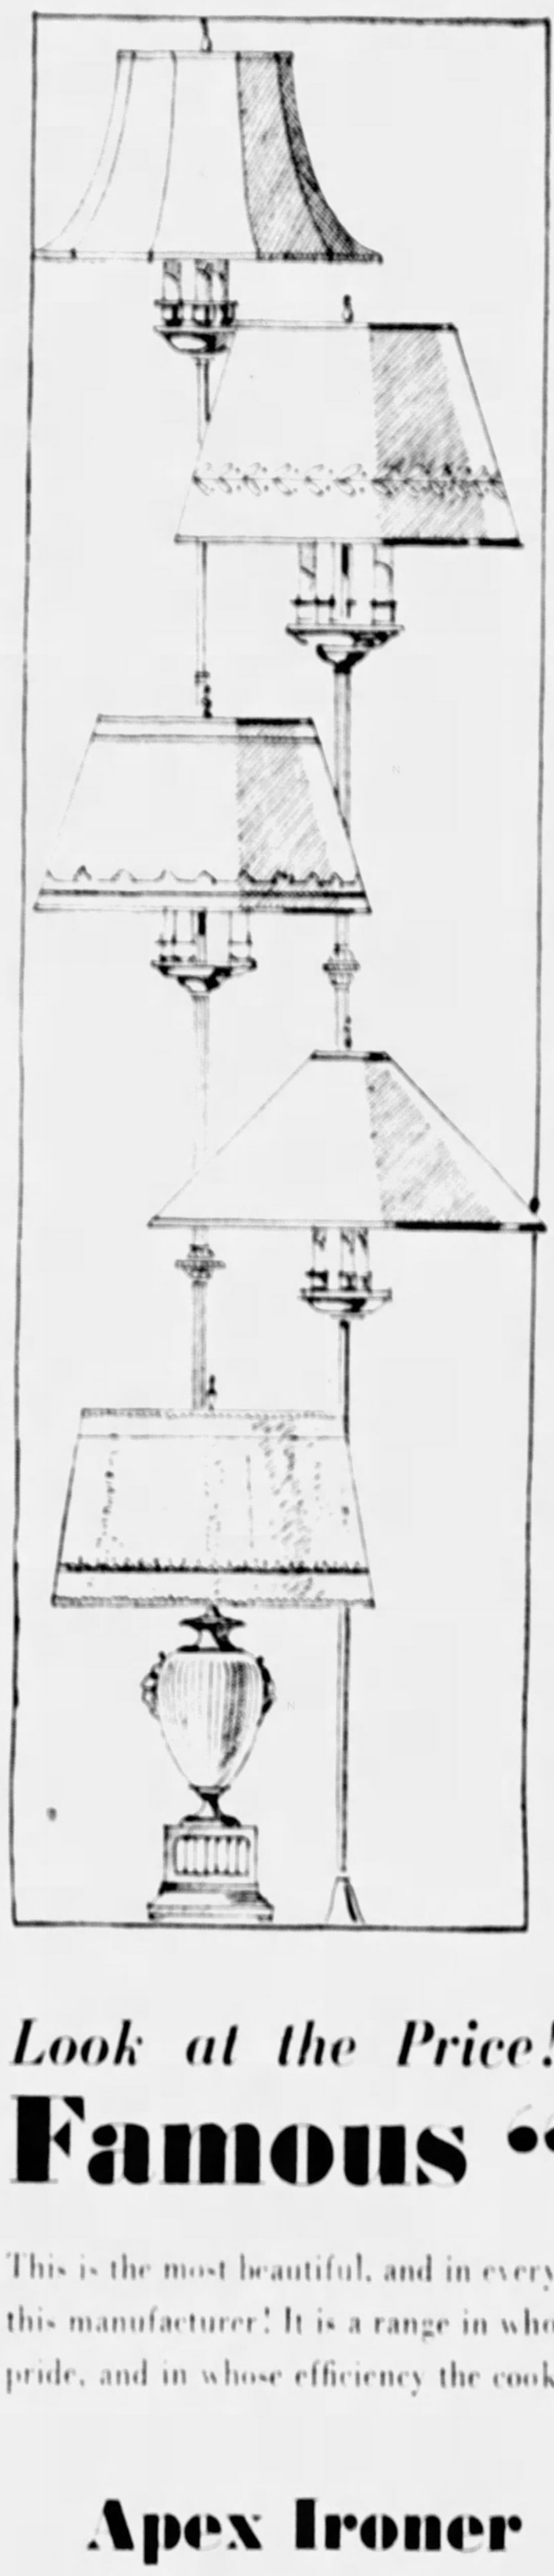
This Lovely Old Mellow Vellum Dinner Service

has been in large demand all summer. Here it is at a September Sale price. 57 pieces—complete service for 8. And the platinum line is NON-tarnishable. Open stock. Now, set 11.95

'Pink Body' 32-Piece Porcelain Luncheon Sets

—is another of this year's successes, which you can buy in our September Sales for a lot less. The 32-piece set, with non-tarnishable platinum line, regularly 5.95, September, priced 3.95

SEVENTH FLOOR



It Isn't Nice to Boast—But

We Know These

Lamps

Are Wonderful

at 5.90

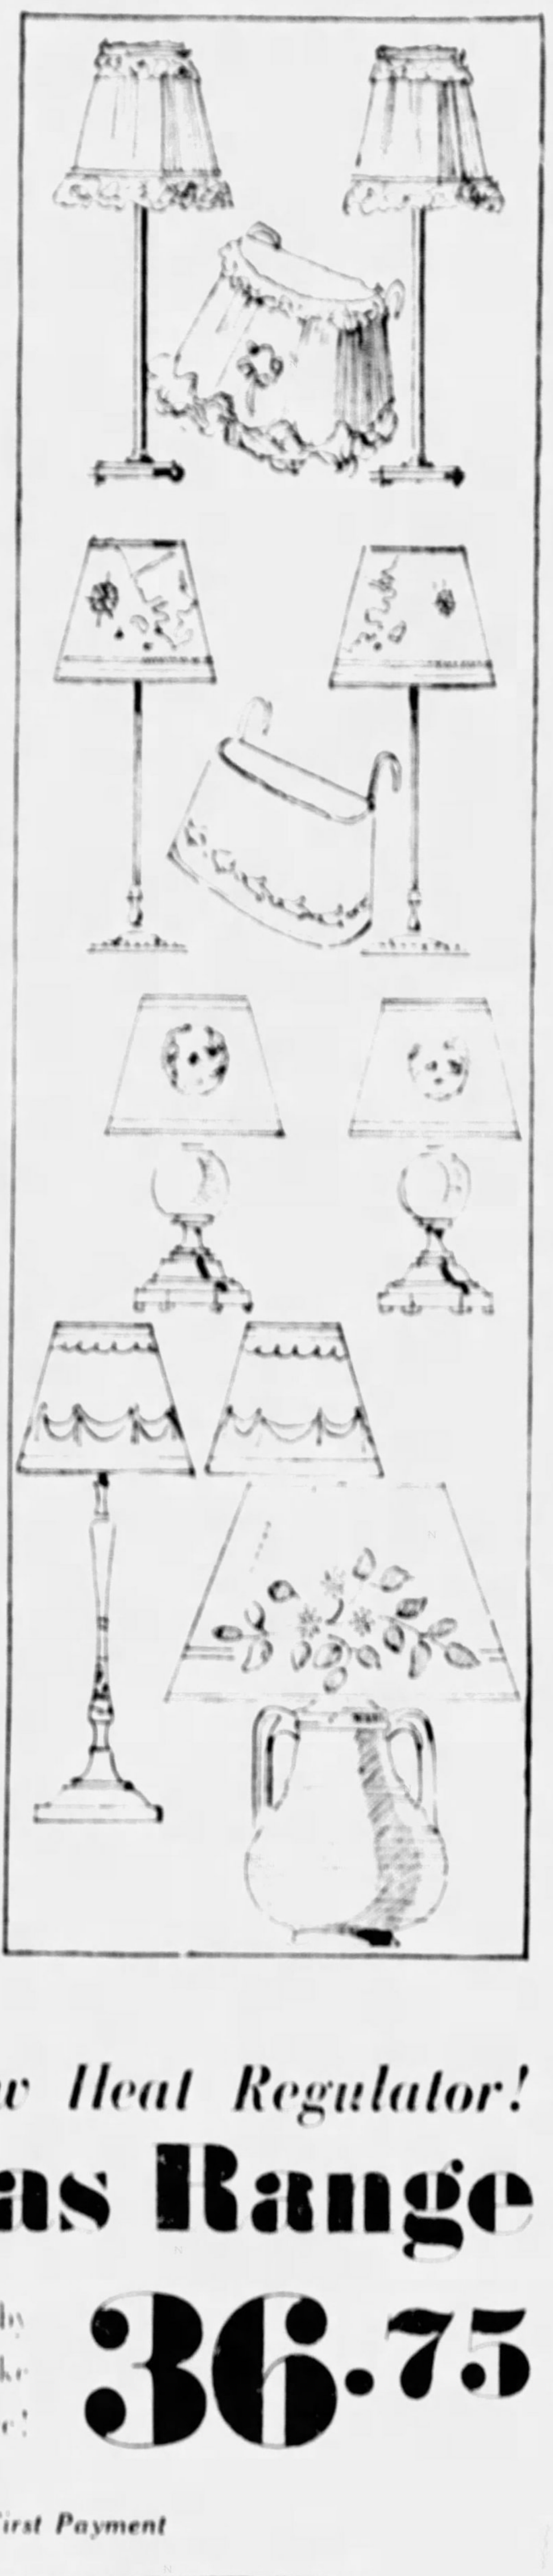
COMPLETE

More styles than you could shake a stick at—about everything an artful woman could want to light up with this autumn. Need we reiterate that anything you choose is 5.90 complete with shades—and that the vanities are 5.90 for pair or set.

KAUFMANN'S . . . FIFTH FLOOR



Never Before at This Low Price!

5,000 Imported

RUGS

Size 23x53 Inches

2.89

You WON'T find it easy to believe your eyes—but you WILL believe the price tags! Nothing like them ever in Pittsburgh at the price . . . gloriously toned Oriental reproductions—red, blue, ivory, mulberry grounds, enriched with all the subtle color-harmonies of the true Oriental. Perfect as "spot" rugs, and ideal as couch "throws" and hangings for college dorms. 35 different designs.

ON FIRST FLOOR TABLES AND ON THE NINTH FLOOR

Look at the Price! With Robertshaw Heat Regulator!

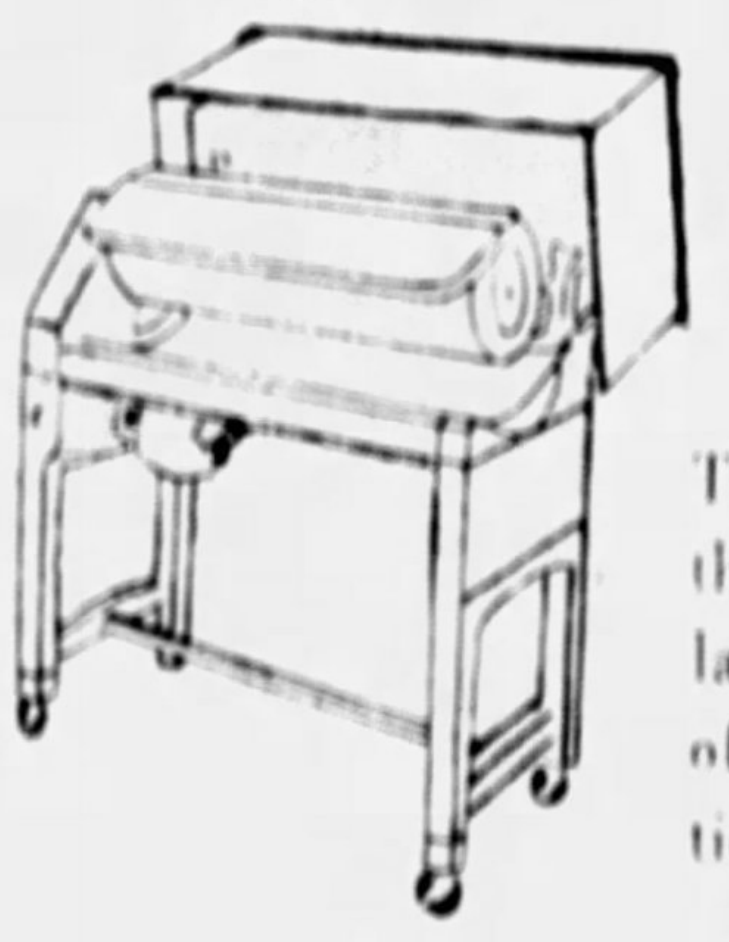
Famous "______" Gas Range

This is the most beautiful, and in every way the finest gas range produced by this manufacturer! It is a range in whose beauty the whole family will take pride, and in whose efficiency the cook will rejoice! Now, look at the price! 36.75

Small First Payment

Read! 4-way oven—heats on all four sides; absolutely uniform baking, less gas consumed. Finest (Robertshaw) heat regulator. Cast-iron (14x18-inch) oven and broiler front and door frames. Hidden gas cocks and manifold pipe—no dirt-catchers. Bakelite cool handles.

Apex Ironer



99.50

Thousands in use in this territory. Regularly $149. Get rid of Tuesday slow motion with an Apex.

Faultless Washer

54.50

That cast-aluminum agitator never fails. Gear case is trouble-proof (ask the husband). Very special at 54.50.

KAUFMANN'S . . . SEVENTH FLOOR

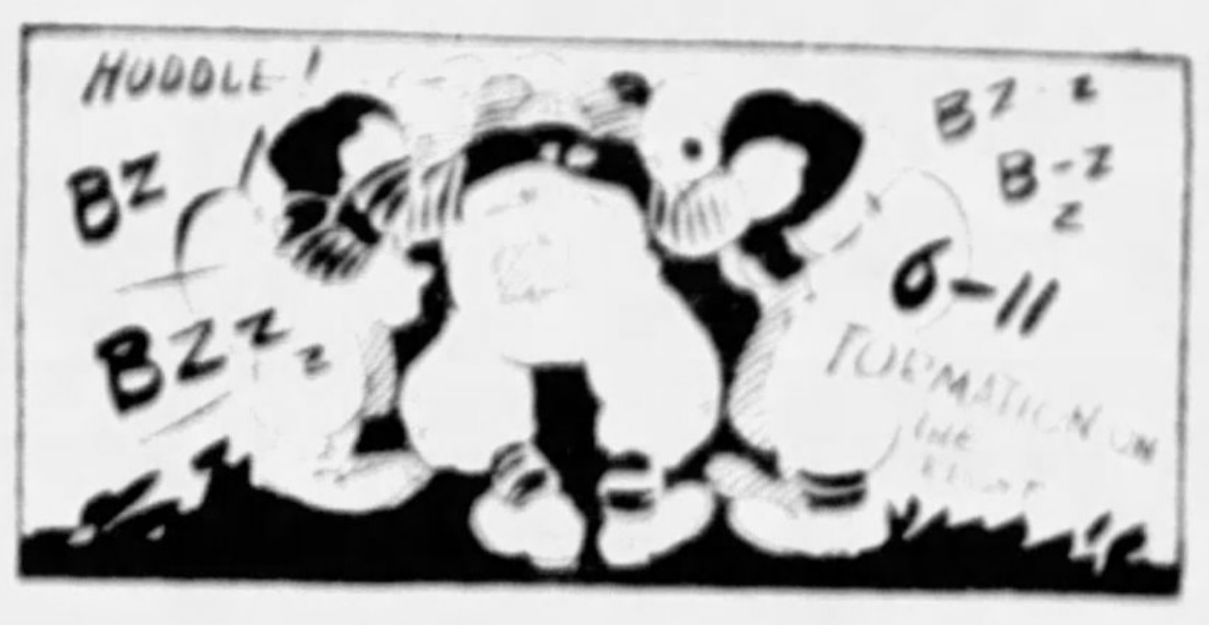
Closed Today—Regular Store Hours Tuesday—9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Daily—Saturday, 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

KAUFMANN'S

FIFTH AVENUE — Telephone Shopping, GRant 7000. Others Calls, ATlantic 1000 — PITTSBURGH

WOOD, DON RESUME HARMSWORTH CUP RACE

SUN-TELEGRAPH SPORTS
BEST IN PITTSBURGH · MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1931



BUCS WIN MORNING GAME

Sport Comment

By JAMES J. LONG

Panther Problems Few.
Change in Ball Players.
Pirate Drive Too Late.
Reds Aid to Cards.
Ouimet Always Great.
Tunney's Endurance.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR PITT GRIDDERS

THE PITT PANTHERS, beginning practice today at their Windber camp, with Head Coach Jock Sutherland in charge, are starting out with prospects almost similar to those of the 1929 squad, which later went through to an eastern championship. This is the nineteenth year Pitt has used Camp Hamilton, and there have been few seasons in which the Panthers were favored with a brighter outlook.

Dr. J. B. Sutherland

There is a splendid lot of new material augmenting a wealth of varsity holdovers. With such good sophomores as Meredith, Sebastian, Skladany, Hogan and Onder coming up for their first year of varsity experience, the necessary youth needed to add a punch to a veteran lineup will not be hard to locate. And though he rarely permits himself to appear optimistic, Dr. Sutherland may find it difficult to mask his pleasure when he calls the roll and notes the number and quality of seasoned campaigners on hand.

THIS DIVISION OF the squad includes such veterans as Capt. Eddie Hirshberg, Rip Collins and Ted Daily answering "Present" for the ends; Jess Quatse and Jim MacMurdo for the tackles; Hart Morris and Mike Milligan for the guards; Ralph Daugherty and Joe Tormey for center and Jimmy Clark, Warren Heller and Paul Reider for the backs.

From among those who were forced to remain on the bench the greater part of last season, but who either saw action occasionally as reserves or blossomed forth in spring practice this year, Jock can call upon Paul Cuba, tackle; Johnny Luch, fullback; Rocco Cutri and Zola Alpert, quarterbacks, and Mel Brown, halfback.

HOWEVER THIS IS looking only at the bright side of things. On the other hand Pitt this season faces the hardest schedule in its history and training in camp will be cut down from three weeks to two. Too, the quarterback berth left vacant by the graduation of Eddie Baker is going to be hard to fill.

Hogan, a promising candidate for the place, has had no varsity experience and his kicking and passing for the freshman team last year were erratic. But he has the bulk necessary for a good interferer and is capable of getting off long kicks on occasions. He probably has a slight edge on Cutri and Alpert.

THE OTHER WEAK spots, as far as reserve material goes, will be the guards. Morris and Milligan are veterans, but there is only one man to step on the job should either be injured. He is Seigel, fast and aggressive, but rather light. The scarcity of timber at this position, where in recent years such stars as Johnny Roberts, Alec Fox, Luby DiMeolo and Ray Montgomery held forth, worries Sutherland not a little. With good points more than balancing the bad on the 1931 eleven, the factor that appears to be most important right now, is the morale. At present all indications point to a much-improved spirit, as the morale of the team looks safe in the hands of Capt. Hirshberg, an unusually popular selection for the field leadership.

Walter Johnson

ONE WAY IN which ball players have changed in the opinion of Walter Johnson, and it's not a change for the better, is that they lack the dependability of the old-timers from season to season.

"It's hard to figure the present-day ball player," Johnson said. "You could count more on players of the old school than you can on these young men of today. In the old days, if a player had been good one season you knew he would be good the following year and for several other seasons to come. Not so now. A star today may be down and out tomorrow as far as delivering his best is concerned."

IN SWEEPING THE three-game series with the Cardinals and adding a fourth straight victory yesterday at the expense of the sliding Cubs, who have lost seven games in a row, the Pirates showed a sharp recovery from the previous slump, in which they won only eight games out of 24.

Too bad they didn't play that kind of ball with some degree of consistency when it would have meant something. The first division appears to be out of reach now. If the Robins should only break even in their 20 remaining games, or if the Cubs should lose nine out of 17, the Bucs would have to win 17 out of 21 to break into the first four. Even to reach the .500 mark the Rovers must win 14 of their 21 games, or two out of every three.

THE DASH OF the Giants, halted yesterday after eight straight wins, in pursuit of the first-place Cards, is as hopeless as the Pirate rush. If the Redbirds should get only an even break in the 20 games they have yet to play, the Giants would be required to win 18 out of 20 to finish ahead of them. As usual, the Cards found a soft spot in Cincinnati yesterday just when they needed a little bracing up, shutting out the tailenders twice. The impotency of the Reds against the Cards has been a big factor in the latter's prospective pennant victory. The Howleys have defeated the Missourians only twice in 19 games this year, and only twice in 32 games since June 1, 1930.

IN WINNING THE United States amateur golf championship 17 years after his first triumph in that event, Francis Ouimet has surpassed every record for time elapsed between two major title victories, excepting only John Ball's eighth capture of the British amateur 24 years after he won it for the first time.

At that, the United States amateur crown for 1931 cannot be said to have gone to an outsider. It cannot be called an upset when a title goes to a player who was finalist in 1920, and reached the semi-finals five times in seven years from 1923 to 1929. Ouimet has been one of the most consistently great golfers in the world, and it was only the presence in the game of a super-star like Bobby Jones, who beat him three times in the semi-finals, that kept the Boston veteran from winning a string of championships. Ouimet may be rated a comeback as a title winner, but as a great golfer he never went away.

Gene Tunney

AMONG THOSE WHO think that Gene Tunney would make a highly successful job of it should he decide to enter the ring again is Lew Fink, Tunney's old trainer, who is now preparing Tony Canzoneri for the latter's lightweight title fight with Jack (Kid) Berg in New York Thursday night.

Fink says Tunney was always underrated on the score of endurance as well as in hitting power, and he opines that clean living has conserved Gene's rare store of energy.

"PEOPLE NEVER REALIZED Tunney's extraordinary endurance any more than they realized his hitting power," Fink remarks. "Most folk thought Gene couldn't hit, but that was the bunk. I used to hold the big punching bag while Tunney pounded the other side of it, and he made my head ache so that I thought it would split. He'd do that, too, before his ring work in training, and then he'd go in and box six to 10 rounds with his sparring partners. You couldn't beat Tunney for endurance. The day before he fought Jack Dempsey in Philadelphia he ran nine miles and finished the last mile running backward. And at the end of it all he hopped a tall fence like a hurdler without using his hands as an aid. A man like that must still have a whole lot left."

DEFENDER BOWS IN FIRST HEAT TO BRITISHER

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Roaring like a catapult over the Detroit River course, Kaye Don with his Miss England II, British challenger, defeated Gar Wood in his Miss America IX, in the first heat of the Harmsworth Trophy race yesterday.

The quiet-mannered British speed ace drove his roaring hydroplane to a new competitive race speed record of 89.913 miles an hour for the 30-mile Harmsworth course to beat the defender. In one lap of the five-mile course, he pushed the silver and white hulled hydroplane around the gourd-shaped course at a speed of 93.017 statute miles an hour.

It was the first time in Gar Wood's career as defender of the famed British international trophy, which he first won in England in 1920, that he has finished second best in any heat of this speed boat classic. His average for the 30 miles was 87.027 and his fatest lap was at a speed of 91.989 statute miles an hour.

GOOD RACE—WOOD

Wood took his defeat philosophically.

"It was a good race and I am satisfied," he said. "Remember, we have another race today, and with better water and favorable conditions we will give Don a run. If he wins, it will be all right. The Harmsworth has in this country too long; it's getting mildewed here."

"It was the stiffest race I've ever had," was Don's comment. "We hope to do as well today." To win the trophy, Don must win two 30-mile heats.

Miss England II literally leaped away from the Defender. Making good his promise of several days ago Don got his craft across the starting line ahead of Wood. It was on the straightaway that he had hoped for the speed necessary to beat the gray-haired veteran. Approaching the start, a few seconds before the gun, Wood and Don were abreast, with America VIII, driven by George Wood, following closely behind.

DON NEAR ACCIDENT

About an eighth of a mile from the start Don and Wood almost simultaneously called for wide open throttles. Don's craft, holding the water splendidly, shot forward to take a lead. He steadily increased this, until at the finish he was nearly a mile and a half ahead of the defending craft.

The challenger skidded badly on some of the sharp turns, but Don surprised the thousands of spectators with the skill with which he rounded them and immediately gained speed again on the straightaways. Only once did the skidding propensities of Miss England II, seem to threaten mishap. Near the end of the second lap, Miss England's exhaust tubes belched flames and she skidded about 50 feet toward a landing dock. Thinking fast, Don shut off her engines and by skillful maneuvering straightened her and was away again, having lost little if any of the big lead he had piled up.

TIME IS FAST

No time was recorded of the maximum speed attained by Don on the straightaways, but to attain a timing at the rate of more than 93 miles an hour one five-mile lap with its three positive turns and one wide sweep, race officials estimated he must have had his craft well up near the 110 miles an hour it made at Lake Garda, Italy, last year.

The pace that Don set for the defenders is emphasized by the fact that even Miss America VIII,

(Continued on Page Fourteen.)

Major Leagues

GAMES TODAY

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CINCINNATI AT PITTSBURGH (10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m.)
Boston at Brooklyn (2).
Philadelphia at New York (2).
St. Louis at Chicago (a. m. and p. m.).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago at Cleveland (2).
St. Louis at Detroit (2).
Washington at Boston (2).
New York at Philadelphia (a. m. and p. m.).

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
St. Louis	86	48	.642
New York	79	55	.590
Chicago	69	65	.515
Brooklyn	69	65	.515
PITTSBURGH	63	70	.474
Boston	60	74	.448
Philadelphia	59	74	.444
Cincinnati	50	85	.370

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Philadelphia	94	38	.712
Washington	79	54	.594
New York	78	55	.586
Cleveland	66	64	.508
Detroit	55	78	.414
St. Louis	55	79	.410
Chicago	52	80	.394
Boston	50	82	.379

RESULTS YESTERDAY

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PITTSBURGH 5—CHICAGO 4
Boston 8—New York 6
St. Louis 3—Cincinnati 0
St. Louis 7—Cincinnati 0
Philadelphia 8—Brooklyn 4
Brooklyn 7—Philadelphia 2

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia 5—Boston 2
Washington 4—New York 1
Chicago 4—Detroit 1
Cleveland 6—St. Louis 5
Cleveland 13—St. Louis 2

GAMES TOMORROW

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CINCINNATI AT PITTSBURGH (3:30).
Boston at Brooklyn.
Others not scheduled.

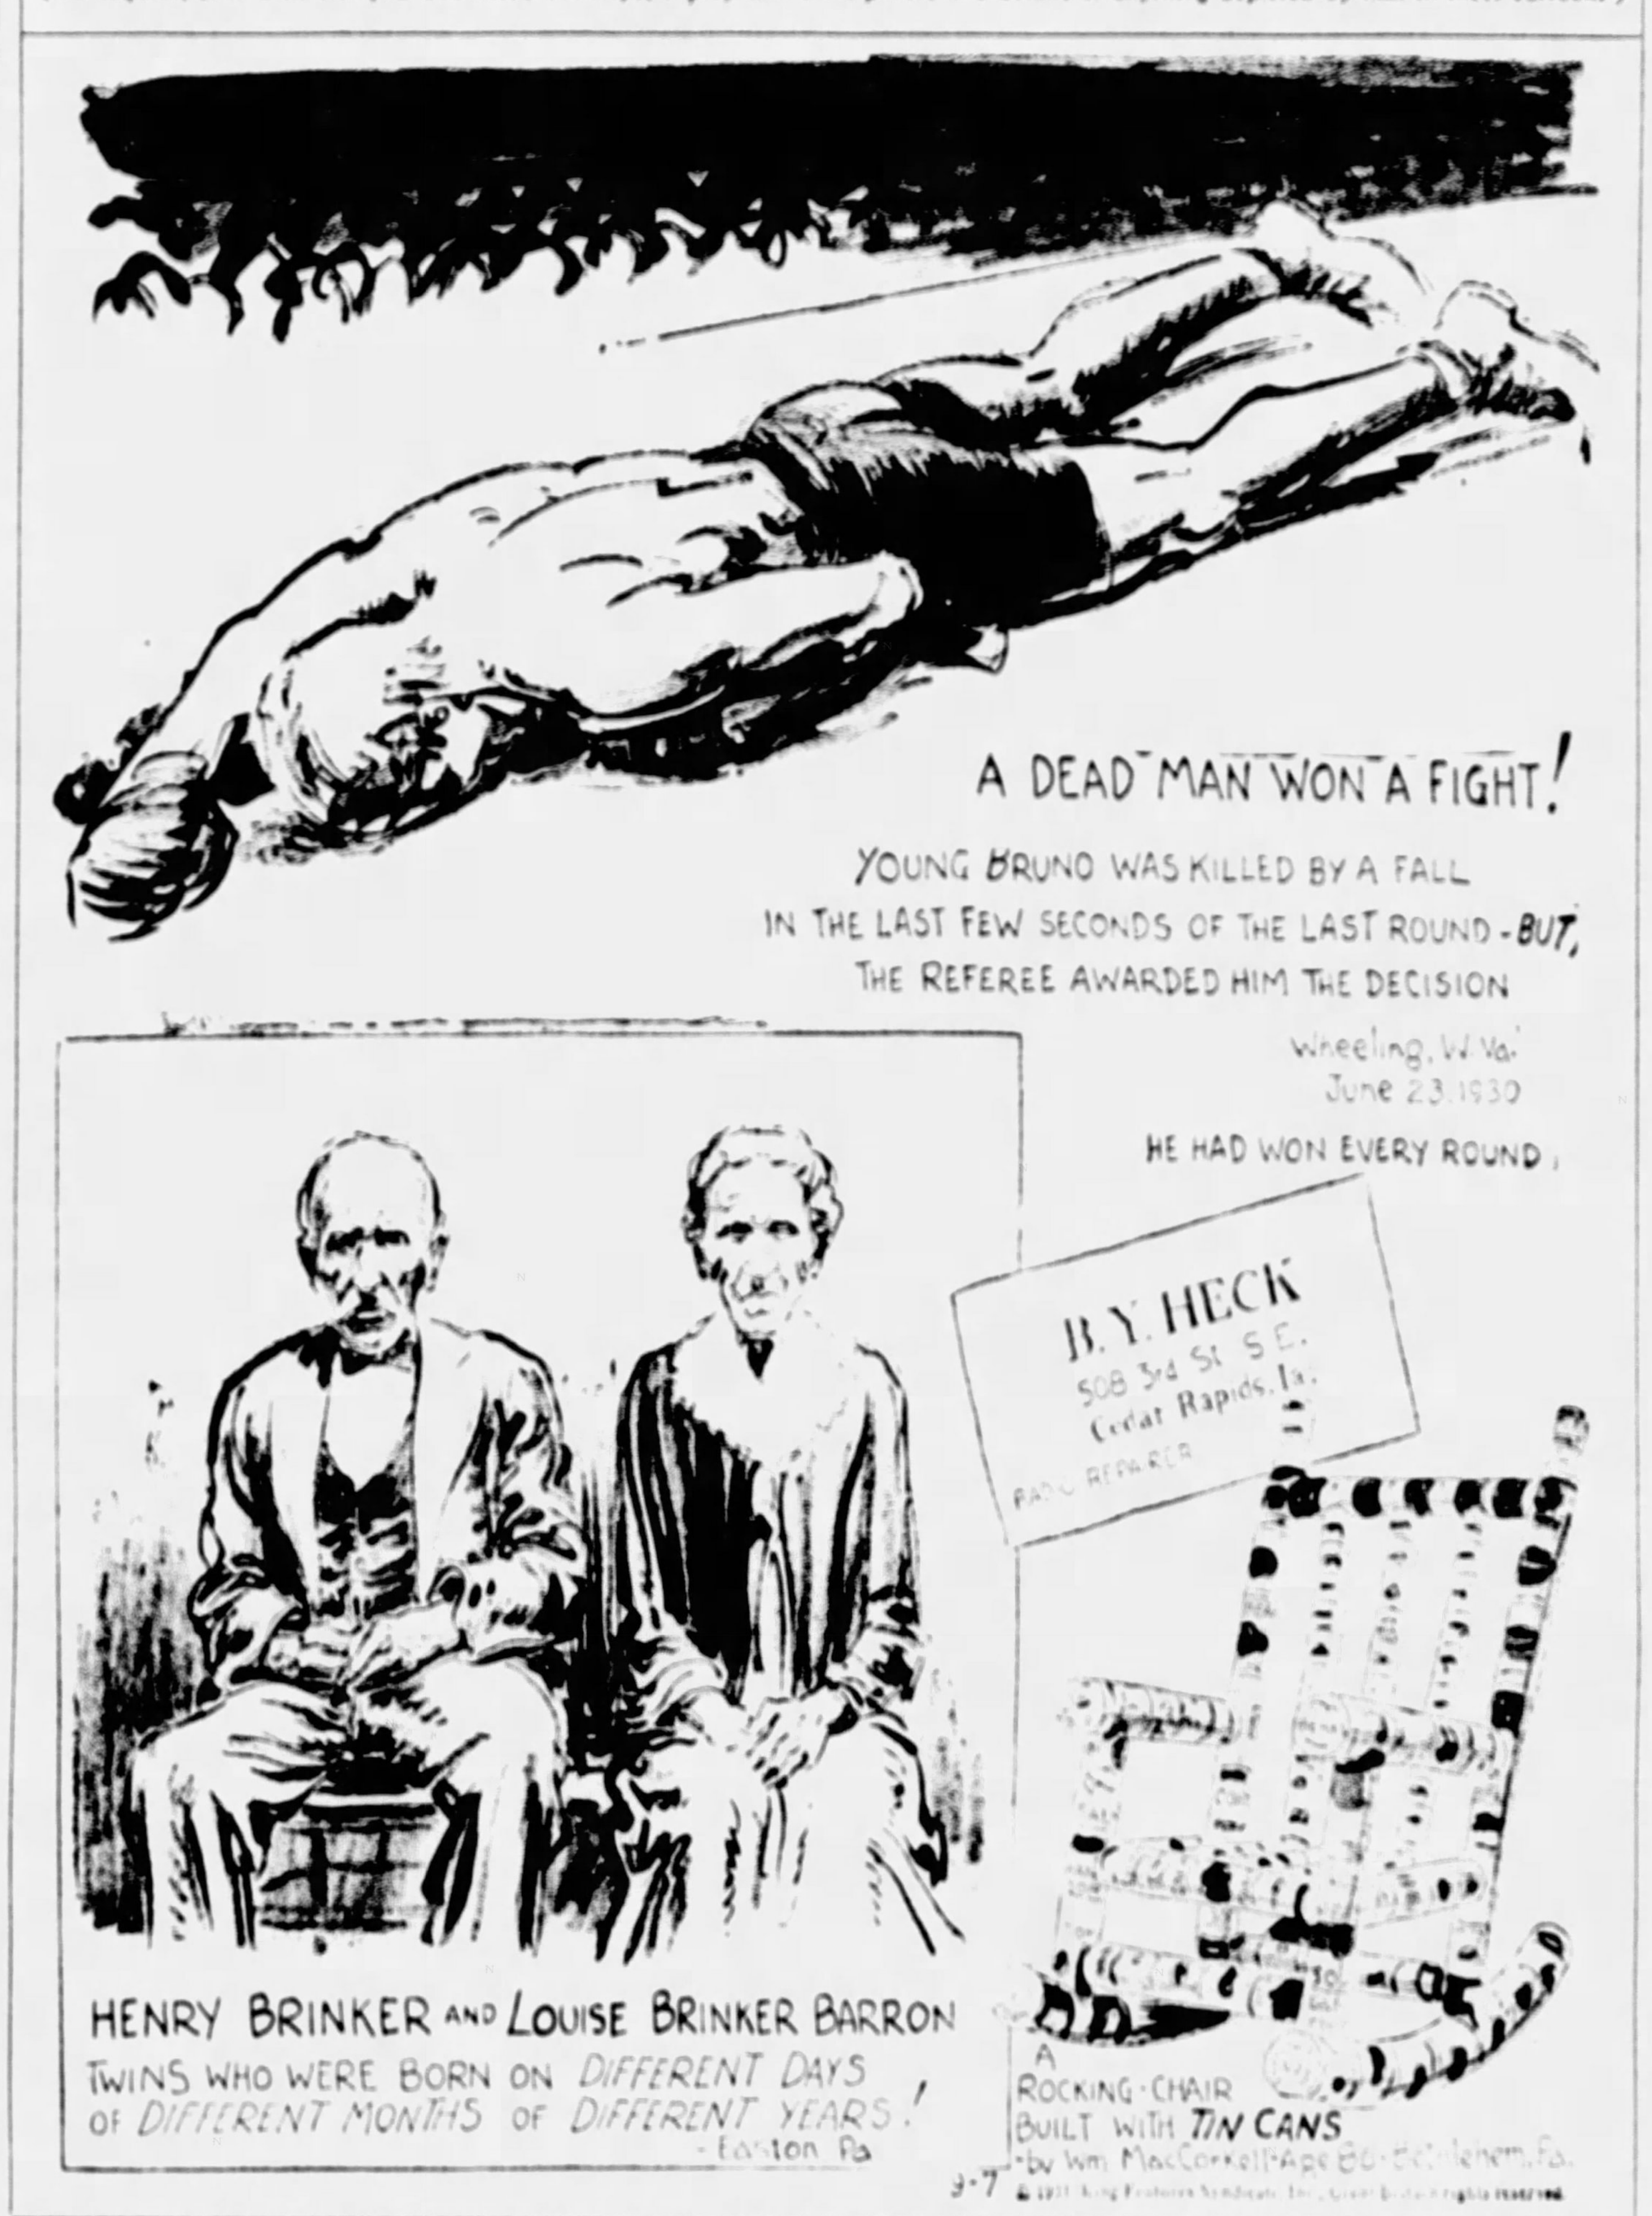
AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago at Cleveland.
St. Louis at Detroit.
Washington at Philadelphia.
Others not scheduled.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT By RIPLEY

Reg. by U. S. Patent Office

(On request, sent with stamped addressed envelope, Ripley will send proofs and details of anything depicted by him in these cartoons.)



A DEAD MAN WON A FIGHT!
YOUNG BRUNO WAS KILLED BY A FALL IN THE LAST FEW SECONDS OF THE LAST ROUND - BUT, THE REFEREE AWARDED HIM THE DECISION
Wheeling, W. Va. June 23, 1930
HE HAD WON EVERY ROUND.
B. Y. HECK
508 3rd St. S. E.
Cedar Rapids, Ia.
PAST REPAIRS
HENRY BRINKER AND LOUISE BRINKER BARRON
TWINS WHO WERE BORN ON DIFFERENT DAYS OF DIFFERENT MONTHS OF DIFFERENT YEARS! - Easton, Pa.
A ROCKING-CHAIR BUILT WITH TIN CANS - by Wm. MacCorkell - Age 80 - Bethlehem, Pa.
3-7
© 1931 King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved

EXPLANATION OF RIPLEY'S CARTOON OF LAST SATURDAY: THE FEATHER BED GRAVE—J. D. Mitchell, an old cotton planter and slave owner of Auburn, Ala., was buried in a feather bed under which his shoes were placed. During an illness of several years, Mitchell became so fearful of the time when he would die and be buried that he extracted a promise from his family and slaves that when he died he would not be buried under the ground, but on top of it in a bed on which there must be a feather mattress. His shoes also were to be placed under the bed at the foot, just as he always had them while alive.

TOMORROW—THE MAN WHO HAS SUNG IN A CHOIR FOR 79 YEARS.

FRAME ALTOONA RACE FAVORITE

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Lou Moore, of Los Angeles, has been awarded the post position in the 100-mile automobile race here today that will determine whether Fred Frame, of Los Angeles, or Lou Schneider, of Minneapolis, will be the year's national racing champion.

Moore's qualifying speed of 123.05 miles an hour, set last week, was unsurpassed as regulation qualifying runs were completed. Nevertheless, Fred Frame, of Los Angeles, second in the Indianapolis Memorial Day contest, ruled the favorite, though his qualifying speed was almost five miles less than Moore's, or 117.43.

Schneider at present is leading the national championship race with 640 points, while Moore has 540. Winning today's contest would give Moore the victory.

Schneider and Speed Gardner, of Pittsburgh, have been granted permission to make their trials this morning, Schneider flying here to qualify.

Others besides Frame to qualify were Shortly Cantlon, of Detroit; Zeke Meyer, of Philadelphia; Deacon Litz, of Dubois, Pa.; Sam Ross, of Rock Island, Ill.; and Al Asten, of Philadelphia.

The entries, in the order they will line up, unless Schneider and Gardner disturb the ratings, and the qualifying speeds are:

Lou Moore, Los Angeles, 123.05
Jimmy Gleason, Philadelphia, 119.49
Wilbur Shaw, Indianapolis, 119.30
Fred Frame, Los Angeles, 117.43
Shortly Cantlon, Detroit, 116.91
Paul Bost, Matthew, N. C., 116.88
Zeke Meyer, Philadelphia, 115.38
Deacon Litz, Dubois, Pa., 115.38
Chester Miller, Detroit, 113.28
Bill Cummings, Indianapolis, 112.86
Sam Ross, Rock Island, Ill., 112.61
Bill Denver, Audubon, Pa., 109.
Milton Jones, Cleveland, 108.7
Al Asten, Philadelphia, 105.11

Two 25-mile sprints will be run off before the 100-mile trial today. The races will start at 2 p. m., eastern standard time.

SOCCER STAR DIES

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Kicked in the head during a soccer match between the Celtics and Rangers Saturday, John Thompson, 23-year-old Scottish international, died yesterday. An operation failed to save his life.

Wittmer Refuses Operation for Appendicitis

HANOVER, N. H., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Al Wittmer, coach of the Princeton University football squad, was resting "fairly comfortably" at the Dartmouth College Hospital today after an attack of acute appendicitis.

He was taken to the hospital last night, but refused to undergo an operation and said he wished to leave as soon as possible for New York so that he might be present at the opening of Princeton football practice.

Dr. John Giles of the hospital staff, said that Wittmer's case called for immediate attention.

CERNEY WINS MARATHON

Frank Cerney, of Rochester, Pa., won the handicap modified marathon run from Liberty avenue and the Boulevard of the Allies to West View Park today, and established a new record of 49 minutes, 36 seconds for the event.

William Von Keanel, of Los Angeles, finished second, and Frank Jerry, of New Castle, third. Other entrants finished as follows: J. Quinn, Dillon A. C., fourth; C. Kirsch, Union A. C., fifth; A. Mazzie, unattached, sixth; J. Kovach, unattached, seventh; D. Marco, Union A. C., eighth; C. Nisbet, Pittsburgh Silents, ninth; Eddie Nichols, Alexander A. C., tenth.

The finish of the marathon run was the signal for the opening of the track and field meet held at West View Park under the auspices of the Pittsburgh Central Labor Union. Nine events, including novice and handicap competitions, were on the card.

YANKS TOP A'S; TIE RECORD

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—(INS)—The Yankees trounced the patched-up Athletics, 15-3, in the morning game of the holiday twin bill here today. About 15,000 fans watched one of the weirdest games ever staged in the local park.

Eight walks were issued by four Athletic hurlers in a hectic first inning in which the Yanks added two hits, and these coupled with the walks and errors netted them eight runs. The Yanks continued their scoring, adding a run in the second, two in the third, two more in the fourth and another in the fifth, before Rommel finally restricted them from home plate until the ninth inning, when the New Yorkers scored another.

Altogether the Yanks collected 16 safe hits while the Athletics were able to connect for nine safe blows off the delivery of Andrews. The score:

N. York	AB	R	H	O	A	Philadel.	AB	R	H	O	A
Combs m	4	1	1	[illegible]	0	M'Nair 3	4	1	1	1	4
Sewell 3	5	2	1	1	1	Cramer m	4	1	2	1	[illegible]
Ruth lf	3	2	1	0	0	Heving c	0	0	0	0	0
Byrd lf	0	[illegible]	[illegible]	2	0	Palmisano c	4	2	5	1	[illegible]
Gehrig 1	5	1	[illegible]	6	0	Boley 2	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Chapman r	5	2	2	2	0	Foxx 1	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Lary s	4	3	1	[illegible]	3	Miller r	4	0	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Dickey c	6	2	3	[illegible]	0	Todt l	4	1	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Lazzeri 2	5	1	2	[illegible]	3	Williams s	4	[illegible]	2	2	4
Andrews p	3	1	[illegible]	0	1	Mahaffey p	0	0	0	0	0
						M'Donald p	0	0	0	0	0
						Peterson p	0	0	0	0	0
						Rommel p	3	1	[illegible]	[illegible]	1
						*Moore	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	42	[illegible]	16	27	8	Totals	34	[illegible]	9	27	14

*Batted for Rommel in ninth.

New York	8	1	2	2	1	0	0	0	1	15
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	3

Errors—Combs 2, Sewell 2, Ruth 2, Gehrig, Chapman 2, Lary 3, Dickey, Lazzeri 2, Cramer, Palmisano, Todt. Errors—C. [illegible], Boley, Williams. Runs batted in—Sewell 2, Gehrig, Lary 2, Dickey 3, Lazzeri, Andrews 2, Combs 2, Chapman, Boley, Foxx, Williams. Two-base hits—Lary, Chapman, Lazzeri, Cramer. Three-base hit—Williams. Stolen base—Combs. Double plays—Lazzeri, Lary and Gehrig; Palmisano, Boley and Todt; Williams, Boley and Todt; Lary, Lazzeri and Gehrig; Boley, Williams and Todt. Left on bases—New York 11, Philadelphia 8. Base on balls—Off Andrews 2, off Mahaffey 3, off M'Donald 4, off Peterson 1, off Rommel 4. Struck out—By Andrews 2, by Rommel 4. Hits—Off Mahaffey 2 in 0 innings (pitched to five batters); off McDonald 3 in 0 (pitched to four batters); off Peterson 0 in 0 (pitched to [illegible] batters); off Rommel 11 in 9. Wild pitches—Rommel, Mahaffey. Losing pitcher—Mahaffey. Umpires—Dinneen, Geisel and Hildebrand. Time of game—1:57.

WILSON BANNED WITHOUT PAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Hack Wilson yesterday was suspended by President William L. Veeck, of the Cubs, for the remainder of the National League season. The suspension was imposed at Manager Rogers Hornsby's request, and is without pay.

"Infraction of training rules," was given as the reason.

Pat Malone, righthanded pitching star, also was disciplined by President Veeck, for "disorderly conduct and roistering." Malone was given a heavy fine, but was not suspended. The disciplinary actions were said to have been the result of incidents which occurred while the Cubs were in Cincinnati last week.

HACK "ALL DONE"

Veeck's action indicated that Wilson has worn Cub regimentals for the last time. Owner William Wrigley, Jr., last week said he wanted Wilson sold or traded, adding that it was a "personal wish," and that Hornsby and Veeck would decide what to do with the pudgy outfielder who set a new National League record of 56 home runs last season.

Indication that Wilson was "all done," as far as Hornsby was concerned, was given at Cincinnati when Vince Barton, recruit outfielder, was forced to go to his home in Canada, because of the serious illness of a member of his family. Instead of sending Wilson into action, Hornsby used Bud Teachout, southpaw pitcher, in the outfield.

KREEVICH TO PLAY

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Mike Kreevich, star right fielder of the Des Moines Western League club, will play in the Chicago Cub outfield today. Kreevich was purchased by the Cubs two weeks ago, and was to have reported in the spring. The suspension of Hack Wilson caused the Cubs to make arrangements for Kreevich's immediate delivery.

INJURY SENDS THEVENOW TO HOSPITAL

By CHARLES J. DOYLE

The Pirates scored a convincing though a costly victory over the Reds in the morning clash today. With Larry French pitching in a clever manner the Buccos won 6 to 1, but Shortstop Tommy Thevenow twisted his left ankle in sliding into the home plate and is out indefinitely.

The Freebooters thus rang up their fifth straight triumph in the forenoon fight. To accomplish this they were able to solve the slants of Owen Carroll in a consistent manner while French, after seeing a run go over on a misplay in the first round, proceeded to shut the door in the faces of the Reds through the remaining eight rounds.

JENSEN HITS HOMER

Woodie Jensen, the clever recruit outfielder, enlivened the battle in the fifth inning when he turned in his first major league home run. The speedy Dane drove the rocket high and dry into the right field stands, the ball falling into a far away part of the seating section.

The Rhinelanders contributed three errors in the first round that paved the way for a Pittsburgh tally. Thevenow opened the second inning with a walk and later scored a run that gave the Pirates a lead they did not relinquish.

THEVENOW STARS

Thevenow, by the way, was enjoying a great offensive thrust when he went down. He was on base in each of his four jousts with the Cubs yesterday and he walked and added two more singles before he ran into his misfortune. Thus he was on the bases seven times in succession.

The Buccos put the game on ice in the fifth and sixth rounds when they piled up four markers. French coasted to his victory after this point was reached. Ray Kolp finished on the mound for the Reds. The game in detail:

FIRST INNING

CINCINNATI—Douthit was thrown out by Traynor. Crabtree popped to Piet. Stripp singled on the infield and went to second on Traynor's low throw. Hendrick singled to left, scoring Stripp. Cuccinello flied to P. Waner. One run, two hits, one error.

PITTSBURGH—Cuccinello threw out L. Waner. Jensen was safe on Durocher's fumble. Grantham flied to Douthit. Jensen stole second and went to third on Styles' wild throw. Traynor singled on the infield, Jensen scoring. Traynor went to second on Cuccinello's high throw. P. Waner walked. Carroll threw out Piet. One run. One hit. Three errors.

SECOND INNING

CINCINNATI—Cullop walked. Durocher grounded into a double play, Traynor to Piet to Grantham. Styles flied to Jensen.

PITTSBURGH — Thevenow walked. Stripp threw out Phillips as Thevenow advanced. French flied to Cullop. L. Waner doubled to right center, scoring Thevenow. Durocher threw out Jensen. One run. One hit.

THIRD INNING

CINCINNATI — Carroll fouled to Grantham. Thevenow threw out Douthit. Crabtree bunted, but French threw him out.

PITTSBURGH — Grantham fouled to Stripp. Traynor singled to center. P. Waner grounded into a double play, Hendrick to Durocher to Hendrick. One hit.

FOURTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Stripp lined to L. Waner. Hendrick fanned. Cuccinello was thrown out by Traynor.

PITTSBURGH — Piet flied to Crabtree. Thevenow singled to left. Phillips singled to right, Thevenow stopping at second. French grounded into a double

(Continued on Page Fourteen.)

Bear of a Game

YESTERDAY'S SCORE

PITTSBURGH	AB.	R.	H.	P.	A.	E.
L. Waner, cf	4	0	0	1	0	0
Jensen, lf	5	0	0	4	0	0
Grantham, 1b	5	0	1	12	1	0
Traynor, 3b	4	0	0	2	2	0
P. Waner, rf	4	2	2	0	0	0
Piet, 2b	4	2	2	3	2	0
Thevenow, ss	2	1	2	0	1	1
Grace, c	3	0	1	4	3	0
Spencer, p	3	0	1	1	5	0
Totals	34	5	9	27	16	1

CHICAGO	AB.	R.	H.	P.	A.	E.
D. Taylor, lf	5	0	1	3	0	0
Herman, 2b	5	0	2	2	1	0
Cuyler, cf	4	0	2	6	0	0
English, 3b	4	1	0	0	2	0
Teachout, rf	4	1	1	3	0	0
Grimm, 1b	3	1	1	7	1	0
Adair, ss	3	0	2	1	1	0
Hartnett, c	3	1	1	5	0	1
Root, p	3	0	1	0	1	0
Sweetland, p	0	0	0	0	1	0
*Hemsley	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	4	11	27	7	1

*Batted for Root in eighth.

Score by innings:

Pittsburgh	0	2	0	0	0	0	1	2	0	5
Chicago	0	2	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	4

Runs batted in—Thevenow 2, Grace 2, Hartnett 2, Taylor, Piet, Adair.
Two-base hits—Piet 2, Adair, Grace, Thevenow.
Sacrifices—Adair, Cuyler, L. Waner, Spencer.
Double plays—Spencer to Grace to Grantham.
Left on bases—Pittsburgh 8, Chicago 7.
Wild pitch—Spencer.
Base on balls—Off Spencer 3, off Root 2.
Struck out—By Root 5, by Spencer 4.
Hits—Off Root, 9 in 8 innings; off Sweetland, 0 in 1 inning.
Losing pitcher—Root.
Umpires—Donnelly, Eforman and Rigler.
Time of game—1:54.

PUTTING WON HIM SECOND TITLE, OUIMET SAYS

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Five Clubs Admitted to West Penn Independent Football Conference

GREAT AMBITION REALIZED BY [illegible]UR KING

By FRANCIS OUIMET

[illegible]

Francis Ouimet

[illegible]

NOT DISAPPOINTED

[illegible]

PUTTING TELLS TALE

I think [illegible] the national amateur [illegible] was due [illegible] good fortune to have [illegible] at vital stages of my [illegible].

In a championship such as the national [illegible] event most everyone [illegible] is on a parity [illegible] from the tee [illegible] green, at least that is the [illegible] have the game sized up. [illegible] a matter of which [illegible].

In the championship [illegible] I happened to be the one most [illegible] in practice [illegible] it was a timely [illegible] which carried me through.

I might also add that for the first time in many years I managed to keep my ball from the tee to the [illegible] spots, with reference [illegible].

PRAISES YOUNGSTERS

This championship has produced more [illegible] of sterling ability [illegible] I have attended [illegible] made my nineteenth.

One has [illegible] to look at the list of [illegible] to satisfy himself that [illegible] is accurate.

Potential champions have sprouted up from all over the United States, from the Pacific Northwest [illegible] the Lone Star State [illegible] with a great crop of [illegible] Michigan, Virginia [illegible] the middle section of the [illegible].

Local Grid Stars Go to Slippery Rock

Two [illegible] Raymond Mea[illegible] and Walter [illegible] of Oliver High [illegible] will enter Slippery Rock [illegible] College this [illegible] team. [illegible] a quarterback.

SANDLOT GAMES TODAY

GREATER PITTSBURGH LEAGUE

[illegible]

CENTRAL PITTSBURGH LEAGUE

McGraths vs. Twenty-Eighth Ward [illegible]

[illegible]

INDEPENDENT

Edgewood [illegible] p. m.

Adventures of Policy Pete

HOW'S AT FO' COMIN' CLOSE AN AH HITS ON A 0'30 COMBINASHUN'
YOU'LL ALWAYS MISS CALCULATE AS LONG AS YOU PLAY NUMBERS!
WHO'S MISS CALCULATE?
'257

La Fille Oliva Chantilly Victor

CHANTILLY, France, Sept. 7—(AP)—[illegible]

1,000-Run Bat

HAROLD PIE TRAYNOR

Traynor, captain and third baseman of the Pirates, drove in his one thousandth run as a major leaguer in the morning game of the Bucs-Reds holiday bill at Forbes Field today. It was Pie's one thousand four hundred and fifty-first big league game. In 24 games in 1920 and 1921 Traynor drove in two runs. His record of runs driven in during the years in which he played as a regular: 1922, 81; 1923, 101; 1924, 82; 1925, 106; 1926, 92; 1927, 106; 1928, 124; 1929, 108; 1930, 119; 1931, 79. He drove in his one thousand and first run later in this morning's game.

U. S. Rifle Team Leads Big Match

CAMP PERRY, O., Sept. 7—(AP)—[illegible]

Argentine Riders Win, Lose Tilts

NEW YORK, Sept. 7—(AP)—[illegible]

Robins Recall Two from Minors

NEW YORK, Sept. 7—(AP)—The Brooklyn Robins have announced the recall of two players from their Hartford farm in the Eastern League. They are Bobby Reis, speedy third baseman, and Van Mungo, a righthanded pitcher, who was with the Robins during the early part of the season and became the Eastern League strike-out king when sent to Hartford for seasoning. They are to report immediately and Reis may appear in the Brooklyn lineup today.

OUIMET GIVEN WELCOME HOME

NEWTON, Mass., Sept. 7—(AP)—Francis Ouimet received a boisterous homecoming welcome from more than 2,500 friends and admirers as the newly-crowned national amateur golf champion arrived last night from his conquests at Beverly Country Club, Chicago.

Included in the crowd that met Ouimet at the station were his wife, mother, two daughters, brother and sister. After greeting his family he ascended a stool and told the crowd that this was the happiest moment of his life.

Charles Burgess, Woodland Golf Club professional and Ouimet's greatest rooter, escorted the Ouimet car through the two miles from the station to the champion's home. Crowds lined along the streets broke through police guards to shake Ouimet's hand.

The Havemeyer trophy, emblematic of the championship, was brought to Ouimet's home, where about 200 of his friends were assembled and listened to Francis' story of his triumph.

Triple Play Ruled In Cards-Reds Game

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7—(AP)—Originally recorded as a double play, the official scorer today had ruled that a triple play occurred yesterday in the sixth inning of the second St. Louis-Cincinnati game. The change in ruling came after Durocher and Cuccinello, the Reds shortstop and second baseman, pulled the hidden ball trick on Chick Hafey at the middle bag.

The Cardinals filled the bases with none out and a double play occurred when Wilson flied to Cullop and the outfielder threw out Bottomley at home, who tried to score from third after the catch. Styles returned the ball to Durocher, who slipped it to Cuccinello when Hafey stepped off second.

A continuous triple play was ruled as the ball had not been returned to Benton, the pitcher.

Sports Vignettes

Another vacation over and Labor Day . . . Oh well, as Francis might have put it, "Ouimet the enemy and they are ours." . . . The impending football season promises to be the biggest flop in years . . . The reason being that there are not a lot of new rules for coaches, players, officials and scribes to fumble . . . The only change from last year's code affects the offside rule on the try-for-point . . . Heretofore the point has been awarded when the defending team was at fault and the play registered as a failure if the attacking team committed the foul . . . Now the attacking team will be penalized five yards and try again, while, if the defending team is at fault, the offensive side will move up half the distance to the goal line and get another chance . . . The ball will be put in play for the try after a touchdown on the two-yard line, as before . . . The rules committee evidently took the year off due to the depression.

That rumbling, grumbling sound you hear is Jock Sutherland warming up today to begin his eighth season as coach of the Pitt Panthers . . . Time was when the big Scot himself was a Panther star, and he has proved a worthy successor to his teacher, Pop Warner, with the local talent . . . Right now he's worrying about the opening game with Miami . . . The battles with Iowa, West Virginia, Western Reserve, Notre Dame, Penn State, Carnegie Tech, Army and Nebraska that follow will take care of themselves . . . Miami is a rugged opener, but that doesn't prevent the fans from expecting Pitt to pile up 50 points against the Ohians or be classed as bums.

Now that they've changed the name of Duquesne Garden to the Arena, perhaps they'll cut out the fights that go with the hockey games . . . No sense in having fights where it's logical to have them . . . And that Babe Ruth all-star team was a fake . . . You didn't see Hack Wilson or Nick Altrock named on it, did you?

—HARRY KECK

WOOD, DON RACE TODAY

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

regarded more or less as a "safety entry" for Wood, also broke the Harmsworth record, averaging 85.861 miles per hour.

The second 30-mile heat today is scheduled for 5:30 p. m. (eastern standard time). If a third is necessary it will be run tomorrow.

In traveling the second lap, W. D. Edenburn, chairman of the race committee of the Yachtmen's Association of America, estimated that Miss England II was going at a speed better than 110 miles per hour. There was no official check made on the English boat on the straightaway.

From buoy to buoy one will be made today. It will be recalled only last month Kaye Don shot Miss England II through the water to a new world record of 110.223 miles per hour on Lake Garda in Italy.

SANDLOT SCORES

St. Clair Frogs 15—Civics 9
28th Ward 10—Curry ..... [illegible]
Snee Dairy ..... 7—Lawrenceville 6

GERMANS BEAT FRENCH STARS

PARIS, Sept. 7—(AP)—Germany's track and field athletes yesterday took sweet revenge on the seventeenth anniversary of the Battle of the Marne, proving they could run faster than the French and get glory thereby.

By a count of 89 to 62 the Teutons swamped the wearers of the tri-color in Colombes Stadium. It was Germany's fifth victory over France in the five years the international meet has been held.

SHOOT AT CHARTIERS

[illegible]

JOHNNIES COP IN 17 INNINGS

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 7.—It took Johnstown 17 innings to defeat Charleroi 9 to 8 in their Middle Atlantic League game here yesterday. Patterson and Hoffman and Galehouse, Mundo, Brinker and Thompson were the hurlers sent into action.

Wheeling and Beaver Falls split, the former winning the first 4-1 and the latter the second 7-2 in their twin bill at Wheeling, while Youngstown was humiliated twice by Scottdale, 10-1 and 2-0.

Charleston beat Huntington 6 to 2, Beckley won from Clarksburg 14 to 1 and Fairmont won two from Cumberland 6-4 and 5-3.

TOMMY THEVENOW HURT

CATCHER STYLES THEVENOW UMPIRE REARDON

Photos by Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

Tommy Thevenow, of the Pirates, injured a leg in scoring in the sixth inning of this morning's game with the Reds at Forbes Field and had to be assisted from the field. Top photo shows the play that caused the hurt.

MACGREGORS WIN TITLE AT SHANNOPIN

J. R. Ma[illegible] and his son J. R. Ma[illegible], Jr., won the father-and-son championship of the Shannopin Country Club yesterday with a best ball tally of [illegible]. The Hamilton[illegible] and Stouts tied at 71 for second place.

Dr. J. H. Laver at Alcoma, Frank Wepprer and R. A. [illegible] at Stanton Heights, W. P. W[illegible] at Hillcrest, Walter McNally at Valley Heights, N. B. Blackburne, E. C. Colebaugh, Jr., and [illegible] at Edgewood, and L. Hageman, Dr. Blumer, James Oppenheimer and M. Hall at Westmoreland won sweeps and club matches at district links yesterday.

In a fine 36-hole match, Frank Weber [illegible] and Dr. Miller teamed up to beat Dr. Blumer and L. Hageman [illegible] at Westmoreland. Weber [illegible] 80, Miller 81, Blumer 82 and Hageman 83.

Sunday on Links

Results of yesterday's matches on district golf courses follow:

SHANNOPIN

[illegible]

EDGEWOOD

[illegible]

HILL CREST

[illegible]

ALCOMA

[illegible]

WESTMORELAND

[illegible]

VALLEY HEIGHTS

[illegible]

STANTON HEIGHTS

[illegible]

Says Nick Altrock

(Baseball's Comedian)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—This week Old Judge Landis has summoned to meet him in Chicago all representatives of the clubs that are liable to figure in the world series. Our Washington club and the Yankees are sending Chinamen as delegates, because that's the kind of a chance we have got. And if the Giants and Robins send anybody, either, it will be just for the train ride. And even if the Cubs send up a representative, he will only be wasting a nickel carfare.

Nick Altrock

If the purpose of the meeting is to find ways and means of keeping world series tickets away from the scalpers, the Athletics' and Cardinals' delegates are wasting their carfare, too.

[illegible]

BUCS TOP REDS IN FIRST

(Continued from Page Thirteen)

play, Durocher to Cuccinello to Hendrick. Two hits.

FIFTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Cullop flied to Piet. Durocher singled behind second. Durocher went out stealing, Phillips to Piet. Styles singled to center. Carroll singled to center, Styles going to third. Douthit forced Carroll, Thevenow to Piet. Three hits.

PITTSBURGH—L. Waner lined to Douthit. Jensen hit a home run into the right field stands. It was his first home run in his big league career. Grantham walked. Grantham went all the way to third on a wild pitch. Traynor flied to Cullop, scoring Grantham. P. Wanter fanned. Two runs. One hit.

SIXTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Crabtree singled to right. Stripp grounded into a double play, Piet to Thevenow to Grantham. Phillips threw out Hendrick. One hit.

PITTSBURGH—Piet singled to left. Thevenow singled to right on the hit-and-run play, Piet taking third. Phillips singled to left, scoring Piet, Thevenow taking second. French tried to sacrifice but popped to Carroll. L. Waner walked, filling the bases. Jensen flied to Crabtree, scoring Thevenow, and when Styles dropped the ball Phillips and L. Waner advanced on the error. Thevenow injured his leg in sliding and had to be carried off the field. Grantham was hit with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Durocher threw out Traynor. Two runs. Three hits. One error.

SEVENTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Sankey went to short for the Pirates. Cuccinello flied to Jensen. Cullop fanned. Durocher singled to center. Styles scratched a hit to right, Durocher going to third. Beck batted for Carroll and flied to P. Waner. Two hits.

PITTSBURGH—Kolp went to the mound for Cincinnati. Cuccinello threw out P. Waner. Piet struck out. Sankey walked. Stripp threw out Phillips.

EIGHTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Douthit singled to left. Crabtree forced Douthit, French to Piet to Sankey. Stripp forced Crabtree, Piet to Sankey. Hendrick forced Stripp, Sankey to Piet. One hit.

PITTSBURGH—French flied to Cuccinello. L. Waner singled to right. Jensen singled to right, L. Waner stopping at second. Grantham grounded into a double play, Cuccinello to Durocher to Hendrick. Two hits.

NINTH INNING

CINCINNATI—Cuccinello flied to Jensen. Cullop singled to right. Durocher flied to Jensen. French threw out Styles. One hit.

PITTSBURGH—Unplayed.

Horseman Futurity To be Raced Today

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 7—(AP)—The Horseman Futurity for an $8,000 purse, will bring together some of the greatest 3-year-old trotters in the country here this afternoon, marking the opening of the Grand Circuit races in connection with the State Fair.

Protector, the sensational youngster from Illinois; Calumet Butler, winner of the $50,000 Hambletonian race recently; Keno, colt from Georgia, and a host of other stars, are entered in the event.

The Cedar Hill stock farm 2:16 trot, for a $1,500 purse; a 2:09 pace for $800, and a 2:16 pace for $800 complete the program.

GRID LEAGUE TO BEGIN PLAY SEPTEMBER 27

By TOM BIRKS

Five clubs were admitted to the Western Pennsylvania Independent Gridiron Conference yesterday, the Majestics, West View, East Pittsburgh, Dan Burns and McKeesport Olympics getting berths.

A long controversy started regarding the makeup of the loop, with 11 teams wanting franchises, and there is a big chance that eight clubs may be in when the schedule is ready.

MEET WEDNESDAY AGAIN

Andy Cutler and Mat Moll represented East Liverpool, backed by the Homer Laughlin interests, and indications were that the Ohio town will be sporting a first-class outfit. Cutler was sincere in stating that admitting the East Liverpool club would be a good thing for the conference.

The Linwood Club, from the East End, with Secretary Daily doing the talking, also wants a berth, as did Jim Sullivan, representing McKeesport, and Bill Schulties, representing the Irwin Scholastics.

The final meeting, when the clubs will vote on a sixth member, has been called for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the sporting department of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Those in attendance at yesterday's session were Paul Muzzio, Fred Allen, Ed Carney, Bill Boyer, Pete McGlashan, Bill Schulties, Mike McConnell, Andy Cutler, Mat Moll, and others, all representing clubs.

OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 27

It was definitely decided to open the season on September 27. Most of the clubs will have practice games Sunday. Burns will be the only club to play night football, unless East Liverpool is admitted.

Linwood will make a strenuous effort to get the last berth, and the East End outfit is reported to have much backing.

The Wednesday night session will find the rules and by-laws being changed to suit new conditions.

Dempsey to Box Five Partners Today

RENO, Nev., Sept. 7.—(INS.)—Carrying a few mementoes of his barnstorming tour of the Northwest, Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, now hitting the comeback trail, will swap punches with five heavyweights here this afternoon.

Both of Jack's fists were somewhat swollen from punching an assorted group of fighters in the Northwest. He also had a lame ankle and a slightly discolored eye.

Minor Leagues

GAMES TODAY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

[illegible]

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

Birmingham at New Orleans (2).

MIDDLE ATLANTIC LEAGUE

[illegible]

N. Y.-PA. LEAGUE

[illegible]

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

[illegible]

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

MIDDLE ATLANTIC LEAGUE

[illegible]

N. Y.-PA. LEAGUE

[illegible]

RESULTS YESTERDAY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

[illegible]

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

[illegible]

MIDDLE ATLANTIC LEAGUE

[illegible]

*17 innings.

N. Y.-PA. LEAGUE

[illegible]

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

[illegible]

TEXAS LEAGUE

[illegible]

EASTERN LEAGUE

[illegible]

PITT GRIDDERS GET FIRST DRILL AT WINDBER

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Victory Over Wood Most Difficult Task of His Racing Career, Don Declares

TECH, DUKE SQUADS IN HARD WORK

By JESS CARVER
Staff Correspondent

CAMP HAMILTON, Windber, Pa., Sept. 7.—Labor Day was all its name implied as far as the varsity football squad of the University of Pittsburgh was concerned. The Panther gridders, 75 in number, including varsity and freshmen candidates, the largest in Pitt history, arrived here last evening and bright and early this morning were hustled out for the initial drill of the season.

Pitt's football cohorts will remain here in their mountain fastness for two weeks. The training season has been sliced by a full week this fall, which means that the squad will be asked to move at practically double time. Coach Sutherland and his galaxy of aides lost little time in inaugurating activity.

OUTLOOK ROSEATE

The outlook for Pitt this year is of roseate hue. A powerful and experienced squad of first stringers will be well bulwarked by exceptionally able reservists. The big task that confronts the mentors appears to be the developing of a quarterback and a punter. Otherwise, the situation is very well in hand.

Dr. Skip Gougler and Hank Hangartner, in charge of the freshmen, have been instructed to build a tentative lineup as soon as possible for scrimmage duty against the varsity. The freshmen will be fused with the third string first team candidates. Scrimmage sessions may be scheduled for the latter part of the present week.

JOCK IN CHARGE

Besides the players, the Pitt camp family consists of Coaches Sutherland, Gustafson, Kern, Donchess, Montgomery, Gougler, Hangartner, Baker and Schultz; Dr. A. R. H. Shanor, team physician; Bud Moore, trainer; Capt. Percy St. Clair Browne, custodian of equipment; Jimmy Hagan, assistant director of athletics; Frank Carver, publicity director, and Manager Bernie Wendt and five assistants.

The most important member of the entire entourage, however, is the veteran cook, George Williams. Long may he wave.

DUKES WORK HARD

Head Coach Elmer Layden, of Duquesne University, says today will indeed be Labor Day for his Duke gridders, as he seeks to prepare for the opening game less than two weeks off. The night opener with Geneva College is going to be a tough nut to crack, it would seem, from the preparations being made on the Bluff, where Howdie Harpster's Covenanters are held to be no easy opponent.

Yesterday, a full afternoon's drill was held for the first time in the history of the school on Sunday. Last season, Layden called signal drills one Sunday afternoon, but yesterday the boys went the limit with everything. Scrimmage is still a few days in the future, according to Coach Layden.

Although his freshmen candidates have been greatly reduced in number, Coach Buff Donnelli still has more than 70 hopefuls from whom he must build a squad of some 25 men.

TARTANS TO DRILL

The Carnegie Tech footballers were slated to have another thorough "going over" today, in spite of the holiday. They worked out this morning, and will take to the field again this afternoon.

BUCS INCREASE CUBS' WOES

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The Pirates were within striking distance of a first division berth in the National League race after chalking up their fourth straight triumph over supposedly stronger opponents here yesterday.

After handing the Cardinals three sucessive setbacks, the Bucs came here and increased the Cubs' string of defeats to seven in a row by winning, 5 to 4.

Tony Piet, honored by a delegation of hometown friends from Hegewisch, Ill., before the game, hit two timely doubles to assist Glenn Spencer in shading Charley Root in a slab duel. Thevenow and P. Waner also hit hard and timely.

Major Leaders

Associated Press

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Davis, Phillies, .350; Klein, Phillies, .340.

Runs—Klein, Phillies, 116; Terry, Giants, 106.

Runs batted in—Klein, Phillies, 113; Ott, Giants, 100.

Hits—Klein, Phillies, 186; Terry, Giants, 185.

Doubles—Adams, Cardinals; Herman, Robins, 40.

Triples—Terry, Giants, 17; Herman, Robins, 15.

Home runs—Klein, Phillies, 31; Ott, Giants, 27.

Stolen bases—Frisch, Cardinals, 24; Martin, Cardinals, 15.

Pitching—Haines, Cardinals, won 11, lost 3; Derringer, Cardinals, won 15, lost 6.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Simmons, Athletics, .382; Ruth, Yankees, .377.

Runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 144; Ruth, Yankees, 131.

Runs batted in—Gehrig, Yankees, 163; Ruth, Yankees, 143.

Hits—Gehrig, Yankees, 189; Ruth, Yankees, and Manush, Senators, 178.

Doubles—Webb, Red Sox, 58; Miller, Athletics, 43.

Triples—Johnson, Tigers, 17; Reynolds, White Sox, 14.

Home runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 41; Ruth, Yankees, 39.

Stolen bases—Chapman, Yankees, 56; Johnson, Tigers, 31.

Pitching—Grove, Athletics, won 27, lost 3; Mahaffey, Athletics, won 15, lost 3.

First Photos of Pitt Gridders in Training Camp

ARRIVAL OF PANTHER MOLESKIN WARRIORS AT CAMP HAMILTON, NEAR WINDBER, LAST NIGHT, SET TO BEGIN GRIND

EXCLUSIVE PHOTOS by D. E. Benjamin, Staff Photographer.

CHEF ALEX WILLIAMS SHUCKING CORN FOR FIRST MEAL

LOCAL NETTERS ARE DEFEATED

By PAUL G. SULLIVAN
Staff Correspondent

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Sept. 7.—Quarter-final and semi-final frays feature the Labor Day program of the third annual Morgantown Country Club invitation tennis tourney, in progress here since last Friday on the clay rectangles of the M. C. C. Original plans called for wind-up of hostilities late this afternoon, but delay caused by rain, plus the unexpectedly lengthy entry lists in all events, has jammed matters to the extent that conclusion will not be attained before tomorrow.

Dooley Mitchell, Washington flash and runner-up to the national public parks title at Detroit recently, hustled a step nearer retention of his local 1930 crown by pacing the men's singles field into the semi-finals yesterday afternoon at expense of Barney Welsh, Duke University slasher, in a tussle that started lackadaisically, but terminated in blaze of free-hitting as Welsh found stride with hard, deep slices to push the driving Mitchell to 6-1, 11-9, ere succumbing. Welsh had earlier out-walloped steady Ed Alcorn, Pitt captain-elect, in a protracted fourth round engagement, 8-6, 9-7, after Alcorn had held set-points in both cantos.

O'LOUGHLIN BEATEN

Dr. John O'Loughlin, P. A. A. ace, encountered a surprise setback at the hands of Maurice O'Neill, southpaw dark horse from Washington, in bracket four, 6-3, 6-4. O'Loughlin, seeded fifth, exhibited probably the poorest tennis he has displayed in years, his shots lacking speed and precision and proving highly uncertain in the face of O'Neill's spin returns. O'Loughlin, with his Mount Lebanon partner, John Brown, also fell before O'Neill in doubles, the latter and his capital mate, John Purinton, copping at 6-1, 6-4 in a most grotesque debacle.

MISS SULLIVAN LOSES

Miriam Sullivan, P. A. A. feminine luminary and defending champion here, was the victim of an initial bracket upset, in which the Pittsburgher, playing over-cautiously, went down before the pat-ball game of Alice Rose, unheralded entrant from Washington, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. The summary:

MEN'S SINGLES—FOURTH ROUND

Barney Welsh, Rockville, Md., defeated Edgar Alcorn, Pittsburgh, 8-6, 9-7; Frank Smith, Pittsburgh, defeated William Buchanan, Washington, D. C., 6-3, 6-2; Sam Cohn, Beckley, eliminated Harold W. Wiese, Pittsburgh, 6-1, 6-3; Maurice O'Neill, Washington, defeated John O'Loughlin, Pittsburgh, 6-3, 6-4; B. F. Arkle, Wheeling, defeated H. W. Friederichs, Wheeling, 6-1, 6-1; Alan Staubley, Washington, defeated John Purinton, Washington, D. C., 6-2, 6-1.

QUARTER FINALS (MEN'S SINGLES)

Dooley Mitchell, Washington, defeated Barney Welsh, Rockville, Md., 6-1, 11-9.

MEN'S DOUBLES—FIRST ROUND

Miller and Weber, Clarksburg, defeated Jacobs and Browning, Morgantown, 6-1, 6-2; Ramsey and Alcorn, Uniontown and Pittsburgh, respectively, defeated Wood and Deahl, Morgantown, 6-1, 6-2; Ruthley and Seidel, Washington, D. C., defeated Biddle and Devol, Parkersburg, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4; Staubley and Latona, Washington, defeated Cochran and Boyd, Pittsburgh, 6-4, 6-4; Broida and Maits, Pittsburgh, defeated McGaw and Dudderar, Morgantown, 1-6, 6-2, 10-8; Hugus and Friederichs, Wheeling, defeated Snyder and Hixson, Greensburg, Pa., 6-3, 6-2; Lauler and Sullivan, Pittsburgh, defeated King and Strong, Morgantown, 6-2, 7-5; Abrams and Arkle, Wheeling, defeated R. Brown and McDonnel, Elkins, 6-1, 6-3; Rumsey and Unger, Pittsburgh, defeated Welsh and Welsh, Rockville, Md., 7-5, 6-3; Purinton and O'Neill, Washington, defeated Smith and Boggley, Pittsburgh, 6-1, 6-0; Moore and Brooks, Pittsburgh, defeated Woodhull and Barkalow, Morgantown, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3; Dubois and Thompson, Moundsville and Washington, Pa., respectively, defeated Randolph and Allen, Elkins, 6-1, 6-1; Koblegard and Bill Moore, Clarksburg, defeated Tobey and Homer, Martinsburg, by default.

SECOND ROUND

Cohn and Smith defeated Miller and Weber, 6-1, 6-2; Ramsey and Alcorn conquered Ratley and Seidel, 6-4, 10-12, 6-1; Staubley and Latona defeated Broida and Maits, 6-3, 6-3; Hugus and Friederichs defeated Lauler and Sullivan, 6-4, 7-5; Abrams and Arkle defeated Rumsey and Unger, 9-7, 6-4; Purinton and O'Neill defeated J. Brown and O'Loughlin, 6-1, 6-4; Mitchell and Buchanan conquered Moore and Burke, 6-2, 6-4; Dubois and Thompson won from Koblegard and Bill Moore by default.

WOMEN'S SINGLES: FIRST ROUND

Alice Rose, Washington, D. C., defeated Miriam Sullivan, Pittsburgh, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

SECOND ROUND

Betty Cochran, Washington, defeated Martha Norvell, Huntington, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1; Sarah Wright, Frostburg, Md., defeated Aneta Hillman, 6-1, 6-0; Marian Butler, Washington, defeated Catherine Cole, Greensburg, Pa., 6-1, 6-3.

QUARTER FINALS

Francis Grimes, Morgantown, defeated Frances Ebeling, Wheeling, 6-2, 6-2; Helen Carson, Greensburg, defeated Betty Cochran, Washington, 6-2, 6-4; Mary McDonnell, Falling Timber, Pa., defeated Sarah Wright, Frostburg, Md., 6-0, 6-0; Marian Butler, Washington, defeated Mary Ebeling, Wheeling, 6-0, 7-5.

LAWYERS TO PLAY

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., Sept. 7.—Barristers from Beaver, Butler, Lawrence and Mercer counties will gather here Wednesday for a three-day session of golf at the Riverside course. This is an annual event and attracts an imposing array of players.

LOCAL RIDERS IN ACTION

A new Labor Day attraction is booked for this afternoon on the Pittsburgh polo grounds, where the River Ridge Riding and Polo Club will meet the Pittsburgh Polo Club in the second inter-city game here. The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, but the contest was postponed because of wet grounds, which made riding hazardous.

The game will begin at 3:30 on the field of the Pittsburgh Hunt Club. Bliss Flaccus is riding No. 1 and captain for Pittsburgh, while John W. Galbreath is leading the visiting team from Columbus, O. River Ridge has won 13 out of 15 matches this season and Coach Carl Gunther, of Pittsburgh, looks for the hardest match yet played by his riders.

Greensburg Net Play Under Way

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 7.—The first annual Greensburg Country Club invitation tennis tournament got under way on the club courts here this morning. Stars from the tri-state district are listed for action in the men's singles and doubles, women's singles, and mixed doubles that comprise the program of events. Many outstanding performers now competing at the Morgantown Country Club, will report for hostilities in the Westmoreland milling tomorrow. The contesting will last throughout the current week, semi-finals being slated for Saturday and finals for Sunday afternoon.

LEITZEL HIGH GUN

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 7.—(AP.)—With a perfect score of 100 breaks in 100 tries, M. Leitzel, of Reading, yesterday won a Bethlehem Gun Club trapshoot here. Other high scores included J. Riggs, Conshohocken, 99; L. R. Slocum, Trenton, N. J., 94; A. Harris, Wilkes Barre, 94; B. Weise, Hazelton, 94.

LINCOLN FIELDS MUTUELS

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The mutuels on the seven races at the Lincoln Fields track Saturday paid a total of $270.52.

Holiday Sports Events Carded For Today

BASEBALL

Pittsburgh Pirates vs. Cincinnati Reds in morning and afternoon games, at Forbes Field (10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m.)

(See major and minor league schedules for other games.)

(See sandlot schedule for full list of independent games.)

Homestead Grays vs. St. Louis Stars, at St. Louis.

HARNESS RACING

Horseman Futurity at Grand Circuit meeting at Indianapolis.

FIELD DAY

Baseball and other sports at Dunbar Playgrounds, Crafton Heights.

AUTOMOBILE RACES

Two 25-mile and one 100-mile races, at Altoona Speedway.

Dirt track races at New Kensington Fairgrounds.

Dirt track races at Sharon Speedway.

American Automobile Association races, at Flemington, N. J.

TENNIS

Continuation of National championships, at Forest Hills, L. I.

Continuation of annual Beaver County championships, at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Continuation of Morgantown Country Club invitation tournament, at Morgantown, W. Va.

Continuation of Greensburg Country Club invitation tournament, at Greensburg, Pa.

COON AND FOX CHASE

Labor Day Coon and Fox Chase at Markman's Park, Perry Highway.

TRAPSHOOTING

Invitation shoot under Lewis Class System, at Chartier Heights Country Club.

Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania League shoot, at New Castle.

MARATHON RACES

Modified marathon race from downtown district to West View Park, noon.

15-mile Metropolitan championship, Brooklyn, N. Y.

FOOTBALL

Opening of Pitt football training at Camp Hamilton, Windber, Pa.

Opening of football practice at Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, W. Va.

Opening of Wash-Jeff football practice at Washington, Pa.

REGATTA

Annual Middle States Regatta, at Long Island, N. Y.

SPEEDBOAT RACES

Continuation of Harmsworth Cup races between Miss America and Miss England, Detroit River, at Detroit.

FAIR

Continuation of annual West Virginia State Fair, at Wheeling, W. Va.

BOWLING

Continuation of National American Legion tournament, at Detroit.

TRACK AND FIELD

Annual Central Trade Union track and field meet, at West View Park.

Northeastern Ohio A. A. U. championship meet at Municipal Stadium, Cleveland.

SWIMMING

Ten-foot A. M. A. A. A. U. diving championship, at Mt. Lebanon pool.

Swimming meet at Manchester Beach, foot of Franklin street, North Side, 1:30 p. m.

POLO

Pittsburgh Polo Club vs. River Ridge Riding and Polo Club, of Columbus, O., at Pittsburgh Hunt Club Field.

GOLF

Usual holiday matches and sweepstakes at all country clubs in Western Pennsylvania.

Opening of President's cup match, at Grove City Country Club.

HORSE RACING

Meets continued at Wheeling, Dade Park, Dorval, Lincoln Fields, Bainbridge, Beulah Park and Timonium.

GRAYS COP IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—Smoky Joe Williams held the St. Louis Stars to two hits here yesterday afternoon and the Homestead Grays scored a 6-to-2 victory to even the series which opened with a night game Saturday. Wilson featured at bat with a home run and double. Scales also clouted a homer for the Grays.

HOLIDAY GOLF CARD FULL

By VERN SWARTSFAGER

Elaborate preparation has been made at virtually all district clubs to celebrate today's holiday golf. If the weather gives the boys a break, local links will be stampeded with dubs and amateurs alike trying to drag home a bit of the unusually large bacon offered for special morning and afternoon competition.

No tourneys are slated for tomorrow, but on Wednesday the final of the annual Western Pennsylvania Golf Association team championship will be held at the Westmoreland Country Club. Highland, the defending champion, will be opposed to Oakmont, St. Clair and Fox Chapel, winners in the 16-club preliminary competition held at four clubs several months ago.

PARKS CAPTAIN

The Highland Country Club has a group of some of the finest golfers in Western Pennsylvania, particularly among the younger generation, and it hopes to retain the coveted Claude F. Pugh Vase, emblematic of victory. To the runner-up will go the George J. Willock Shield.

Samuel M. Parks, Jr., who was put out of the recent national amateur championship in Chicago by Jack Westland, the boy who lost to Francis Ouimet in Saturday's final, is captain of the Highland contingent.

The Women's Golf Association of Western Pennsylvania will be host to women golfers of its associated clubs at the Fox Chapel Golf Club on Thursday, and a goodly entry is anticipated.

OAKMONT EVENT

The Pennsylvania Golf Association is receiving entries for the one-day medal play handicap tourney to be held at the Oakmont Country Club a week from Thursday. It will be the state body's final tourney of the season. If the next P. G. A. tourney at Oakmont brings out as many entries as the last one, one of the largest fields ever to participate in a one-day affair will play. The entry fee is $2, and entries for starting times between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. are being received at the office of the secretary, Miss Lois Miller, in 1101 Farmers Bank Building.

Al McBride, professional, and Jimmy Conrad, caddiemaster, at South Park county links have decided upon a novel way to assist the caddies and their families. They have established a collection for clothing to assist the 400 or more boys who do bagtoting duty at the course. Clothing donated is kept together in a separate house, and when the caddies need assistance they are taken care of as well as possible. Most of the boys parents are miners, and not working at this time.

Lions Begin Grid Practice Tomorrow

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 7.—John C. Page, manager of the Penn State football team, and his corps of assistants arrived here yesterday to prepare for the coming of the Nittany Lion football squad, which will report here tomorrow for preliminary practice. The manager will spend the next two days seeing that equipment is in shape and ready for the gridders to start work.

A squad of 50 is expected to report to Coach Bob Higgins for the early practice, and two workouts a day are scheduled beginning tomorrow and continuing until the start of the regular college sessions September 23.

MISS ROBINSON HOME

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Betty Robinson, who brought the women's Olympic 100-meter championship to the United States in 1928, returned to her home yesterday—just 11 weeks from the day she was taken to a hospital gravely injured in an airplane accident. At first it was believed that her injuries, and they were numerous, would prove fatal, but she has almost completely recovered.

CONNELL'S FATHER DIES

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 7.—(AP.)—J. B. Connell, Sr., father of Gene Connell, of the Philadelphia National baseball team, died in his home here yesterday. He was 60.

HUNK ANDERSON 'DOPES' TEAMS IN MID-WEST

By HEARTLY W. (HUNK) ANDERSON

Notre Dame Football Coach

Hunk Anderson

Football fans in the Mid-West again are assured of many great teams. There also are going to be a great many intersectional games, along with the regular games, as in previous years.

In the Big Ten Northwestern and Michigan look like the championship favorites. It is too bad that these two teams do not meet so as to compare their strength after tying for a championship in 1930.

Purdue is a dark horse again this year, and if it can overtake Illinois in its first Conference game, it should be well on its way towards the championship.

Illinois, with a great bunch of Sophomores and a few regulars back, is building its hopes on a big line and a fast backfield.

Glenn Thistlewaite at Wisconsin is hoping to have his teams in better shape and praying for less injuries, so that he can go to town against a strong schedule.

From all reports, Minnesota doesn't seem to be any better than it was last year, but with Crisler's second year, his team should function a lot better.

IOWA HANDICAPPED

Iowa still is handicapped from the ruling out of so many of its good athletes. Bert Ingwerson always has a great team and gives them all a battle, regardless.

Stagg, with his University of Chicago team, has taken on another tough schedule in the Conference, besides having Yale on October 17, which should be a great game with a lot of natural rivalry between them, because Stagg was a famous All-America star at Yale.

Ohio State, with Michigan as the first Conference opponent, will have tough sledding to stay up on top.

Indiana is an unknown quantity with Hayes as head coach and his first year as such. We do not know what offense he will use, and it will be hard for him to make a good start with the competition that he plays.

NOTRE DAME FACES TEST

Notre Dame, with its hard schedule, especially with Northwestern on October 10, is going to have a tough time. With the loss of such men as Carideo, Brill, Mullins, O'Connor, Kaplin, Howard, Metzger, Kassis and Capt. Conley, the Irish are going to find it difficult to fill those positions and have them ready and seasoned for such a tough game as Northwestern.

There are always hopes in the coach's mind that the young fellows coming up will fill in the places of the graduating stars as well as they did, and if this is the case, Notre Dame will look forward to a great season again. With such games as Pittsburgh, Carnegie, Pennsylvania, Navy, Southern California and Army on successive Saturdays, it doesn't seem possible that a green backfield can hold up against this onslaught.

In the Big Six, the outlook is very good with the University of Kansas in a position to repeat for the championship, with Oklahoma and Nebraska universities bidding for the championship at all times.

(Copyright, 1931, Christy Walsh Syndicate.)

NET FAVORITES ADVANCE

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 7.—(AP.)—After a "first" round of 20 preliminary matches which reduced the field of the men's national singles tennis championship to 64 contestants, the Golden Jubilee tournament is scheduled to get down to serious competition today.

So far no serious disturbances of form have been seen nor any signs of an outstanding contender for the title. Johnny Doeg, the defending champion, who is not expected to retain his title, had little trouble winning his first round match, as did all his leading rivals who were scheduled for action. Up against opponents of minor caliber, Frank Shields, of New York, and Cliff Sutter, of New Orleans, second and sixth on the seeded list, won in straight sets.

Fred Perry, of England, leader of the foreign brigade, struck a tartar in Julius Seligson, chunky New Yorker, who held the intercollegiate title a few years ago, but won in four sets.

French Net Stars To Play in Mexico

PARIS, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—The French tennis team now competing in the United States championships has accepted an invitation to play in Mexico City October 12.

At least three of the team—Jacques Brugnon, Christian Boussus and Marcel Bernard—will go to the Mexican capital. Henri Cochet also has been invited, but may not care to make the trip from Paris.

Scoring Records In Baseball For Week

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
PITTSBURGH	..	..	..	6	3	8	5
Chicago	..	..	8	2	3	3	4
St. Louis	..	..	..	4	1	5	10
Cincinnati	..	..	15	3	12	4	0
New York	7	4	12	..	3	15	0
Boston	5	0	3	..	1	9	5
Brooklyn	..	..	..	..	0	2	7
Philadelphia	..	..	..	..	11	18	2

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Philadelphia	3	1	2	..	6	11	5
Washington	6	5	5	..	5	3	4
New York	5	11	7	..	4	14	1
Boston	0	1	..	..	1	6	3
Detroit	8	..	4	9	4	8	3
St. Louis	3	..	5	11	..	5	7
Chicago	5	..	7	3	3	3	4
Cleveland	15	..	6	3	..	10	20

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Louisville	3	6	3	3	..	4	2
Minneapolis	..	6	3	5	..	6	3
St. Paul	8	24	8	6	..	11	3
Toledo	..	5	3	9	..	4	7
Indianapolis	9	..	10	..	5	3	10
Kansas City	10	..	12	..	8	4	1
Milwaukee	5	2	4	4	..	6	6
Columbus	2	14	6	1	..	6	3

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Jersey City	8	2	3	..	5	1	6
Montreal	3	..	5	..	..	6	4
Toronto	7	..	8	..	..	6	4
Newark	11	..	..	..	4	4	6
Rochester	7	..	..	6	14	1	6
Baltimore	7	..	4	..	4	12	1
Reading	3	..	..	..	4	4	6
Buffalo	8	..	..	..	9	9	5

CARDS BLANK BRUINS

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Paul Derringer, young Cardinal righthander, won his sixteenth game of the season here today when he blanked the Cubs, 1 to 0, in the morning game. Derringer struck out eight Bruin hitters, the majority of the strikeouts coming with men on bases.

Jimmy Adair's wild throw on Frisch's grounder let Adams score the winning run in the seventh inning. Mike Kreevich, newly acquired Cub outfielder from Des Moines, played right field and got two hits.

It was Derringer's third straight shutout for the Cards, who blanked the Reds in a double-header yesterday. The score:

MORNING GAME

St. L.	AB	H	P	A	Chicago	AB	H	P	A
Adams 3b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Kreevich rf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Watkins rf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Herman 2b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Frisch 2b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Cuyler cf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Bottomley 1b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	English 3b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Hafey lf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Taylor lf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Martin cf	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Grimm 1b	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Mancuso c	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Adair ss	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Gelbert ss	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Hartnett c	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Derringer p	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	Smith p	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Totals	33	8	27	14	Totals	30	6	27	14

St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1
Chicago 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Run—Adams. Error—Adair. Sacrifice hits—Mancuso, Grimm. Stolen bases—Kreevich, Adams. Bases on balls—Off Smith, 3; off Derringer, 1. Struck out—By Smith, 3; by Derringer, 8. Double plays—Adair to Herman to Grimm; Frisch to Bottomley. Umpires—Parman, Rigler and Donnelli. Time—1:43.

TODAY'S SCRATCHES

Bainbridge.

First race—Rising Star, Walter Lister, Pebble's Last, Godfinder, Western Princess, Knee Glader.
Second race—Mardie, Spanish Jack, Panama, Bilson, Anne's Pal, Good Shepherd, Morrell, Calwia, Joan K. Ruh.
Third race—Desjardines, Old Bill, Meadow.
Fourth race—Society Talk, Silent Vote, Drooping Eye, Nancy Kerr, Young Bill, Carrila.
Fifth race—Tom Ormont, Nrack.
Sixth race—Nervator, Rocky War, Visit, Shasta Love.
Seventh race—Clearance, Pala Gay, Punkie, Carlino.
Eighth race—Thistle Dee, Woody Long, Interior, Southland, Tea, Broad A.
Weather clear; track good.

Dorval.

First race—Colone, Captive, Sir Hector, Quita, Sister Adair, Teatin.
Third race—Shingle On, Bus Baker, Handiwork, High Hat, Harvard, Pal's Mead, owe Southland Pal.
Fourth race—Brown Sippet, Rosemare, B. Our Sandy, War On, Logwood.
Fifth race—Bedford, Quest, Lendaun, Corporal Cane.
Seventh race—Starcato, Genera, Cunta.
Weather clear; track good.

Lincoln Fields.

First race—Izard, Alberia, Padrone, Dolly's Baby, Cara Arma, Dawn Mist, Lady Ara, Sabina H.
Second race—Nifty, Lamp Black, Reverberate, Albasano, Bide A Wee, River Forest, Homer L., Broomhall, Grasslands.
Third race—Double Heart, Eeaimo, Street Singer.
Fourth race—Oscillation, Kakapo, Marse Robert, Zean, Provise, Major Ben.
Sixth race—Rosie, Manager, Arrowlike, Lady Messenger, Miss Maryland.
Weather clear; track fast.

Beulah Park.

First race—Mildred C., Social Climber, Lukufia, Lady's Baggage, Gleamer Lad, Kitty F.
Third race—Best Nadie.
Fourth race—Ceudon, Thistle Gold, Dunnegan, Polo Cloud, Lucky Drift.
Sixth race—Franchan, Lady Sting, Chester, Panam, Alice Amine, The Ab.
Seventh race—Vendeuse.
Eighth race—Golden Play, Anadnab, Tom Proctor.
Weather clear; track good.

Syracuse.

Sixth race—Gold Star.
Weather clear; track fast.

Timonium.

First race—Langholm, Rollicking Prince, Light Plume, Neno, Fluttering, Radeo.
Second race—Radial, Triple Threat, Jael, Stepping Sister, Glen Burnie, Doleeja.
Third race—Brown Mouse, Charles T., Jr., Remedy, Little Papoose, Bright Ambush.
Fourth race—Justa Movie, Miss Dinwiddie, Chatterwood.
Fifth race—Attamari, Mika F., Rosy Jester, Happy Jack, Rockage, Meeran.
Sixth race—Shoshbury, Sobley, R. Maid of the Valley, Shannon Star, Tewersnida, Self Defense.
Seventh race—Noisy Miss, Quadroon, Blaze By, Princess Ma, Guarany, Miss Mac.
Weather clear; track fast.

Dade Park.

First race—Teedup, Kuvera, Time to Fly, Southfoot, High Socks, Prince Megan, Olamay.
Second race—Angelon, Miss War, Elephant, Twill, Giblets, Kathryn, Deep Delight.
Third race—Slipper, Doreen, Princess, My Mary Jane, Prelil Ring, Jimmie Rags, Ugaet Ann, Vesce, Sunny Susan.
Fourth race—Scarlet Brigade.
Sixth race—Lady, Tank, Howe, Lady, Will, Jeanne Wachs, Running Water.
Seventh race—Best Ace, Araa, Draba, Downpour, Typhoon, Our Pal.
Weather clear; track fast.

BRITISH RACER PLEASED WITH OUTCOME

By KAYE DON

(Don defeated Gar Wood at Detroit yesterday in the first heat of a series of three races for the Harmsworth speedboat trophy.)

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—Naturally I am very happy to have won the first heat in the series of three races for the Harmsworth trophy. It was a magnificent day for the race, the water was not smooth, but not too rough.

I had two wonderful opponents in Gar Wood piloting Miss America IX and George Wood, in Miss America VIII.

The starting gun of the race was fired at 5:30. Gar Wood and I came down to the starting line, Miss England II traveling at approximately 100 miles an hour. I crossed the line just ahead of him, and maintained the lead throughout the race. My first lap of the five natuical mile course was made at 87.983 miles an hour, the second was 93.017; third lap 92.407; fourth lap 92.552; fifth lap 92.796; sixth lap 85.447. My average speed was 89.913 miles an hour.

Miss England performed magnificently. Her two engines functioned perfectly. My two mechanics, Dick Garner, on my right, and Roy Platford, on my left, carried out their duties splendidly.

I will say that although I have taken part in hundreds of car races and record attempts, this was the most difficult task of my racing career. One has to be constantly alert in driving a boat of this discription. He is working hard every second. I feel that I won because everything in connection with the boat and its crew synchronized perfectly.

Naturally I consider my victory a great tribute to the builders of the engines and also the builders of the boat and its designer, Fred Cooper, who was a very interested spectator of the race.

I am especially grateful to Lord Wakefield of Hythe, whose generosity has made it possible for me to demonstrate to the world the high standard of British engineering.

I deeply appreciate the very great interest the Americans have shown in Miss England II and for the many kindnesses they have extended to me since my arrival.

I would like to say that one of the first to congratulate me was that magnificent motor boating sportsman Gar Wood, and I am proud to have been competing against him.

It might be well to explain that the Harmsworth trophy is a series of three races, and for any nation to secure this coveted bronze plaque, it is necessary for it to win two out of the series of three races. The second race is scheduled for today.

JACKIE WILSON BOXES FIERRO

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS

Henry Perlick vs. Jimmy Phillips, 10 rounds, Elizabeth, N. J.
Harry Crossley vs. Dan McCorkindale, 10 rounds, Nottingham, England.
Jack Dempsey in exhibition, Reno, Nev.
Johnny Cline vs. Johnny Agrella, 10 rounds, Waterloo, Ia.
Lou Bloom vs. Johnny Conley and Bill Eck vs. Jack O'Dowd, 10 rounds each, and Jack Angelo vs. Tony Petrussi, 6 rounds, Columbus, O.

Matchmaker Bill Dummer, of Hickey Park, Millvale, today announced the completion of his card of four eight-round battles for next Thursday night with the signing of Harry Fierro, of Chicago, to meet the up-and-coming Jackie Wilson, East End Negro bantamweight.

Young Saylor, of Charleroi, boxes Tiger Joe Randall, of Elizabeth, in the main bout, and Buddy McArthur, of McKeesport, meets Bruno Sala, of Donora, a third time, and Charley Baxter, out to redeem himself for his recent knockout defeat by Frankie Bojorski, of Erie, in the same ring, takes on Andy Andrucci, of the East End, in the two other battles.

Bucky Lawless, of Syracuse, is due in town today for his 10-round windup battle with Jimmy Belmont, of Braddock, in the Meyers Bowl, North Braddock, tomorrow night. Belmont finished his hard training yesterday and will merely taper off his work this afternoon.

Tiger West meets Mickey Solomen in the semi-final of the Bowl show, with Chuck Taggart boxing Sunny Jim McVey and Benny Goldblatt meeting U. S. Carpentier in the preliminaries.

NEW CASTLE STAR LOST

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 7.—New Castle High School's football team got away to a bad start Saturday. With the pre-season practice hardly started, Nick Uram, veteran quarterback and the hope on the backfield for the coming season, went out with a broken collarbone, and the very best to be expected from him is an absence of six weeks at least.

Tom Collins Jr.
THE LIFE OF THE PARTY

Patricia Pitt's Sprightly Comment on Pittsburgh Society Happenings

In Mayfair

—With—

Patricia Pitt

[illegible]

Evelyn L. Ringer To Be Honored At Bridge

Mrs. D. Edwin M[illegible] will be hostess at a bridge party [illegible] home in Glen Arden [illegible] Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Evelyn Louise Ringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Ringer, whose marriage to David Archibald [illegible]

[illegible]

At the Seaside Hotel in Atlantic City are Mr and Mrs S C Johnson and T R Caldwell of Pittsburgh.

Miss Irene B. Gearing Marries T. R. O'Connor

Mr and Mrs Edward A Gearing of Strathmore avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Irene Bernadette Gearing, to T R O'Connor, son of Mr and Mrs James O'Connor of McPherson boulevard, which was solemnized [illegible] Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church [illegible] officiating was the Rev. Thomas [illegible] of the bride. Miss [illegible] was maid of honor and James White served as best man.

After October 1 Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor will be at home in South Fairmount avenue.

WELLESLEY CLUB TO GIVE TEA ON THURSDAY

Exercising Mounts in Preparation for Horse Show

MARY MARGARET MARSHALL

BETTY FLANNERY . . . AT HUNT CLUB WHERE SHOW WILL BE HELD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

$10,000 for Church Organ Volunteered

A committee in charge of collecting funds for a new organ for the Sacred Heart Church, East End, has been notified by a friend that he will contribute $10,000 on condition that a like amount is raised by the committee by October [illegible]

The committee consists of F. C. B[illegible], R. [illegible] Heinz, John R. H[illegible], J. F. McKenna, Robert F. M[illegible], Edward J. O'Brien, M. J. McN[illegible], Edward M. Kenna, [illegible] P. Patterson and Patrick McGraw.

FOOD MURRAY'S CAMPAIGN CRY

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—(INS)— Whether Gov. William (Alfalfa Bill) Murray of Oklahoma is a candidate for President in 1932 or not, he thinks the battle cry should be for "bread and butter, bacon and beans."

Typewritten answers to expected questions were produced as soon as the Governor left his train yesterday. About running for President, the Tishomingo sage stated:

"Were I to become a candidate, the most vitriolic attack ever known in American politics would be turned loose against me. Therefore, unless I am convinced that the people intend to nominate me the President, instead of politicians, I shall not desire such a stinging reward for my ambition."

Gov. Murray promised he would explain why there was a depression and unemployment and give a remedy in his speech this afternoon before 100,000 gathered in Soldier Field to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of American Federation of Labor.

Handshaking ceremonies with the dignitaries at the station were postponed while Alfalfa Bill adjusted his galluses. He apologized:

"I unbuttoned them to be more comfortable on the train."

Miss Ida Mae Cherry Weds Calvin Johnson

The marriage of Miss Ida Mae Cherry, daughter of Mr and Mrs J. T. Cherry, of Carnegie, to Calvin Johnson, also of Carnegie, was solemnized in the Carnegie United Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening. Officiating was the Rev. James McQuilken.

Miss Ethel Johnson and Miss Claire Baird were bridesmaids and serving as best man was Wallace Cherry, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a hand-embroidered satin and lace gown with a white velvet hat. A reception was held in the Cherry home later.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for Atlantic City and after September 15 will be at home in Anthony street, Carnegie.

PLAN FOR WIVES OF ENGINEERS

Entertainment for the wives of the delegates to the silver jubilee convention of the Illuminating Engineers' Society in the William Penn Hotel October 12 to 16 has been arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. C. L. Pierce.

Among the events arranged so far is a luncheon and a bridge party at the Twentieth Century Club on October 13, another bridge party at the Long Vue Country Club the following afternoon and a style show and tea arranged for the visitors by the Joseph Horne Company. Several hundred women are expected to attend the convention.

Undergraduates Will Be Honored Guests at Affair Given by College's 1931 Class

What promises to be one of the most delightful affairs of this week in the club world is the tea which the Pittsburgh Wellesley Club will give on Thursday afternoon. It is to be held at the home of Miss June Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. John McCartney Kennedy's daughter, in Bigelow boulevard, from 3 until 5 o'clock. Members of the class of 1931 will be hostesses and their honor guests will be the undergraduates in the Pittsburgh district.

* * *

Mrs. Margaret Chapman is captain of the patrol of the Ladies of the Oriental Shrine, which will have a corn roast in Riverview Park on Wednesday.

* * *

Initial Meeting

The Beechview Women's Civic Club will have its first fall meeting at the clubhouse on Tuesday evening, with the new president, Mrs. George J. Smith, presiding. The chairmen of the various committees will outline their plans for the season and the new year book will be presented by the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Daisy Hinkley.

Mrs. C. J. Roper will be chairman for the program of the evening, which will consist of music and a talk on "Television." Mrs. W. S. Snyder, chairman of the membership committee, will present plans for a membership drive.

The ways and means committee is planning a series of bridge parties for the winter, the first of which will be held at the clubhouse on Tuesday, September 22.

* * *

Homewood Sisterhood, Dames of Malta, will hold a card party at the home of Mrs. Annie McClelland, Marchand street, East End, on Wednesday evening.

* * *

Giving Program

Mrs. Kathryn Horgan, soprano, with Mrs. J. W. Young, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Hipps, reader, will present the program Thursday afternoon at the reception which the Chartiers Women's Clubs Association will give in the Congress of Clubs. Mrs. Thomas Lenfesty, new president, is the guest of honor.

* * *

As guests of honor at the Wilson College Club's tea on Saturday afternoon, eight local members of the '31 class will receive with the president, Miss Elizabeth Clugston. They are Miss Susanne Booth and Miss Mary Elizabeth Moore, Carnegie; Miss Betty Hamilton, Miss Muriel Haythorn and Miss Janet Louise Hutchison, all of Pittsburgh; Miss Sara Hoffman, Connellsville; Miss Margaret Hortenstine, Bellevue, and Miss Mary M. Orr, South Brownsville. The tea will be held at Miss Kathleen Alter's home, South Dallas avenue.

* * *

All Day Meeting

More than 50 representatives from 16 women's fraternities of the University of Pittsburgh, together with an advisory council from the women's fraternity committee, will meet Wednesday in an all-day conference at the Shannopin Country Club. Miss Thyrsa W. Amos, dean of women at the university, will be the principal speaker at a dinner to be held at 6:30 o'clock. She will discuss "Fraternities in the Light of Present Day Educational Ideas." Other speakers at the dinner will include Mrs. Lotta Lohstetter and Miss Ellen M. Geyer, members of the women's fraternity committee, and Estelle Logan and Bessie Rader, student members.

Discussion groups, business sessions, and committee meetings will be held during the morning and afternoon, in order to complete plans for the 1931-32 Panhellenic program. Following dinner will be an evening of bridge.

In the absence of Mildred Levinson, Panhellenic president, Estelle Logan, vice-president, will preside. Members of the committee arranging for the conference include Bessie Rader, Lois Boggs, Mary Garber and Harriet Davies.

* * *

A bridge tea at the Alcoma Country Club will mark the beginning of another season for the Junior Oakmont Women's Club. The affair will be held Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Rebecca Pilgram, new president of the juniors, and will be in charge of the social committee which is headed by Miss Margaret Squires.

North Carolina Girl Becomes Bride Here

Mrs. B. W. Kennington, of Charlotte, N. C., announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ruby Kennington, to Daniel J. Linnehan, of Springfield, Mass., which was solemnized on September 3 in St. Catherine's rectory at 5 o'clock, with the Rev. R. L. Hayes officiating.

The bride's sister, Mrs. J. H. Atkins, of Strachan avenue, Dormont, whom she has been visiting, was matron of honor, and J. J. Fitzpatrick, of New York, served as best man. There was a reception later in the Atkins home.

After an extended tour of Western Pennsylvania and Northern New York, Mr. and Mrs. Linnehan will make their home in Washington avenue, Miami Beach, Fla.

House Steuben Used In '76 War Burns

BEACON, N. Y., Sept. 7.—(AP)— The Mount Gulian house, headquarters of Baron Von Steuben during the Revolutionary War, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Most of the relics, paintings and antiques in the house were removed by Beacon firemen.

Sheriff O. Leigh Cookingham said the fire probably was started by a pyromaniac.

The Mount Gulian house, built in 1731, was visited several times by Gen. Washington, who had his headquarters across the Hudson River at Newburgh.

DESIGNER DESCRIBES STYLES FOR AUTUMN EVENING WEAR

—Sketched in Paris—

Paris Bureau, Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

PARIS, Sept. 7.—We've been looking over Mme. Yteb's evening fashions. In many of her models she seems to show a preference for georgette and very lovely are the things she does with this material.

* * *

BEFORE WE GO on to describe the two models from this couturier illustrated today, let us say a word about the new evening wraps. The new season offers us a wide range of choice in lengths as jackets, three quarter length and full length evening coats are all extremely smart, our Paris cables tell us. Lelong shows a dress-length princess coat that is most interesting. Long coats with detachable capelets to be worn with evening clothes are a Patou evening feature.

* * *

MME. YTEB'S gown at the right is of pale, faded blue crepe georgette. The deep cape forms part of the dress and is attached to the yoke with rows of very fine smocking. The little vest at the front of the deep decollette is also smocked. A deep flounce which forms the major part of the skirt has a saw toothed edge and is drawn up in front in a cascade of drapery.

* * *

IN THE SECOND frock Mme. Yteb uses banana colored georgette to make a stunning evening gown. The front of the frock is quite plain with only a double insert panel of a deeper banana shade and placed vertically in the skirt to relieve its simplicity. The decolletage in back and the shirred panels are cleverly worked out.

Le Sidaner to Represent France on Art Jury

By PENELOPE REDD

Penelope Redd

Henri Le Sidaner will represent France on the international jury of award for the forthcoming exhibition of paintings at Carnegie Institute.

Albert Marquet, who was announced as the French juror, has been obliged to relinquish the honor because of illness.

Le Sidaner last visited Pittsburgh in 1912 when he served on the international jury for a second time, having previously been on the jury of 1910.

Pittsburgh has been very cordial professionally to Le Sidaner.

Back in 1908 Carnegie Institute acquired one of his romantic Venetian nocturnes. His paintings from the Carnegie Internationals have a wider distribution in local drawing rooms than those of any other contemporary painter. His first prize award in 1925 was purchased by wire sight unseen by a West Virginia collector.

As Le Sidaner now approaches his seventieth year he may well count his honors, which include the highest official recognition by France and his representation in the galleries throughout the world wherever French painting of the early twentieth century is exhibited.

Le Sidaner will arrive with his colleagues of the international jury, Cipriano Oppo of Rome and Paul Nash of London, on September 22.

A NEWER VOGUE in DIAMOND JEWELRY
at Prices Drastically Reduced

This store is replete with gorgeous diamond pieces designed in the modern manner to bring happiness for years. Baguette, emerald cut, round, and unusual cut diamonds in fine platinum mountings may now be had at prices giving you full advantage of the present slump in the diamond and platinum markets. We urge you to make your selection now while you are able to save money.

The Hardy & Hayes Co.
HARDY & HAYES BUILDING
WOOD STREET AT OLIVER AVENUE PITTSBURGH, PA.

Men Are Neither Suddenly Rich Nor Suddenly Good

So one sage observed. But from our side of the grocery counter, it looks as if what a man gets to eat is a great help to both his finances and his disposition.

For we've yet to meet the man who can eat a lean meal and be the happier for it. And we've never known high prices for even the fanciest food to raise either the spirits or the family fortune.

And having noted this, we haven't stopped there. We're promoting digestions and therefore dispositions, by selling only the best food; and we're promoting savings and therefore bank accounts, by selling it at the low prices made possible only by our huge business and tiny profit.

The Great
ATLANTIC & PACIFIC
Tea Company

TELL IT TO SALLY -:- -:- Follow This Unusual Feature Day by Day -:- -:- By SALLY MARTIN

It Is Praiseworthy to Face Consequences of Error

Should we stand by the girl who has "done wrong?"

Jerry says we shouldn't—and she speaks for the Office Force—

"It's all wrong—that idea!" she goes on, warming to her subject. "Girls know the difference between right and wrong—and if they get into trouble, it's their own fault. They know what they're doing. And they're usually to blame . . ."

Lila started it—little Lila, who'd made a mistake but who clung, nevertheless, with loving heart, to her nameless baby. Then came boy friend Eddie.

READERS DISAGREE

"Marry me, kid," said Eddie. "I'm crazy about you and I won't hold your past against you. But you've got to cut out the baby. We don't want to have people always asking questions. So leave the youngster with your sister and take a fresh start with me."

But Lila wouldn't. Give up her baby? Not for a million Eddies . . . not though it broke all the heart she had left in her weary, lonely little body.

And we gave her a hand. So now comes Jerry.

My Dear Miss Martin:—

We girls in the office always read your column, and we usually think you're all right. But we all disagree with you on the answer you gave in the case of Eddie and Lila, so we're taking the liberty of writing you.

Why do you always glorify the unwed mother? You advised Eddie to marry Lila and adore her because of her faithfulness to her child. But we think that Eddie has the right idea, and that her sister should keep the child.

It would be happier, and she would be doing it a favor to keep its real parentage a secret. We all boast of being broad-minded, but if a child of 12 told her friends that her parents were celebrating their tenth anniversary—well, there is a difference.

MODERN GIRLS

And anyway this idea of glorifying the Unwed Mother is all wrong! Now, don't think for a moment that we are old and narrow-minded, because we're not. We happen to be three modern girls of 19 and 20.

But girls now know the difference between right and wrong if they read books, go to the movies or other shows, attend hen parties or [illegible] naturally exist. If a girl goes wrong," she knows what she is doing, and she is usually to blame.

In our experience a man is pretty decent about a thing like that and, if a girl's "no" is emphatic—that's that.

If Eddie really loves Lila enough to forget her mistake and marry her, and not bring it up in the future—our hats are off to him. No doubt she deserves his love . . . but she owes the man she is marrying something, too. Why doesn't she leave things as they are . . . let her sister have the child, and start with Eddie with a clean slate?

JERRY.

Why do I "glorify" the Unwed Mother?

I don't, my dear, and if you'd read my article a little more carefully, you'd realize it. But I do glorify the fight of any human being to climb above a mistake . . . to face its consequences bravely and squarely—and I do glorify any mother, whether she's wed or unwed, who loves her child and wants it enough to fight for it.

IGNORE WARNINGS

I believe, too, that her loyalty to that child, in the face of pain and loss, is a pretty good gauge of her loyalty to all that is fine in life.

"But such girls are to blame for their own trouble," you say . . . "Girls are not ignorant any more" . . . Well, so far as that's concerned, youngster, we're all of us pretty ignorant. We're all of us apt to be tricked by that ignorance. And often, when we're told and warned, we don't believe . . . until it's too late. We think we know better. Many a girl has been tricked, to her life-long regret, by listening to the wrong argument.

And many a girl has been tricked by the tides of life and spring, rising like a flood within herself . . . tricked by the very warmth and richness of her own nature . . . into a bitterly regretted moment of madness.

And until you yourself have met such a temptation, you don't know what you might do—how your own ideas of right and wrong might be blotted out for a time.

Should that mean that you must never rise above that blind moment? Never be honored or respected again? Never have a hand outstretched to help you to "come back"?

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Winter Clothes Begin to Interest Us Again Very Much, Says Fay King

NO HOME COMPLETE WITHOUT A COSEY FIRE PLACE
NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR WINTER BLANKET
FAY KING

By FAY KING.

To those who live in the country the first signs of fall are visible in the searing leaf, and the radiant hues with which Nature paints her trees and plants before they settle down to their long silent winter sleep.

But in the city where trees are few and far between, the first signs of fall come to us from the window dressers, who begin to put aside the bathing suits and garden hats, and bring out the winter blankets and woolly bath robes.

In the sweltering summer it seems incredible that we will ever want to linger before a window in which is a sample fireplace, or a heap of blankets.

But now winter things begin to interest us again very much.

Heart of a Wife -:-

Continuation of Love's Reawakening

By ADELE GARRISON

Madge's Father Tells Story of His "Great Mistake"

Lillian rose from her chair quietly as my father spoke the words "My little comforter!" It was a movement I had known she would make, and approved the delicacy which had made her wait for a few seconds after he had spoken of bringing an old wrong into the open. Lillian never does things crudely, but she is always most effective.

"Dear Chief!" she said softly, "whatever this is, it lies between you and Madge. Won't you let me——"

He had risen with her, and with a tender smile he put his hands upon her shoulders and put her back into her chair.

"We have been associated too long, my dear, for you to have qualms about anything I wish to discuss with anyone," he said. "And you are Margaret's dearest friend. Now I will answer the question I would not permit you to finish. No, I will not let you go away. I wish you to stay right here. Do I make myself clear?"

His lips curved whimsically, and I saw that for a second his burden had lightened. It is not the first time I have seen a heavy heart made lighter just by looking at Lillian's face so full of cheeriness, comfort and strength.

"Perfectly," she returned, answering his smile. "And I obey."

"You both know," he began, "that when you, Margaret, were four years old I fled from my home, my wife and my child, with the woman whom your mother had counted as her dearest friend."

"Is it necessary to torture yourself with the recital of that, Father?" I remonstrated, but the quick warning pressure of Lillian's hand silenced me.

"Yes, it is," he returned with decision, "but I am not going to tell you anything which happened after that dastardly act. You, both of you, know the story of my wanderings, of my coming to myself after the devil had been cast out of me, for if ever a man had demoniac possession, I had—nothing else could explain my betrayal of a love and trust that——"

He stopped and put his hand over his eyes as if to shut out a vision at which he no longer could look. I stirred uneasily, but again the pressure of Lillian's fingers warned me against any further protest.

"Enough of that," he said after a little, lowering his hand. But he did not look at either of us as he went on speaking, instead, stared off into space as if he were seeing something "holden from our eyes."

"I am going back to the first years of my marriage with your mother, Margaret. You are marvelously like her in features, hair and coloring, so like her, that when I first saw you that night when you were dining with your husband, I almost cried out because I knew that my long quest was ended, and that I had found the daughter whom I had lost for so long.

"Your mother was much shorter, however, and slighter, a very Titania of a woman. But oh! the warm golden heart of her, big enough to hold all the world wrapped in her divine sympathy.

"We were married several years before you came to us, Margaret. We lost a little son when he was only a few weeks old, but the sorrow only drew us the closer together.

"I often have thought, since, that your mother was too sweet, too trusting. I do not believe it is in any man's nature to be worthy of such absolute trust as was hers. I used to say to her sometimes in those early days, 'Have you such faith in me then, my darling?' and looking up at me shyly she would reply:

"'That is my name, you know, Faith.'

"And it was 'Margaret Faith' she was named, as you of course, know."

He turned his eyes to me with the words.

"No, I didn't know," I said, troubled because I knew that what he could read in my words would hurt him. "I always thought she had only one Christian name."

He gave a stifled little groan.

"That must have been because she could not bear to hear the name spoken," he said.

I sat very still and the sense of an eagerly listening presence grew stronger.

"How I rewarded my 'Faith' you know. There was no excuse for me. After you came, she naturally devoted much more time to you than she did to me, and like a spoiled child I resented it. I had plenty of time on my hands and the devil in the form of a woman did the rest. The faith of my Faith never wavered until I killed it with my flight.

"For years I could not bear to hear that name. But as I get closer to the border where perhaps one day I may see your mother again, my old name for her comes back to me.

"Do you know now, Margaret, what I want to name your baby daughter?"

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1931, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.)

The Cardiac Clinic

By DOROTHY ROE

All I want is more varie-tee—
One line never could appeal to me.
I'm so very changeable myself,
That I want changeable socie-tee.

That's the song of Miss 1931.

She can't see any one man as a steady diet.

Her moods are so many that she must have a swain to match each one.

When she's feeling romantic—a tall handsome Casanova to whisper sweet nothings.

When she's feeling boisterous—somebody who will take her to an amusement park and ride the chute-the-chutes.

When she's feeling world-weary — a good, substantial citizen who will regard her with deference and lecture her on her frivolity.

Yet when she thinks of marriage she usually picks out somebody who spells dependability.

After all, you can't live on pretty phrases.

And you don't want your life to be one long pillow fight.

Here's a letter from a typical member of the younger generation who feels that variety is the spice of life:

"Dear Miss Roe:

"The other day you asked how we liked our love served. I am 18 years old, red-headed, full of pep, out for a good time, and I have quite a number of boy friends who have different ways of behaving.

"I can usually tell by their looks how they are going to act. Here is my analysis of the prevailing types:

"No. 1—If he is tall, dark, good-looking and devil-may-care he probably will whisper sweet romantic things, and I will give him as good as he sends.

"No. 2—If he is tall, rather clumsy, not good-looking and not bad-looking, and takes life more or less seriously, he will put his arm around me and maybe give me a kiss at the end of the evening. But he won't speak a word of love—his eyes will say it.

"No. 3—If he is rather short, full of pep and happy-go-lucky, he will tease and cut up and act as foolish as possible—but he won't grow sentimental.

"I have chosen these three as typical of the run of the mill. And I like each of them in his place.

"Give me No. 1 on a moonlight night out in the country in the rumble seat.

"No. 2 fits in when the old folks are around. And he is the kind of a man I would like to marry because he seems most dependable.

"And I would choose No. 3 when I'm going to an informal gathering of the 'gang' when having fun is the object of the evening.

"I don't believe any girl I know wants to have the same kind of boy-friend all the time. So far I haven't taken any of the boys seriously, and I don't intend to for a long time.

"Here's good luck to 'Cardiac Clinic'—and may it live forever.

"Red Head From Cincinnati."

Maybe this craving for change is typical of our age—maybe it's responsible for the quick-change quality of marriages these days.

The Beauty Box

By HELEN FOLLETT

Hairbrushes should be sterilized now and then. Wash with a strong soap and a brush, rinse well, dip into a solution of lysol, place bristles downward in a sunny window to dry. Unclean brushes are a menace to the health of the hair. The most sanitary ones are those that have long, firm bristles placed in groups. The narrow marcel brush is useful for the purpose of bringing luster to the hair.

Dandruff won't give way before the soapy shampoo; it must first be softened and loosened by applications of hot oil. Friction of the scalp is necessary, too; it stimulates blood streams, brings the condition of the glands to normal, keeps the hair in a state of amiability and health.

Eau de cologne serves as a skindimmer, putting on the dull finish when the complexion carries too much shine. Pour a small amount in a piece of cotton. Dig into the pores of the skin to oust atmospheric dust and to remove the greasy substance that is continually exuded by sebaceous glands.

How to Keep Well

By DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

Worry and Nervousness Linked With Ill Health

Dr Copeland

To be afraid of a nervous breakdown is not at all uncommon. Many a person visits the doctor for help, admitting the only thing the matter is this particular fear.

It seems strange that one should go to a doctor, not to find what is wrong, but to tell him the nature of the ailment. In this matter, however, that is actually what happens.

Good health is a condition in which we live longest and in which we enjoy ourselves most. This desirable state can exist only when we give the body the necessary care and rest. But it is not enough to regard the physical aspects alone. It is equally as important to pay attention to the mental health.

It is impossible to rest if the mind is disturbed, worried or otherwise upset. Such a mental state is easily brought about by physical fatigue. It is true, too, that worry, undue excitement, nervous apprehension and fear, are capable of producing definite damage to the body.

If you are working very hard, make sure you are getting the necessary sleep, at least seven or eight hours daily. Your diet is also very important. Hard work creates the demand for food both palatable and easily digested. The diet should consist of an abundance of fresh vegetables, fruits, milk, cream and butter. Get out of doors, and, above all, get into the sun.

If you have not been working and are worried because of the present state of affairs, try to be philosophical about it. No matter what may be your financial state, it is just as important as ever to maintain your bodily health.

Worry will not help to get a new job. A long siege of worry won't help you to hold a new job. Worrying lowers the vitality and will render you less able to undertake new duties as you should.

If you do not feel up to par, if you are easily irritated or apprehensive, if your mind is full of fear, consult with your physician. In all probability he will suggest rest and, if need be, prescribe the necessary tonic.

Answers to Health Queries

MARY B. Q.—How much should a girl of 14 weigh?

2.—What do you advise for pimples?

A.—Her correct weight depends on her height as well as her age.

2.—First correct the diet, by cutting down on sugar, starches and coffee. Eat simple food.

* * *

B. M. M. Q.—When a goitre is beginning can it be cleared up without operation? What treatment do you advise?

A.—This depends entirely upon the type of the goitre and extent of the trouble. The treatment should be determined by your doctor.

(Copyright, 1931, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.)

A Child's Temper

By CONSTANCE CAMERON

"What would you do with a boy who is mad all the time? He's cross and finicky and irritable. I don't know what's wrong."

Well, I don't know either. I don't know the child nor his mother and father or his home environment. All of which play a large part in developing a temper habit. HABIT—I said, not temper alone.

Temper is all right. Surely we shouldn't care to go through the world unstirred to a righteous fury by seeing a horse unmercifully whipped or a child neglected, should we? And that feeling is TEMPER. But NOT a temper-habit.

I should never advise ANY mother to try to squelch all temper in a child. It has a distinct purpose in our natures. But it must be directed.

To the mother who wrote that appealing little note, I'd say: "Take the child to your family physician for a thorough physical examination. Discover whether there may be a physical reason for his being irritable. The trouble often begins in a body which is not functioning properly."

Finding his body to be in good condition, I should look to mother's temper. Is she blessed with self-control, or does she set the child an example of "flying off the handle" when things go wrong? Children are assiduous little mimics.

Are there too many "No's" when a "Yes" could just as well be substituted?

Is the child given what he WANTS by getting angry and making a scene?

Does the child get proper rest and plenty of fresh air?

You may not agree with me, but I believe rest in particular, is an excellent cure for temper tantrums.

Is the child worried and teased by any member of the family—an older child perhaps? This will bring on a justifiable sense of being eternally on the defensive.

Think over these questions and answer them fairly. Have YOU contributed to your child's bad temper?

Don't hope to see your child utterly devoid of temper. That will tend to produce "doormats." But try to prevent your child forming a temper-HABIT, and this is most easily formed when the child GAINS something by getting good and mad.

(Copyright, 1931, International Feature Service, Inc.)

-:- Correct Manners -:-

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

Wanted—A House Date

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I have been going about with a girl for over a year and we never had a so-called house date, always a show or dance and so forth. Here is my problem. Should I ask permission to come to see her at her home for the evening, or should she do the inviting? BUD.

Either is correct. She has the charming privilege of extending this invitation of hospitality to you, and you have the privilege of asking her if you may come. I am afraid that you have spoiled this young lady by your generous suggestions of entertainment, and so perhaps she will prefer to "go somewhere" rather than to spend an evening at home.

A Day Wedding

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

The wedding is to be in church at 5 p. m. and the reception to follow immediately at home and to continue throughout the evening. Under the circumstances, what would be appropriate for the bridegroom and ushers to wear? The day-dress seems to me to be inappropriate in view of the fact that the reception will continue throughout the evening, and full dress, I believe, cannot be worn until 6 p. m. L. C.

You have named exactly the difficulty about weddings with following receptions that are planned for these hours. However, since the wedding is to be at 5 o'clock, it is a day wedding, and day clothes would be the appropriate thing to wear.

China Anniversary Gift

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

Will you please tell me what is the proper gift for a twentieth anniversary? MRS. B.

The twentieth anniversary is the china anniversary. We may give a present of china for this anniversary or we may, as is so often done nowadays, not pay such strict attention to the traditional symbol, and give any kind of present for the home.

Birth Announcement

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I wish you would advise me if it is proper to send announcements of the birth of a second child? READER.

Yes, it is.

(Copyright, 1931, [illegible])

Household Hints

A weak solution of water and ammonia should be used for cleaning gilded picture frames. Go over the gilt gently with a moist cloth; after a few moments, when the dirt has softened, repeat the process. Don't rub hard; dry by dabbing with a soft cloth.

When you have trouble removing the lid from a mayonnaise or jelly jar, rap the cover gently all around the edge, then place a wet cloth over the top and turn. The cover will invariably respond to this treatment.

Never scrape food that is stuck from agateware. It is easily chipped and this method is a good starter. Soak the vessel well and boil with soap powder and water until the food is loosened and can be washed out.

65¢

For 65 cents you can telephone to friends, relatives or customers more than a hundred miles away. For example: from Pittsburgh to Warren or Kane or to Zanesville, Ohio. And after 8:30 P. M. you can call them for only 40 cents!

The service is fast, clear, dependable—the call is easy to make. Just give the number to the operator (ask Information if you don't know it) and "hold the line."

(Rates based on East. Standard Time)

BELL SYSTEM

TELEPHONE

Closed Today, Labor Day—These Frocks on Sale Tomorrow!

New Store Hours: Daily, 9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.—Saturdays Until 6 P. M.

McCREERY'S
WOOD ST. AT SIXTH AVE. ATLANTIC [illegible]

First Fall Versions of the Famous

L'Aiglon Frocks

Will Go Smartly to Town, School or Office

$2.95

The dark prints look like silk. But they wash! Cool under your coat. One piece.

All models in:
Brown, green, navy, black-and-white.

Sizes 16 to 46

(McCreery's—Second Floor)

(A) Vionnet bodice closing. With contrasting piping. Sizes 16 to 46.

(B) Cute white collar. Dark tie. Sizes 16 to 46.

(C) Wide revers collar. Contrasting piping. Sizes 14 to 46.

EVENING SUN-TELEGRAPH MARKETS

Latest Financial News

Markets Closed Today

PUBLIC WORKS SPEED NEEDED FOR JOB AID

Early Action Essential for Results Within 6 Months; Bond Issue Best Method

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Absence of an accepted program for restoring economic health inevitably [illegible] political [illegible] on Labor Day.

The [illegible] of the depression [illegible] much [illegible] by the [illegible] [illegible]

Mr. Rukeyser

With [illegible] speed [illegible] projects [illegible] ployment [illegible] next [illegible] view [illegible] between [illegible] the [illegible] picks [illegible]

BOND ISSUE DESIRABLE

In [illegible] to [illegible] it is [illegible] program [illegible] a bond [illegible] increase [illegible] government [illegible] ership [illegible] struction [illegible]

But [illegible] tions [illegible] surance [illegible] ings banks [illegible] their [illegible] Their [illegible] own [illegible] liquid [illegible] their [illegible]

In [illegible] tion [illegible] ance [illegible] ings banks [illegible] veritable [illegible] the [illegible] public [illegible] lar shrinkage.

HOME FINANCE PLAN

But perhaps these great institutions [illegible] a step further. Emulating the experience of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York, which some years ago [illegible] with model tenements, they might seek to set up a [illegible] company for financing [illegible] on a large scale.

No single [illegible] put more than a small fraction of its available [illegible] experiment [illegible] aggregate effect of [illegible] effects in the direction [illegible] employment [illegible] stimulus [illegible] where it is [illegible] needed. Because it would [illegible] prevailing [illegible] show the [illegible] disgraceful [illegible] sistent with the American standard of [illegible]

LIVESTOCK MARKETS

Pittsburgh.

[illegible]

Chicago.

[illegible]

East Buffalo.

[illegible]

Fixed Trust Load Charges Studied by Exchange

By GEORGE H. SNYDER

LOADING CHARGES HAVE BEEN one of the factors in the cost of fixed investment trusts which have been subject to wide comment. The prices of the stocks in the portfolios are determined by market conditions, but there are numerous expenses to the operation of a fixed trust. In addition, the various houses undertaking distribution must meet their own expenses and make a profit. The amount paid by the investor in excess of the actual cost of the stocks is known as the load.

The early fixed trusts were not always frank about their methods of computing the load and the actual amount of the charge made to the investor. In some cases there were hidden profits. The New York Stock Exchange has demanded that all fixed trusts which are to be distributed by member firms must state the amount of their loads in plain terms. Following the announcement of a list of approved trusts, the exchange published amounts of the loads in percentage.

Loads Average Over 8 Per Cent

ONLY TWO TRUSTS SHOWED charges of less than 7 per cent. The average is over 8 per cent with three trusts charging 10 per cent or more. The load figures are valuable estimations of the cost of investment trusts, but there are other factors to be considered.

Naturally a trust to run 20 years would need to set aside more money for trustee fees than a trust to exist only 10 years. The prospective investor should find out whether the initial load is the only cost or if there are any annual deductions to be made from income to meet operating costs. These deductions may take the form of actual charges or the interest on a reserve fund may be used to defray expenses. These other elements must be investigated along with the load charges.

Actual Cost Shown

THE LOAD FIGURES given to the Stock Exchange were compiled on various dates extending from May to August. The market changes during the period were not sufficiently great to materially change the load costs in most of the trusts.

The following tabulation shows the elements entering into the costs of 39 trusts as reported to the exchange. The first column shows the total cost of the portfolio in a single unit, including brokerage commissions and odd lot differentials. The second column shows this cost applying to a single trust share. The third column shows the load charge per share and the fourth column indicates the percentage of the load to the cost of the stocks.

Trust Shares	—Portfolio cost— A unit	 A trust sh	Load	% to Cost
A B C Series D	$9,424.10	$4.712	$.4358	9.24
Amer Composite [illegible]	11,513.70	[illegible]	.4602	8.00
Bankers Republic [illegible]				8.63
Corporate	[illegible].48	4.[illegible]	[illegible]	9.00
Dep Bank N Y Ser A	48,872.00	4.81	.42	8.73
Dep [illegible] Sh A	[illegible]	5.24	.46	8.7[illegible]
Diversified C	[illegible]	4.954	.3444	6.95
Equity of Amer	8,963.63	4.481	.3585	8.00
[illegible]	[illegible].08	4.[illegible]	.46	10.01
Independence	[illegible].80	3.612	.2889	8.00
[illegible]	[illegible]	4.[illegible]	.4024	9.56
Low-Priced	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	8.50
Nat Industries A	[illegible]	4.[illegible]	[illegible]	7.[illegible]
Nat Industries B	10,002.[illegible]	[illegible]	.4002	8.00
North American	8,147.20	4.073	.3868	9.50
Public Service A	[illegible].80	5.968	.5670	9.50
Selected Cumulative	21,576.95	9.430	.7780	8.25
Sta Management	7,130.52	7.130	.7130	10.00
Super-Corp of Amer A	10,076.60	5.038	.408	8.104
Super-Corp of Amer C	16,434.30	8.217	.666	8.108
Tr Am Bank A	14,509.26	4.84	.46	9.50
Tr N Y City Bank	24,361.25	8.121	.7057	8.69
Tr Sh of Amer	4,909.70	4.910	.392	8.00
20th Century	4,799.50	4.799	.4319	9.00
Two-Year	6,683.08	16.707	1.5604	9.34
All-America Inv	8,149.76	8.149	.709	8.636
Diversified D	7,131.82	7.131	.5794	8.125
Super-Corp of Am B	10,517.80	5.258	.426	8.108
Super-Corp of Am D	16,434.30	8.217	.666	8.108
National	484,842.50	9.696	[illegible]	7.52
Fundamental A	5,577.50	5.577	.47	8.50
Fundamental B	5,356.50	5.356	.46	8.50
Representative	23,297.44	11.648	.6406	5.50
N Y Bank	26,397.26	6.599	.571	8.69
A B C Ser E	13,172.90	6.586	.6092	9.25
Cumulative	314,838.83	6.296	.5116	8.125
Collateral	6,591.32	6.591	.6866	10.42
Trust Fund	5,204.49	5.204	.4944	9.50
1st Bank Trust	9,106.25	4.553	.403	8.85

*Including commissions and odd lot premiums.

In the case of Cumulative Trust Shares, whose makeup sheet is dated June 22, a loading charge of 8⅛ per cent of cost is shown. In the report to the stock exchange it is stated that "at present the charge added to the value of the underlying stocks is 8⅛ per cent thereof. Certain negotiations have been effected which will require this charge to be increased to 9½ per cent on or about August 15, 1931. Consequently, for the purpose of this application, the load is expressed at 'not to exceed 9½ per cent.'" Slightly more than a month ago Distributors Group, Inc., which owned a half interest in the Cumulative Shares Corporation, sponsors of Cumulative Trust Shares, acquired the other half interest in the corporation from Bancamerica Blair Corporation; presumably this covered the negotiations referred to as requiring the increase in the loading charge.

MARTIAL OIL LAW PLEASES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Martial law in the oil fields is gaining proponents. Hailed at first as a questionable governmental means of maintaining a price level for the benefit of private industry, it is now generally recognized as a step necessary to conserve flagrant waste of a most important natural resource.

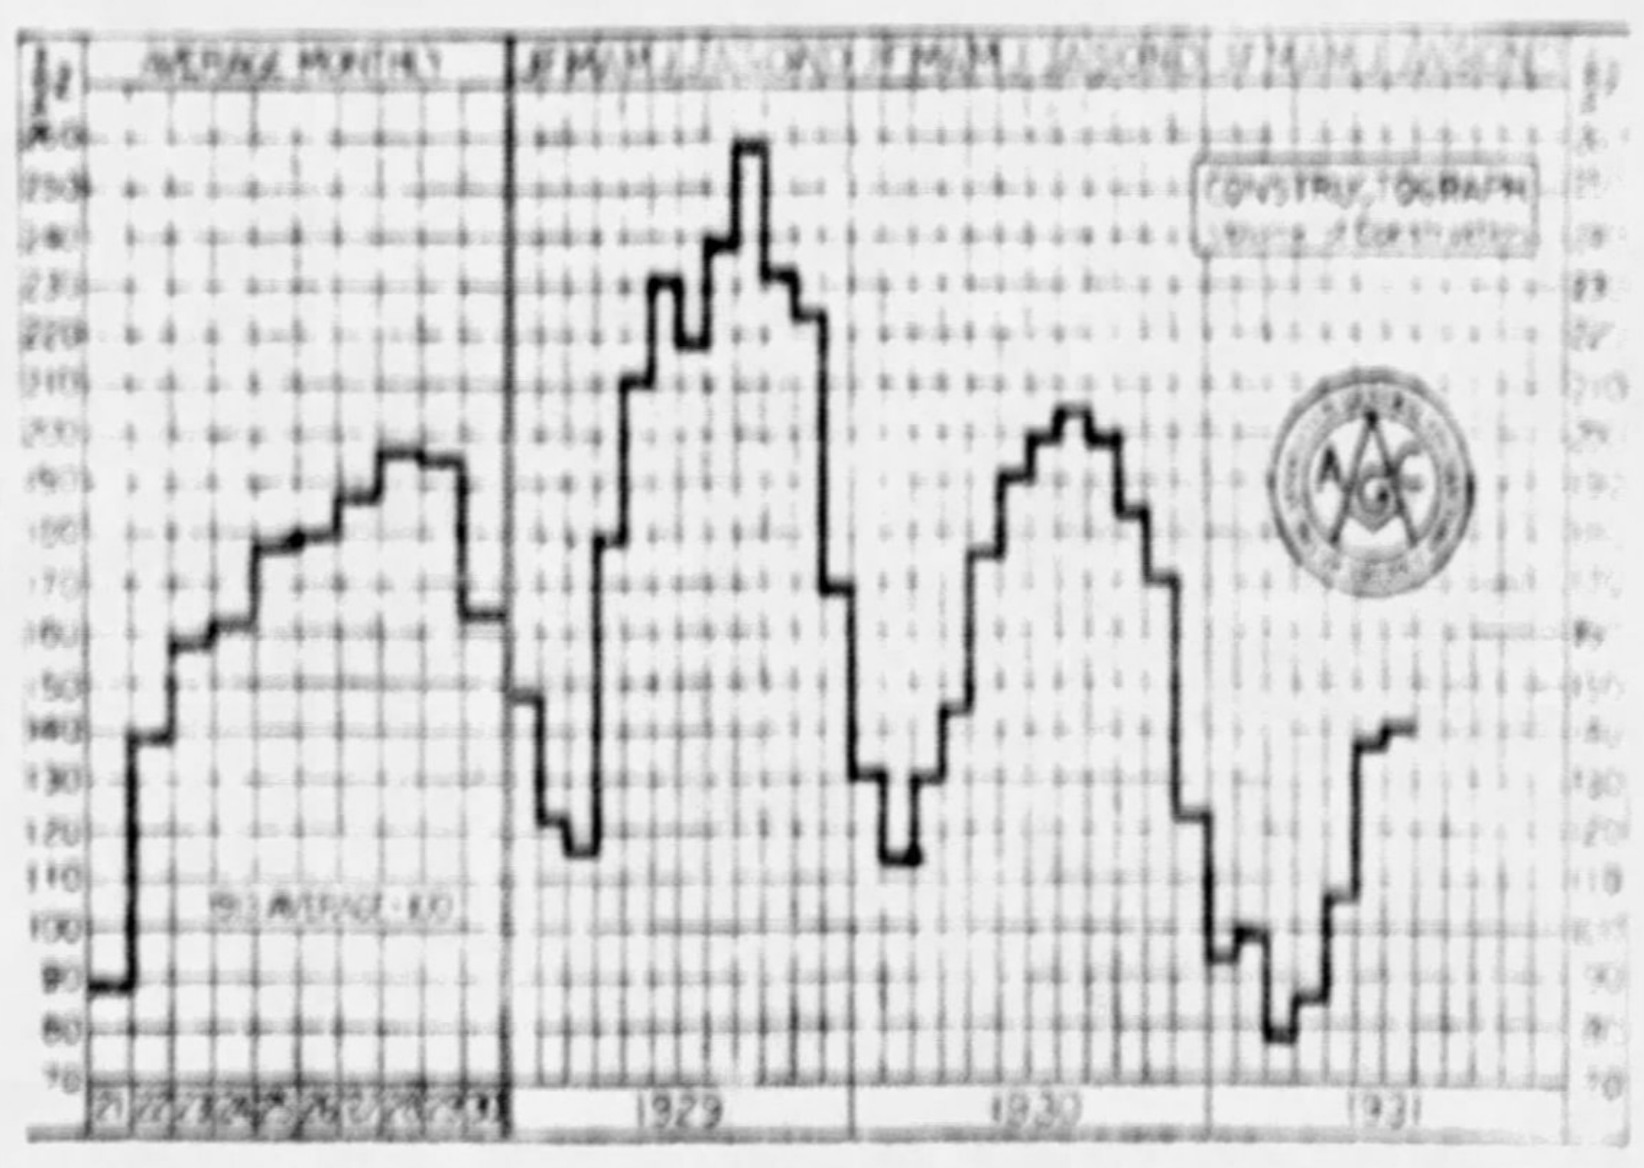
The drastic action was taken in Oklahoma and Texas, where the state government, combatting the problem of overproduction, closed the wells until crude oil returns to a fair price, considered $1 a barrel.

U. S. Fruit Exports Gain During Year

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Exports of United States fruits showed a substantial increase during the last fiscal year. Short apple and pear crops in Europe, coupled with continued and active sales efforts were the chief factors in bringing about the gain.

Official statistics of the Commerce Department indicated shipments of fresh fruit during the period were valued at $66,529,000 as compared with $50,468,000 the previous year. Dried fruits totaled $29,661,000 as compared with $28,622,000 in the previous period.

CONSTRUCTION IN U. S.



DRAWING SHOWS 30 PER CENT BUILDING DECLINE THIS YEAR

PROPOSAL ON RESERVE ACT BENEFICIAL

Amendment Would Wipe Out Even Temporary Injury in Case of Bank Liquidations

By THOMAS TEMPLE HOYNE

Author and Financial Editor of the Chicago Herald and Examiner.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Press dispatches dated August 28 announced that the New York Superintendent of Banking had closed and taken over the Bank of Europe Trust Company and its subsidiary, the Bank of Europe Safe Deposit Company. The reports estimated deposits to be $9,500,000, and added:

"The bulk of deposits were in so-called thrift accounts."

"Thrift" account is a name for various types of what are really savings accounts that have come to be handled in large volume during recent years by commercial banks. Speaking of this practice in the Forum for August, James Truslow Adams, historian, author and former member of a New York Stock Exchange firm, said:

ACCOUNTS NUMEROUS

"Unfortunately in 1914 the Federal Reserve Act practically allowed a commercial bank to function as a savings bank and there are now 1,500,000 persons in the state of New Yokr alone who have 'thrift accounts' in commercial banks.

"The average depositor has not realized the difference between depositing his savings in a savings bank or in the 'thrift department' of a commercial bank; and the commercial banks have been at no pains to point out to him that they are free to discount commercial paper and to engage in many lines of banking denied to a savings bank."

FUNDS TIED-UP

The Bank of Europe was a member bank of the New York Federal Reserve district. It is believed that its depositors are fully protected. However, even if this proves to be the case, the deposits of the bank are tied up at least temporarily, to the great inconvenience of the depositors. For the time being the circulation of this money in trade and business where it is needed is prevented.

If the Federal Reserve Act were amended so as to require each of the 12 Federal Reserve banks to guarantee the deposits of its members, no suspension of a member bank could work even temporary injury to its depositors.

If examination by a Federal Reserve Bank disclosed objectionable banking methods or bad management in one of its member banks, the Federal Reserve Bank would expel such bank from membership and order it to liquidate.

PLACES RESPONSIBILITY

But depositors would not have to wait to get their money. The Federal Reserve Bank would at once pay all deposits out of its own capital. Any loss this might cause the Federal Reserve Bank, after being reimbursed to the extent of the net assets of the liquidated member bank, would be prorated by the Federal Reserve Bank on all the other member banks of its district.

This suggested amendment of the Federal Reserve act would put the responsibility for better banking methods on bankers where it belongs. If each Federal Reserve bank had to guarantee against loss depositors of its member banks, its board of directors, six of whom are elected by the member banks, would see to it that sound banking methods and good management prevailed in every member institution.

U. S. BUILDING VOLUME OFF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Construction volume in the United States during the first seven months of 1931 declined approximately 30 per cent as compared with the corresponding period of last year, according to a statistical analysis just completed by the Associated General Contractors of America. The analysis, which is based upon the shipment of basic construction materials, shows the July volume at index number 140, an increase of three points over that of the previous month, but a decline of 59 points as compared with July, 1930.

One of the most disappointing facts brought out in the analysis is the apparent failure of municipalities to undertake street and alley paving work under the exceptionally favorable price conditions prevailing this year, Edward J. Harding, managing director of the association, stated in commenting upon the study.

The total awards of concrete surface pavement contracts for the first six months of the year was 91,908,000 square yards, or an increase of 11 per cent, compared with the corresponding period a year ago, whereas at the close of April the total was 29 per cent greater than during the same four months of 1930, Mr. Harding pointed out.

Long term state and municipal bond issues for contemplated public works, however, continue to run about 12 per cent greater than for the same period last year, the monthly average for the first six months being $141,000,000, as compared with a six-months average of $125,186,000 last year, the analysis shows.

Forbes

Labor Day Is Not Without Encouragement.

By B. C. FORBES

LABOR DAY of 1931 may seem to be the most unhappy, the most depressing, the most discouraging Labor Day of the last decade.

Yet, looking deeper than the surface, can there not be discerned deeply gratifying facts?

B. C. Forbes

LET IT BE admitted without question or cavil that there is in America today the largest number of unemployed ever. Let it be admitted equally frankly that distress among families of the unemployed is probably more widespread now than ever before.

In short, let us face and confess the deplorable fact that labor in a tragic number of instances faces a black, disheartening winter.

HOW, THEN, CAN anyone talk of encouraging phases of the labor situation?

Well, let's see if the drab picture hasn't some redeeming features.

FIRST—CAN IT be disputed that there never was a time in America's history when so much solicitude was exercised for the well-being of idle workers?

President Hoover has selected the best man in the whole country to organize unemployment relief throughout the land. Walter S. Gifford in turn has experienced not the slightest difficulty in inducing the most capable men in different communities to lead local relief measures.

SECOND—THERE IS every indication that a greater sum than any in the past will be raised voluntarily to take care of victims of enforced idleness and their families. States, cities and other communities promise to vote unprecedented sums for the same laudable purpose.

THIRD—CORPORATIONS and other employers, instead of having heartlessly dismissed as many workers as possible, regardless of what became of them, have as a rule taken genuine pains to distribute work and wages equitably among not the smallest, but the largest force feasible.

FOURTH—WHILE there have been, of course, many cases of wage reductions—and doubtless this process isn't yet over—it is recognized that salaries in almost every instance were reduced before wages, that the wages of stockholders, meaning dividends, were cut before the wages of labor were cut, and that other economies were vigilantly hunted and effected before wage rates were readjusted.

Indeed, we have witnessed the phenomenon of executives of very important corporations publicly voicing their objection to general or wholesale lowering of wage scales.

FIFTH DOES NOT Labor Day of 1931 find labor appreciably nearer than ever before the introduction of a shorter working week? More specifically, very distinct progress has been made in the direction of the institution of the five-day week.

THIS LAST may prove the greatest permanent gain of labor arising from the prolonged depression everyone has suffered. If the five-day week makes notable headway as a direct result of this period of depression, something permanent will have been won as an offset to these temporary hardships.

NOR IS THAT all. The whole attitude of employers toward workers and toward wages has undergone a gratifying transformation. Whereas in the old days it was the accepted thing for employers to pay as meager wages as they could get by with, modern progressive employers are willing, even eager, to maintain high wage standards whenever practicable.

The part played by workers and high wages in insuring prosperity is recognized now as it never was in the past.

SO OUT OF ALL these present-day trials and tribulations of labor, there promises to develop lasting benefits.

(Copyright, 1931, by B. C. Forbes.)

INDUSTRY BOOM PRESAGED FOR EAST OHIO

Plans on Way to Operate And Expand Idle Mills, Giving Work to Thousands

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 7.—Industrial renaissance is in the making in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys. Plans are now being developed, some of them still in preliminary stages, to develop and operate properties now idle, and to rehabilitate companies which have encountered financial difficulties.

Financing involving several millions is being discussed. Consummation of plans would provide employment for thousands of workers.

MAY PURCHASE MILLS

Financial and industrial leaders are discussing arrangements for these projects:

Purchase of the three non-integrated sheet rolling mill properties at Niles, owned by the Empire Steel Corporation, Mansfield. These plants are the Falcon, Thomas and Waddell properties.

Operation of the eight-mill sheet mill property at Warren owned by Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, which it is proposed to sell.

Placing Newton Falls property of the Newton Steel Company on an operating basis either by continuing production of highly finished steel sheets, or converting the plant into a tin mill. At one time this plant employed nearly 1,500 workers.

SHEET AND TUBE PLANS

Maintenance of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company as an individual entity, in event consolidation with Bethlehem Steel matures as now seems likely, and the transfer to Youngstown of some Bethlehem departments whose products can be more satisfactorily manufactured in the Middle West.

Expansion of the Cold Metal Process Company which has shown remarkable development in the past two years, and will soon outgrow its present quarters here. The company manufactures the Steckel cold-rolling mill, which it sells on a royalty basis, and also produces a thin sheet widely used in the automobile industry.

Rehabilitation of the Warren Tool and Forge Company and Warren Iron and Steel Company, whose operations have been irregular because of financial problems.

NEWTON FALLS PROJECT

Operation, if possible, of General Pressed Steel Company at Newton Falls, which has been forced to suspend by depressed conditions.

Mahoning Valley interests are working on plans for establishment of an eastern sales office by the United States Gypsum Company, Chicago, to be located in connection with the plant at Warren.

Retention of the Republic Steel Corporation headquarters in Youngstown.

MAY SHIFT OFFICES

Transfer of executive and sales offices of Sharon Steel Hoop Company to Youngstown from Sharon, Pa., as most of the executives live here.

Developement by Standard Slag interests of a diversified industries center, to house smaller industries and encourage their growth.

Enlargement of fabricating departments by Dalzell Brothers Company, and Sittig Brothers Company, both of which are bringing out new products.

Expansion of the Youngstown Boiler and Tank Company, which is developing a line of new products.

Further development by the Commercial Shearing and Stamping Company, Youngstown, and Niles Steel Products Company, Niles, both of which are expanding.

Increase Reported In Surplus Freights

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Class 1 railroads on August 22 had 573,252 surplus freight cars in good repair and immediately available for service, the American Railway Association announced. This was a decrease of 1,132 cars compared with August 14, at which time there were 574,384 surplus freight cars.

Wholesale and Jobbing Trade Conditions

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Tabloid review of wholesale and retail business conditions and the state of crops as reported to Bradstreet's last week from the following centers, on the basis of comparisons with conditions in the same areas in the corresponding week last year:

	Whole and Job. Trade	Retail Trade	Mfg. and Industry	Collections	Crops
Pittsburgh	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Good
Louisville	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Good
Cleveland	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Good
Detroit	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Fair
Milwaukee	Fair	Fair	Fair	Slow	Good
Chicago	Fair	Fair	Fair	Quiet	....
St. Louis	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Fair
Minneapolis	Quiet	Fair	Quiet	Slow	....
St. Paul	Quiet	Fair	Quiet	Slow	Fair
Duluth	Quiet	Fair	Quiet	Fair	Good
Omaha	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Fair
Des Moines	Quiet	Slow	Slow	Slow	Fair
Kansas City	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Fair
Baltimore	Quiet	Quiet	Quiet	Slow	Good

Pittsburgh: Small pig-iron output makes unfavorable outlook, coal trade improved, glass slow, paints, varnishes and plumbing improved.

Banks, Exchanges Closed for Holiday

All leading security and commodity markets, banks and business houses generally throughout the country are closed today in observance of Labor Day.

Among the important exchanges observing the holiday are the New York Stock Exchange, New York Curb Exchange, Pittsburgh Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, Chicago Stock Exchange and the New York Produce Exchange.

Business will be resumed at the regular time tomorrow morning.

MOVIE RETURNS DOWN 30%

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—During the last month a large number of corporate earnings reports have been issued for the first half of 1931 indicating that earnings of movie theaters were trailing last year by approximately 30 per cent.

This return compared favorably with industry as a whole, which on the basis of reliable calculations, recorded profits of about 44 per cent less than for the corresponding period of 1930.

Trade opinion charged a major portion of the decrease to the continued low public income brought about by unemployment. Contributing factors were said to be a drop of 15 per cent in attendance as compared with last year and a reduction in admission fees.

Wall street economists contended movie interest was at low ebb because of advertising tactics. It was claimed in this connection that oftentimes inferior reels were forced on the public through a fanfare of publicity usually reserved for only the best films. Producers were considered as disguising an actual scarcity of good reels.

THE PRODUCE MARKET

The demand for fruit and vegetables was slow today at the wholesale produce markets in Pittsburgh. There were no changes in quotations.

The poultry markets remained steady, demand fair, supply adequate, with slight changes in quotations.

The butter, egg and cheese markets rested firm, demand good, supply nominal, with slight changes in quotations.

Car-lot supplies were nominal, with 252 cars on track. Arrivals included [illegible]

[illegible]

PETROLEUM PRICES

Pennsylvania (Nat. Transit Line)	$1.[illegible]
Pennsylvania (S. W. Pipe Lines)	1.65
Pennsylvania (Eureka Pipe Line)	1.55
Pennsylvania (Buckeye Pipe Line)	1.45
Corning (Buckeye Pipe Line)	.75
Somerset (Buckeye Pipe Line)	[illegible]
Ragland grade oil	.60
Western Kentucky	[illegible]
Lima	.85
Indiana	[illegible]
Princeton	[illegible]
Wooster	1.[illegible]
Illinois	.70

CHICAGO CLEARINGS

Sept. 5

Bank clearings	$49,100,000
Balances	2,500,000

BANK CLEARINGS

The weekly statement of the New York Clearing House shows: Total surplus and undivided profits, $1,201,260,700, unchanged; total net demand deposits (average), $[illegible] increase; time deposits (average), $[illegible] decrease; clearings week ended September 5, $[illegible]; clearings week ended August 29, $3,502,[illegible]

TREASURY STATEMENT

Receipts, September 2	$1,020,729.80
Expenditures	12,592,990.87
Balance	118,692,517.55
Customs receipts for three days of September	2,917,131.44

PGH. BANK CLEARINGS

	Exchanges	Balances
Last week	$115,072,665	$31,862,699
Previous week	102,117,155	30,079,165
Last year (5 days)	143,717,204	70,362,513

COPPER BUYING STILL DULL

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Buying of copper remained dull last week at 7½ to 7¾ cents for electrolytic delivered in the Connecticut Valley. Custom smelters continue to supply what demand there is with mine producers still out of the market. Domestic consumers generally held off owing to an expectation of a further increase in refined stocks in August, statistics for which are not yet available. Foreign demand was only moderately active early in the week and tapered off further later.

Continued advances in tin early in the week on the effects of the formation of the international pool were followed by reactions when demand failed to broaden and the trade placed an unfavorable interpretation on the August statistics.

Demand for lead continued to broaden with all consuming lines participating in the buying for September and in some instances, October needs. The price holds unchanged.

While buyers of zinc continued to restrict purchases, sellers remained firm in their price ideas in anticipation that demand would broaden owing to small supplies held by consumers. Antimony was dull and unchanged with consumers limiting inquiries to small lots.

CARRIERS SHOW SMALL RETURN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Bureau of Railway Economics reported that class one carriers earned at the rate of 2.19 per cent net annually on their property investment at prevailing rates during the first seven months of 1931. "Property investment" covers the value of road and equipment as shown by the roads' books, and includes materials, supplies and cash.

Carriers in the eastern district fared best during the period, operating at the annual return of 2.40 per cent. The western district was second with an average of 2.15 per cent, with the southern district in last place, returning at the rate of 1.52 per cent annually.

Lumber Orders Above Production

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—For the third successive week lumber production trailed new business received by the mills during the week ended August 29, reports from 840 leading hardwood and softwood mills to the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association show. These mills reported orders 6 per cent in excess of their combined cut of 196,436,000 feet. Their shipments were 12 per cent above this figure. A week earlier 832 mills reported orders 13 per cent above and shipments 12 per cent above a cut of 191,296,000 feet.

STABILITY

What will a security earn during a period of business deflation? This question is of primary importance to every investor. Hearst Consolidated Publications Inc., earned, during the first half of 1931, $[illegible] per share, against dividend requirements of $[illegible]. No need to worry about reduced income or security of principal in the purchase of these shares.

Hearst Consolidated Publications Inc.

7% CLASS A SHARES

$25 A SHARE

may be purchased on the monthly thrift plan

$5 Down and $2 Monthly a Share

"Liberal distribution of profits"—a Hearst principle

Investigate Now!

Use the coupon or phone—GRant 6500

HEARST CONSOLIDATED PUBLICATIONS, INC.
Sun-Telegraph Building,
Telegraph Square, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Kindly send full information regarding Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., Class A shares.

Name

Address

BLAST BARES BOMB FACTORY

GENOA, Italy, Sept. 7.—(INS.)—A bomb factory was discovered in this city today when a loud explosion attracted police to a private house occupied by Domenico Bavone and his mother. They found the mother dead and her son dangerously wounded as the evident result of a premature explosion of an infernal machine.

Numerous completed bombs were found and the police said that Bavone was probably the maker of the 30 or more which have exploded in various parts of Italy during the past two months. He may have been responsible, they said, for that which recently exploded in the garden of the Vatican at Rome after it had been discovered in a pew in St. Peter's.

Most of the bombings were directed against the Fascist regime and at the time of the Vatican explosion it was said that the bomb had been placed in St. Peter's in an effort to discredit the Mussolini government.

EUROPE GALES CLAIM LIVES

PARIS, Sept. 7.—(AP.)—Storm, flood, snow and cold sketched a trail of death and destruction across most of Western Europe over the weekend.

Seven sailors were swept overboard from the Italian destroyer Da Recco on the way from Sardinia to Spezia, Italy, and two of them were lost. The other five were picked up in a life boat.

A laborer was killed and several were injured when wind blew over a wall on which they were working at Beinhagen, Germany. The Baltic coast was lashed with heavy gales that stranded the Hamburg freighter Uli.

France was beset with floods and freezing temperatures. A seaman was washed away and drowned in a storm near St. Nazaire and a farm laborer lost his life in a flooded stream near Cherbourg.

NEGRO KILLED BY POLICEMAN

A Negro who, according to police, resisted arrest by pointing a gun at Patrolman Andrew Purcell lies dead in the county morgue today while attaches there attempt to complete his tentative identification.

Letters in his pocket led authorities to believe he was F. J. Jackson, about 25 or 30. The letters were addressed to Jackson at 2171 Center avenue and at 23 Reed street.

The man and another Negro, police said, quarreled yesterday in the confectionery of John Beal, 2167 Center avenue. "Jackson" drew a revolver and fired one shot, attracting Patrolman Purcell.

Beal ejected both. Purcell, seeing the gun, ordered the man to drop it. Instead, police report, the man pointed at Purcell. The officer fired once.

FALLS CAUSE 3 DEATHS HERE

Three deaths caused by falls were on the coroner's records today.

Mrs. Ellen Pierce, 83, of 119 Margaret street, Mt. Oliver, died last night in St. Joseph's Hospital from heart attacks superinduced by a fall on the stairs of her home August 15.

John McGowan, 50, of 621 Fordham street, Brookline, stepped on a marble in his yard, slipped and struck his head on the pavement. He died soon afterwards.

Carl Helley, 40, of 1703 Arcena street, died in Marine Hospital from injuries received when he fell down the stairs in his home.

Veterans Indorse Reid and McNaugher

Judges Ambrose B. Reid and William H. McNaugher, candidates to succeed themselves to the Common Pleas Court bench, have been indorsed by the Ex-Service Men's Voting League but their names were inadvertently omitted in the previous report of the favored candidates.

The original article reported that the former service men had indorsed only Judges W. Heber Dithrich, John P. Egan and Raymond D. Evans for Common Pleas Court and Judge D. Paulson Foster and Benjamin Lencher for County Court.

Preacher Arrested As Slayer of Son

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 7.—(AP.)—The Rev. J. H. Williams, Rochelle (Ga.) minister, was held here today on a warrant charging him with the murder of his sailor son, Raford Grady Williams, 19. The minister was arrested at his home yesterday shortly before he was to have preached at a church there.

Officers said bullets found in the body corresponded in caliber to a gun in possession of the father. They said the father collected $2,500 life insurance after his son's death.

Guard Seeking Book Discovers Dynamite

Life Guard Ben Nowak made a surprising discovery yesterday afternoon when he set about to clean up his beach, No. 10, on the Monongahela wharf near the Tenth Street Bridge. Reaching under the bath house for a book Nowak drew out a small package which contained five sticks of dynamite. The dynamite is believed to have been stolen from a government barge nearby.

Death Notices 1

BERNHARD [illegible]

CREDE [illegible]

CURRAN [illegible]

DAWES [illegible]

DRESSING [illegible]

GANGLE [illegible]

HOUSTON [illegible]

JACOBS [illegible]

KASNITZ [illegible]

LITTLE [illegible]

McGOWAN [illegible]

PIERCE [illegible]

REUTER [illegible]

SARVER [illegible]

WIEGAND [illegible]

CEMETERY MEMORIALS (Made in Pittsburgh)

Fekels Granite and Marble Co.

MA 4015—4618 Penn Ave.

Florists 1-C

GIDAS Oakland Floral 3707 Forbes St.

Funeral Directors 1-D

FUNERALS COMPLETE FROM $135.00 UP

Grime & Blair

Lost and Found 2

Special Notices 3

KEEP A PIMPLY FACE AND SKIN

Dr. P. G. Beers

Male Help Wanted 4

LEARN A TRADE

COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

MEN

WANT AD CORNER

Fifth Ave. and Market St.

Visit Our New Downtown Office Located at Fifth Avenue and Market Street

BRANCH OFFICES

Where Ads Can Be Left at Cash Rates

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

MINIMUM SPACE FOR BREAKING COLUMNS

CASH RATES

CHARGE RATES

Male Help Wanted 4

YOUNG MARRIED MEN

Female Help Wanted 6

ATTENTION LADIES

2 COLORED LADIES

Male & Female 8

Work Wanted 10

Situations Wtd., Female 11

Sale, Business Opportun., 12

Wanted, Business 14

Dressmaking 15

Schools and Instructions

DON MARTIN

Business Schools 15-A

Grace Martin's School
"a school discriminate"
Secretarial for Adults
18th Floor Keenan Building
Pittsburgh, Pa.

SECRETARIAL BUSINESS AND ACADEMIC COURSES

GOODWIN SCHOOL

DAY or NIGHT SCHOOL

BOYD BUSINESS COLLEGE

Duff's Iron City College

CENTRAL PREPARATORY SCHOOL

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE AMONG THE GREATEST MONEY SAVERS KNOWN

School & Instructions 16

Be Sure of Your Future

Maison Frederic BEAUTY SCHOOL

Learn Beauty Culture

The school for the better trade. Day and Night Classes. Liberal terms Arranged. Free employment service to our graduates.

Griffith Beauty School

2nd Floor, 421 Penn Ave. Atlantic 4034

THE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL

Personals 18

BEDBUGS, ROACHES

Dentistry 18-A

DR. SIMPSON, 100 DIAMOND ST.

Liquor & Drug Treat. 18-B

Transfer & Storage 19

Long Distance Moving

HARMON & SONS

RENT A TRUCK

Coal, Oil & Wood 21

Landscape Gardeners 22

FOR RENT Furnished Rooms 30

Unfurnished Rooms 31

FOR RENT Housekeeping Rooms 32

Wanted, Boarders 33

Apartments 35

Apartments, East End 36

ABERDEEN & ABADAN

THE FRONTENAC

Apartments, South Hills 37

Apartments, North Side 38

City & Suburban 39

East End 40

OAKLAND COURT

North Side 41

South Hills 42

FOR RENT Furn. Apts. & Houses 45

Louellas Apt. Hotel

Apartment Hotels 45-A

Store Rooms 46

Business Properties 47

Offices & Desk Room 50

FOR SALE City & Suburban Houses 60

East End Houses 61

North Side Houses 62

Lots For Sale 71

Sale or Exchange 73

Mortgage Loans 81

C. C. McKALLIP & CO.

Miscellaneous 85

$17.95

Typewriters

Household Goods 86

RENT A WASHER 75c A WEEK Phone Atlantic 1716

Musical Instruments 87

Office & Store Equipm't 89

Miscellaneous Wanted 93

Automobiles For Sale 94

$575

Automobiles For Sale 94

$595

1930 PIERCE ARROW Brougham

Trucks & Tractors 95

Automobile Accessories 96

Wanted, Automobiles 97

Garage Construction 99

IDEAL BUILT

VERO CERTIFIED CONCRETE BLOCK

Dogs, Cats, Etc. 100

Legal Notices 107

Official—County 112

Proposals 108

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION

Official—Pittsburgh 111

CHAS. A. WALDSCHMIDT, Solicitor.

CHARLES F. LANG, Solicitor.

DISPLAY CLASSIFIED

Steam Heat With Gas at Lowest Cost

For One Room Or An Entire Building

Safe—Clean—Odorless

CLOW GAS STEAM HEATING CO.

A. J. PHILLIPS 509 Wabash Bldg. Court 4949

OUR HEATING ENGINEER WILL CALL AND QUOTE YOU OUR LOW PRICE

Loans on Furniture

Cash Loans

You Get the Full Amount of Your Loan in Cash! NO DEDUCTIONS!

Personal Finance Co.

PITTSBURGH

Cor. Sixth St. and Liberty Ave.

129 4th Ave., bet. Grant and Smithfield Sts.

NORTH SIDE

126 Federal St., cor. S. Diamond St.

BRADDOCK

858 Braddock Ave.

EAST LIBERTY

6124 Center Ave., cor. Penn Ave.

NEW KENSINGTON

Ninth St., Fifth Ave.

TARENTUM

327 E. Sixth Ave.

VANDERGRIFT

Cor. Grant and Farragut Aves.

Loans on Jewelry

LOANS 6% Yearly Interest

Diamond Loan Association

DANS Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Musical Instruments, Stocks, Bonds & Guns

AS LOW AS 1%

GALLINGERS

979 PENN AVE. ATLANTIC 8207

Auto Financing

LOANS MONEY

Notice AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

ESTABLISHED SINCE 1918

Automobile Finance Co.

If You Need Money Use Your Auto As Security.

PGH. FINANCE CORP.

LOANS ON AUTOS

CARS BOUGHT FOR CASH.

MONEY YOU NEED FOR ANY PURPOSE ON YOUR AUTOMOBILE

Motors Finance Co.

1212 KEENAN BLDG.

THIMBLE THEATER

STARRING POPEYE
Now Showing—"Bug Juice"
Tomorrow—"A Quick Manicure"

WELL ALL RIGHT THEN—HERES MUD IN YER EYE
DRINK MY FRIEND— DRINK AND FORGET YOUR TROUBLES
I DONT LIKE THE WAY YA SAID THAT—MAYBE I WILL FORGET ME TROUBLES— I TELLS YA I SMELLS SOMETHING LIKE CARBOLICAL ACID
YOU DO!!
SAP—WHY DID YOU PUT SO MUCH IN YOU COULD SMELL IT A MILE
TELL HIM HE SMELLS THE GARDENER SPRAYING BUGS ON THE FRUIT TREES
WHAT YOU SMELL IS THE GARDENER—HE'S SPRAYING CARBOLIC ACID ON THE APPLE BLOSSOMS
SO THAS
ARF! ARF!
HA! HA! GOOD JOKE ON YOU
I THOUGHT YA WAS TRYIN TO POISING ME
HA HA
WELL—HERE'S MUD IN YER EYE
CLINK
9-7

THIMBLE THEATER APPEARS IN COLORS IN A FULL PAGE EVERY SUNDAY IN THE SUN-TELEGRAPH.

Kabibble Kabaret—By Hershfield

Registered U. S. Patent office—Copyright, 1931, International Feature Service, Inc.

DEAR MR KABIBBLE,
DOES THE AVERAGE HUSBAND WANT HIS FREEDOM? =Z. R.

THAT'S WHAT SENDS HIM TO JAIL 9-7

POLLY AND HER PALS

A Hero to the Cause

By Sterrett

?
HOW COME THEY BRANG OFFICER ASHUR HOME IN A AMBULANCE? WAS HE IN A ACCIDENT?
YEAH! HE KNOCKED HISSELF OUT WITH HIS NIGHT STICK!
CLIFF STERRETT 9-7

THE NEBBS

Rudy—The Lion-Hearted

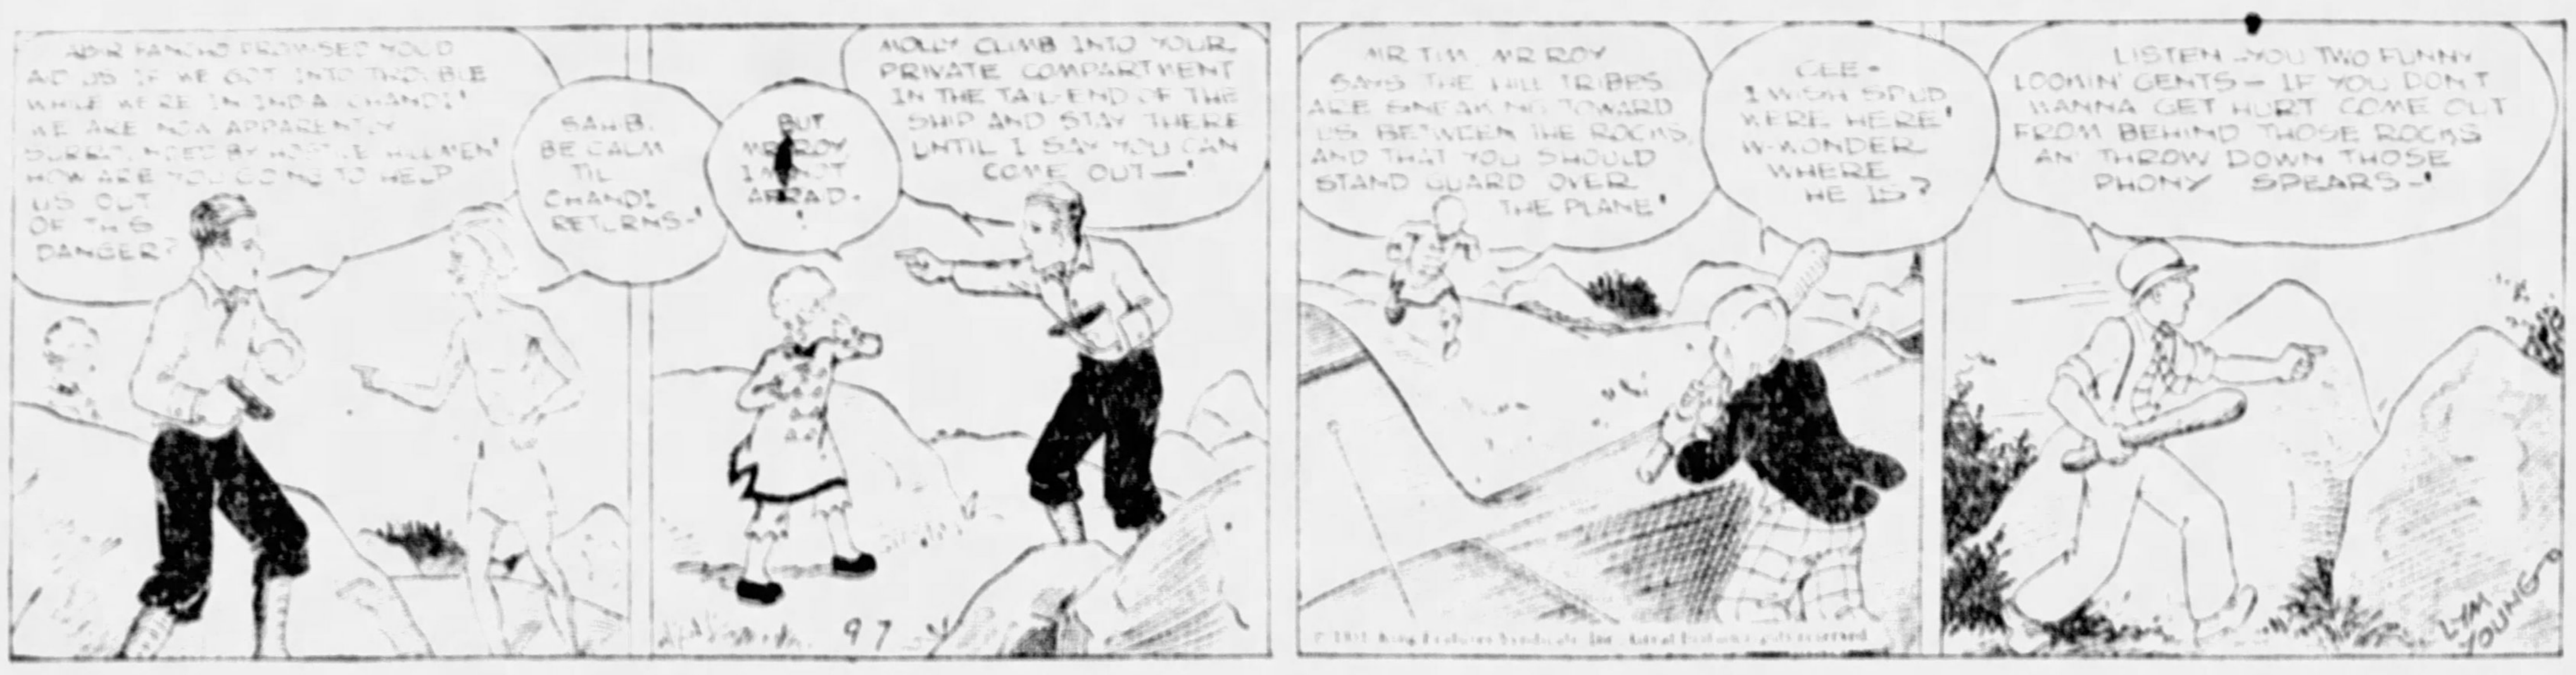
By Hess

RUDY WENT OVER TO THE JAIL TO TAKE A LOOK AT THE PRISONER AND SINCE THAT TIME HE HAS NOT BEEN OUT OF THE HOUSE—EVIDENTLY HE IS A BIT FRIGHTENED
THAT'S THE CHIEF OF THE KIDNAPPERS—I'D KNOW HIS VOICE IN A MILLION—I'LL BET HE CAME DOWN TO GET ME AGAIN—I WISH FLINT HAD LET HIM KEEP THAT MONEY
WHAT'S THE MATTER—DON'T YOU FEEL WELL? SHALL I SEND FOR THE DOCTOR?—IT MAY NOT BE AS BAD AS YOU LOOK
NO, I DON'T WANT A DOCTOR—IT'S MY NERVES, THAT'S ALL—SHOT TO PIECES—I'LL PULL MYSELF TOGETHER—JUST HAVE A BIT OF PATIENCE WITH ME.
THEY'LL NEVER KEEP THAT TOUGH GUY IN THAT JAIL—IT WAS BUILT FOR DISCRIMINATING GUESTS SO IF YOU DONT LIKE IT YOU CAN GO SOMEPLACE ELSE—I WISH I KNEW WHAT HIS PLANS ARE—WHERE HE IS, I DONT WANT TO BE.
W A CARLSON
9-7

TIM TYLER'S LUCK

The King of Clubs

By Lym Young



SAHIB FANCHO PROMISED YOUD ASSIST US IF WE GOT INTO TROUBLE WHILE WE'RE IN INDIA CHANDI! WE ARE NOW APPARENTLY SURROUNDED BY HOSTILE HILLMEN! HOW ARE YOU GOING TO HELP US OUT OF THIS DANGER?
SAHIB, BE CALM TIL CHANDI RETURNS!
BUT MR. ROY I'M NOT AFRAID.
MOLLY CLIMB INTO YOUR PRIVATE COMPARTMENT IN THE TAIL-END OF THE SHIP AND STAY THERE UNTIL I SAY YOU CAN COME OUT—
MR TIM, MR ROY SAYS THE HILL TRIBES ARE SNEAKING TOWARD US BETWEEN THE ROCKS AND THAT YOU SHOULD STAND GUARD OVER THE PLANE!
GEE—I WISH SPUD WERE HERE! I WONDER WHERE HE IS?
LISTEN—YOU TWO FUNNY LOOKIN' GENTS—IF YOU DON'T WANNA GET HURT COME OUT FROM BEHIND THOSE ROCKS AN' THROW DOWN THOSE PHONY SPEARS—LYM YOUNG
9-7

MASQUERADE -:- By Faith Baldwin

(Continued from Saturday.)

Tony Refuses to Tell Idea Of Plot to Fanchon

CHAPTER XXII.

Collin Carstairs postponed his sailing. It was perfectly evident to him that quietly, almost unobtrusively and, as it were, naturally, Cesare Gilli had become an intimate of the Carstairs household. He was a rather silent young man, who spoke of his past Florentine existence rarely, and then with a deep melancholy which his hearers, not in the least understanding, still respected. He had excellent manners, good looks and a great deal of charm. Mrs. Carstairs found herself liking him—with reservations. The reservations had to do with her niece. She found that, for some curious reason, the girl was not herself when Gilli was around. Had it not been for this strange effect upon his "old friend," Jennie Carstairs would have liked him far better. But as it was her long experience of Europe and Europeans created a little intangible doubt of this almost too correct and sometimes quite evasive young man in her mind. It was nothing she could lay her finger on and something she kept to herself even when Collin, losing no time in expressing his [illegible], informed his mother in no uncertain terms that [illegible] decidedly [illegible] about [illegible] new acquaintance. He too had noted Gilli's effect upon the girl he loved. He said to Jennie, "She's afraid of him."

"But," said Mrs. Carstairs, "that is nonsense. It is your imagination."

FORMS DISLIKE

"No, it is not. She is always on her guard when she talks with him, when any of us are there. Several times when they have been alone together I have come into the room suddenly. I've found them arguing . . . oh, not loudly, but still none too pleasantly, that was obvious." He was silent, remembering that on one such occasion he had heard Gilli say under his breath, "You'll play the game my way [illegible] all." Whatever it meant, it was pretty highhanded and Collin grew more and more to dislike the intruder.

Fanchon, tactfully questioned upon her knowledge of him, said evasively that she had met him some years ago, that he had turned up in San Francisco and had been very kind to her there. She had not attempted to establish the fiction that her friendship with him dated from Hawaiian experiences. Tony, she knew, had never been to Hawaii and there was no sense in making things more difficult than they already were.

Evelyn and her present plight was very much on her mind and heart. On several occasions she had conquered her fear and horror of seeing the girl and had begged Tony to let her do so. But he refused.

"You will only upset yourself and her," he had said. "There is really nothing to be gained."

She was forced to agree with him.

She lived in a constant state of fear concerning his unknown next move. For the present he seemed content to drop in for tea, to be asked to dinner, to join them at the opera or at the theater or at a supper club. To be introduced to various of the Carstairs circle, with whom he became very popular. He was something new; he was, to all intents and purposes, vouched for, and he was—he must be—eligible. He dressed well, appeared to have money, and now and then returned the invitations given to him by small, perfectly correct little parties. The girls found him a "knockout," the men agreed that he was a good sport.

CALLS FOR FANCHON

But Fanchon knew he was marking time.

One day in early winter she had a letter from him. She opened it with a sinking heart and read the few lines it contained.

"I must see you alone," it began without preamble. "Please arrange a time. I spoke the other day of wishing to visit the Metropolitan Museum. Unless I hear from you I will call for you tomorrow at 3."

He had moved to a small good hotel in New York and was living there for the time being. To Fanchon's inquiries [illegible] Evelyn—" he answered categorically that she was still in Brooklyn and was cared for. He saw her often.

On the following day he called for Fanchon and they walked the short way from the apartment to the museum together. They went into one of the less frequented rooms, empty, as it happened, upon that occasion, save for the uniformed guard near the door, leaning his arm on a case containing ancient Japanese swords. Tony came to the point.

"There is to be a masquerade ball," he said, "at Mrs. Van Suydam's. In two weeks. I have read it. You will get me an invitation. You will persuade Mrs. Carstairs to wear the emeralds she keeps, so wisely, in a safe deposit vault."

"Tony, what are you planning?" Fanchon whispered, white.

"You need not know, need have," he said, "no further responsibility."

She said flatly, "I won't do it."

UNSPOKEN THREATS

"I think you will. After this, if I am successful, you will not be troubled with me any longer. Unless you care to be. You would be wiser if you decided to care. To come with me. I doubt very much if we would ever be found. And perhaps we would not be looked for, Fanchon, for after all, the Carstairs would not care to make a scandal in their own family. Yes, I think you would be very wise to come away with me. Otherwise, you may be questioned closely. Otherwise a number of unpleasant things might happen."

She realized that although he was apparently giving her a choice he was in reality leaving her none. There was much unspoken threat in his words. If she did not—go away with him—it would mean exposure and it would mean perhaps something dreadful happening to Evelyn.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1931, by Faith Baldwin. [illegible] King Features Synd., Inc.)

Synopsis

Lovely Fanchon Meredith is wanted by the San Francisco police in connection with a murder committed by her sweetheart, "Tony." Fanchon did not know he was a gunman. She escapes by airplane under the name of "Smith." Aboard is Evelyn Howard, whom Fanchon had met on a voyage from Hawaii. Evelyn is going to New York to live with her aunt, the wealthy Mrs. Carstairs, whom she never saw. The plane crashes and Fanchon is the only survivor. To get away from Tony and the past she goes to the Carstairs home as "Evelyn." A strong bond of affection grows between Mrs. Carstairs and her "niece." Collin Carstairs, the son, is at first antagonistic because of his "cousin's" Hawaiian escapades and her self-righteous attitude when his mother offered aid, but Fanchon's sincerity overcomes his objections. They fall in love. After a happy summer at Southampton Fanchon makes her debut in New York. Collin, though realizing their relationship is a barrier, cannot resist professing his love. Fanchon cannot acknowledge hers without revealing her identity. A few days later a threatening note comes from Tony. She visits him and repulses his advances. Tony informs Fanchon that Evelyn is alive, but has lost her memory. He threatens to expose Fanchon unless she introduces him to Mrs. Carstairs as "Cesare Gilli." Two days later Tony calls at the Carstairs home.

Now Go On

SOME ODD FACTS

Oil production in [illegible] dropped to 5,206,000 barrels during the first 11 months of 1930, a drop of more than 500,000 barrels from the same period in 1929.

An average of 600 boxes of apples to the acre were picked on the Curtis DeBorde farm, near Spokane, Wash., this season.

Aberdeen, S. D., will observe its fiftieth anniversary next summer.

A loaf of bread baked in Egypt 3,000 years ago is on exhibition at the botany department of the Field Museum, Chicago.

Homer Vincent, a farmer of Letts, Ia., has attended the Iowa State College short course every year for the past 30 years.

A single boll weevil may produce 12,500,000 descendants in one season if parasites and man do not interfere.

Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., now 75 years old, has had only four presidents.

More than half the nation's supply of cast iron pipe is made in Birmingham, Ala.

Imperial Valley (Cal.) poultry raisers are eliminating hen houses and keeping flocks in the open 24 hours a day. Artificial shade is provided for the trap nests, feed hoppers and water containers.

Frog farming clubs have been organized in Hawaii by the Department of Agriculture to supply the demand for frog legs.

A pueblo containing 500 rooms is now included in the Aztec ruins national monument in New Mexico.

Indebtedness of Montana counties has been reduced $10,000 or about 40 per cent since 1923.

Germany and Great Britain have ranked as America's best textile customers for 1929 and 1930.

Insects in North Carolina cause an annual damage of more than $40,000,000 to crops.

Missouri women are campaigning for a law permitting them to serve on juries.

Alabama farmers spend between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 annually for fertilizer.

DAILY SHORT STORY

No Clues

(All names of characters in this story are fictitious.)

Sleuth Shields Woman Who Committed Murder

Detective Tom Stacey came in to report for duty, followed by Detective Halloran. They sat down and picked up afternoon papers.

Detective Sergeant Marston came in from below stairs where he had been to confer with Deputy Commission Barlow.

"I see," Stacey remarked, "that Parsons picked up Nitalli."

"Yeh. Good work," Marston answered.

"Yeah? Luck, just a streak of luck," Halloran growled. He has been after Nitalli himself for three days.

"You'll go up and relieve Johnson on the Blake Company job, Stacey," Sergeant Marston ordered.

Detective Stacey yawned and stood up to stretch. Marston was answering his desk 'phone and making notes. Stacey was starting out. "Wait a minute, Stacey," Marston said. He turned to the telephone.

Detective Stacey resumed his seat and picked up the paper again.

"Yeh," Marston said over the telephone. "Eighty-fourth—yeh. I got the address. Yeh, seven G. John Ingalls—be right up."

"All right, let's go, Stacey," Marston said.

"May be—what's up?"

"Killing—party name's John Ingalls—something queer about it, they said."

ARRIVE AT SCENE

"They always think it's queer if the guy who did it ain't there to confess," Stacey commented.

They went down and got into a little unmarked P. D. roadster. They talked of sundry things, for this was all in a day's work. A patrolman sat outside the apartment door and let them in. Marston was behind Stacey, who turned, when in the handsome private foyer, to a door at the left.

"Down here," called out Police Sergt. Larson.

They turned and went to the right, to a large living room. Larson was sitting in an overstuffed chair, grinning over a volume of spicy cartoons. A quilted bedspread lay over the body on the floor near the gas log fireplace.

"Doc's on his way," he said.

Marston went over and lifted the covering. Stacey was beside him.

"He was facing it," Marston observed.

"Looks like it," Stacey agreed. He stared about the big room. "This bird had plenty coin—dumps like these cost more in rent than we make in a year."

"What do you know?" Marston asked Larson.

"House superintendent phoned the station. Woman who does the work here found him."

"What sort of a woman?"

"Fifty, widow, frowsy. Nothing there."

"Where's his family?"

"Bachelor. Been here three years."

"See what you can see, Stacey," Marston ordered.

SEEK INFORMATION

Detective Stacey began a careful observation.

"This room's pretty slick. If the woman didn't slick it up then he must have been out last night," Stacey said. He turned to Sergt. Larson. "How about your door man, switchboard girl and elevator boy?" he asked.

"Doorman didn't notice anything. No one phoned up and night elevator boy said he came home alone around 3."

"Not so good," Marston muttered, having listened for the reply. "Was he sober?"

"Boy says he wasn't very drunk, about as usual."

Stacey went up to the front windows. "No chance for anyone to step across on window sills," he said.

"Go up and see if someone might have come down with rope or scaling ladder from the window above," ordered Marston.

Detective Stacey was thorough. That was why Sergt. Marston had taken him along. He was better on these cases than on going out to pick up parties wanted at headquarters.

While he was making a cursory examination Stacey began a search in the bedroom.

"Flock of girls' pictures and some letters, and here's his gat."

Stacey placed them on the livingroom table.

"Done with a powerful gun, all right, no powder burns and here's the pill," the medical examiner said. He indicated a dark lump on the dead man's back. "Saves probing," he added as he deftly removed the bullet.

"Regulation size. The party who bumped him sure stood mightily close but probably just too far away for powder burns."

Detective Stacey glanced at the bullet and continued his search.

"The woman probably didn't go into the bedroom after she found him—plenty of muss there, half a bottle of rye, a glass and a dozen cigaret butts, also some magazines, but nothing to indicate that he had another person with him," Stacey reported. He turned to Larson and asked, "Who is this woman—the housekeeper? Who questioned her?"

"Name's Mrs. Gorman. She's down in the superintendent's office now."

"If she worked for him long she'll know something. Have her sent up," Sergt. Marston said, understanding Stacey's reasoning. To Stacey he said, "You question her, you've a way with you in that line."

Police Sergt. Lawson came up with Mrs. Gorman. The medical examiner had covered the body and was writing a brief report before telephoning for the morgue car.

"Sit down, Mrs. Gorman," Stacey said in a kindly voice. Marston pretended to be busy at something. Lawson apparently went back to his book, but was also listening keenly. The medical examiner telephoned in a low voice and departed.

Mrs. Gorman did not appear to be upset very much.

"What kind of a man was he?" Stacey asked.

"Good enough to work for."

"I mean, was he quiet and decent or sporty? Was he mixed up with a lot of women?"

"He knew a lot of women, I guess—"

"Don't guess," Stacey said, sharply.

WOMAN QUESTIONED

"Are you givin' me a third degree? Do you think I did it?" Mrs. Gorman demanded angrily.

"I'm merely asking questions. Someone did it. He didn't kill himself and then go and put his gun in the bedroom. If he mixed up with women he might have got some man sore, that's what I'm trying to find out. Did you ever see him with women here?"

"Twice. I heard voices in his bedroom. He stuck his head out and told me to go make coffee. Both times I took a peek and saw him sneaking a woman out. I couldn't see them well. They looked young. He got a lot of telephone calls from women. That's all I know, except that he had heaps of photographs of women, mostly young-lookin' and sporty."

"Ever see any men visitors?"

"Once—when he thought he got some bad hooch and sent for a doctor."

"I mean visitors," Stacey said, crossly.

"Th' doctor was payin' a professional visit. I'm telling you everything I know."

"How did he act to you?"

"To me? How would he act to a decent and homely old woman? Do you think he'd try to make love to the likes of me?"

"Did he get any threatening letters?"

"I never seen any of his letters."

"What? Don't tell me that! He kept plenty of letters loose on the top of his chifforobe. You cleaned up—of course you saw his letters!"

"I'm no snoop—I never seen any of his letters. They was in envelopes and I seen only th' envelopes. And don't try to be snappin' my head off. Gawd knows I'm upset enough as it is, havin' lost a good steady job and jobs scarce as morality in this town."

"Don't you try to be funny either, Mrs. Gorman, this is serious. Why couldn't you have said that you never read his letters? Now do you know of any man or woman who had reason to kill him?"

"How should I know?"

"Do you?" Stacey thundered at her.

"I do not. I—oh my Gawd, don't talk like that to me. Is it my fault the poor man's dead?"

"That's what I want to find out. Did you touch him when you found him?"

Mrs. Gorman shivered and shook her head.

"I screamed and run out an' yelled for John."

"Who is John?"

"Th' janitor who opens th' door for me."

"Where do you live? Have you got any family?"

She told him where she lived. "I've a boy in th' West some place. Last I heard from him he was workin' in a copper mine, and I've a married daughter—that's all now. I'm a widow," she explained.

There was little more to be asked of her and she was told to go home and to come to headquarters if she was sent for.

"I'll be spendin' most of my time huntin' a job," she said.

"Get the names of these dames from th' photographers who made the pictures, Stacey, and get after all of them. Some of them are sure to be married," Marston ordered.

"I'll dig up something," Stacey said. "I'm going to have some eats and start in now."

Stacey went directly to the home of Mrs. Gorman.

DETECTIVE'S SISTER

"Mary," he said, "you had me sweating, with that hole in your dress and me with the piece torn out of it in my pocket. Give me everything. Burn that dress."

Mrs. Gorman handed over to Stacey his revolver.

"The photograph," he ordered.

"I can't. 'Tis all I've got of Nora."

"Give it to me, Mary—you can't afford to keep it. Someone might recognize her as one of the girls who went around with Ingalls. His people have stacks of money, and they'll spend plenty to find out who did the job. That photo might give you away."

"Gawd!" she sobbed, handing over the photograph of the pretty little girl. "Now I've nothing left of my baby."

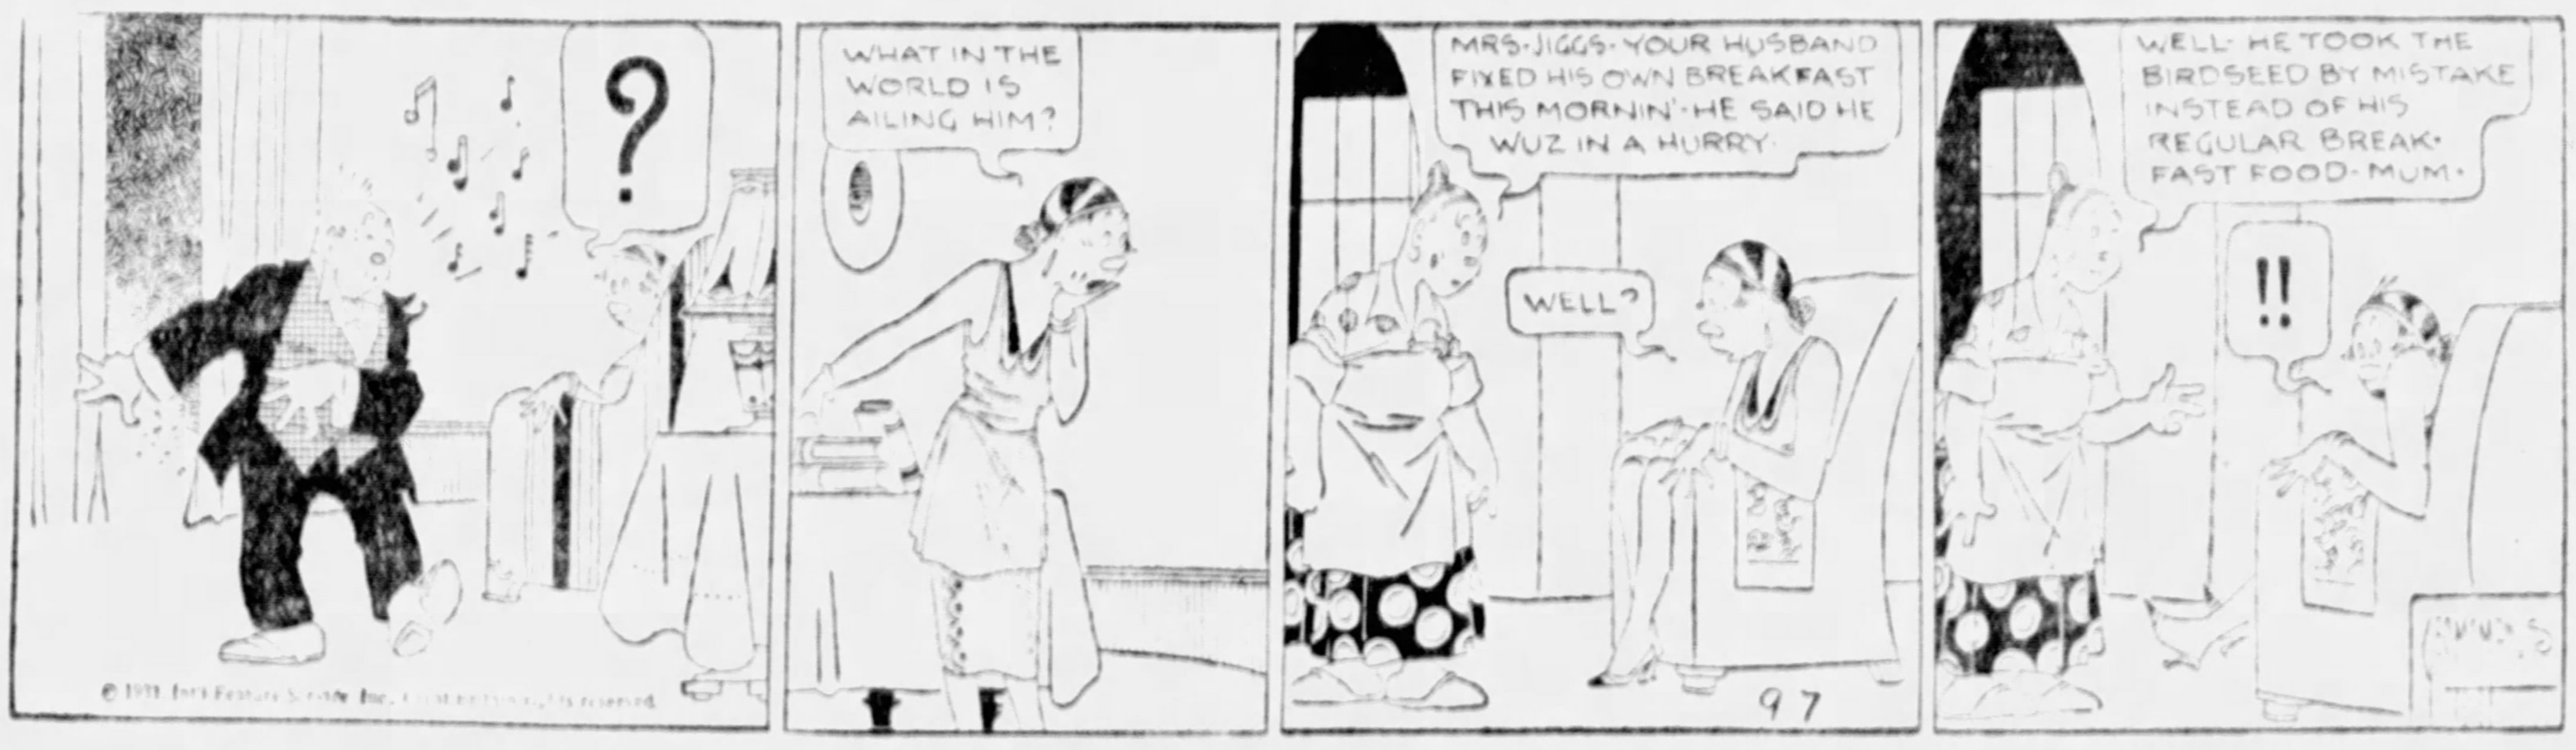
"Buck up, Mary," Detective Stacey said, and he kissed his sister tenderly.

(Copyright, 1931, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

BRINGING UP FATHER

The Appetite of a Bird

By McManus



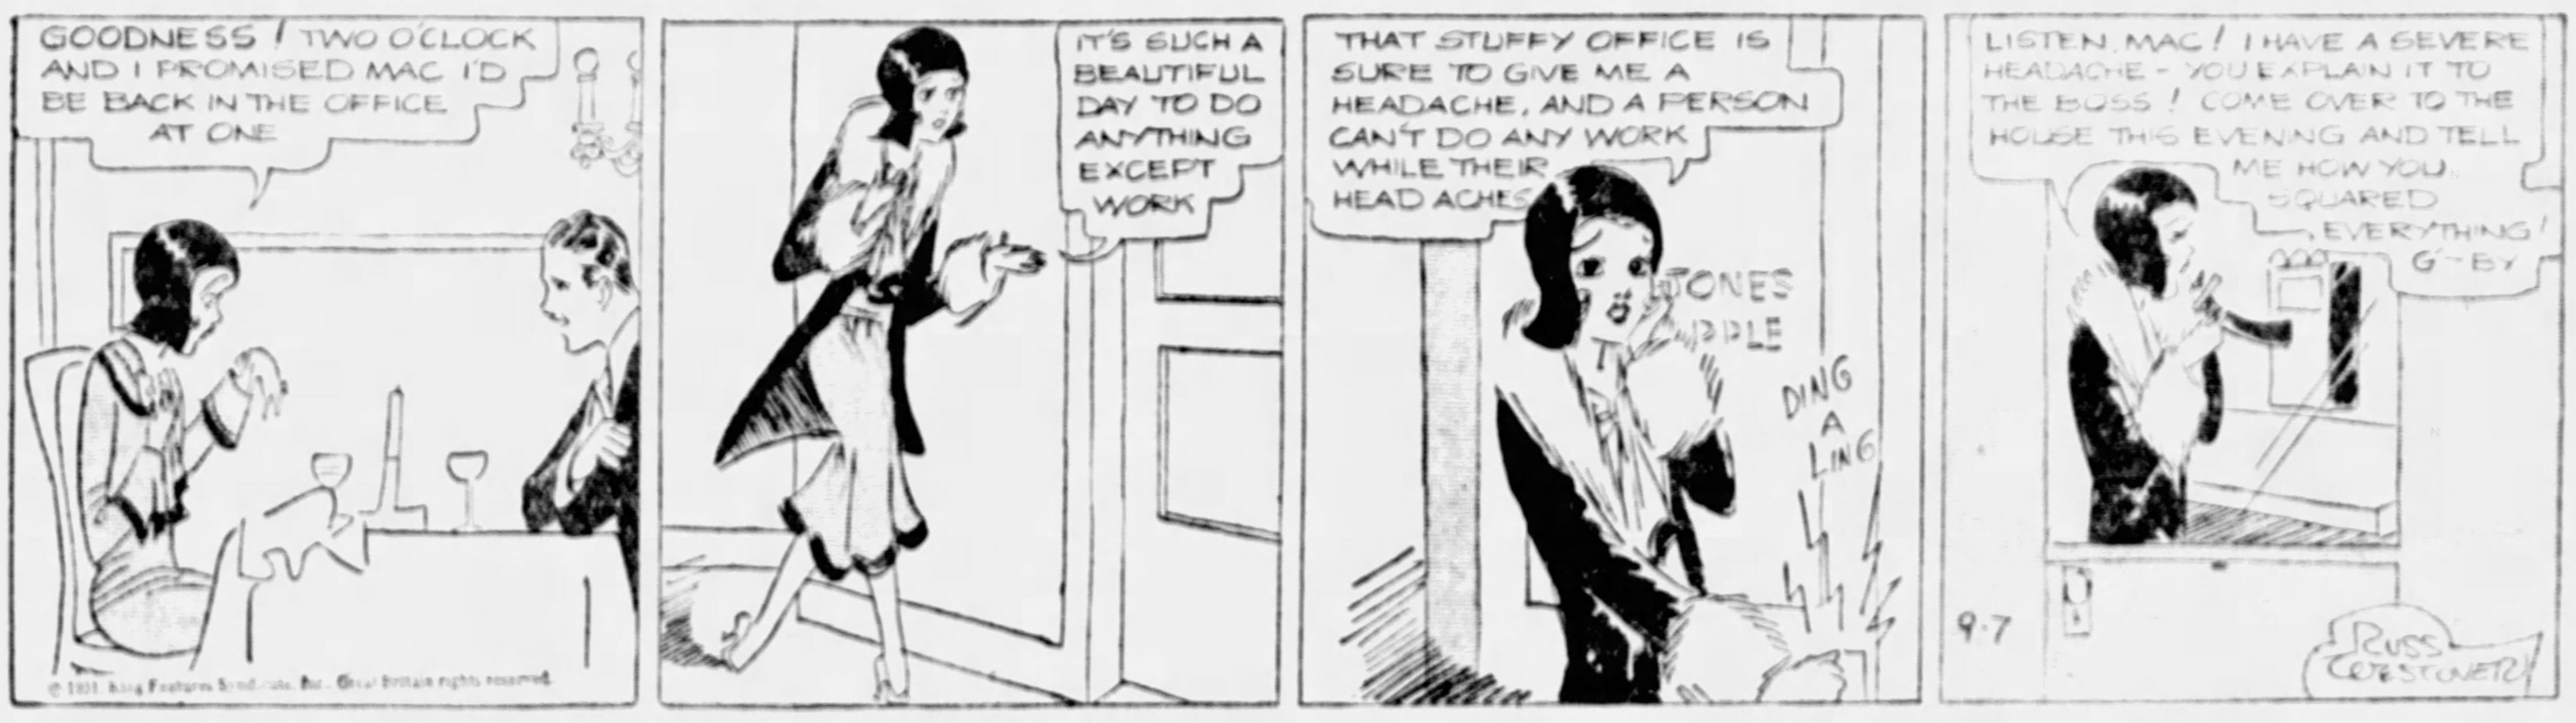
?
WHAT IN THE WORLD IS AILING HIM?
MRS. JIGGS - YOUR HUSBAND FIXED HIS OWN BREAKFAST THIS MORNIN' - HE SAID HE WUZ IN A HURRY.
WELL?
WELL - HE TOOK THE BIRDSEED BY MISTAKE INSTEAD OF HIS REGULAR BREAKFAST FOOD - MUM.
!!
9 7
McMANUS

© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

TILLIE THE TOILER

A Painful Excuse

By Westover



GOODNESS! TWO O'CLOCK AND I PROMISED MAC I'D BE BACK IN THE OFFICE AT ONE
IT'S SUCH A BEAUTIFUL DAY TO DO ANYTHING EXCEPT WORK
THAT STUFFY OFFICE IS SURE TO GIVE ME A HEADACHE, AND A PERSON CAN'T DO ANY WORK WHILE THEIR HEAD ACHES
JONES PUDDLE
DING A LING
LISTEN, MAC! I HAVE A SEVERE HEADACHE - YOU EXPLAIN IT TO THE BOSS! COME OVER TO THE HOUSE THIS EVENING AND TELL ME HOW YOU SQUARED EVERYTHING! G'-BY 9·7
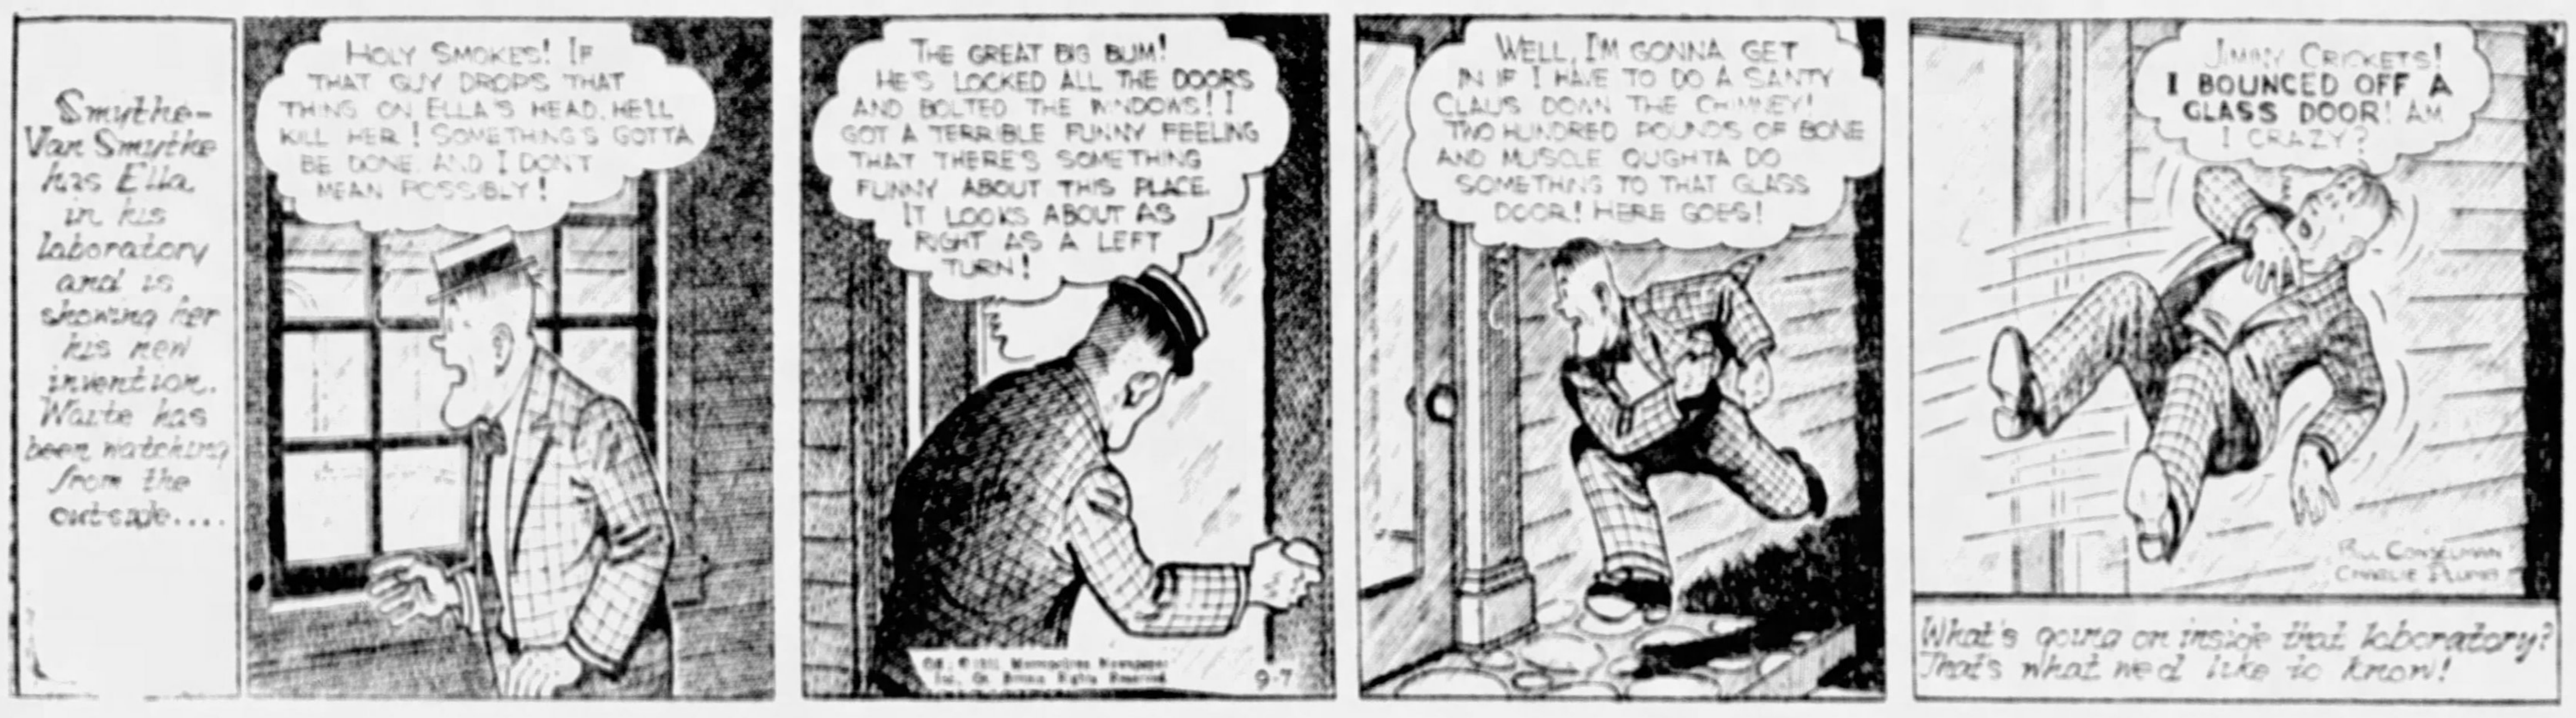
RUSS WESTOVER

© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

ELLA CINDERS

Mysterious Goings-On

By Plumb and Conselman

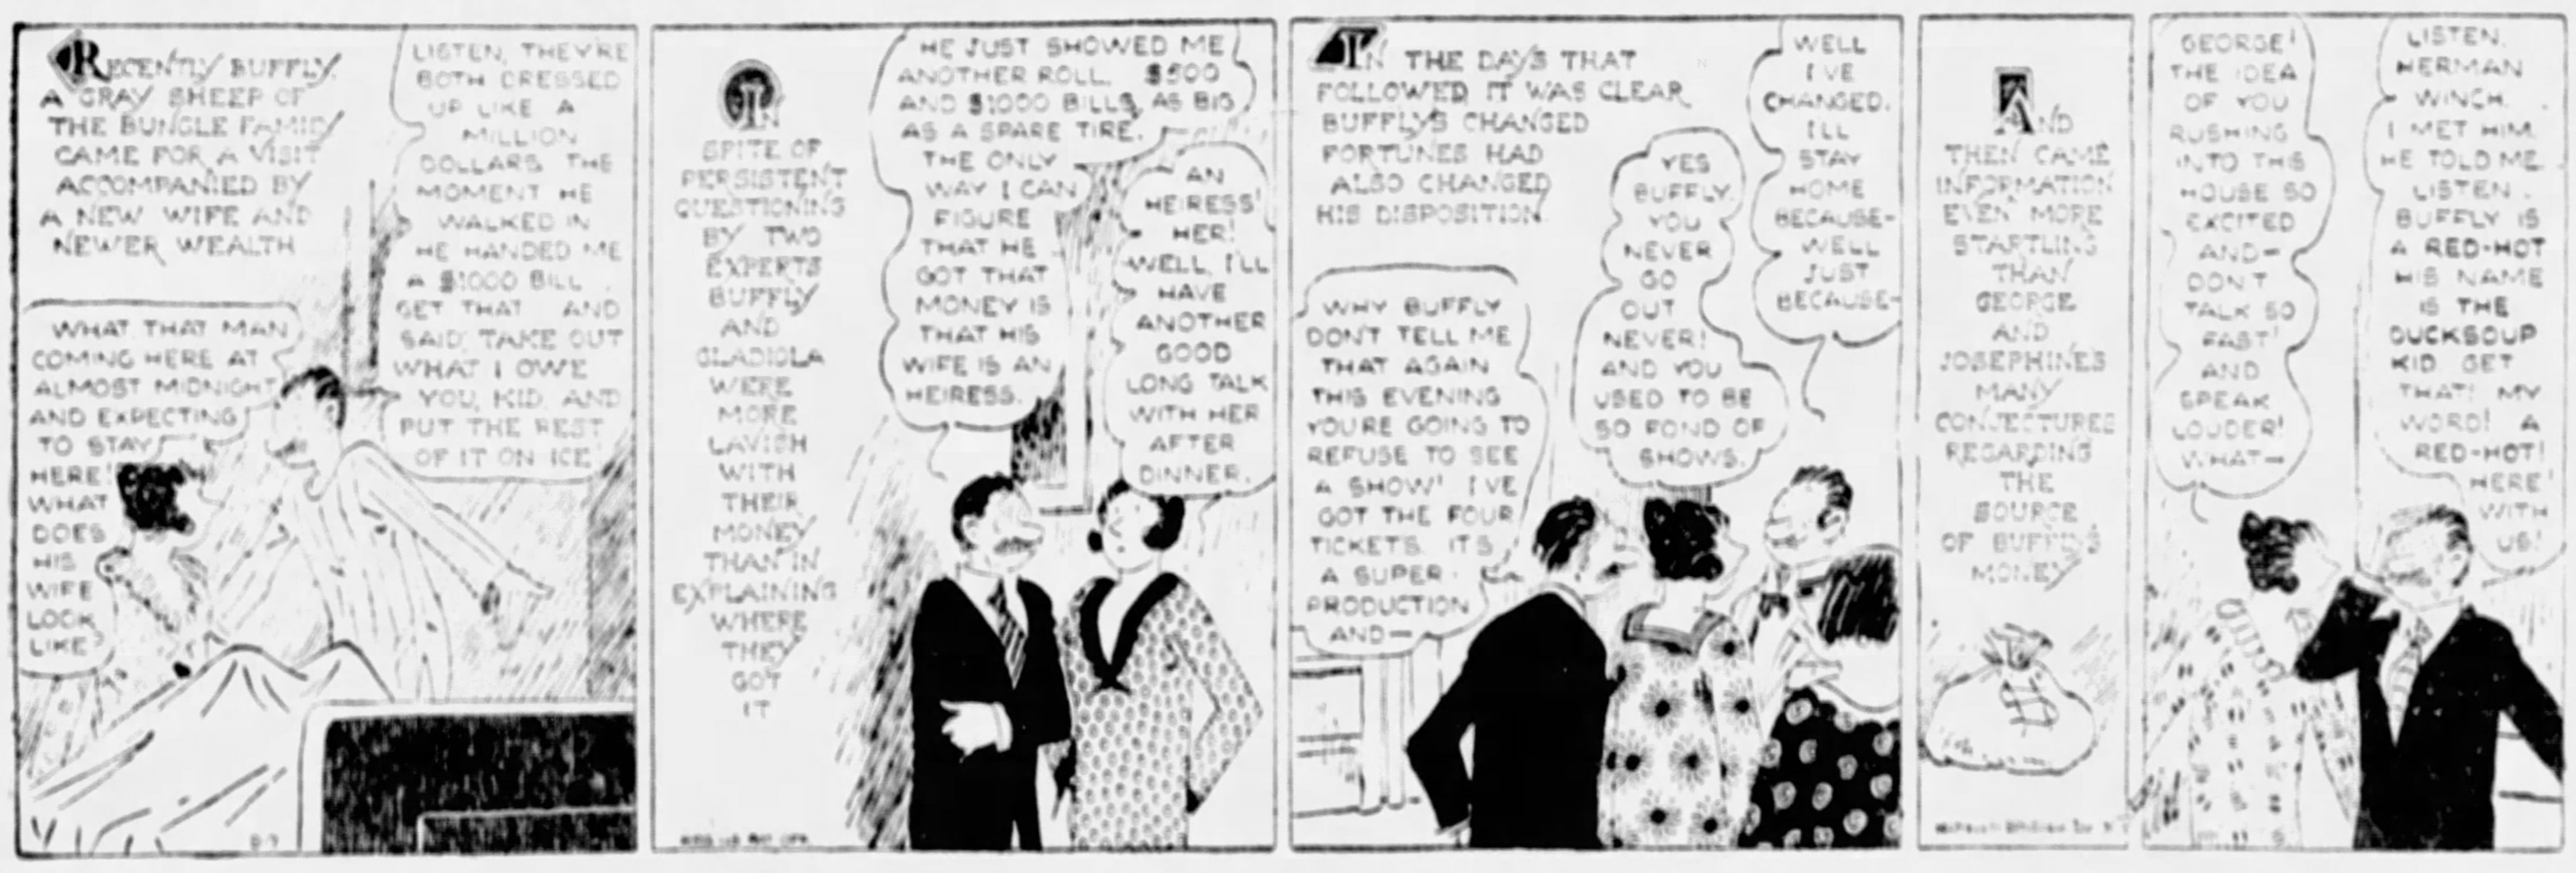


Smythe-Van Smythe has Ella in his laboratory and is showing her his new invention. Waite has been watching from the outside....
HOLY SMOKES! IF THAT GUY DROPS THAT THING ON ELLA'S HEAD, HE'LL KILL HER! SOMETHING'S GOTTA BE DONE, AND I DON'T MEAN POSSIBLY!
THE GREAT BIG BUM! HE'S LOCKED ALL THE DOORS AND BOLTED THE WINDOWS!! I GOT A TERRIBLE FUNNY FEELING THAT THERE'S SOMETHING FUNNY ABOUT THIS PLACE. IT LOOKS ABOUT AS RIGHT AS A LEFT TURN!
9-7
WELL, I'M GONNA GET IN IF I HAVE TO DO A SANTY CLAUS DOWN THE CHIMNEY! TWO HUNDRED POUNDS OF BONE AND MUSCLE OUGHTA DO SOMETHING TO THAT GLASS DOOR! HERE GOES!
JIMINY CRICKETS! I BOUNCED OFF A GLASS DOOR! AM I CRAZY?
BILL CONSELMAN CHARLIE PLUMB
What's going on inside that laboratory? That's what we'd like to know!

THE BUNGLE FAMILY

Then and Now

By Tuthill



RECENTLY BUFFLY, A GRAY SHEEP OF THE BUNGLE FAMILY, CAME FOR A VISIT ACCOMPANIED BY A NEW WIFE AND NEWER WEALTH
WHAT THAT MAN COMING HERE AT ALMOST MIDNIGHT AND EXPECTING TO STAY HERE! WHAT DOES HIS WIFE LOOK LIKE
LISTEN, THEY'RE BOTH DRESSED UP LIKE A MILLION DOLLARS. THE MOMENT HE WALKED IN HE HANDED ME A $1000 BILL GET THAT AND SAID, TAKE OUT WHAT I OWE YOU, KID, AND PUT THE REST OF IT ON ICE
9-7
IN SPITE OF PERSISTENT QUESTIONING BY TWO EXPERTS BUFFLY AND GLADIOLA WERE MORE LAVISH WITH THEIR MONEY THAN IN EXPLAINING WHERE THEY GOT IT
HE JUST SHOWED ME ANOTHER ROLL. $500 AND $1000 BILLS, AS BIG AS A SPARE TIRE. THE ONLY WAY I CAN FIGURE THAT HE GOT THAT MONEY IS THAT HIS WIFE IS AN HEIRESS.
AN HEIRESS! HER! WELL, I'LL HAVE ANOTHER GOOD LONG TALK WITH HER AFTER DINNER.
IN THE DAYS THAT FOLLOWED IT WAS CLEAR BUFFLY'S CHANGED FORTUNES HAD ALSO CHANGED HIS DISPOSITION
WHY BUFFLY DON'T TELL ME THAT AGAIN THIS EVENING YOU'RE GOING TO REFUSE TO SEE A SHOW! I'VE GOT THE FOUR TICKETS. IT'S A SUPER PRODUCTION AND—
YES BUFFLY, YOU NEVER GO OUT NEVER! AND YOU USED TO BE SO FOND OF SHOWS.
WELL I'VE CHANGED. I'LL STAY HOME BECAUSE—WELL JUST BECAUSE—
AND THEN CAME INFORMATION EVEN MORE STARTLING THAN GEORGE AND JOSEPHINE'S MANY CONJECTURES REGARDING THE SOURCE OF BUFFLY'S MONEY
GEORGE! THE IDEA OF YOU RUSHING INTO THIS HOUSE SO EXCITED AND—DON'T TALK SO FAST! AND SPEAK LOUDER! WHAT—LISTEN, HERMAN WINCH, I MET HIM. HE TOLD ME. LISTEN. BUFFLY IS A RED-HOT. HIS NAME IS THE DUCKSOUP KID. GET THAT! MY WORD! A RED-HOT! HERE! WITH US!

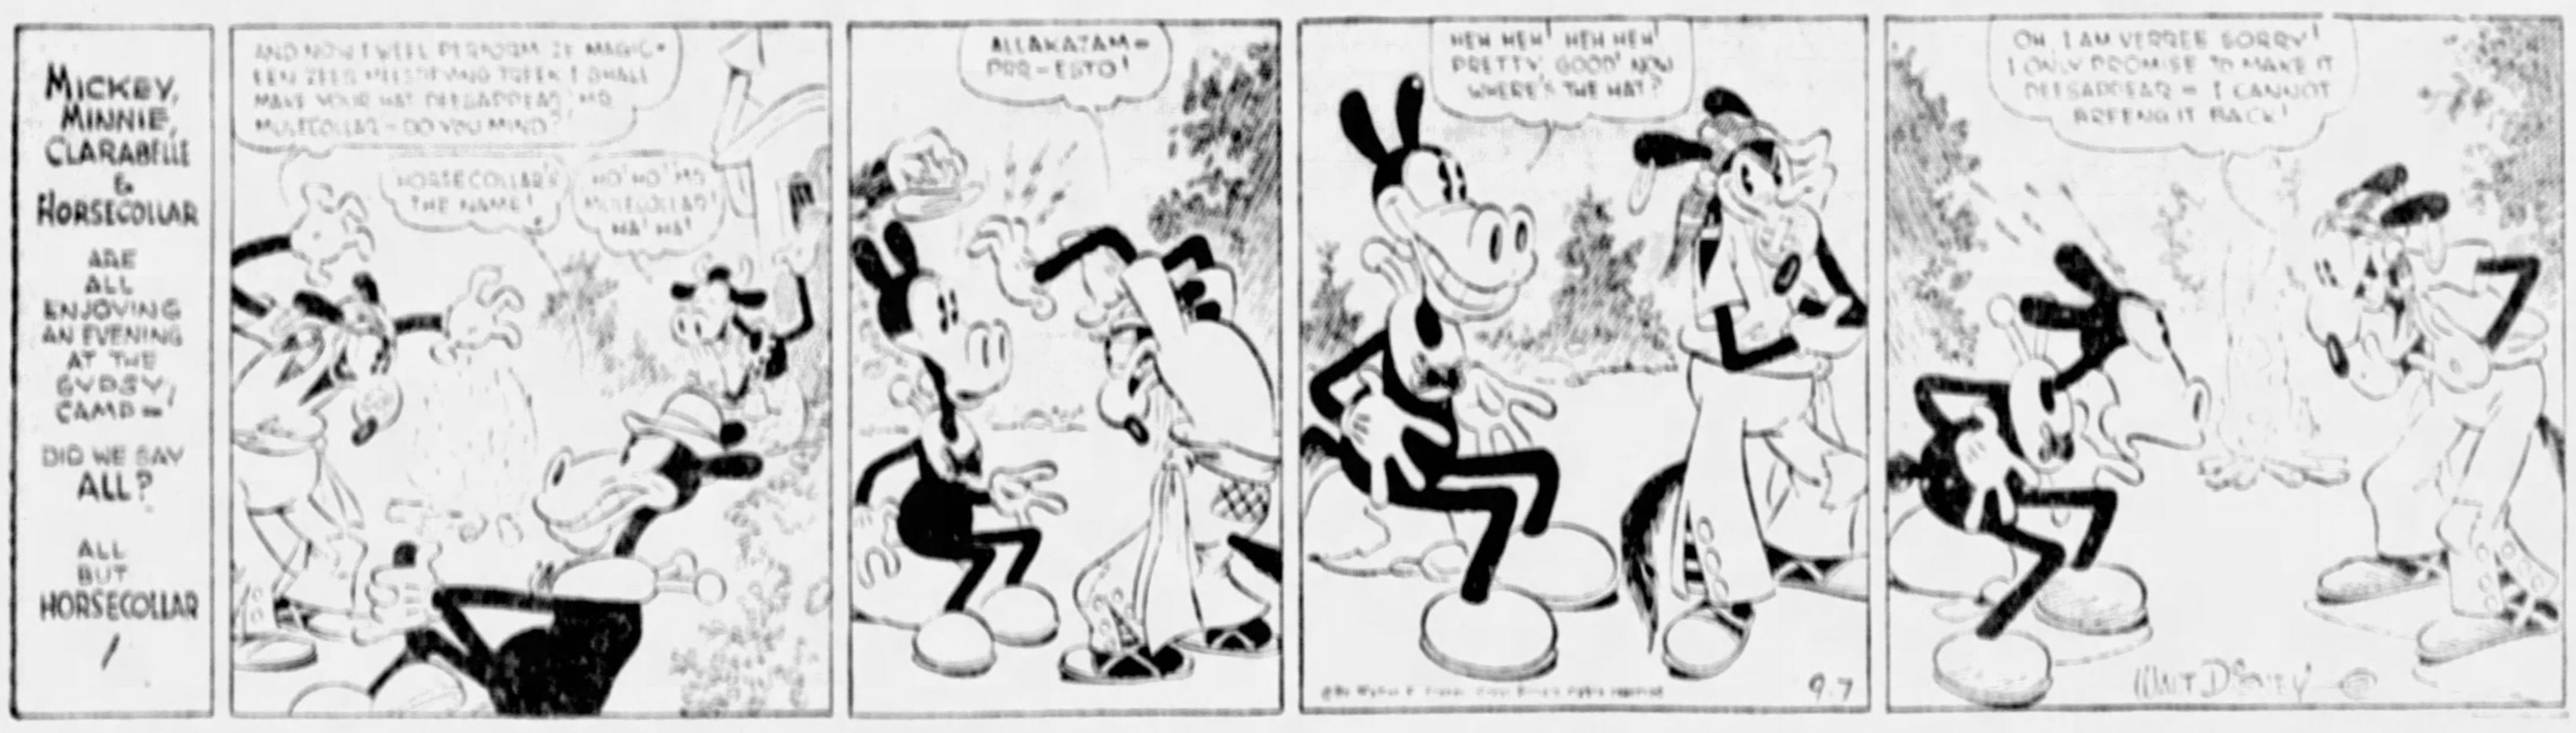
MICKEY MOUSE

Missing Millinery

By Disney

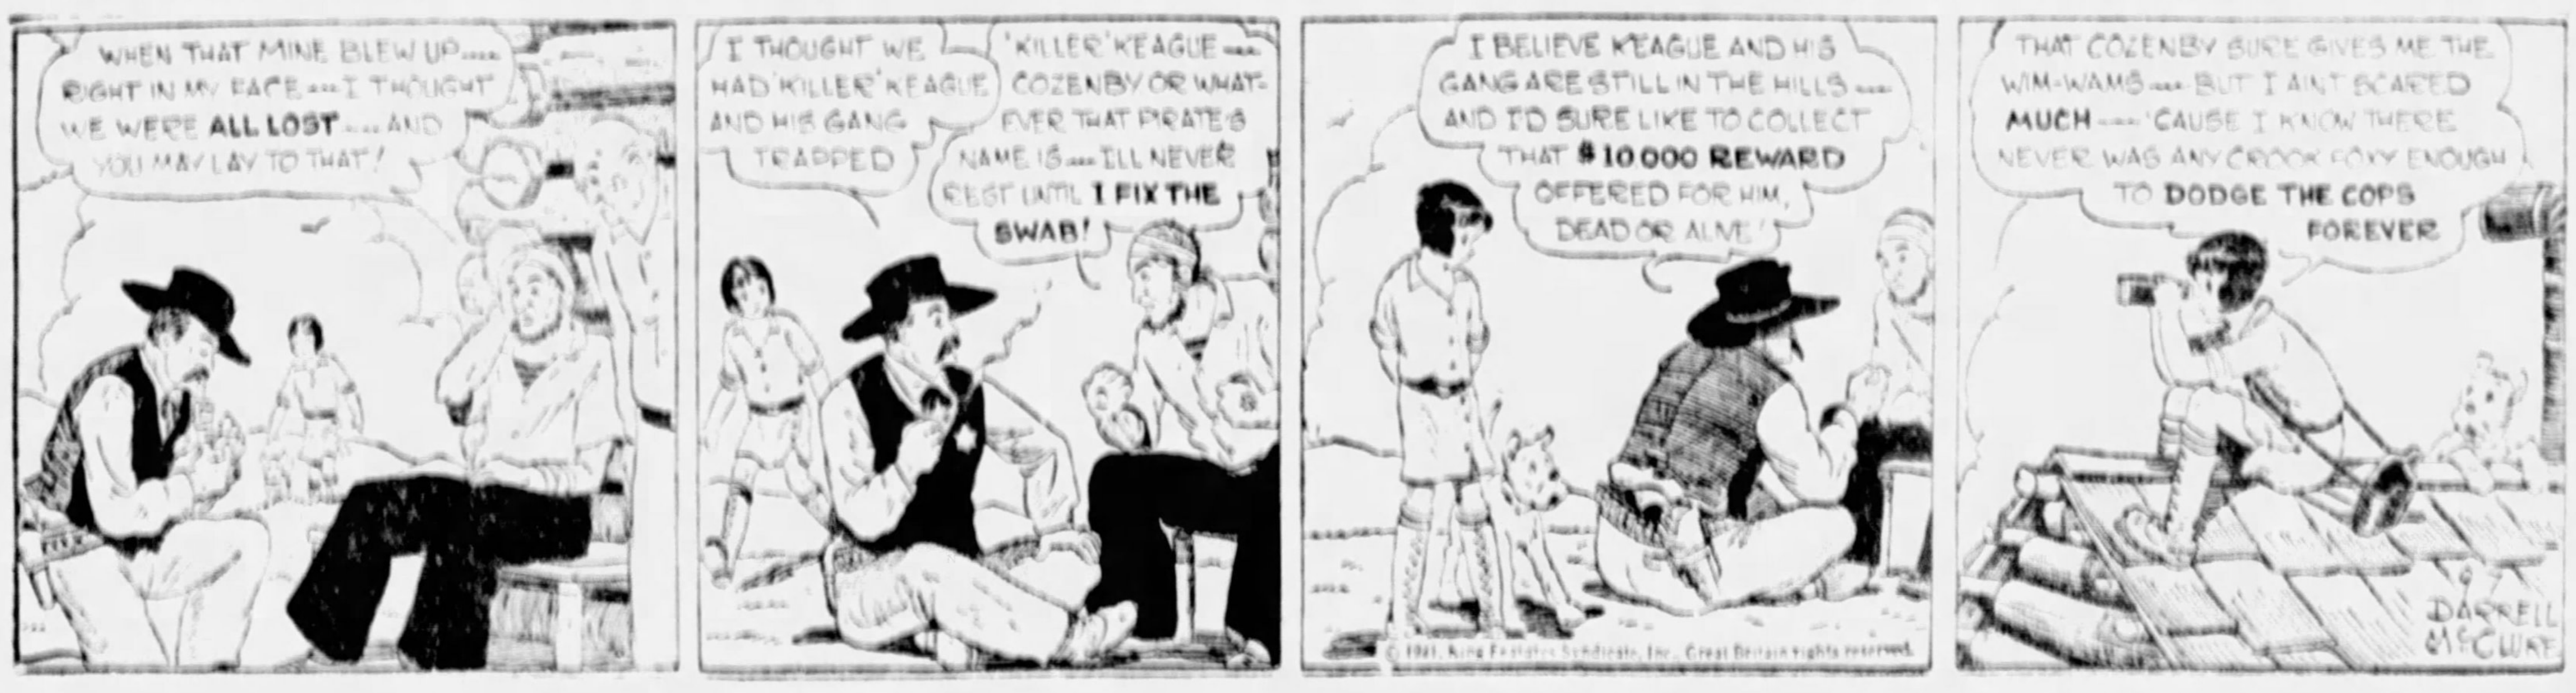


MICKEY, MINNIE, CLARABELLE & HORSECOLLAR ARE ALL ENJOYING AN EVENING AT THE GYPSY CAMP— DID WE SAY ALL? ALL BUT HORSECOLLAR!
AND NOW I WEEL PERFORM ZE MAGIC-KEN ZEES MISTERIOUS TREEK. I SHALL MAKE YOUR HAT DEESAPPEAR, MR. MULECOLLAR—DO YOU MIND?
HORSECOLLAR'S THE NAME!
HO! HO! MR. MULECOLLAR! HA! HA!
ALLAKATAM—PRR—ESTO!
HEH HEH! HEH HEH! PRETTY GOOD! NOW WHERE'S THE HAT?
9-7
OH, I AM VERREE SORRY! I ONLY PROMISE TO MAKE IT DEESAPPEAR—I CANNOT BREENG IT BACK!
WALT DISNEY

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Such Popularity Must Be Deserved

By Walsh



WHEN THAT MINE BLEW UP.... RIGHT IN MY FACE.... I THOUGHT WE WERE ALL LOST.... AND YOU MAY LAY TO THAT!
I THOUGHT WE HAD 'KILLER' KEAGUE AND HIS GANG TRAPPED
'KILLER' KEAGUE.... COZENBY OR WHAT-EVER THAT PIRATE'S NAME IS.... I'LL NEVER REST UNTIL I FIX THE SWAB!
I BELIEVE KEAGUE AND HIS GANG ARE STILL IN THE HILLS.... AND I'D SURE LIKE TO COLLECT THAT $10,000 REWARD OFFERED FOR HIM, DEAD OR ALIVE!
THAT COZENBY SURE GIVES ME THE WIM-WAMS.... BUT I AIN'T SCARED MUCH.... 'CAUSE I KNOW THERE NEVER WAS ANY CROOK FOXY ENOUGH TO DODGE THE COPS FOREVER
9-7
DARRELL McCLURE

© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Dancing Masters of America want to suppress the song "I'm Dancing With Tears in My Eyes," saying it is harmful to their profession.

And it would be interesting to learn whether "I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Baby," is the cause or the result of the depression.

* * *

Classified ad—

CACTUS collection for good used car. 200 W. Artesia blvd.

* * *

Well, you might as well be stuck with one thing as another.

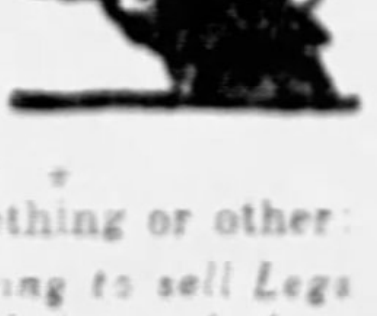
* * *

Then there's the Scotchman who took his girl to the beach and told her shady stories rather than rent an umbrella.

* * *

BALONEY

(Observation in Court)



"Until the picture industry becomes respectable it will not be a financial success." — Judge Taylor of Brooklyn, N. Y.

* * *

Height of something or other:

A salesman trying to sell Legs Diamond some holeproof hosiery.

* * *

Q. and A. Department

Dear Sympathetic Aunt Bella:

Do you think true love comes but once in a lifetime?

—Reader.

Ans.—That's what I always thought, dearie, but the last couple of times I've detected a false note somewhere.

—Aunt (Mourning Dove) Bella.

* * *

AWFUL THOUGHT No. 3982

Hey, you sinners, what on EARTH
Would we do without your noisy mirth?
For sinless people, though they're nice,
Are quiet and negative as mice!

—Betty Fisher.

* * *

And everything might be swell if prohibition prohibited like something is prohibiting prohibition.

ROMANCE OF THE BUSINESS WORLD

This is Flingle J. Irksome, who is in gents' furnishings and who received a gold star on his record card at a recent pep talk for selling more neckties than anyone else in his department. Mr. Irksome's system is to show two ties to a potential buyer, one for $1.50 and one for $6.50. Referring to the $1.50 tie, he says: "I wear a tie like this myself." The customer, quick as a flash, buys the $6.50 tie without any argument.

* * *

Little Willie, full of heck,
Tied a rope 'round Papa's neck.
Mother laughed and said, "Why, honey—
Don't the old man's face look funny!"

* * *

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

(San Francisco Ca.)

"The sooner we rid ourselves of gangsters," said Municipal Judge George J. Steiger, Jr., today, "the sooner we will bring protection to life and property."

* * *

Says Genevieve, the kitchen cynic: "When a person falls in love at first sight it's time to consult an [illegible]"

* * *

A SAD STORY

"You're not so hot," said Harold
To his gal, Amelia Krupp.
Now he sighs in vain for his ball and chain,
'Cause it burned Amelia up!

—Betty Fisher.

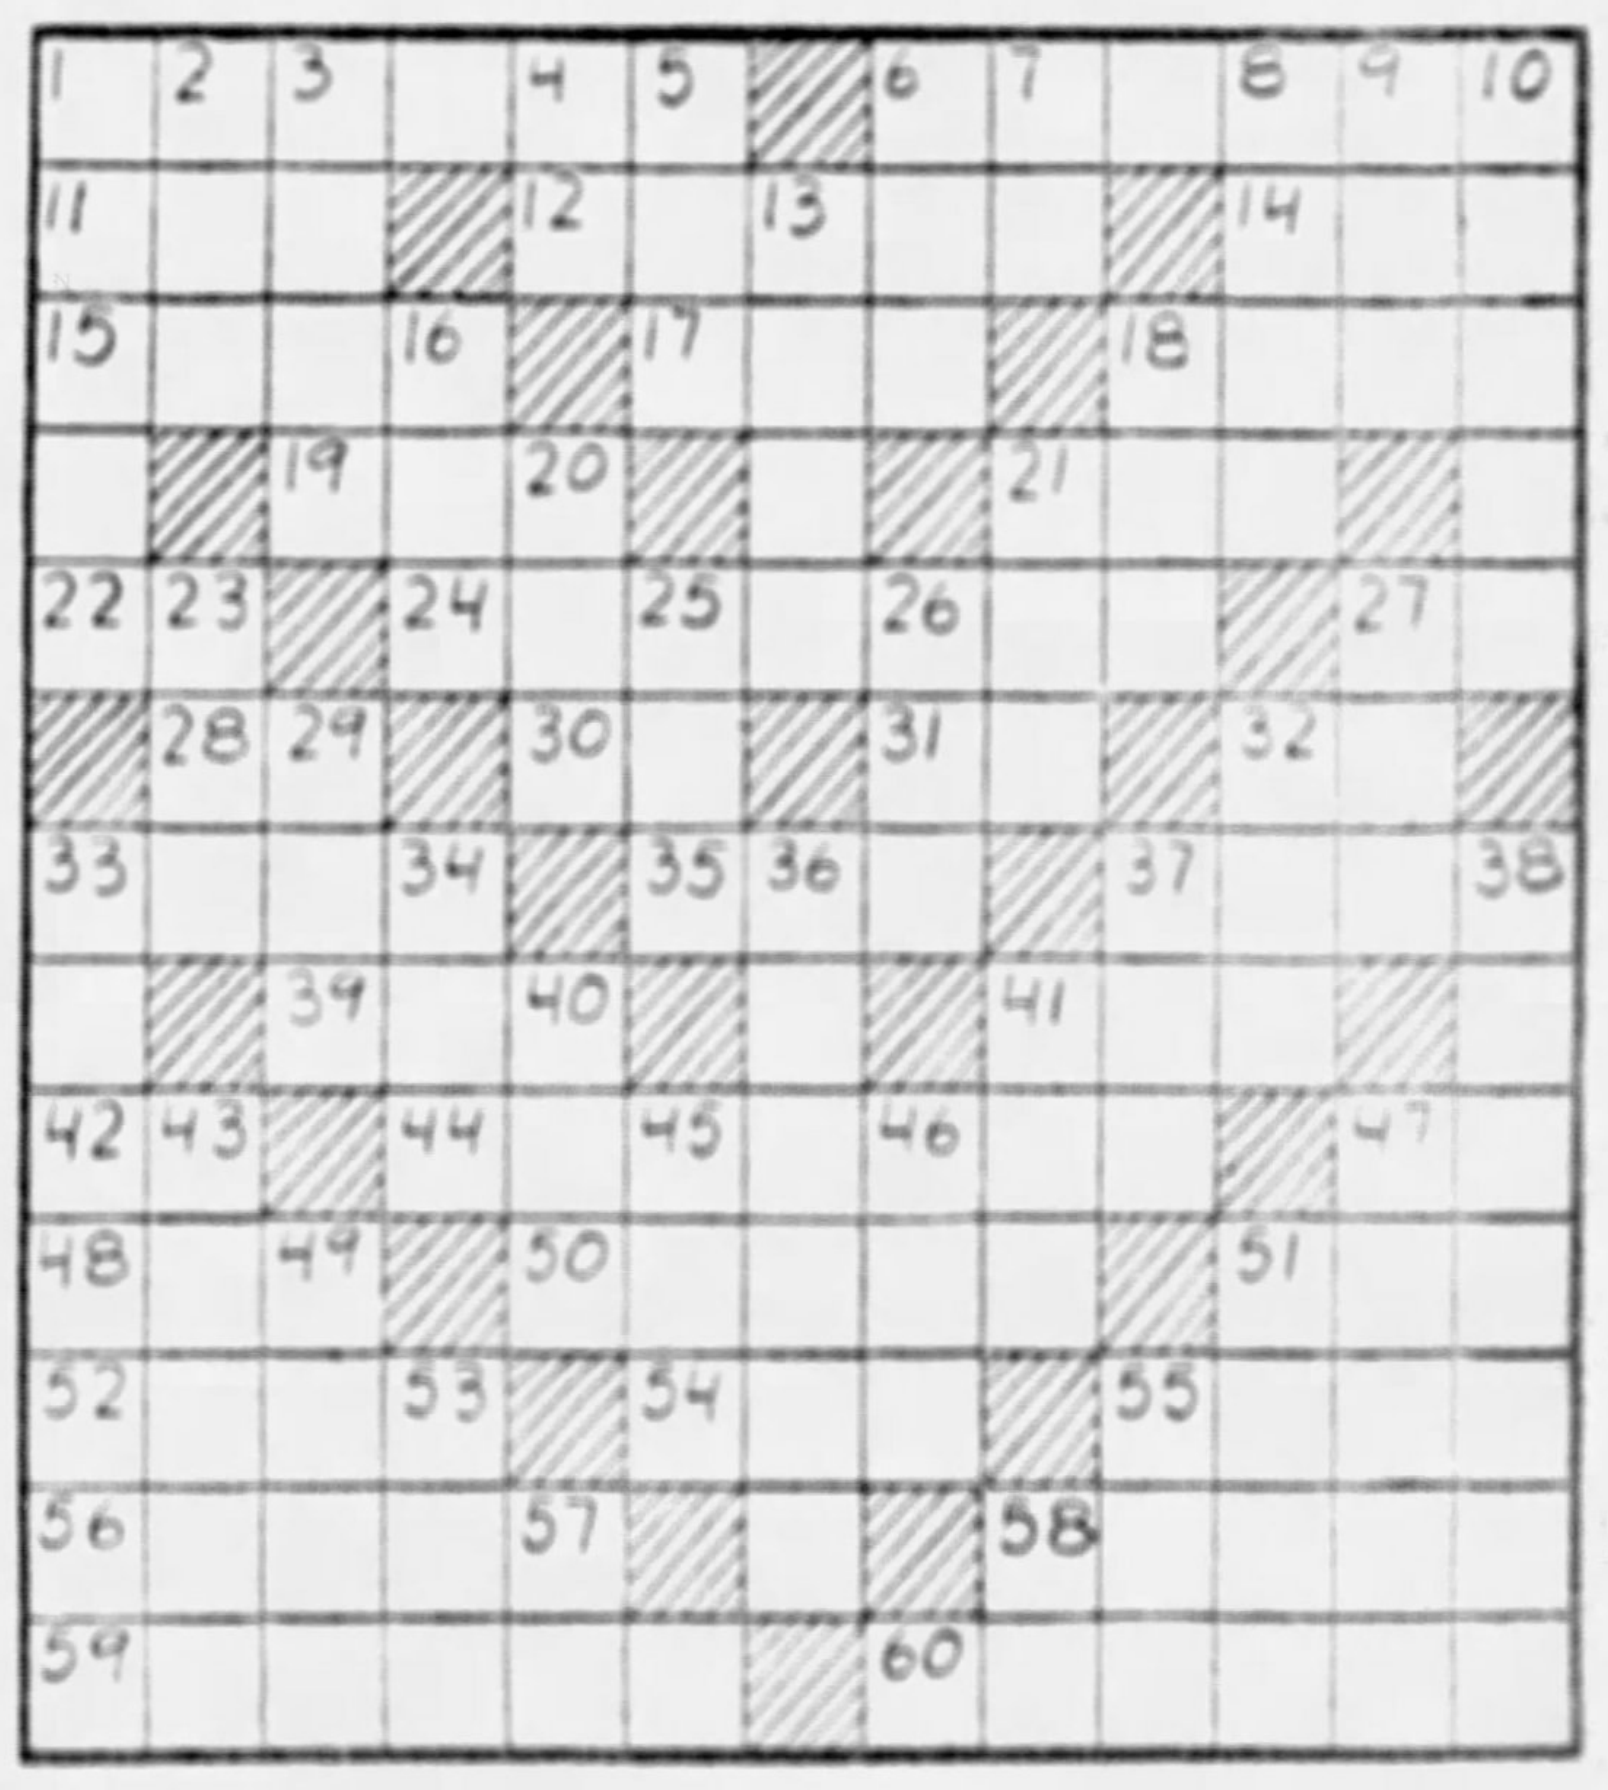
* * *

FAMOUS LAST WORDS
Don't pour it down the sink yet, maybe somebody else will come in.

* * *

We also do cleaning and pressing.

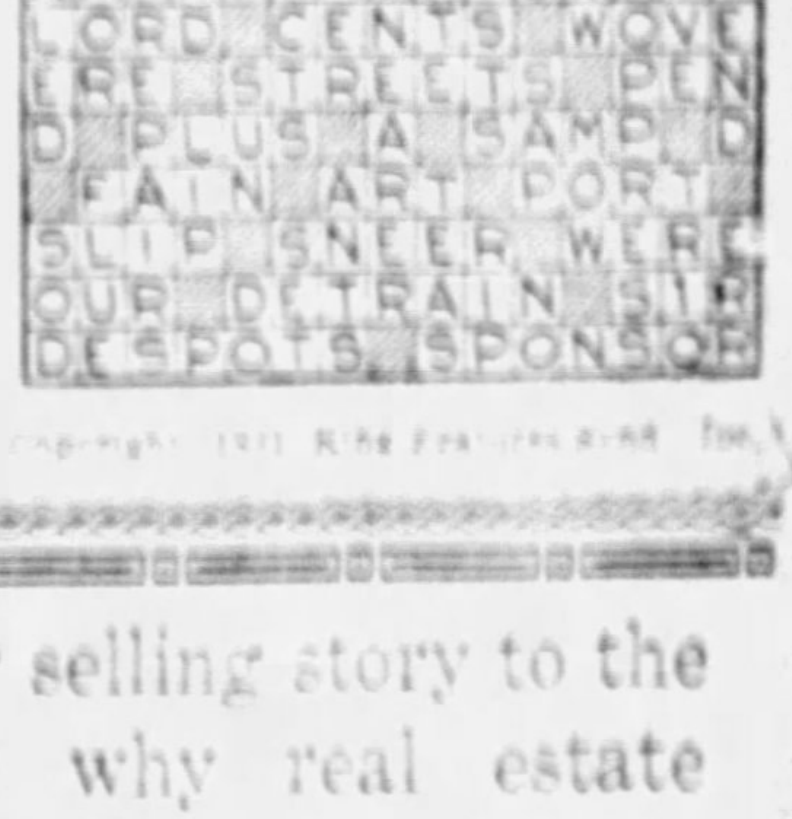
Today's Crossword Puzzle



HORIZONTAL.
1—Clips.
6—Metal.
11—Assistance.
12—Consumed.
14—Period.
15—Dam.
17—Slime.
18—Plant.
19—Drink.
21—Kind of dog.
22—Act.
24—Orator.
27—Steamship (abbr.).
28—Notice.
30—Printing measure.
31—Preposition.
32—Chemical symbol.
33—At the highest place.
35—Parent.
37—Head coverings.
39—Rocky height.
41—Soaked.
42—Note.
44—Scorcher.
47—Alternatively.
48—Disencumber.
50—Extort money.
51—West Indian sorcery.
52—Smell.
54—Purpose.
55—Migrate.
56—King of Abyssinia.
58—Web-footed animals.
59—A quivering.
60—Water diviner.

VERTICAL.
1—Cut.
2—Hurry.
3—Prepare for publication.
4—Note.
5—Shortened man's name.
6—Nickname.
7—Preposition.
8—Preserve.
9—Sin.
10—Thoroughfare.
13—Kind of fish.
16—Thing in law.
18—Pelt.
20—Imitate.
21—Write.
23—A cereal.
25—Extremity.
26—Very young man.
27—Squatted.
29—Small mark made with pen.
32—Make lace.
33—Insult.
34—Kitchen utensil.
36—Away.
37—Possessive.
38—One who refuses to work.
40—Steal.
41—To be united.
43—Assistant.
45—Drink.
46—Stir up.
47—Stout.
49—Venetian chief magistrate.
51—Raw metals.
53—Alcoholic drink.
55—Potter about.
57—Thus.
58—Depart.

Herewith is the solution to Saturday's puzzle.



(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

IT PAYS to tell your selling story to the "well-to-do." That's why real estate advertising in the Sun-Telegraph brings such splendid results.

WHY PITTSBURGH IS GREAT
40% of Pennsylvania's Bituminous Coal Produced Here

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1931

Established [illegible] William Randolph Hearst, Vice [illegible] Associate [illegible] Business Manager [illegible] Entered as second class matter [illegible]

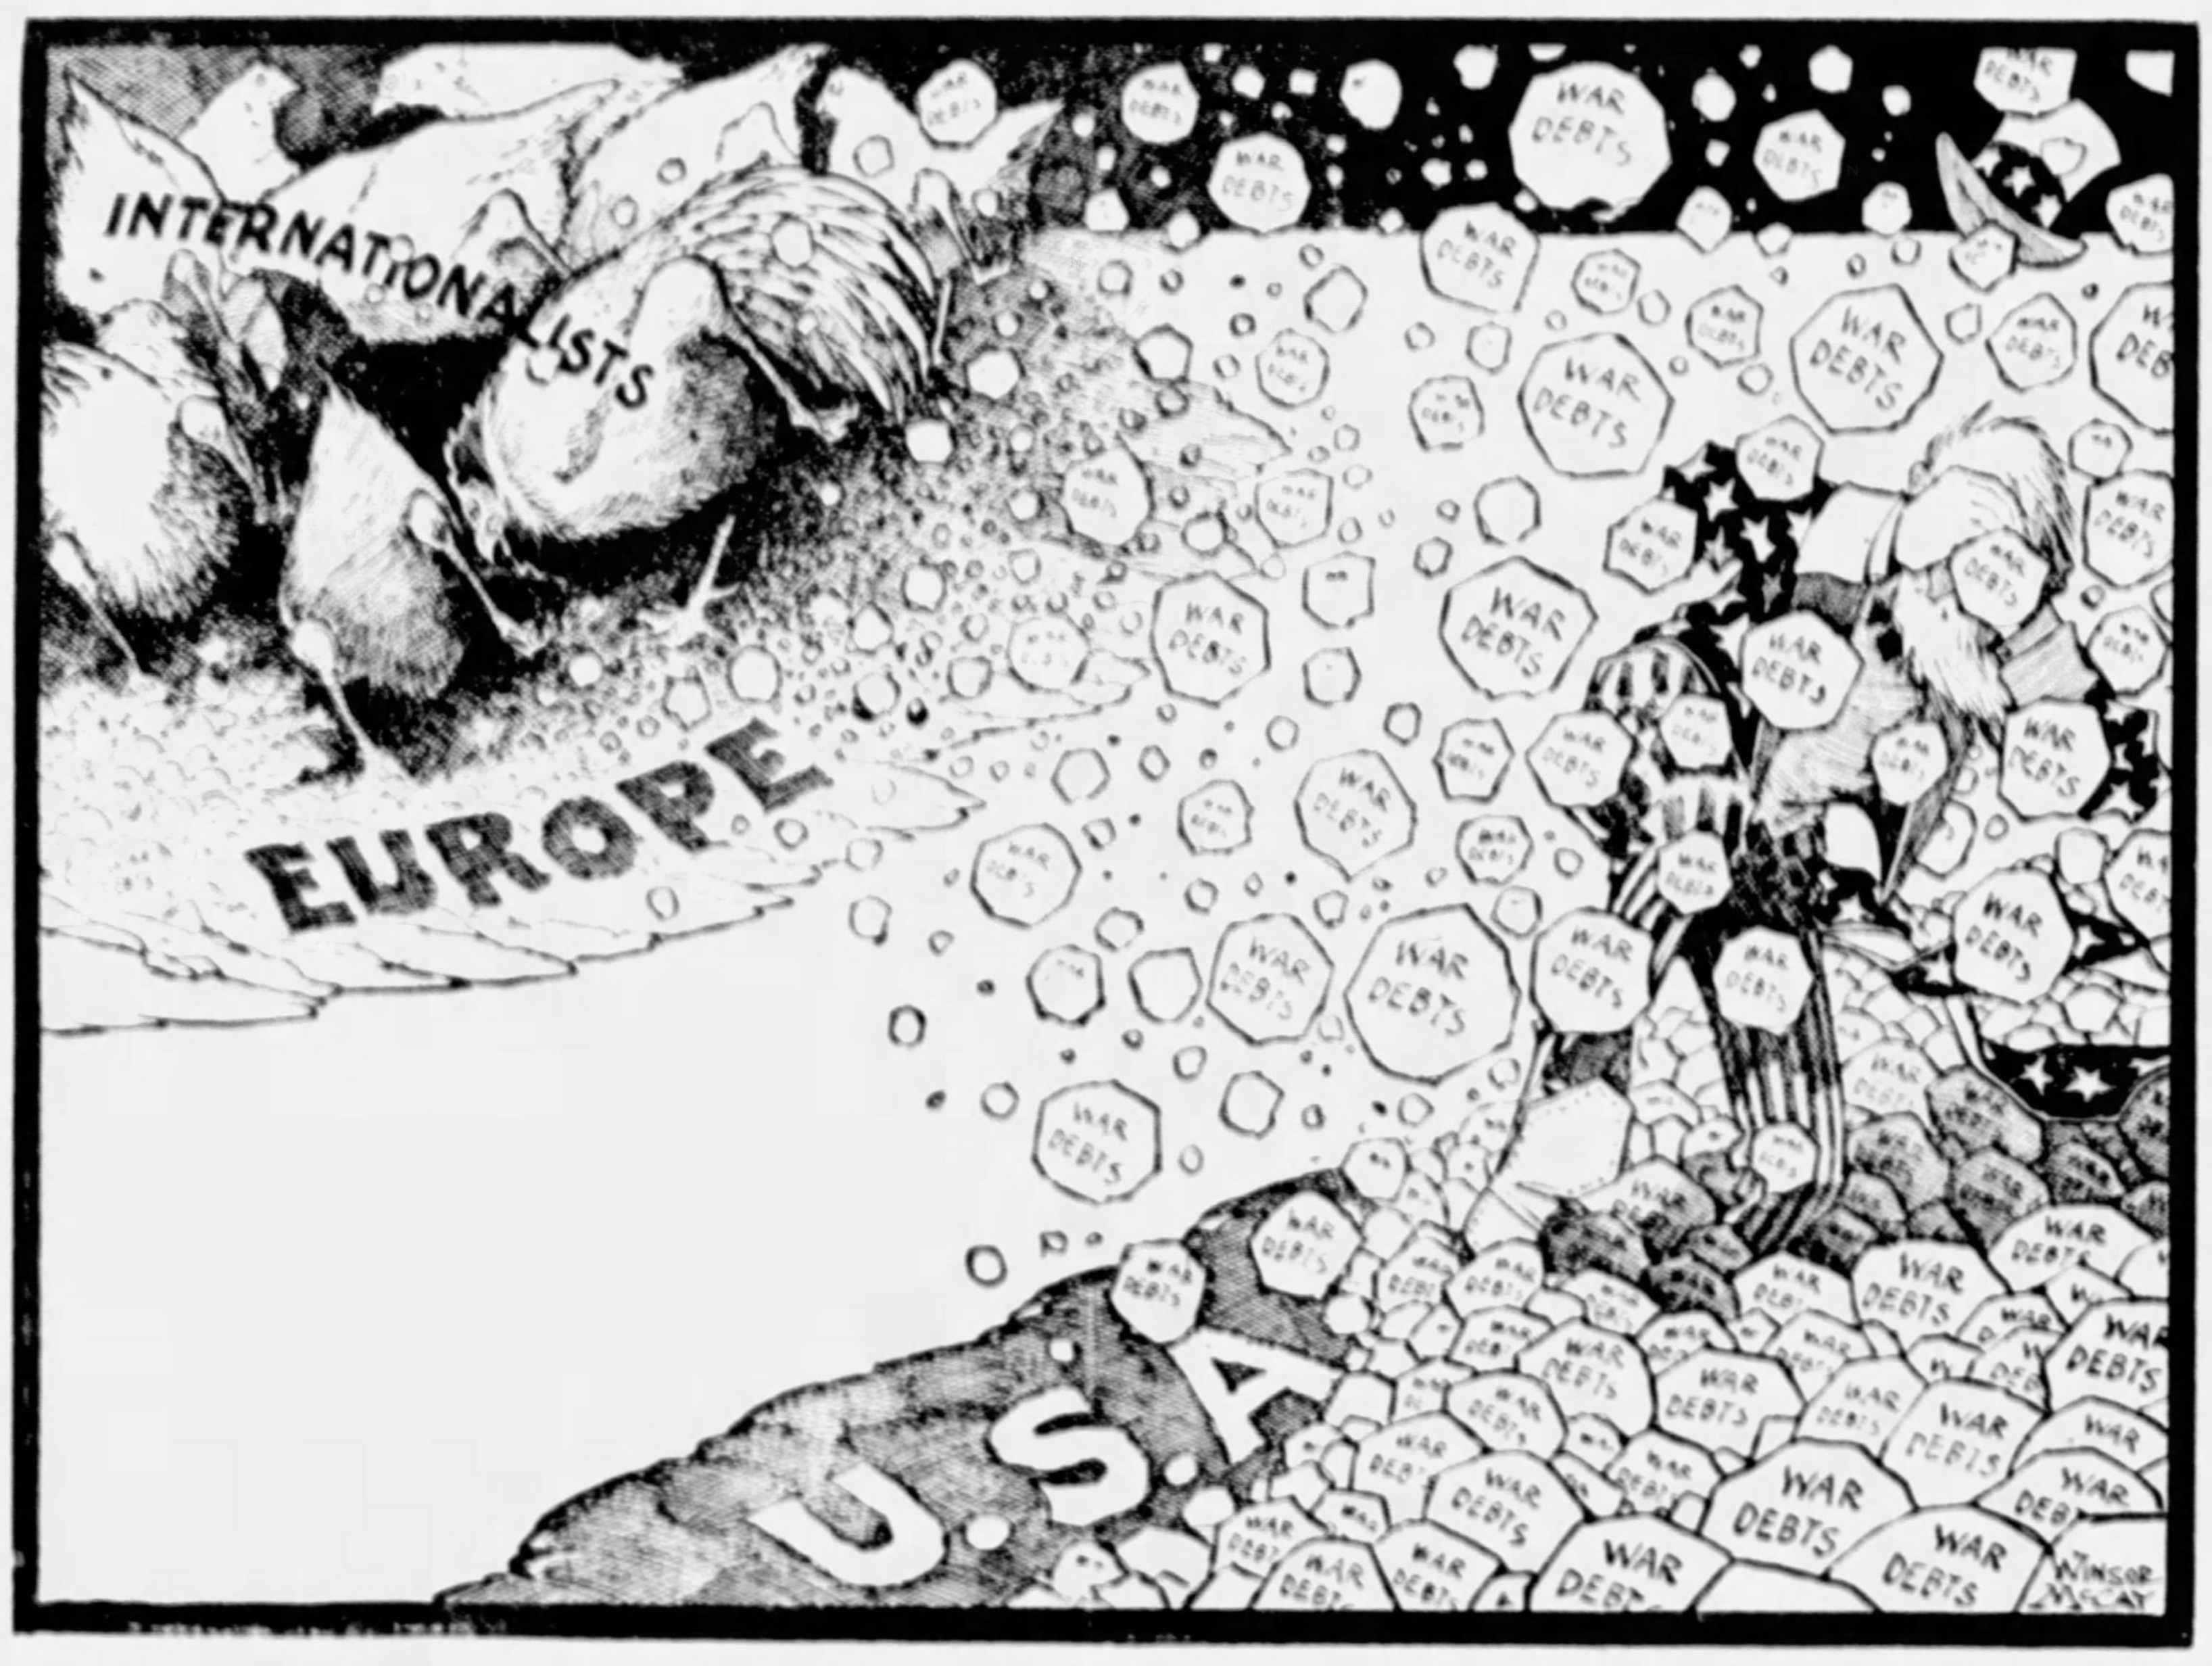
National [illegible] New York [illegible] Guarantee [illegible]

The Associated [illegible] of all news credited [illegible] herein. [illegible]

BE A PITTSBURGH BOOSTER
To Your Friends in Other Cities

Too Much Is More Than Enough

(Copyright, 1931.)



Cancellation of European war debts JUSTLY DUE AND OWING TO THIS NATION, would mean the transfer of these heavy burdens to the backs of the already over-burdened American tax payers.

"Reconsideration" is the word the Internationalists use when they discuss this subject, but what they aim to achieve is cancellation. See editorial "Debt Cancellation."

Register Tomorrow

Polling Places Will Be Open From 8 to 11 in the Morning and From 5 to 11 in the Evening.

According to County Commissioner C. C. McGovern, the total number of assessments on the books of the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes exceeds the population of Pittsburgh as reported in the last census.

He reports further that 841 persons paid on tax orders $74,000 in poll taxes, or taxes for 148,000 persons.

These things mean that the Republican gang in control of the city intend to march their henchmen to the polls in legions and to have votes cast in the names of an army of phantoms besides.

The Registration Commission fears that because the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes would not let it have access to the assessment lists until compelled to by court order, not enough time is left to investigate and throw out the fraudulent assessments.

This makes it all the more important that every honest and uncontrolled citizen shall vote. Numerous as the gang's followers and phantoms are, they are probably outnumbered by the honest and uncontrolled citizens.

The honest and independent citizens rarely show their full strength at the polls, however. There are many slackers among them who neglect their civic duty.

Don't be a civic slacker. Register for the election, and follow it up by voting.

Tomorrow is the second of the three registration days for citizens of Pittsburgh. The polling places will be open from 8 to 11 in the morning and from 5 to 11 in the evening, daylight saving time.

Jewish citizens would do well to remember that the last day of registration, September 12, falls on the sacred holiday of Rosh Hashonah.

Debt Cancellation

International Bankers Advocate "Reconsideration," But That Is Not What They Really Mean.

Again we have the subject of foreign debt cancellation, taking the air, disarmingly disguised as "reconsideration of debts and reparations." This time it is in the shape of a Washington dispatch commenting upon a recent observation by Senator Shipstead, of Minnesota, that "if the National City Bank of New York were not an interested party in European finances it would make a better witness."

The dispatch reflects the attitude of the Administration, which is identical with that of the international bankers, and it assumes that debt cancellation, or "reconsideration" of foreign debts, is inevitable.

It is frankly admitted that it is destined to prove very unpopular and to receive very stubborn opposition in Congress.

This opposition is ascribed to prejudice, and it is implied that it arises in portions of the country distant from New York City.

Opposition to the remission of our claims for war-time advances to Europe does not arise from prejudice; nor is it peculiar to any section of the country, as distinguished from the country at large. It is prevalent everywhere except possibly in the offices of a few international bankers with heavy frozen commitments in Germany.

The truth is that some international bankers, unable to resist the lure of liberal commissions and high interest returns, have loaned the funds of their depositors and clients to German states, cities and corporations upon a scale which they now regret.

They well knew at the time such loans were made that German reparations were a first lien on German industry and taxes.

The advances made by the bankers were obviously subordinate to reparations and inter-government debts arising out of reparations.

Senator Shipstead perceives that the bankers now propose that the amount of the first lien be reduced. In other words, that our Government shall "reconsider" its position and relinquish its advantage as a prior lienor in order that the second lien shall be collectable in full.

This is what the advocates of debt cancellation are aiming to achieve.

"Reconsideration" is the word they use, but the thing they mean is the CANCELLATION OF THE DEBTS OWING TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Senator Shipstead's voice is now joined to that of Senator Johnson in CLEAR AND TIMELY WARNING that the American people are not to be dealt with in that way.

Belief in Witchcraft

A Weird Tale From Penn's Woods Shows That Some of Our People Are Still Living in the Dark Ages.

The State Department of Forests and Waters reports that one of the district foresters was recently visited by a citizen who related a story that might have come out of Grimm's Fairy Tales.

One of his sons, he said, sometimes loses his mind, especially around the time of the new moon. One night, some time after midnight, as he was being attended for one of these spells, the family happened to look out of the window toward an apple tree and saw a pure white cat slowly walk up to the tree, look up at the trunk, and then turn and walk away. The next day a peculiar white excrescence was found on the tree at the spot where the cat looked.

The same phenomenon occurred a number of times, and each time the white excrescence appeared on the tree. The citizen had accordingly brought a specimen in to ask the Forest Department if it was a product of witchcraft. The department identified it as a fungus of the Myxomycetes group.

It will no doubt strike most persons as quaint and amusing that belief in witchcraft still persists in Pennsylvania.

But there is a serious and pathetic side to it, too.

Tri-State Coal Parley

The Interest Displayed by Civic Bodies in the Plight of the Coal Industry Is a Good Sign.

Under the auspices of the Allied Boards of Trade, and with Dr. Thomas S. Baker, president of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, as the principal speaker, a dinner is to be held at the Fort Pitt Hotel September 21 to discuss the unhappy plight of the coal industry and plans for relieving it.

City officials and civic leaders from coal mining sections of Ohio and West Virginia as well as Pennsylvania are to participate in the conference.

The interest that civic bodies are displaying in the subject is encouraging.

Neither operators nor miners have been able to do anything to lift this vital basic industry out of the slough of despond.

Perhaps the advice of laymen may be the tonic needed.

Marry-Go-Round

By HELEN ROWLAND

Natural Consequences

A man discovers that while a woman may like to wear a halo it does not take the place of a few good winter hats.

* * *

A woman discovers that, while a man may be filled with sentiment and devotion he always has plenty of room left for steak and potatoes and mushrooms.

* * *

A man stops saying "The queen can do no wrong" and begins saying "Well, why can't you do anything right!"

* * *

A woman stops saying, "Let's stay in and have a cozy little home dinner!" and begins saying "Aren't you ever going to take me out to a decent restaurant?"

* * *

A man ceases to notice a woman's clothes unless there is something wrong with them.

* * *

A woman ceases trying to elevate a man's soul and begins picking up his clothes and cleaning his safety razor.

* * *

A woman stops saying "DON'T go home darling" and begins saying "This is a pretty time of night to be coming home!"

* * *

A man stops saying, "Where would you like to go this evening?" and begins saying, "Where have I gotta go tonight?"

* * *

A woman stops saying "I could dance with you forever!" and begins saying "Can't you keep your feet off my satin slippers?"

* * *

A man stops telling a girl that her beauty intoxicates him, and begins sighing that the price of her clothes and beauty creams is driving him to drink.

* * *

A woman's yearning to run her fingers through a man's nice curly hair sometimes turns to a yearning to pull it.

* * *

A man stops saying, "What is that fascinating fragrance about you?" and begins saying "Why do you soak yourself in that STUFF?"

* * *

A woman stops saying "I understand you, darling!" and begins saying, "I see through you, old dear!"

* * *

A woman ceases to be a fascinating mystery and becomes an accepted fact.

* * *

A man ceases to be a distracting uncertainty, and becomes a regular fixture in the daily routine.

* * *

A man ceases to regard a kiss as a thrilling privilege, and begins to look upon it as a morning duty.

* * *

A woman ceases to regard a white fib as an occasional luxury, and begins to look upon it as a daily necessity — a formula for preserving the peace at any price.

* * *

The world stops saying, "They seem just cut out for each other!" and begins saying, "What did they ever see in each other?"

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

—By O. O. McIntyre—

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Diary of a modern Pepys: Waked and in a buzz-fuzz over the new noiseless typewriter, so silent that my wife, not hearing the keys, kept peeking in until I yelled: "I'm picking my cotton, Mrs. Legree." Came Verne Porter in a lather of enthusiasm about his new magazine post.

To a Wall street moneychanger's and afterward browsing about Fulton street and passed the site of the old Evening Mail, the most depressing newspaper office in which I ever worked, despite such spirited serfs as Grant Rice, F. P. A., Rube Goldberg and Roland Kirby.

To dinner with my wife at E. Coblenz's and Helen Wills Moody, the tennis lady, there and as engagingly modest a person as I ever come upon to know. So driving her to the Ritz Tower and home reading my autographed copy of Emmett Dalton's book, "When the Daltons Rode."

* * *

My father knew Emmett Dalton. Also Jesse James and Cole Younger. I was brought up on breathless tales by Aunt Mary, my father's hotel cook, of the exploits of the Dalton gang—especially the famous Coffeyville (Kan.) bank holdup. Emmett is the last of the frontier marauders. The reign of the Daltons followed the Quantrell desperadoes, who held our section of Missouri in abject terror. An amazing thing about outlaws of those wild, wooly days were their youth—most of them were under 20. Billy the Kid had 15 notches on his gun at 17.

* * *

Grandpa Young used to tell with a chuckle of an amusing description by Jesse James. The outlaw was relating a tedious wait by himself and band for a slow train they were to hold up on the outskirts of a Kansas whistle stop. "The dang thing," said James, "seemed to stop at every back door and at double houses twice."

* * *

In reading of the reckless natural bravado of Western outlaws one cannot help but wonder what they would think of the pasty faced, pinch-waisted gangsters of today, who prime themselves with cocaine, to slaughter innocent children. Western bad men never took a drink until they finished their job.

* * *

Personal nomination for the neatest named book dealing with Broadway life and characters—Damon Runyon's "Guys and Dolls."

* * *

Floyd Gibbons refused to permit a Broadway revue to use a mask of himself recently in the opening number along with other celebrities. The idea was to show Gibbons broadcasting in his usual volcanic style and as a climax exploding with a bang. The revue producer thought it crack publicity. But Gibbons thought otherwise.

* * *

Coney Island was touched, too, by the bedevilment of the business collapse. It did not seem to get going as in opulent years. Many 10-cent attractions were scaled down to a nickel. The beaches were crowded, but concessions were scantily patronized.

* * *

One of the Coney ballyhoos concerned a "Torture Prison" in charge, so a streaming banner read, of "Rodney St. Clair alias Duke, the Gentleman Burglar." I was interested in seeing "Duke" and squandered a nickel. In a striped prison suit he explained the various horrors of penal life. "I never tot when I left Yale," he told his auditors, "I'd become a mug like this. Many's the time I've et in swell homes on Riverside Drive."

* * *

The road houses on Long Island and in Westchester kept fairly well out of the well known "red" this summer by abolishing cover charges and tilting their food prices. A slick bit of kidding.

* * *

And a passing salute to a restaurateur whose card today reads: "Of course, you will want to celebrate the passing of this terrible year. Who wouldn't? We believe it is going to be a big night and your reservation should be made at once."

* * *

This optimism has burgeoned a new hope. Most people with whom I have talked lately do not expect the world to last until January 1.

(Copyright, 1931, McNaught Synd., Inc.)

LISTEN, WORLD

—By Elsie Robinson—

You don't want to be bad.
You don't plan to be bad.
You just get that way.

Then you're miserably surprised. How did it happen? Why did you do such a malicious or cowardly thing? You didn't mean to do it. If people would only realize that . . . and forgive you . . . and not hold it against you.

But they DO hold it against you . . . they believe that you meant to do that horrible thing . . . that you deliberately planned it all out. And, often, you can't convince them otherwise.

Why do they act that way? You try to think it out. You still know that you didn't really want to do that vicious thing but you're forced to admit it wasn't just an accident. Nor did it spring from some crazy impulse over which you had no control—nor did the devil shove you into it.

There was a REASON for that act. You didn't see the reason at first but if you had used your head you could have seen it coming.

THAT BAD ACT HAPPENED BECAUSE YOU CHOSE TO HAVE IT HAPPEN.

You did not sit down and say deliberately—"I will do this bad thing." But you made a thousand, seemingly unimportant choices and decisions WHICH LED TO THAT BAD THING . . . tiny acts of dishonesty and cowardice, secret surrenders to laziness, spite and greed. You didn't want to be bad. You didn't plan to be bad. You just got that way . . . as the inevitable consequence of those "unimportant" decisions and choices.

Now that you've thought it over, you see it all so plainly and you feel terribly sorry for yourself. You're a decent person at heart. It hurts you as much to have done that mean thing as it can possibly hurt anyone else. How you wish you hadn't done it! You are positive that you will never, never do it again if people will only forget and forgive and give you another chance.

Yes—you can see all this so plainly, when you're in bad—

THEN WHY CAN'T YOU SEE IT AS PLAINLY WHEN THE OTHER FELLOW IS IN BAD?

You are so sure that you didn't want to be mean—so certain that you are a decent person inside—

Then why are you so positive that the other fellow wanted to be mean?

May he not also be a decent person inside?

Might he not also have been trapped by his small, "unimportant" acts of silliness and spitefulness as you were trapped by yours?

Did you ever think of it that way?

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

—By S. H. Connolly—

Fill each blank:

1. The ——— River flows almost entirely across the Isthmus of Panama.
2. The Bill of Rights in the Constitution is the ———.
3. ——— is the attempt to live a perfect Christian life by giving up the pleasures of the world.
4. A witch, the mother of Caliban in Shakespeare's "Tempest," is ———.
5. A ——— is a pendulum-like instrument for marking time in music.
6. Uncoined gold or silver in bar form and ready to be coined is ———.
7. A ——— is an eruptive hot spring which ejects boiling water and steam.
8. The people of Morocco are known as ———.
9. Northerners who sympathized with the South during the Civil War were called ———.
10. A person practicing great self-control and restraint is a ———.

Match correctly:

11. His writings led to the Declaration of Independence.	—Horace Mann.
12. His influence led to reorganization of educational systems.	—Thomas Paine.
13. Foremost leader of Abolitionists.	—Harriet Beecher Stowe
14. Aroused people to evils of slavery by her book.	—Susan B. Anthony.
15. Pioneer for greater rights for women.	—William Lloyd Garrison.

Answers to today's test:

1. Chagres. 2. First 10 amendments. 3. Monasticism. 4. Sycorax. 5. Metronome. 6. Bullion. 7. Geyser. 8. Moors. 9. "Butternuts." 10. Stoic. 11. Thomas Paine ("Common Sense"). 12. Horace Mann. 13. William Lloyd Garrison. 14. Harriet Beecher Stowe ("Uncle Tom's Cabin"). 15. Susan B. Anthony.

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Text For Today All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.—Isaiah, Liii 6.

(The text for today is suggested by the Rev. J. W. Hawley, pastor, First Methodist Protestant Church, East End.)

The Supremacy of Custom

—By Brand Whitlock—

(From the "Little Green Shutter," by Brand Whitlock, published by D. Appleton & Co.)

(Copyright, 1931, by Brand Whitlock.)

A NOTABLE example of the authority and supremacy of custom was afforded in England nearly a century ago. There the law provided that a convicted murderer should be hanged and then drawn and quartered.

But with the growth of culture and refinement and the more humane sentiment they produce, the senseless barbarity of this penalty, or at least of the latter part of it, became apparent, and the practice fell into disuse. The provision remained unchanged on the statute books, but murderers, though they were still hanged, were no longer drawn and quartered.

PUBLIC OPINION HAD COMPLETELY ABOLISHED THE PRACTICE YEARS BEFORE THE STATUTE WAS CHANGED TO CONFORM TO THE NEW CUSTOM.

WE have recently seen this same principle at work in Michigan.

The Legislature of that state had enacted a statute punishing with imprisonment for life anyone convicted of an offense four times. The statute was intended to apply to habitual criminals, and under it a woman who had already been thrice convicted of violating the prohibition statutes, was convicted of a fourth offense and sent to prison for life. She had sold a pint of whisky to buy food for her children.

But the people of Michigan were too enlightened and humane to imprison a woman for life merely because she had sold a pint of whisky. That sort of severity was not customary in Michigan.

No jury could have been found to convict offenders if such a dreadful penalty were to be attached to their verdict.

And so the Legislature found that they had been mistaken and amended the act by adding a provision that it should no longer apply to violation of the prohibition statutes.

FOR years and years the large cities had seen this principle at work. In the rural or provincial antipathy to the cities, and the distrust or dislike of the tastes, habits, and dress that are supposed to prevail in cities or among the well-to-do, whose habits are looked upon either as vain or vicious, the state legislatures enacted sumptuary laws, but, though the effort was made over and over again, and innumerable crusades were undertaken, these blue laws were never forced, and any municipal administration that seriously tried to enforce them was promptly ousted by the people at the next election.

There are striking examples of the principle at work on a national scale, as in the case of the fugitive slave law, which the old abolitionists FLOUTED, and the sedition act, which Jefferson, when President, REFUSED TO EXECUTE, because he "considered that law to be a nullity, as absolute and pallable as if Congress had ordered us to fall down and worship a golden image."

But the most striking example occurred in recent times, right under our very noses, and it seems to have taught us nothing, so difficult is it to learn from experience, even our own.

THAT example is to be found in the fate of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution. They were adopted during the period of reconstruction immediately following the Civil War, when the abolitionists in their fanatical zeal were determined to force the southerners to bow to their prejudices and to accept the Negro as a man and brother.

The amendments directed and empowered Congress to enact legislation that would place the Negro on a basis of absolute equality with the whites.

They were to be discriminated against in no way whatever.

In spite of all that Congress could do, however, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments COULD NOT BE MADE EFFECTIVE; Negroes were not allowed to vote in the South except at the point of the bayonets of federal troops.

President Hayes was the candidate of the party responsible for the whole deplorable policy of reconstruction, and for the adoption of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, and his oath of office bound him to enforce those amendments. But he had not been in the White House very long before he realized that it was impossible to enforce these constitutional provisions.

SOME of the extremists, of course, protested and made a great clamour, and talked about reverence of the Constitution and the law of nullification and all that, and proposed force bills, and delivered fiery speeches to their constituents in the Middle West, where there were very few Negroes and hence had no objection to their voting because, in the first place, they voted right, and in the second place, they were so few in number that their votes could not affect the result of the election.

But the force bills were NEVER ENFORCED, and the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, so far as securing equal rights for the Negroes is concerned, became wholly ineffective.

Even the chief section of the Fourteenth Amendment, that which provided that any Southern state that might restrict the right of suffrage, should have its representation in Congress proportionally diminished, is an ABSOLUTE DEAD LETTER; and no effort is made to carry it into effect though several of the Southern states, by various legal ruses, have established qualifications that restrict the right of the Negro to vote.

THAT is, the reconstructionist found out that their two constitutional amendments and all the statutes designed to give them force and effect were not law, and they were not law BECAUSE THE PEOPLE WOULD NOT BACK THEM UP.

For that is what a law is in a democracy, a statute that the people will back up; indeed, in the long run, that is all a law is anywhere.

The laws of a nation or of a community are the recorded customs of the people of that nation or that community, and all the historic codes—the Mosaic code, the laws of Solon and Lycurgus, the codes of Justinian and Napoleon, the civil law, the English common law, and the legendary taboos [illegible] tribes—are but customs that have existed so long [illegible] have crystallized into law.

It is not the law that makes the custom, but the custom that makes the law, and when statutes run counter to custom they are impotent, and have no more life or vigour or reality than Novial, Volapuk or Esperanto or any other of the new international languages the enthusiasts have invented and tried to put in practice.

(To be Continued.)

ISN'T IT SO?

When the machine age finally does arrive all the workingman will have to do is oil the machine.

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, and it is a tough old world at that.

Elbow grease is the greatest aid to industry the world has ever known.

Any woman who can get three or four honeymoons out of life is living romantically.

The lazier a man is, the harder it is to discourage him.

We get an education in order to teach it to others to teach others.

A great many citizens would rather swat the golf ball than the fly.

A girl seldom kicks when an old man lays a fortune at her feet.

There are times when business is rotten because it's a rotten business.

Woman's chief aim seems to be at a target called man.